In September, the Arizona Interscholastic Association officially sanctioned a state tournament for robotics, joining 27 other AIA sports/activities that already compete for state titles. The interest for robotics and STEM initiatives is growing at Arizona high schools and the AIA is proud to provide an opportunity for these teams to compete in a fun and exciting atmosphere.

The first high school robotics season in Arizona will start during the spring season and teams will compete in regional events run by FIRST, a non-profit organization that organizes robotic events internationally. The top 30 teams from the regionals will then advance to the May 23 state tournament at the Prescott Valley Events Center.

There are currently 49 high schools that have robotics teams in Arizona. The AIA's goal is to double that number of teams by May 2016. If you are interested in supporting the AIA robotics program and state tournament as a corporate partner, please contact AIA Sports Properties at 602-385-3828 or facosta@aia365.com.

Alhambra, North Top Seeds in DI Boys

By Les Willsey
AZPreps365.com

The general conversation regarding the 2015 Division I state boys soccer tournament is it's wide open. Recent history tells a different story with Brophy and Hamilton popping up routinely in the semis if not the finals. One difference for 2015 is neither Brophy or Hamilton are the No. 1 or No. 2 seed. They are, however, 3 and 4 and on opposite ends of the bracket so another title showdown is a possibility. No worse than the No. 6 seed has reached the final in the last five years and that was a 4 vs. 6 matchup in 2012 between Hamilton and Brophy. A 1 or 2 or both have qualified four of the last five years for the final.

Carrying the 1-2 burden are Alhambra and North, respectively. A great year for Metro Phoenix schools in the sport. Other schools have enjoyed a moment or two from December to now with a winning streak or invitational triumph, but it comes down to health, momentum and stringing together four solid matches. Will a team or two steal the thunder from Brophy and Hamilton come Valentine's Day? Opening-round matches are Wednesday Feb. 4, followed by quarterfinals Saturday Feb. 7 and semifinals Thursday Feb. 12. The final is Saturday Feb. 14. Here's a look at the D-I boys qualifiers in brief via first-round matchup:

No. 16 Corona del Sol at No. 1 Alhambra (7 p.m.) -- There's no knocking Alhambra. The Lions are 17-0, the only unbeaten, untied team in the division. They've faced five of the 16 playoff qualifiers. They are solid in front, midfield and the back with decent experience led by striker Josias Ortiz, 24 goals and 13 assists. They bowed in the semis last year to Brophy in PKs. Corona has endured a topsy-turvy season. The Aztecs started slowly at 0-3. Since the Arizona Showcase where they reached the semis in late December their record is 10-3-1. That includes a win over Gilbert and tie with Brophy. Corona missed the playoffs last year.

No. 9 Sandra Day O'Connor vs. No. 8 Tolleson (at Alhambra 5 p.m.) -- SDO was highly touted in preseason and has lived up to the billing with a 9-1-2 record in power-ranking matches. The Eagles, led by Musa Morris and Jackson Jellah (combined 19 goals and 10 assists), haven't lost in a month. They reached the semis last year, losing to Hamilton. Tolleson sports a young roster, but has competed well with its three power-ranking losses to the top-three seeds Alhambra, North and Brophy. The Wolverines are led by sophomore Armando Valdez (19 goals) and Anthony Hernandez (13 assists).

No. 12 Perry vs. No. 5 Gilbert (at Campo Verde HS 5 p.m.) - Perry made a late charge to qualify and has played tough schedule, one that includes a 2-1 victory over Gilbert. The Pumas have been able to overcome an excessive number of injuries, which has not allowed them to start the same lineup more than two games in succession. A next-man-up philosophy has been a battle cry. Perry is led by Triston Smith and Zach Johnson. Gilbert has enjoyed another solid season, winning 10 of 12 power-ranking matches. Its two losses were to Perry and Highland and it defeated Hamilton and Chandler. The Tigers shared a state title in 2004 and last played in a title match in 2007. Gilbert doesn't have a player with a huge number of goals, spreading around its scoring. The leader is Luke Boudreau with nine. Keeper Dylan Fedor is solid, racking up seven shutouts.

