AIA

In September, the Arizona Interscholastic Association officially sanctioned a state tournament for robotics, joining 27 other AIA sports/activities that already compete for state titles. The interest for robotics and STEM initiatives is growing at Arizona high schools and the AIA is proud to provide an opportunity for these teams to compete in a fun and exciting atmosphere.

The first high school robotics season in Arizona will start during the spring season and teams will compete in regional events run by FIRST, a non-profit organization that organizes robotic events internationally. The top 30 teams from the regionals will then advance to the May 23 state tournament at the Prescott Valley Events Center.

There are currently 49 high schools that have robotics teams in Arizona. The AIA's goal is to double that number of teams by May 2016. If you are interested in supporting the AIA robotics program and state tournament as a corporate partner, please contact AIA Sports Properties at 602-385-3828 or facosta@aia365.com.

Mountain Ridge softball has knocked on the Division I championship door enough in recent years there are callouses on its knuckles. Given the team's performance since mid-March, the Lady Lions may dispense with the knocking and bust down the door.

What was a seemingly a wide-open battle for the title halfway through the season, now spotlights Mountain Ridge as the team to beat. A couple others have a shot, but signs point to a first-ever title for the nearly 20-year-old Glendale school.

Here's a look at Mountain Ridge and a few others that could make a run for a title that concludes Monday night May 18 at ASU's Farrington Stadium:

No. 1 Mountain Ridge (26-4): Mountain Ridge, the top-seed, was runner-up last season to five-time defending champ Red Mountain - the closest the Lady Lions from the west side have come to the championship. No team returned the firepower for 2015 Mountain Ridge has and the team has played accordingly. Mountain Ridge is led by the healthy and recently dominating left arm of junior Giselle Juarez. The Lady Lions have won 13 consecutive games and last lost in the Desert Mountain Invitational on March 21. During the winning streak Mountain Ridge has given up 14 runs with Juarez tossing two no-hitters and six shutouts. Throw in the offense supplied by Allysa DiCarlo, Kaylin Ayotte, Bailey Gaffin and Taylor Kaye to name a few and the word formidable is at hand. Seven starters are back, including Juarez from last season.

No. 2 Sandra Day O'Connor (28-6) doesn't exude the prowess of a dominant team, but the end result (mostly victories) is what shines through. Coach Melissa Hobson has several pitchers and likes to mix and match them rather than go with one like most teams do. The Lady Eagles are 3-3 vs. top-10 seeds and split two power-ranking games with Mountain Ridge. The most recent was a 2-0 loss in late April.

When it comes to pitching No. 6 Horizon (24-7) can't be counted out with ace T Statman winding down a four-year career. Horizon doesn't have the hitting of Mountain Ridge or several other contenders throughout its lineup, but enough if Statman is on her game. Solid defense hasn't always been on the Lady Huskies side this season. It must be for them to prevail.

No. 3 Xavier (23-6) has been steady all season and played a lot of tight games. The Gators are solid in all phases and rarely post a dud. They've defeated five of eight teams seeded in the top 10 of the tournament (Gilbert, Hamilton, Horizon, Desert Vista and Red Mountain). Caitlyn Dickman is the mainstay of the pitching staff. She doesn't post big strikeout numbers and pitches more to contact with an exceptional 1.63 ERA. Offensive production is led by Amanda Preach and Becky Ducar.

Welcome to the Division II state softball playoffs. 24 teams qualified for the playoffs with the top eight seeds earning first-round byes. The field will be whittled down to eight teams by the time we reach the double-elimination round to be held at the Rose Mofford Complex in Phoenix.

Let's take a look at which teams have the best shot at claiming those spots:

No. 1 Goodyear Desert Edge (27-2) ...

First-year coach Hailee Nanchy has many reasons to be excited about her team and one of those is her assistant, St. Mary's and Arizona State legend Dallas Escobedo. What better way to go than to have a state and national champion pitcher guide your two standout pitchers?

Sydney McLeod is 16-1 and Ambria Dorsey is 10-1. The Scorpions also have two players batting over .500 in seniors Jaymee Lawton (.566) and Ari Samaniego (.563).

No. 2 Tucson Salpointe (25-6) ... First-year coach Amy Rocha led her Lancers to a section championship over power rivals Oro Valley Canyon del Oro and defending champion Oro Valley Ironwood Ridge. That alone speaks volumes.

A former pitcher for Arizona, Rocha has an ace in senior Delfina Morales (17-5) and leadership from senior Annie Scarangella (.437) and freshman Yannira Acuña (.529). Acuña was a member of the Sunnyside Little League World Series championship team.

No. 3 Glendale Cactus (25-6) ... Junior pitcher Tatum Porras is 15-4 on the year, helping Bartt Underwood to his best season with the Cobras.

"We believe that if a team is going to be successful and reach their potential they have to be together, team chemistry is vital to what we do every day! You add new players and say good-bye to graduates every year so, your team personality changes each season. With that in mind, we eat, sleep and preach TEAM every day we are on and off the field. This is a major part of our success!" Underwood.

No. 4 Vail Cienega (21-8) ... Senior Kayla Green is 15-5 and senior Shelby Kennedy is batting .606 with 28 stolen bases. Team is loaded with 22 home runs and a freshman hitting over .500. Miranda Carley is making a push for top freshman with a .507 average with six doubles, four triples and four home runs.

No. 5 Ironwood Ridge (24-8) ... Defending state champion under the legendary college baseball coach Rich Alday. Still in the battle for another title, the Nighthawks are led by junior pitcher Kelly Decker (12-3).

Sophomore Annika Baez is batting .521 with four homers and senior University of Arizona commit Merrilee Miller is batting .441 with 25 stolen bases.

No. 6 Tucson Sahuaro (24-7) ... The Cougars were the top team in the state at different times this year under Jeff Fowler. Senior pitcher Andie Larkins is a double threat with an 11-5 record and a team-leading .486 batting average. Sophomore pitcher Lexi Coons is 14-1.

No. 7 Canyon del Oro (29-5) ... Legendary coach Kelly Fowler is back in the dugout for another try at a championship run. Junior Randi Longville is 16-3 from the circle and the Dorados have two players batting over .600.

Freshman catcher AJ Kaiser is hitting .628 with three home runs and junior Carli Campbell is batting .602.

No. 8 Yuma Cibola (22-5-1) ... Longtime Raider coach Shelly Baumann is ready for another postseason run with a team comprised of no seniors listed on her roster. Even so, the Raiders are batting .371 as a unit. Junior Chandler Arviso has 14 stolen bases.
