AIA

In September, the Arizona Interscholastic Association officially sanctioned a state tournament for robotics, joining 27 other AIA sports/activities that already compete for state titles. The interest for robotics and STEM initiatives is growing at Arizona high schools and the AIA is proud to provide an opportunity for these teams to compete in a fun and exciting atmosphere.

The first high school robotics season in Arizona will start during the spring season and teams will compete in regional events run by FIRST, a non-profit organization that organizes robotic events internationally. The top 30 teams from the regionals will then advance to the May 23 state tournament at the Prescott Valley Events Center.

There are currently 49 high schools that have robotics teams in Arizona. The AIA's goal is to double that number of teams by May 2016. If you are interested in supporting the AIA robotics program and state tournament as a corporate partner, please contact AIA Sports Properties at 602-385-3828 or facosta@aia365.com.

Division I Football

Perennial Postseason Participants Dot Quarterfinals

By Les Willsey

The first round of the Division I playoffs went off without a hitch. No upsets. That's typically been the case in recent years.

The usual suspects are still hanging in the quarterfinals set for Friday (Nov. 14). In fact, the only change from last year's elite eight is Skyline. Hamilton, Desert Ridge, Brophy, Mountain Pointe, Pinnacle, Basha and Chandler were present this time last year. The way the quarterfinal matchups panned out, there's a possibility of an identical final four (teams not matchups) from a year ago. Here's a look at each pairing:

#9 Skyline at #1 Hamilton: Skyline added to its best season in its 16-year history with its second postseason triumph ever, on the road at Boulder Creek. Skyline's success is via the ground game with 1,000-yard rushers Dylon Gillette and Amarii Keyes. Skyline has faced one team in the quarterfinal field this year -- Desert Ridge. They Coyotes lost 31-14 with Gillette and Keyes limited to 113 yards between them. Hamilton will be an ultimate test, much like last year's first-round opponent Chandler. Hamilton hasn't lost a quarterfinal game since 2000 and only two in 16 playoff appearances. The blip on Hamilton's radar this season is a 56-24 pasting by Chandler on Oct. 2. Their schedule lightened some after a tough first half. The Huskies have taken no prisoners in five consecutive wins since, averaging just a tick under 50 points a game. Hamilton is backfield by committee and has two primary targets in the passing game -- Brandon Krcilek and Kyeler Burke. They've combined for more than 100 receptions.

#5 Desert Ridge (10-1) at #4 Brophy Prep (9-3): This is a rematch from mid-season, part of Brophy's resurrection and current eight-game winning streak. It's also a rematch from last year's quarterfinal matchup won handily by Desert Ridge. It features Desert Ridge's potent ground game paced by Taren Morrison and Justin Irby against the prolific passing attack of Brophy. Morrison and Irby combined for 360 yards rushing in the loss to Brophy in late September. Brophy quarterback Cade Knox returned last week from a two-game hiatus with a hand injury to throw for 300 yards in a 45-0 victory over Perry. Wide out Isaiah Oliver has turned in a tantalizing, big-play senior campaign with 44 receptions for 1,205 yards and 11 TDs. In the earlier win over Desert Ridge, Knox threw for 325 yards (186 yards going to Oliver) and rushed for 100 more. Desert Ridge has been susceptible to the pass this season, but showed signs of improvement in last week's playoff win over pass-happy Horizon. Desert Ridge limited Horizon to 17 points and got three TDs from Morrison and a game-clinching TD run from Irby.

Brophy has regrouped after a couple of early season blowout defeats (photo by Mark Jones/maxpreps.com).

#6 Mountain Pointe (9-2) at Pinnacle (10-1): Defending champion Mountain Pointe has been wobbly in big games this season, losing to Hamilton and Brophy (certainly no crime). Don't forget, however, it did hang on late to deal Chandler its lone defeat. The Pride has not been as staunch on defense as last year and the passing game has not come close to balancing the offense. Mountain Pointe's rushing game hasn't been at full tilt often this year with Paul Lucas nursing leg issues and leading rusher Brandyn Leonard idle the last two games and questionable at best to return this season due to illness. Lucas came through in a big way last week with 291 yards rushing as the Pride outlasted Westview. Mountain Pointe's best chance to prevail may rest in ball control vs. Pinnacle's defense, which hasn't been staunch at times. Pinnacle's offense isn't a worry led by quarterback Brian Lewerke. Lewerke has amassed more than 3,000 yards of offense and is a threat running the option or scrambling -- and of course with his arm. The Pioneers are essentially 50-50 in rushing yards vs. passing yards for the season. Receivers Cules Rose and Adam Turner have 25 receiving TDs between them and running back Nick Ferrarais the rushing leader with Lewerke not far behind.