No. 13 Trevor Browne at No. 4 Hamilton (7 p.m.) -- Trevor Browne managed to hang on to a playoff spot down the stretch, doing so in a season that it lost 12 seniors from last year's playoff squad. The Bruins haven't had much success knocking off playoff qualifiers during the season (1-6 record). Trevor Browne is led by Max Vasquez (10 goals and seven assists) and keeper Oswaldo Machado (five shutouts). Hamilton has played for the big-school title four of the last five years, winning one of the four. The Huskies won the elite bracket of this year's Arizona Showcase and played in a prestigious tourney in Florida the middle of January. They dropped three matches in a row (two in Florida and one to Gilbert in mid-

January), but finished the season with four successive wins. Hamilton still managed to win its section with a loss. Calvin Parr leads the Huskies on the attack. These teams met in the Showcase with Hamilton winning, 7-0.

No. 14 Liberty at No. 3 Brophy (7 p.m.) -- This is Liberty's first trip to the big-school state tournament and the Lions draw is tradition-rich and defending champ Brophy. Liberty struggled scoring in December, but has picked up the pace in January and gained confidence. Liberty has only two losses - North Canyon and Ironwood. Like many lower seeds it must prove it can beat an upper-echelon foe. Senior Gerves Fagan leads Liberty with 28 goals and seven assists. Ten different players have scored for the Lions. Keeper Jake Geremia (senior) has eight shutouts. Brophy isn't as talented as recent years, but still good enough to come away with a trophy. The Broncos were 10-0-2 in power-ranking matches, tying Corona del Sol and D-II Notre Dame Prep. They received plenty of seasoning in two California tournaments in late December, finishing second in the San Clemente Lotto Western Showcase. Brophy's leading scorer is freshman Carter Clemmensen. Brophy has only played two of the 15 other schools in this year's field.

No. 11 Sunnyslope vs. No. 6 Highland (at Queen Creek HS 5 p.m.) -- Sunnyslope is another newcomer to the D-I tournament. Over the past three seasons improvement has arrived (three wins in 2013, eight in 2014 and 11 this year). Sunnyslope has peppered the nets to the tune of 73 goals -- near the top in D-I. Sunnyslope has two wins over Trevor Browne and losses to Alhambra, North and Tolleson. The Alhambra and North losses were by a goal each. Sebastian Arellano has 17 goals and 13 assists and Tucker Fenton has 12 goals and eight assists. Highland used late December and early January to recover from bumps and bruises as the result of 12 games in 22 days just before Christmas. That covered a semifinal finish at the Coyote Classic and winning the Jackrabbit Invitational. The Hawks are led in scoring by Spencer Turley and Cutter Zaugg with seven goals apiece. Austin Wagner has seven shutouts in goal.

No. 10 Ironwood vs. No. 7 Chandler (at Hamilton HS 5 p.m.) - Despite losing 15 seniors and fielding a young, inexperienced squad, Ironwood has gradually improved since December. Whether or not the Eagles are title worthy is another matter. They've managed to be competitive in most every match. Top goal scorer is Stephen Church (19 goals), back-row standout Colton Kimbell and midfielder Ethan Ebersson (eight goals, six assists). Chandler coach Sasha Hunter believes this may be the Wolves' year. It's his fourth guiding the program and with 15 seniors thinks his athletes believe in themselves and the program. Chandler won the only tournament it played in (5-0 in the Coyote Classic). Leading the team in scoring is Don Tchilao (18 goals, nine in a game last week vs. Mesquite). Andrew Layton has added eight goals, three assists and Carter Rumsey is right there with seven goals and five assists.

No. 15 Goldwater at No. 2 North (7 p.m.) -- Goldwater is the sixth team to qualify in D-I that didn't do so last year. The Bulldogs have had their way with non-playoff qualifiers, but are winless against the rest of the tourney field. North's been a consistent participant in state tournament play (18 of last 22 seasons), but last year was not one of those. The Mustangs are back with an 11-1 power-ranking record and bring a 14-match winning streak to the big dance. The lone blemish is a 3-2 loss to Alhambra. North is senior-heavy with 17 seniors, 11 of whom are back from last year. The Mustangs haven't faced a rigorous schedule, but are confident of living up to their No. 2 seed. Dominic Reyna 13 goals, Joshue Merino nine goals and Shane Aranda seven goals lead the attack.

