D-III SOFTBALL STATE TOURNAMENT PREVIEW

The top-2 teams in the D-III softball state tournament are poised to meet once again in the state tournament. If it happens, No. 1 seeded Payson (27-8) and No. 2 Winslow will play in the state championship game on May 17. Payson is riding a 15-game win streak and has lost to only one D-III team, No. 13 seeded Holbrook, this season. In the only matchup between Payson and Winslow during the 2013-14 regular season, Payson's pitching star, Ari Paulson, struck out 14 and allowed only three hits in the 2-0 win on April 8. Paulson, a senior, is 14-3 with a 1.14 ERA and has struck out 193 batters in 98 2/3 innings. She also leads the team with a .565 batting average. Winslow beat Payson in last year's state semifinals, but Payson handed Winslow its only regular season loss this year. Winslow's disappointing championship endings have been well chronicled. The team has lost four state championship games in the past five seasons. But this year's seniors have said they are on a mission to write a different ending. Five of Winslow's six seniors on the team are hitting .392 or higher. But this tournament might not turn into a two-team race. Other teams already proved this season that they also have a shot, including Show Low, Snowflake, Blue Ridge, Northwest Christian, and Camp Verde.

DIVISION IV SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT PREVIEW

No other softball division in the state has produced the numbers you'll see in Division IV. It all starts with pitching, and D-IV is home two of the state's best, Veritas Prep's Lainey Stephenson (25-0, 0.00 ERA) and Valley Christian's Mara Kemmer (201 K's, .671 ave). Look for these two to put up more big numbers after this season, because Stephenson is only a freshman and Kemmer is a sophomore. Stephenson and her freshman battery mate, Kayla Gomez, have helped Veritas Prep (27-0) give up only nine runs this season. Veritas Prep earned the No. 3 seed in the state tournament and already beat top-seeded Arizona Lutheran. The No. 2 seed went to San Manuel (25-3-1), which returned almost every player from last year's state championship team. Arizona Lutheran, which carries only one senior, is playing good all-around softball. It's strong up the middle defensively, sophomore Jordan McClellan is 24-4 in the circle, and it's batting .420 as a team. The top seeds better not look ahead, though. Teams such as Valley Union and Ray are capable of also reaching the final. Valley Union lost to Veritas Prep 4-2 during the regular season and the teams might meet the quarterfinals. No. 4 seeded Ray beat San Manuel at the end of the regular season. No. 6 seeded St. David starts an experienced team that dresses players who helped the school reach the volleyball and basketball state finals during the current school year.
