Girls Division III State Preview

By Jose Gomez
AIA365

Fountain Hills appears ready to live up to the high expectations.

The girls soccer team proved this season that it deserved the No. 1 seed in the Division III state tournament for the first time after consistently beating opponents on both ends of the field in 2013-14. That balanced approach tends to pay off in the playoffs, but winning this year's D-III title won't be an easy chore.

A handful of quality teams can ruin Fountain Hills' plans, including last year's state runner-up, Mingus, a potential opponent for Fountain Hills if both teams reach the state semifinals. The D-III state tournament begins Tuesday without the defending state champ, Campo Verde, which moved up to Division II.

"I look forward to watching this team (Fountain Hills) really develop as the postseason begins," Fountain Hills coach Alison Mabery said. "They have a lot of talent, speed, team chemistry, and work ethic."

Fountain Hills is lady by its defenders, Alex Bergner, Jessica Stricker, Courtney Wise, Madi Blaes, and goal-keeper Karhi Smith.

Take away its 9-8 loss to D-II's Sunnyslope, and Fountain Hills just gave up eight goals this season. Fountain Hills' work rate up front is just as impressive, as 15 of the team's 21 players have scored a goal and 17 have tallied an assist.

Another team that put up impressive offensive numbers this season was No. 2 seed Yuma Catholic. The 15-0 team is led by a couple of talented underclassmen, sophomore Karla Navarro and freshman Karen Melendrez.

Combined, the attackers have recorded 61 goals and 36 assists so far. With three seniors on the back line, you can find some of Yuma Catholic's senior leaders on defense.

Mingus is 11-8-1 overall, but its only losses came to D-III schools (2-0 to Fountain Hills and 1-0 to No. 8 seed Northwest Christian). Northwest Christian's freshman goalkeeper, Emma Angell, had a 1.152 goal against average.

Another formidable team that Fountain Hills defeated this year is No. 3 seed Seton Catholic (13-2-1), which lost to 2-1 to Fountain Hills and has given up only seven goals this season despite dressing only four seniors.

One of the intriguing first round matches features Scottsdale Prep, which reached the state quarterfinals last year, and relatively new program Walden Grove. Scottsdale Prep, the No. 4 seed, has only one senior, but every player on the team except for one has scored, including Miya Speno (15 goals) and Josee and Kathryn Jacobellis (28 combine goals).

Speaking of scoring, Walden Grove, the No. 13 seed, has relied heavily on its freshman to find the back of the net. The team's freshmen have accounted for 49 of Walden Grove's goals.

Freshman Rachel Carrell has 17 goals for a Walden Grove team that finished 2-10-1 last year. Walden Grove is 13-5-2 despite starting lineup that is comprised of freshmen and sophomores.

Phoenix Country Day and Saguaro finished in a tie for the No. 9 seed in the D-III state tournament. To break the tie, the Arizona Interscholastic Association held a coin flip before the state tournament was announced.

Saguaro won the coin flip and will travel to No. 8 seed Northwest Christian in the first round. Phoenix Country Day will travel to No. 7 Rio Rico (11-7), which had won only seven matches in the previous five years.

Boys Division III State Preview

By Jose Gomez
AIA365

Cortez and Coronado have dominated the boys soccer headlines in recent years in Division III, with Cortez getting the best of Coronado, especially in the last two state title games.

But those trends might end this season. Coronado defeated Cortez in their only regular season meeting this year when the previous top-ranked teams met.

"Previous" because there's a team in Tucson that seems poised to snap Cortez's two-year state championship run. This year's D-III title race begins Tuesday with the high seeds hosting first round games.

Palo Verde is battle tested after competing against Tucson's best during the regular season. First-year coach Mario Gastellum's squad earned the No. 2 seed last year but exited the 2012-13 state tournament in the quarter-finals.

This year, the team returned nine starters, including the Velasquez cousins -- all six of them. With the Velasquezes and having seven players who have played on the same teams since middle school on board, chemistry isn't an issue for No. 1 seed Palo Verde.