D-I playoff qualifiers record vs. other D-I playoff qualifiers this season: Alhambra 5-0; North 3-1; Brophy 1-0-1; Hamilton 4-1-1; Gilbert 3-3; Highland 2-3-1; Chandler 3-1-2; Tolleson 3-4; Sandra Day O'Connor 4-0-1; Ironwood 2-4-2; Sunnyslope 2-3; Perry 2-4; Trevor Browne 1-6; Liberty 2-3; Goldwater 0-4-1; Corona del Sol 2-3-1.

DI Girls – Another Different Champion in 2015?

By Les Willsey
AZPreps365.com

Division I girls soccer has crowned a different champ each of the last four years and seven times in the past 10. That could be bode well for top-seed Desert Mountain. The No. 1 seed has advanced to the final four of the last five years. The seven schools with a title in that span are Xavier, Pinnacle, Highland, Hamilton, Corona del Sol, Desert Vista and Mountain Pointe. The dominant program of late in terms of overall finish belongs to No. 2 Xavier. Xavier has reached the semis or finals each of the last eight years with three championships and one runner-up to its credit. All first-round action begins Tuesday Feb. 3 with quarterfinals on Saturday Feb. 7, semifinals on Wednesday Feb. 11 and the title match on Saturday Feb. 14. Here's a look at the teams via opening-round matchups:

No. 16 Millennium at No. 1 Desert Mountain (7 p.m.) - Millennium just hung on to a playoff berth this season to keep at least a decade-long streak of state qualifying alive in a variety of divisions. It's been tough sledding in the playoffs with the team's best finish in the quarterfinals. The Lady Tigers will need to be at the top of their game having gone winless against other D-I qualifiers this season. They've slipped in seed each of the last four years in D-I (6th to 9th to 12th to 16th). Desert Mountain managed to create a style that fit its players and did not lose a power-ranking match (11-0-1). The Lady Wolves are led on the attack by Parker Caudle (15 goals), Bethany Block (12 goals) and Ashley Valdivieso (10 goals). They finished the season clinching their section title with a win over Xavier. Desert Mountain is 16-1-2 overall and has blanked 14 opponents.

No. 9 Perry vs. No. 8 Pinnacle (at Xavier Prep 5 p.m.) -- A rematch of last year's D-I final. Perry survived a tough section and difficult schedule overall. The Lady Pumas were runners-up in the Coyote Classic to Highland. Like several teams from their section, Perry played 1 matches against other D-I qualifiers so there is little in quality they haven't faced. Perry has relied heavily on senior Ashley Dahl (11 goals, eight assists) and Makenna Dunn (eight goals and 17 assists). Keeper Taryn Pallas has provided four shutouts. Despite losing nine D-I players to graduation, Pinnacle finds itself in the middle of this year's seeding. With a massive reduction in offense from last season's state title, defense is the calling card. It's led by standout keeper Jalen Tompkins, who has 10 shutouts. Lily Brown leads the team in goals with 10 and Layne Pearson is the leader of a good backline. Pinnacle had a lot of retooling to do, but got some early confidence winning the Horizon Tournament of Champions.

No. 12 Gilbert vs. No. 5 Hamilton (at Highland 5 p.m.) -- Gilbert gets a second chance to beat Hamilton in the opening round, but the Lady Tigers have struggled knocking off elite D-I foes with an 0-6-1 record this season. Gilbert lost in methodical fashion to Hamilton, 4-1, a couple weeks ago. Playing in a section with No. 4 Highland, Hamilton and No. 9 Perry is no picnic. If Gilbert gets hot, it might have to defeat all three to reach the title game. Hamilton, under first-year head coach Nathan Fairchild, is solidly in the mix for the title with a senior-drenched lineup. The team is led by senior captains Gabby Martinez and Riana Metzger. Leading the team in goals is senior Kylie Miniefeld (10). Hamilton's power-ranking losses are to Highland and Xavier -- the latter in last week's season finale.