#7 Basha (7-4) at #2 Chandler (10-1): Chandler showed no signs of slowing on its road to an elusive state-title-game appearance, routing Red Mountain 55-14, last week. Basha edged Sandra Day O'Connor, 38-34, to advance. Chandler hasn't been kind to Basha recently, winning the last four meetings after a loss the first time the teams met in 2011. Chandler beat Basha in the quarters last year 49-21 and topped the Bears three weeks ago, 55-10. Basha hopes having quarterback Ryan Kelley for four quarters can make a difference this time, but it's a tall order. Kelley managed a little more than a quarter of action in the last meeting, exiting with bruised hip. Kelley, a sophomore, has been outstanding, passing for 3,003 yards and 30 TDs. Noone has been able to ratchet down Chandler's offense led by quarterback Bryce Perkins. Perkins has thrown for 2,700 yards, 42 TDs with just five picks. Perkins often targets six or seven players with the top threats Justin Jan, N'Keal Harry and Chase Lucas. Lucas often contributes big plays on the ground.

Division II Football

High Seeds Need to be Wary in Quarterfinals

By Les Willsey

A lot of upheaval as quarterfinal action dawns Friday (Nov. 14) in the Division II football playoffs.

Defending champion Salpointe was vanquished as upstart Sunnyslope kept its perfect record intact. Add to that one of the bonafide, pre-tournament favorites and No. 2 seed -- Ironwood Ridge - was stunned by #15 seed Sunnyside. Three lower-seeds prevailed in the opening round -- three of the double-digit variety (Marcos de Niza, Chaparral and Sunnyside). Only four of the final eight from last year are still playing (Liberty, Centennial, Marcos de Niza and Chaparral).

Are more surprises on the way? Perhaps. D-II was arguably the most wide open tournament when brackets were released. First-round results are proof. Here's a look at each pairing:

#8 Paradise Valley (10-1) at #1 Liberty (10-1): Paradise Valley is one of the surprise teams in the division as new coach Greg Davis has guided the Trojans to a section title after following longtime head coach Donnie Yantis. PV has prevailed with solid play on both sides of the ball and taken care of business in its wins. It's only loss was to D-I Horizon. Junior quarterback Daniel Bridge-Gadd pilots the offense, which has a 1,000-yard rusher in senior Bailey Thompson and a big-play receiver in junior Jacob Brown. Bridge-Gadd has passed for 2,528 yards, 40 TD with only seven picks. The Trojans schedule hasn't been particularly meaty with the marquee victory over Chaparral two weeks ago. Liberty is a big hurdle to leap. Liberty's only loss came early on to Centennial. The Lions haven't lost since Sept. 26 and opened the season with impressive wins over Ironwood Ridge and Desert Edge. Multiple-sport talent Tyler Wyatt is the quarterback and kicker helping put up plenty of points. Wyatt has thrown for 16 TDs with the go-to guys juniors Alex and Deyton Jackson. Wyatt has made 6-of-12 field goals, including a long of 47. Running back Jake Schuiteboer is a few yards shy of the 1,000-yard mark for the season after rushing for 119 and two TDs last week.