Palo Verde's opponents also will have their hands full defending Palo Verde's three forwards, Gerson Ndikumana, Ather Dawod and Bwaleso Igulu, who took turns scoring during the regular season.

Coronado, the state runner-up the previous two seasons, earned the No. 2 seed this year thanks in part to its 3-1 victory over Cortez. It was the first and only time this season that Cortez gave up more than one goal in a game this year.

Coronado (11-3-1) is coached by a former Arizona small school player of the year, Nick Barker, who is now a pastor and off-campus soccer coach. Barker's team returned 11 players this year, but only about four players played in last year's title game.

Thinking of what happened in the last two titles games isn't on the minds of his players, Barker said. It's just a team focusing on its next opponent, which will be No. 15 seed Rio Rico, who starts a goalkeeper, Christian Lopez, that had a 1.788 goal against average.

Coronado juniors Juan Sisneros and Omar Parra will attempt to figure out Lopez and his defense when they face Rio Rico in Tuesday's first round.

The D-III state title race also will feature one of the state's scoring leaders, Yuma Catholic's Jorge Ruiz, a sophomore who has scored 31 goals. Yuma Catholic, the No. 3 seed, will face No. 14 Thatcher, which reached the playoffs for the second time in the program's history this season.

One team that is accustomed to reaching the postseason is Northwest Christian, which got off to a slow start but still got in. No. 13 Northwest Christian will face No. 4 Safford in one of the more interesting first round matches.

Safford (16-0) is the only undefeated team in the tournament and is actually coached by Safford's mayor, Chris Gibbs. This is the strongest team Gibbs has coached at Safford, he said.

CFHS Looking for 5th Straight Title

By Don Ketchum
AIA365

Struggling in the early season can happen even to the best of teams.

Four-time defending girls soccer champion Tucson Catalina Foothills experienced that in 2013-14.

"We struggled to find our form," said coach Charlie Kendrick.

Once the team found what it was looking for, it was lights out.

The Falcons went on to win 19 of its 22 regular-season games. Their only loss was to Scottsdale Notre Dame Prep in the Horizon Tournament in December.

Now, Catalina Foothills is the top seed in the Division II state tournament that begins on Feb. 5, with Buckeye Verrado No. 2 and Notre Dame No. 3.

"We started to attack, find each other with the ball, jelled overall," Kendrick said.

Catalina Foothills, which opens the tournament against No. 16 Peoria Sunrise Mountain.

First-round winners will advance to the quarterfinals on Feb. 8, with semifinals at Phoenix Paradise Valley on Feb. 13 and finals at Gilbert Campo Verde on Feb. 15.

Kendrick says this year's team could be the best he's had in recent years, especially in terms of team speed.

"We're not quite as strong defensively, but speed can help make up for it," he said.

While he has confidence in his team's chances to earn another title trophy, he is quick to acknowledge that it won't be easy, particularly with teams like Notre Dame in the field.

"So many teams are capable," he said. "The tournament is loaded."

He said a large part of his program's success "is gaining the confidence that you are capable of beating anybody and trying to get better every step of the way on the field."

Kendrick has three prominent goal-scorers – Amanda Settles (27 goals), Aleah Strength (23) and Emily Parker (16).

Versatility is a key ingredient for Parker, a junior who is all over the field.

"She has been very consistent. She draws so much attention. She is dangerous," Kendrick said.

Verrado and No. 13 seed Campo Verde have moved up from Division III. Verrado fell to Campo Verde in last year's semifinals before Campo Verde went on to win it all.

Ten of Verrado's victories have come by shutout. Junior Shea Smith has been nearly flawless. The Vipers will meet No. 15 Prescott in the opening round.

Notre Dame defeated and tied Division I contender Anthem Boulder Creek in the Horizon Tournament, and defeated Catalina Foothills.