No. 13 Boulder Creek at No. 4 Highland (7 p.m.) -- Losing three key returning starters early on for various reasons, Boulder Creek persevered and qualified. Boulder Creek advanced to the semis last year and hopes despite a drop in seed from 2 to 13 to make another run. Senior Natalie Stephens is the primary offensive weapon with 18 goals. Freshman Hannah Baptist has been a facilitator with nine assists. Two other freshmen -- Andee Kaczocha and Tessa Alexopoulos -- have played well filling some gaps. The Lady Jaguars played half its matches against other D-I playoff qualifiers.

Highland is certainly a team on a mission. The Lady Hawks were one of the favorites last year, but a late-season slump and first-round loss left a bad taste. Highland is back and more determined to reach the final and bid for a second title in three years. Highland is 20-2-1 overall and has won eight matches in a row. A trio of players have combined for 41 goals -- Bri Hatch (18), Tori Rinsem (15) and Carly Cope (8). Amanda Witherow has logged 10 shutouts.

No. 14 Ironwood at No. 3 Desert Vista (7 p.m.) -- Ironwood is one of three teams to qualify for the D-I playoffs that didn't last year. The Lady Eagles win total improved from a year ago, but they haven't secured a victory against a D-I playoff team this year in five tries. Ironwood's leading scorer is Samantha McKinley (nine goals). Andrea Munguia leads in points with eight goals and six assists. Desiree Mazia also has eight goals. Desert Vista doesn't miss the postseason often and is looking for its first title since 2005. The Thunder has allowed just seven goals in posting a 15-4-1 record this year. Desert Vista has 13 shutouts in 20 matches.

No. 11 Basha vs. No. 6 Chaparral (at Desert Mountain 5 p.m.) - Basha has survived with a bevy of close games and in one stretch in January played five successive overtime games. The Lady Bears lost 11 seniors from a year ago and scoring punch has been limited. Freshman Brooke Brown leads the team with eight goals. Basha is 14-3-4 overall. Chaparral's young roster has pieced together an exceptional season. Sixteen of its 19 players are freshmen or sophomores. The Lady Firebirds are led by Sophia Struckman with nine goals and six assists, Tatum Richards with six goals, four assists and Sydney Rosholt with five goals and seven assists.

No. 10 Willow Canyon vs. No. 7 Corona del Sol (at Desert Vista 5 p.m.) -- After missing the playoffs by one spot last year, Willow Canyon won its section this season. The key was turning around a loss last year in section play to Millennium. The Lady Wildcats don't play in the strongest of sections -- only them and Millennium qualified for postseason. Willow Canyon, which won 12 games and is riding an eight-match winning streak, is led offensively by America Garcia Serna, Kaitlym Kelsey and Serena Sanchez. Keeper Madeline Morrow has eight shutouts. Willow Canyon's last loss came in early January, 3-1, to Corona del Sol. Corona del Sol has relied on defense this season in winning 11 matches and faced a much tougher schedule than its first-round opponent. The Lady Aztecs lost 1-0 to No. 1 Desert Mountain, bowed 2-1 in overtime to No. 2 Xavier and tied No. 3 Desert Vista 0-0 among its tough slate in power-ranking matches. Over its last eight matches Corona sports a 6-1-1 record and allowed just two goals. Corona is led by its three captains -- centerback Maddie Wolf, outside back Jenn Carty and forward Emily Bordow.