#12 Marcos de Niza (7-4) at #4 Cienega (10-1): It's been an up-and-down season for Marcos de Niza under new coach Sean Morin, but the Padres are where they usually are -- the final eight or better. A rout of No. 5 Deer Valley was an attention-getter. Quarterback Nazareth Greer sliced and diced Deer Valley for 350 yards and four touchdowns in the 42-7 romp. Greer spreads the wealth with his throws with Luke Nguyen and Anthony Trujillo combining for 16 TD receptions. Marcos has faced six playoff teams (D-I, D-II and D-III) and gone 3-3. Cienega is in the midst of a 10-game winning streak with its only blemish a season-opening loss to eliminated-Ironwood Ridge. The Bobcats, like Marcos de Niza, have faced six playoff teams (D-I, D-II and D-III) and gone 5-1 in those. Quarterback Adriell Alvarado has been as efficient as any quarterback. Alvarado's thrown 16 TD passes and been intercepted only once. Cienega features a balanced offense. On the ground that comes primarily from Francisco Dicochea (1,214 yards and 14 TDs). Dicochea and Alvarado combined for three TDs in the first-round win over Poston Butte. Versaltie, two-way starter Terrence Johnson had 101 all-purpose yards, rushed for a TD and nabbed his fifth interception of the season vs. Poston Butte.

#6 Sunnyslope (11-0) at #3 Centennial (9-2): Sunnyslope is 21-1 the last two seasons and avoided a first round defeat this year by beating last year's state champ Salpointe, who by season's end was a shell of last year's champ. Sunnyslope running backs Tim Fryson and Joey Smith are 1,000-yard rushers and quarterback Mason Cheatham has thrown for 1,578 yards and 19 TDs. Sunnyslope has faced only two playoff teams (St. Mary's and Salpointe) the past two weeks. This is a marquee test for the Vikings. Centennial has won nine games in a row and is itching to erase last year's painful quarterfinal exit to Deer Valley. The Coyotes only losses are to D-I Chandler and Basha and they've beaten Liberty and Brophy. Centennial's top weapon -- running back Dedrick Young -- is fresh for postseason averaging just 12 carries a game in 11 starts. Young picked up 89 yards on nine carries last week in the win over Lake Havasu and has 1,098 yards for the year. He has double-digit carries in only four games. Centennial got plenty of rest last week building a 42-0 lead over Havasu at the half. A running clock was used the entire second half making it a quick, tidy contest.

#15 Sunnyside (7-4) at #10 Chaparral: (8-3): These teams had a heavy Valley-Tucson rivalry going from 2000 to 2004 as both were title-caliber squads. They played five times in that span with Chaparral winning three out of five, including their state-championship matchup in 2000. Sunnyside doesn't have a star, but quarterback Isaiah Salazar came up big last week in the upset of No. 2 Ironwood Ridge. Salazar passed for 238 yards and four TDs and rushed for 99 yards and another tally. Salazar missed three games in September. Running back Carlos Lara leads the ground game. Sunnyside was 0-4 vs. playoff teams prior to last week's win over Ironwood Ridge. Chaparral also is without a household name offensively since quarterback Sean Paul Brophy went down with a fractured clavicle a few weeks back. Grayson Barry filled in admirably once during the regular season and last week. A backfield by committee worked well in the whitewash of Westwood last week. Spencer Greenberg, Gabe Lutz and Ian Nadel led a potent rushing game. Chaparral regained its swagger after a loss to Paradise Valley, but has to cut out excessive penalties that have hampered it all season.

Division III FB Quarterfinals

Tempe's Emanuel Gant became the first Arizona high school quarterback to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (photo by Mark Jones/maxpreps.com).

are primarily a running team with over 4,000 yards on the ground. Two sophomores (Tehran Thomas and Roshaun Johnson) have more than half of that total between them.

No. 11 Cactus (9-2) at No. 3 Tempe (11-0)

Glendale Cactus defeated No. 6 Peoria Sunrise Mountain 52-38 to set up their quarterfinal match with Tempe. The Cobras have a group of players clogging up the top of their stat chart rather than just one or two standouts. Junior QB Preston Guerra will be asked to keep the offense even to try to hold off Tempe.

Tempe is undefeated for a reason. Senior QB Emanuel Gant has 2,735 yards passing and 31 TDs to lead the Buffaloes. He has three main targets which drains the defensive resources of many opponents. Include RB Davonte Dorsey and his 900 yards rushing, and this is a difficult team to prepare for.

No. 10 Moon Valley (10-1) at No. 2 Williams Field (10-1)

Phoenix Moon Valley lost to Tempe by only eight points in the regular season and then beat No. 7 Peoria 40-32 in the first round. The team must feel their low ranking does not truly describe the team.