That helped first-year coach Timothy White's team gain confidence, and the Saints have maintained consistency all along the way. Notre Dame, which meets Glendale Independence in the first round, is led by a pair of 12-goal scorers, freshman Taylor Culver and senior Rachel Jones.

No. 4 Tucson Ironwood Ridge will test Campo Verde in the opener. Ironwood Ridge has four losses – two to Catalina Foothills, one to a California team and one to Division I Gilbert Highland.

No. 5 Tucson Sahuaro will meet No. 12 Phoenix Arcadia, and always tough Flagstaff comes in at No. 6 and will take on No. 11 Phoenix Sunnyslope at Cottonwood Mingus. No. 9 Gilbert Higley will travel to face No. 8 Cave Creek Cactus Shadows. That game will be at Boulder Creek in Anthem. No. 10 Yuma Kofa faces No. 7 Tucson Sabino at Catalina Foothills.

Catalina Foothills, San Luis Pace Div. II

By Don Ketchum
AIA365

Will 2014 be another year like 2011, when Tucson Catalina Foothills swept the boys and girls soccer championships?

The No. 1-seeded CF boys are going to try to hold up their end of the bargain in Division II.

Coach Julie Walters and her team will be aiming for their fourth crown since 2006.

The Falcons' season appeared to be derailed almost before it began. They dropped their first three games, to Vail Cienega, Tucson Flowing Wells and Tucson before going on a 15-0-1 run (scoreless tie with Marana Mountain View).

Catalina Foothills opens the tournament at home on Feb. 4 against No. 16 Tempe McClintock. First-round winners advance to the quarterfinals on Feb. 8. Semifinals are Feb. 12 at Phoenix Paradise Valley, finals on Feb. 15 at Gilbert Campo Verde.

The Falcons' top goal-scorers are Matthew Romangolo (12) and Rodrigo Cordiero (nine).

San Luis, from the Yuma area, comes in as the second seed. The Sidewinders spent most of the season in the No. 4 spot, but climbed to No. 2 shortly before the pairings were announced on Jan. 31.

"I don't know if it gave us an easier run, but looking at the schedule now, I'd rather have the two seed than the four," Sidewinders coach Ian McDougall told the Yuma Daily Sun. "Looking ahead, not that you really have a luxury to do that, but if you're going to play Catalina Foothills, you're going to want to play them in the finals and not the semifinals, and to be honest, I think teams around the state might be looking at us the way they look at Catalina Foothills."

San Luis' first-round opponent, No. 15 Flagstaff Coconino, has a big geographical challenge. The Panthers have a 5-to-6-hour drive each way. Jorge Espino and Bryce Block lead Coconino with six goals each.

No. 3 Phoenix Thunderbird has a new coach, Ivan Dizdal, and several new players, but achieved its high seeding through hard work and keeping the ball away from opponents. The Chiefs meet No. 14 Flowing Wells.

The Caballeros likely are much better than their seeding would indicate, having to face the tough teams in soccer-rich Tucson on a regular basis. Alejandro Gonzales is one of the state's top scorers with 31 goals, while Guillermo Sainz and Carlos Tarazon with 11 goals apiece.

No. 4 Tucson has 20 wins and could have three more if not for scoreless ties against Cienega, Nogales and Tucson Rincon.

Nogales is fifth and will face No. 12 Glendale at Tucson High. Glendale Copper Canyon is No. 6.

Copper Canyon was No. 3 a year ago but fell to Glendale Apollo in the first round.

Coach Justin Bogus said that only has made his players hungrier this season. The Aztecs won their first nine games by way of shutouts. Their only losses were to Division I Phoenix Mountain Pointe and Avondale La Joya.

No. 11 Yuma Cibola serves as Copper Canyon's opening opponent. Enrique Urenda has 12 goals for Cibola and Ernesto Avila has 10.

Tempe High's Buffaloes weren't sure if they would be able to qualify for the tournament after having to forfeit four games due to the use of an ineligible player. But they qualified with an explanation point at No. 7 with a win over Scottsdale Coronado, one of Division III's top teams, earning valuable power points in the final week of the regular season. Tempe plays No. 10 Cave Creek Cactus Shadows in the first round at Chandler High.