No. 15 Chandler at No. 2 Xavier (7 p.m.) -- Chandler qualifying for state is gravy in a season where it learned to compete on a big stage with many of the division's top teams in its own backyard. New coach Joe Paulsen's club didn't manage a win against the seven D-I qualifiers it faced, but it was competitive in most of not all of those matches. Eighteen different players scored and 13 different players handed out an assist during the season. Facing Xavier in the first round will be similar to matches against the likes of Highland, Hamilton, Perry and Basha. Xavier's season highlight to date is its 4-1 record in California's Quest for Excalibur Tournament and ninth-place finish at the elite event. That highlight likely would shift if the state title came its way. Guenevere Bracket (9th place). Xavier was 12-1 in power ranking matches and registered nine shutouts in those. Senior forward Tessa Zaccagnio leads Xavier in scoring with 18 goals and midfielder Amanda Lane is tops in assists with 14.

Playoff qualifiers record vs. other D-I qualifiers -- Desert Mountain 4-1-1; Xavier 4-1; Desert Vista 5-4-1; Highland 12-1; Hamilton 6-4-2; Chaparral 3-3-4; Corona del Sol 2-3-2; Pinnacle 4-6-1; Perry 5-5-2; Willow Canyon 2-2; Basha 3-3-2; Gilbert 1-6-1; Boulder Creek 3-5-2; Ironwood 0-4-1; Chandler 0-6-1; Millennium 0-3.

The last three state championship from Division II have come from the Tucson area but many feel an uncertainty of where the ball will bounce this year.

No. 1 Queen Creek (12-0-1) made it to the semifinal round two years ago then missed the playoffs last year but longtime head coach Mauricio Ramirez has the Bulldogs ranked high this year thanks in large part to the play of Colorado Mesa commit Jacob Dominguez.

At the other end of the bracket is No. 2 Gilbert Campo Verde (11-1-1). Queen Creek and Campo Verde tied each other (2-2) on Jan. 16 but Queen Creek has a better divisional record.

No. 3 Nogales will go up against No. 14 Tucson Catalina Foothills in the first round in what may be the most difficult match for a higher seed. Falcons coach Julie Walters reached the 300-win mark this year and will retire after the playoffs but she would like to add to her four state titles before she leaves the program.

"It's been an interesting year," wrote Walter. "We had to replace seven starters so it took us a while to find what and who worked best positionally and together.

"I have to say, we have widespread and even scoring with almost everyone on the field notching multiple goals. I am so proud of this group of guys. They have made my last year a memorable one in so many ways and always with so much joy and laughter. It's been a great season," she added.

Mountain View Marana takes the No. 4 seed and they will face rival school No. 13 Oro Valley Canyon del Oro. Head coach Todd Jensen was hired two weeks before the season started out 0-3-1 before Jensen had Mountain View moving in the right direction.

"Some of our accomplishments so far is that we have been really good in our section games and find ourselves in a position to win the section and qualify for state," said Jensen. "We have been undefeated at home so far, and have gone on a ten-game unbeaten streak. The goal all along for the seniors was to make state. My goal for the season was just to play hard and be competitive in every game."

No. 5 Scottsdale Notre Dame Prep, No. 6 Tucson High and even No. 12 Salpointe all have legitimate shots this year and strong cases can be made for several other programs. We may have several matches heading to shots from the mark and that makes this year a very unpredictable outcome.

No. 2 Buckeye Verrado (12-0) won their first state soccer championship last year after taking the powerful Tucson Catalina Foothills program to penalty kicks (4-3) and it looks like another heroic effort will have to be put forward again this year.

From top to bottom, the higher skill level has produced parity and excitement among the top seeds. No. 1 Scottsdale Notre Dame Prep (12-0) has No. 4 Scottsdale Cactus Shadows (12-0) and No. 5 Catalina Foothills (10-0-2) in their half of the bracket and Verrado has No. 3 Tucson High (10-0-2) and No. 6 Tucson Sahuaro (9-0-3) in their half.

You would have to go all the way down to No. 7 Phoenix Arcadia (11-1) to find a team with a league loss but then No. 8 Yuma Kofa (12-0) completes the cycle of the undefeated teams. That's one loss between the top eight seeds. No other division can stake that claim so hold onto your seat.

Can Verrado repeat? According to head coach David Hopkinson it will depend on how well his athletes continue to respond to the pressure.