Senior QB Shannon Burton has 1,868 yards passing and 1,236 yards rushing. Oh, and he also has 33 tackles for the Rockets.

Gilbert Williams Field has one big loss to Saguaro this year (42-7) and that's it. The Black Hawks defeated No. 15 Buckeye 49-14 to set up their match with Moon Valley. Braedyn Bushman has 2,314 yards rushing and 30 TDs to lead the team.

No. 8 Canyon del Oro (9-2) at No. 1 Saguaro (11-0)

Oro Valley Canyon del Oro lost by a combined five points to Division II powers Oro Valley Ironwood Ridge and Vail Cienega and then went on a six-game streak to get back into the top eight.

The Dorados defeated No. 9 Buckeye Verrado 38-21 in the first round to set up a trip to play Scottsdale Saguaro in the quarterfinals where QB Noah Soto will have to continue his high level of play to give CDO a chance.

Saguaro hasn't lost a game since Sept. 30 of 2013. Since then, the Sabercats have won 24 games in a row including the 2013 D-III state championship over Queen Creek. Saguaro defeated No. 16 Tucson Sabino in the first round 55-14. QB Kare Lyles threw for over 300 yards in the win and Christian Kirk rushed for 166.

No. 5 Queen Creek (9-2) at No. 4 Desert Edge (10-1)

Queen Creek got past No. 12 Tucson Catalina Foothills 51-0 to set up their trip to Goodyear Desert Edge. Senior QB Bryce Dobbs has almost 1,500 yards passing on the year but the bulk of the Bulldogs' offense comes from senior back Weston Barlow (2,029 yards/29 TDs).

Desert Edge destroyed No. 13 Prescott Valley Bradshaw Mountain 63-6 in the first round to keep a nine-game win streak alive. The Scorpions

Division IV FB Quarterfinals

By Andy Morales

No. 8 Winslow (8-3) at No. 1 Seton Catholic Prep (11-0)

The Bulldogs have three big losses on their record this year but they put it all together in time to defeat No. 9 Parker 20-13 in the first round of the Division IV playoffs. Winslow has two 800-yard rushers in C.J Chacon and Darrien Brown and they will need to share the ball even more to have a chance at Seton Catholic.

The Sentinels have been playing with a chip on their shoulder since getting upset in the semifinal round last year. They have outscored their last eight opponents by a combined score of 467-7 including a 70-0 win over No. 16 Page in the first Round.

QB Zach Wade has 2,171 yards passing and Antonio Campanella has 1,459 yards rushing.

No. 5 Coolidge (10-1) at No. 4 Snowflake (10-1)

The Bears have quietly built an impressive record with junior Charles McCarty leading the team 1,723 all purpose yards. They defeated No. 12 Florence 41-35 in the first round to get a shot at Snowflake.

Snowflake gave Seton Catholic a close game (23-14) earlier in the year. That's understandable with the legendary Ron Tenney coaching the Lobos. Snowflake has two 1,000 rushers in Trevor McCray and Drew Schneider. They beat San Tan Valley Combs 54-12 in the first round.

No. 6 Estrella Foothills (8-3) at No. 3 River Valley (10-1)

Estrella Foothills will get a rematch with River Valley after defeating No. 11 Show Low 10-13 in the first round. The Wolves lost to River Valley 42-40 in October. They will need Joe Logan (1,281 yards rushing) to lead their attack after he was limited in the first game.