Buckeye Verrado comes in at No. 8, facing No. 9 Yuma Kofa at Copper Canyon. Verrado, whose only loss was to Copper Canyon, has a pair of 21-goal scorers – freshman Alex Keavney and senior Jacob Neumann.

The final week of regular-season play was an illustration of just how competitive Division I girls soccer has been for the 2013-2014 campaign.

Perry defeated Chaparral. Chaparral followed up and knocked off Pinnacle. Pinnacle bounced back the next day to top Highland. Desert Vista beat top-10 Corona del Sol. Basha, hardly anyone's favorite to win the Section 2 title, topped Highland to win its first-ever section crown.

More of the same -- call it parity -- could await the next two weeks as the 16-team field battles for the 2014 state title. Here's an overview of the matchups, favorites, who's hot, who's not and other tidbits for a sure-to-be entertaining postseason.

Pinnacle is poised for a big postseason; the Pioneers will battle Mountain Pointe in the first round of the state playoffs (Mark Jones/Max Preps).

FIRST-ROUND MATCHUPS: No. 16 Mountain Pointe vs. No. 1 Pinnacle; No. 9 Gilbert vs. No. 8 Desert Mountain; No. 12 Millennium vs. No. 5 Chaparral; No. 13 Desert Vista vs. No. 4 Xavier; No. 14 Sandra Day O'Connor vs. No. 3 Perry; No. 11 Highland vs. No. 6 Basha; No. 10 Corona del Sol vs. No. 7 Hamilton; No. 15 Mesa Mtn. View vs. No. 2 Boulder Creek.

OUTLOOK: With realignment for a new two-year scheduling block and schedule adjustments which allowed for a true sectional champion to emerge from each of the four sections this year, 10 teams that qualified for D-I state last year return -- defending champ Xavier, Pinnacle, Boulder Creek, Chaparral, Perry, Highland, Desert Vista, Millennium, Corona del Sol and Mesa Mountain View. The six newcomers are Mountain Pointe, Gilbert, Desert Mountain, Sandra Day O'Connor, Basha and Hamilton.

FAVORITE(S): Pinnacle sports a senior-heavy class that's reached the semifinals each of the last two years. The bracket shakes out well for the Pioneers hosting Mountain Pointe, and if successful, the Gilbert-Desert Mountain winner in the quarters. None of those teams were playoff teams a year ago, so postseason experience is on Pinnacle's side. To get to the finals Pinnacle would have to beat the likes of Chaparral, Desert Vista or always playoff tough Xavier in its half of the bracket. Boulder Creek, which along with Pinnacle played two of the toughest schedules of any D-I school, trots out five or six high-caliber, college-bound players. With that level of talent the Jaguars are a strong bet, not quite a cinch, to reach the semis.

DARK HORSE(S): Two of the hottest teams in the field are in the bottom half of the bracket -- Perry and Basha. Perry, which lost in last year's quarters to Pinnacle, is a seasoned, confident group. The Pumas last loss and only section defeat was to Hamilton in the season opener. And don't forget Xavier. The Gators have won three of the last five titles, played in four and have reached the semis the last seven years.

WHO'S HOT: Perry has a nine-game winning streak. Boulder Creek and Basha have seven-game winning streaks

WHO'S NOT: Highland, the D-I state champ in 2012 and semifinalist in 2013, has lost four games in a row (Perry, Hamilton, Gilbert and Pinnacle).

ODDS AND ENDS: The first-round matchup featuring Desert Vista and Xavier is a rematch of the 2013 D-I title game, won by Xavier 1-0. Mountain Pointe and Mountain View have not fared well against other teams in the tournament field. Mountain Pointe has lost to five teams in the field and Mountain View six. Mountain Pointe's only win over a tournament qualifying team was vs. Mountain View. Mountain View does have wins over Basha and Corona.