"We had a couple of injuries to girls who played significant roles last year and were expected to start this year," explained Hopkinson. "Our team has done an excellent job of filling those roles.

"We also had to play with the pressure of being the state champions. We got every team's best shot. I have been really proud of the way the girls have handled themselves this year. They could have easily become complacent after last year but they have continued to work hard and would like to make it back to the championship game again."

Notre Dame Prep hasn't been in the final in four years but second-year coach

Thomas White has produced a competitive team built on a mixture of experience on the pitch.

"We have very good upperclassmen leadership on the field which helps with having 10 freshmen on the varsity level," said White.

"I would say the biggest accomplishment this year is the learning curve given to the returners in leading the underclassmen into the program and setting a tone for the entire year. We are very excited about the undefeated season as well. We have only given up two goals on the season and scored 63 ourselves."

Only a junior, keeper Meredith Reinhardt is generally regarded as one of the best in Arizona regardless of class size. With over three saves a game, opponents will have to come up with more shots than they are used to if they want to get one past her.

One of the teams capable of producing tons of attempts is Catalina Foothills. Even though Charlie Kendrick has retired, the Falcons still have eight championships and they return senior Emily Parker (26 goals). Parker peppered the crossbar several times in the loss to Verrado last year.

DIII Boys – Another Cortez, Coronado Final?

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

We might see a similar story play out in the 2014-15 Division III boys state soccer tournament.

Then again it's time for a change.

This is the final season that the boys will play for three titles, as the Arizona Interscholastic Association increased its boys and girls soccer winter divisions to four divisions next year. That's good news for the small schools that compete in D-III, which often wrestle with schools with larger enrollments for the D-III crown.

Two of D-III's bigger schools, Coronado and Cortez, have dominated the soccer championship conversation in recent years, with each school reaching the previous three title games with the exception of last year.

Cortez, the 2013 and 2012 champ, lost in the quarterfinals last year to Northwest Christian, but Northwest Christian eventually lost to Coronado 3-1 in the 2014 championship game. Will Cortez and Coronado meet again in the end, or will a small school finally steal their thunder?

First round matchups with seeds ...

No. 1 Yuma Catholic vs. No. 16 Safford: This has a chance to be a high scoring encounter. Yuma Catholic is led by Jorge Ruiz, who has scored almost as many goals in his career as Safford scored (77 goals) this year.

No. 8 Thatcher vs. No. 9 Catalina: Catalina ended a three-year playoff drought this year under first-year coach Mere Cardenas. Thatcher is 13-5-1 and have three players, Kyler West, Bodie Rogers and Mateos Despaigne, who have each scored at least 10 goals or more.

No. 5 Northwest Christian vs. No. 12 Estrella Foothills: New coach Michael Navarro raved about his team's chemistry, including his leaders, center back Austin Rios and forward Marco Vasquez. Northwest Christian battled through some injuries this year, but each player on the roster stepped up and contributed to the team's success, coach Jeremy Witt said.

No. 4 Cortez vs. No. 13 Sahuarita: Goalkeeper Alexis Lopez is the leader of a Sahuarita team that lacked experience but not athleticism under new coach Louis Dachtyl. Cortez battles through some turmoil this season, when it forfeited a couple of matches, something that veteran coach Jose Corona hadn't experienced before.

No. 3 Mingus vs. No. 14 Sedona Red Rock: Forwards Jose Aviles and Francisco Hernandez helped keep Sedona Red Rock together when the team suffered some injuries and was adjusting to each others' style of play during the year. Mingus reached the quarterfinals last year and won 11 games in a row at one point this season thanks to its unselfish play.

No. 6 Coronado vs. No. 11 Walden Grove: Coronado has conceded only one goal to a D-III team this year and possesses likely the best midfielder in the division, Eduardo Medina. Walden Grove graduated 13 seniors last year, but Rudy Del Castillo and freshman Connor Young helped Walden Grove overcome its inexperience this year.

No. 7 Palo Verde vs. No. 10 Florence: Andy Moran is one of the state's leaders with 32 goals for a Florence team that went 3-8 last year. Palo Verde has won at least 13 games in each of the past three years despite having three different coaches.