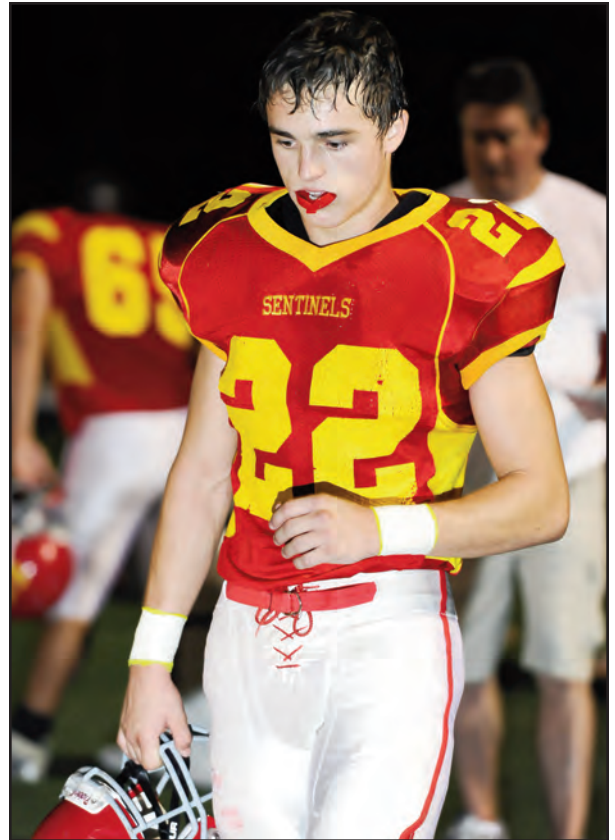

The Dust Devils defeated No. 14 Fountain Hills 60-14 in the first round. Senior Brandon Long has 1,772 yards rushing this year with 32 TDs. His best game came against Estrella Foothills with 285 yards rushing and four TDs.

No. 7 Safford (9-2) at No. 2 Sahuarita (11-0)

Safford lost to Sahuarita 49-27 earlier in the year but have reeled off six in a row to get another shot at the Mustangs. They defeated No. 10 Sahuarita Walden Grove 49-14 in the first round. Senior Tyler Shurtz leads the Bulldogs with 1,043 yards passing and 964 yards rushing.

Sahuarita is undefeated and two of those wins came against defending state champion No. 15 Lakeside Blue Ridge. The Mustangs defeated Blue Ridge in the first game of the season and then again in the first round 42-0.

Calvin Jenkins has 1,527 yards passing and 721 yards rushing. Geovan Neuser has 1,087 yards rushing.

Division V FB Quarterfinals

The Black & Blue Phase is About to Begin

By Jose Garcia
aia365.com

Now the real fun begins in the Division V football playoffs. At least for the fans.

As for the football teams, they are each preparing for the knock-down, drag-out phase of the postseason to begin. This season, no other division in Arizona high school football is as loaded as D-V.

It's so loaded that even one of the perennial playoff teams, St. Johns, didn't receive a 2014 postseason invitation. As expected, all of the favorites reached the quarterfinals.

But of the remaining eight teams, there is a ringleader, defending champ Yuma Catholic. But the talent is spread equally across the rest of the field.

The state's best offense belongs to Yuma Catholic, which starts Matt Pistone and Donovan Rooks, the first two Division I recruits in the program's history. But it also starts quarterback Jagan Cleary (8,530 career passing yards) and running back Carter Rodriguez (55 career touchdowns).

Yuma Catholic has been held under 43 points in a game only once this season. But it did play in two very close contests, first against Thatcher in a 28-20 win in Week 2 and in Week 10 versus Northwest Christian.

Northwest Christian gave up a lot yards and points in that 63-46 loss, but three of its cornerbacks didn't play against Yuma Catholic. Besides the offensive production, what's also been impressive about Yuma Catholic is that it is undefeated despite starting this season with new offensive and defensive lines.

Yuma Catholic will face 9-1 Tucson Pusch Ridge in the quarterfinals. Another intriguing quarterfinal matchup features No. 5 seed Round Valley, the D-V state runner-up last year, facing No. 4 Northwest Christian.

Round Valley has given up only 26 points this season, but it hasn't played any of the remaining playoff teams yet. Ethan Workman, Round Valley's workhorse, needs 12 yards to reach the 3,000 mark for career rushing yards and has totaled 252 the past two seasons.

And quarterback Nate Guterrez surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark again this season for Round Valley. But we'll see if Round Valley's schedule helped or hindered the team when it faces a well-tested Northwest Christian team.

Like all of the quarterfinal teams, Thatcher also has a star player, Heath Motes, a running back disguised as a quarterback. Despite playing behind an offensive line that started four new starters, Motes has already improved his offensive production (17 touchdown passes, 1,886 rushing yards) this year compared to last year (16 passing TDs, 1,069 rushing yards), when he played with an injury.