Hamilton, Brophy Seeded 1,2 in Div. I

By Les Willsey
AIA365

After back-to-back seasons of a Hamilton-Brophy boys soccer final in Division I, that streak ended last year. Mainly because they were in the same half of the bracket and met in the quarterfinals. This year Hamilton and Brophy are at a familiar perch -- the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds, respectively. One or the other or both has reached the semifinals each of the last six years. Positioned to do the same this year, will they do it again? Perhaps. But don't expect it to be easy by any stretch of the imagination.

Here's a look at the tournament with matchups, favorite, who's hot, who's not and assorted tidbits before first-round play commences on Tuesday (Feb 4). quarterfinals Saturday Feb. 8, semis Wednesday (Feb. 12) and final Saturday (Feb. 15).

FIRST-ROUND MATCHUPS: No. 16 Mesa vs. No. 1 Hamilton; No. 9 Desert Vista vs. No. 8 Tolleson; No. 12 Trevor Browne vs. No. 5 Sandra Day O'Connor; No. 13 North Canyon vs. No. 4 Gilbert; No. 14 Highland vs. No. 3 Chandler; No. 11 Camelback vs. No. 6 Alhambra; No. 10 Mountain Pointe vs. No. 7 Ironwood; No. 15 Basha vs. No. 2 Brophy.

OUTLOOK: Realignment was the driving force behind a tournament field in 2014 that returns only six teams that competed for D-I state last year. Tucson schools and Yuma schools dropped to D-II this season. The six teams returning to state this year are Hamilton, Brophy, Desert Vista, Gilbert, Alhambra and Tolleson. There are 10 newcomers -- Mesa, Trevor Browne, Sandra Day O'Connor, North Canyon, Highland, Chandler, Camelback, Mountain Pointe, Ironwood and Basha.

FAVORITE: It's certainly not going out on a limb, but the precision and discipline Hamilton displays game after game gives the Huskies an edge. Hamilton is 20-1 and allowed only seven goals in 21 games. Half of those games were against teams in the tournament field. The lone game the Huskies gave up more than one goal (2) was the season finale vs. Ironwood, which allowed them to avenge a 1-0 loss to the Eagles in December. with a 3-2 win of their own. Hamilton's defense and attention to detail stands out, so the Huskies get the favorite tag. Brophy could be a co-favorite, but didn't delve deep into Arizona competition aside from power-ranking games. The Broncos 17-2 record is impressive and first-year head coach Noah Lewkowitz has produced another solid squad taking over for Marc Kelly.

DARK HORSE: Three come to mind -- two in the bottom half of the bracket -- Ironwood and Chandler and one up top -- Sandra Day O'Connor. Ironwood as mentioned earlier, played Hamilton twice and played two tight games with the Huskies. Ironwood came away with a split. If it wins its first-round game it may well see Brophy. Knowing it can play with Hamilton shouldn't leave Ironwood short on confidence in facing anyone. Chandler is worthy of a nod having the top strength of schedule in D-I posting a 14-3 record. It's only losses are to Hamilton (twice) and Gilbert. Sandra Day O'Connor is dangerous with an explosive attack that figures to be hard for anyone in its quadrant to quell (Trevor Browne, North Canyon and Gilbert). In order to reach the title match, however, the Eagles likely would have to go through Hamilton. WHO'S HOT: Tolleson has won 13 games in a row. Brophy has won eight games in a row. Hamilton has won seven in a row. Chandler and Alhambra four in a row each.

WHO'S NOT: Basha has not won in its last four games (0-3-1) -- Chandler, Hamilton, Highland and Mesa. Gilbert has lost two of its last three.

ODDS AND ENDS: The team playing the most games against other teams in the tournament field is Hamilton. Hamilton posted a 9-1 record in those games. Brophy and Gilbert each won five games against other tournament teams. Brophy was 5-0, but did not play anyone among the top seven seeds. Gilbert was 5-5. Chandler and Ironwood won four games each against the tournament field.