No. 2 Amphitheater vs. No. 15 North Pointe: Amphitheater's strength is its defensive unit of sweeper Abram Flores, center back Carlos Gonzalez, sweeper Ruben Paredes, fullbacks Nhan Nguyen and goalkeeper Pedro Estudillo. North Pointe finished with its first winning record (9-5) in the past five seasons.

DIII Girls – Walden Grove's Young Team No. 1 Seed

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Walden Grove's girls soccer program put the school on the soccer map, and it only took the girls three seasons to do so.

In that short amount of time, the soccer program went from a 2-9-1 first year record to a 21-1-0 campaign in its third year of varsity of existence. The rapid reward was a No. 1 seed, Walden Grove's first in any sport, in the 2014-15 Division III girls soccer tournament.

The program is young with seven sophomores, but it's quite a sophomore class. Walden Grove's sophomore ringleader is Isabella Solorza, who also happens to lead the state in goals with 34.

But Solorza also is a great distributor. Her team-high 28 assists have helped set up sophomores Lauren Henn (15 goals), Malia Vanisi (14 goals) and Rachel Carrell (16 goals).

The experience of Walden Grove is on defense, where junior captains Sarah Carrell and Katrina Chesney reside along with Natalie Licht and Daelyn Mayer. Walden Grove is the No. 1 seed, but the favorite to win the D-III tournament this season is the defending state champ, Fountain Hills.

Alison Mabery's squad returned most of her key players from last season to help Fountain Hills fend off D-III and upper division teams this season. Fountain Hills hasn't lost to an Arizona team this year, but don't be surprised if Northwest Christian gives Fountain Hills a good match if the teams meet in the semifinals.

For Fountain Hills, Leah Carillo is a proven leader up front, and defender Sierra Jerriel is the backbone of the defense.

First round matchups and seeds ...

No. 1 Walden Grove vs. No. 16 Pusch Ridge. Pusch Ridge's defense, which hasn't allowed more than one goal since its first game of the year, will need to continue to step up when it faces one of the state's top offensive attacks.

No. 8 Valley Christian vs. No. 9 Nogales. Valley Christian is young, especially on defense, but can score (55 goals) with striker Madeline Brown (21 goals) leading the way. This is only the second time in the past nine seasons that Nogales (10-7-1) has won at least 10 games.

No. 5 Scottsdale Prep vs. 12 Palo Verde. Scottsdale Prep lost its top two offensive threats during the season to injury, but Miya Speno (18 goals, 9 assists) and captain Amber Miller, a defensive midfielder, stepped up. Jim Mentz's Palo Verde squad is 12-8-1.

No. 4 Rio Rico vs. No. 13 Scottsdale Christian. Rio Rico's lack of depth didn't keep it from earning its second consecutive playoff berth. Vero Cruz, Maria Delgadillo, Nicole Paco and Jackie Giron have each scored more than 10 goals for Rio Rico. Scottsdale Christian has seven freshmen and sophomores, including sophomore Kate Lawrence (19 goals).

No. 3 Fountain Hills vs. No. 14 Safford. Fountain Hills won its division in the Horizon Tournament of Champions tournament. Safford is 6-5-1.

No. 6 Mingus vs. No. 11 Pueblo. Mingus has been a model of consistency, winning at least 10 games in the past eight seasons. Pueblo earned its second consecutive playoff berth, the first time that's happened in the past 20 years. Annalisa Verdugo is dangerous in the midfield for Pueblo.

No. 7 Seton Catholic vs. No. 10 Sahuarita. Freshman Axenia Alo leads Seton Catholic, the 2014 state runner up, with 21 goals. Taylor McClelland has recorded 100 career goals for Sahuarita.

No. 2 Northwest Christian vs. No. 15 Yuma Catholic. He's not a new coach at Northwest Christian, but this is Jeff Penzone's first season as the girls head coach. Penzone carries one of the more balanced scoring and experienced teams in the tournament. Yuma Catholic has given up only two goals in its past nine games.