Thatcher will face Arizona Lutheran and its three-headed monster, quarterback Cameron Haag, running back Jesse Zwick and tight end Brady Cook, in the quarterfinals. The final good matchup in the quarterfinals will feature No. 7 seed Joy Christian and Tempe Prep.

Tempe Prep battled through some adversity this season en route to the No. 2 seed. Injuries to key players and not having its coach, Tommy Brittain, for two games (suspended for praying with his team) didn't keep Tempe Prep from posting a 10-1 record.

Tempe Prep personifies the type of grind it out football that will be displayed during the rest of the Division V playoffs. The hard-nosed team has only given up 14 points in the last six weeks.

But Tempe Prep will face a Joy Christian squad that starts athletes who can elude defenders. Junior Matt Mitchell took over as quarterback this year and has completed 66 percent of his passes so far and is spreading the ball out, as three different Joy Christian receivers each have at least 23 or more pass receptions.

But Joy Christian and Tonka Watson (1,125 rushing yards) can also go to the ground and pound game just like Tempe Prep if it wants to.

Division VI Football Finals

Mogollon and Bagdad Meet Again in the Title Bout

By Jose Garcia
aia365.com

Mogollon vs. Bagdad. The sequel.

The headliners on the Division VI football championship marquee will take center stage for the second consecutive year. Their appearance in the Nov. 15 title game doesn't come as a surprise, as Bagdad and Mogollon were ranked in the top-3 when the Sollenbeger AZ Prep Football preseason online rankings were released.

Each team is undefeated (9-0), but Bagdad is the favorite again, and Mogollon is shooting for a different championship ending this season. Last year, Mogollon kept the game close for a while before Bagdad broke away for a 44-20 win at Shadow Mountain High School in Phoenix.

This year, the championship game rematch will start at 6 p.m. at North Canyon High, where Bagdad will appear with a cast of familiar faces, and Mogollon will arrive with a different game plan.

Mogollon was primarily a run team last year, but its attack is more balanced this year thanks to the emergence of quarterback Brock Slade. Slade's production (24 touchdowns, four interceptions this year) kept opponents from focusing on senior running back Jaden Willis (1,249 rushing yards, 19 touchdowns).

Slade's father, Tim, is Mogollon's head coach.

"I also call the offense," Tim said. "So I know there is a lot of pressure on him (Brock), and I know he feels it."

But Tim said he is also proud of the way his son responded in his first season as the team's signal caller.

Because of an injury to another player, Slade was a tight end last year, but he is showing off his strong throwing arm this year. Slade stepped up in the state semifinals, when the other state title favorite, Pima, attempted to stop Mogollon's run game.

But Slade threw for 229 yards and three touchdowns in the 28-12 semifinal victory. "We told the guys after the semifinal game that we deserve to be here (championship game)," Tim said. "We expected to be here. We need to feel good about what we accomplished."

Bagdad can say the same thing.

Like Mogollon, Bagdad, which hasn't lost since Nov. 3, 2012, can beat opponents in multiple ways with the veteran weapons it possesses. Bagdad's primary weapon is running back Casey Jean, who has rushed for more than 3,300 yards in his career.

The senior has been averaging 10 yards per carry since he started playing varsity in 2012. Justin Pacheco, Bagdad's strongest player, can also do damage from his running back spot.

Mogollon also will have to deal with another Bagdad veteran, quarterback Tony Juaregui, who has thrown only three interceptions during his three-year career. Mogollon linebacker Baylend Stephens, the state's third leading tackler (120 total) in D-VI according to Maxpreps, and his defensive crew will certainly have their hands full.

On defense for Bagdad, it starts one of the state's better defensive linemen, Lakin Yargus (6-4, 225), who totaled 17 sacks in his team's first seven games. Bagdad hasn't really been tested since its Week 1 38-32 victory over Pima.

The other common opponents Bagdad and Mogollon have played this season are Gilbert Christian (lost 64-53 to Mogollon and 60-25 Bagdad) and Mayer (lost 70-20 to Mogollon and 58-6 to Bagdad).
