In September, the Arizona Interscholastic Association officially sanctioned a state tournament for robotics, joining 27 other AIA sports/activities that already compete for state titles. The interest for robotics and STEM initiatives is growing at Arizona high schools and the AIA is proud to provide an opportunity for these teams to compete in a fun and exciting atmosphere.

The first high school robotics season in Arizona will start during the spring season and teams will compete in regional events run by FIRST, a non-profit organization that organizes robotic events internationally. The top 30 teams from the regionals will then advance to the May 23 state tournament at the Prescott Valley Events Center.

There are currently 49 high schools that have robotics teams in Arizona. The AIA's goal is to double that number of teams by May 2016. If you are interested in supporting the AIA robotics program and state tournament as a corporate partner, please contact AIA Sports Properties at 602-385-3828 or facosta@aia365.com.

D-I VB Destiny: Desert Vista vs. Xavier in Finals

By Les Willsey
aia365.com

The high seeds had their way in the opening round of the 2014 Division I volleyball tournament. That's no surprise. Seven of the eight high seeds prevailed with only No. 11 Horizon knocking off a higher seed in No. 6 Centennial. No huge upset there as Horizon has been a final-four-or-better participant each of the last six years with three titles to its credit be it D-I, D-II or 5A-II.

Here's a look at the quarterfinal matchups and predicted outcomes through the title match on Wednesday Nov. 12 at Mesquite High School:

No. 8 Mountain Pointe at No. 1 Desert Vista: These Ahwatukee rivals have met three times this season with Desert Vista prevailing in all three -- 2-0 twice in invitationals and 3-1 in a power-ranking match two weeks ago. Mountain Pointe has enjoyed its moments this season, but they haven't come against Desert Vista. Six of Mountain Pointe's nine starting rotation players are freshmen or sophomores. Coach Karen Gray says inconsistency occasionally bites her team, but when they are on they can be awesome. The Pride defeated Hamilton and Gilbert in matches this season for the first time in a long time. Coach Molly West calls this the best team she's coached in her nearly two decades at Desert Vista. Desert Vista is deep, never suffers on the attack regardless of its lineup and plays exceptional defense. The Thunder don't have one or two attackers who dominate. They spread it around with seven players possessing between 101 to 276 kills. The three leaders are Jenna Tunnell (276), Maggie Byrne-Quinn (215) and Hailey Harward (166). Desert Vista is 37-3 with no losses in best-of-five matches all season. The Thunder have dropped invitational matches to Xavier 2-1, 2-0 and to Hamilton 2-1. They have not been pushed to five sets this season and have beaten every team that's advanced to the quarterfinals. PREDICTED OUTCOME: Desert Vista advances and will reach the title match after defeating the Basha-Perry winner.

No. 5 Basha at No. 4 Perry: The rivalry between these Chandler schools is hotly contested regardless of sport. Basha has won all three meetings -- two 2-1 wins in invitationals and a 3-0 triumph in a power-raking match. Basha coach Terri Spann has installed a new system the last two years and her players have bought in. They are undersized compared to most of their opponents. They rely primarily on junior outside Justine Spann, who leads the state in kills and to a lesser extent middle Alexa Johnson. Terri Spann credits a good part her team's success to the play of freshman libero Kiana Gonsalves, who has been a defensive stalwart. Perry coach Fred Mann, also in his second year at the helm, has the Pumas with their highest seed ever at state. Perry features good size and a balanced offense led by kills leader Taylor Knoll and middle Maddie LeBlanc. Despite losing three times Perry can't be counted out in this one. The last two meetings were tight, three-set matches in tournaments. Perry has been bothered recently by injury and illness, but won't use that as an excuse where rivalry and intensity can make a difference. Perry has home-court advantage, but did also in its 3-0 loss to Basha on Sept. 30. Basha is 7-9 vs. the quarterfinalists and Perry is 3-6. PREDICTED OUTCOME: Basha advances, but bows out in semifinal vs. Desert Vista. Desert Vista is 4-0 this season against Basha.

No. 11 Horizon at No. 3 Xavier: These teams have played a bunch the last four years -- this will be the 16th meeting in that span. Horizon leads 8-7 in those matches. This year, however, has been Xavier's year vs. Horizon. Xavier is 3-0. Both teams entered the season lacking a lot of experience, but Xavier had arguably the state's best player on board in junior Khalia Lanier. Lanier has been joined by a lineup that's progressively gelled and is now a bonafide contender with a shot at repeating s D-I champ. Horizon coach Valorie McKenzie has nurtured a program that lost seven seniors and 9 players from last year's semifinalist. It took time for them to adjust to coaching and the abilities of each other. Xavier returned only two starters and graduated six senior so the 2014 squad is quite new. Several players have taken on large roles and they've learned to trust one another. The Gators bowed early to Desert Vista, but the emergence as the year has passed of setter Callie Jones and libero Kristin Largay as consistent and potent has been huge. The middles, led by Kate Even and Makenna Patterson have made teams vulnerable if they focus too much on Lanier. Xavier was 7-0 at the Gilbert Invitational, repeated as Nike Platinum Division champs and have defeated every team that's advanced to the quarterfinals save Perry who it did not play. PREDICTED OUTCOME: Xavier advances, goes on to the finals after it defeats the Gilbert-Hamilton winner.

No. 7 Gilbert at No. 2 Hamilton: Despite injury prior to the season and along the way that have hampered depth, Hamilton has been as consistent as any team in the division. The Huskies returned many players who were a huge part of last year's runner-up finish at state to Xavier. Drawing Gilbert, regardless of its seed, is arguably the toughest of the quarterfinal bouts. Hamilton likely would have to go through Xavier and Desert Vista as well to win their elusive first state title. Hamilton returned starters McKenna Woodford, Olivia Hallaran, Hailey Babcock and Sydney Lostumo so there was a good core on hand for coach Sharon Vanis. Hamilton's offense revolves around outsides Woodford and Hallaran and middle Anderson. Gilbert has played less than .500 against the quarterfinalists as a whole, but beaten five of the seven. They are led offensively by outside and all-round talent, Makenna Martin, a junior and sophomore outside KT Lines. Junior libero Kamryn Hill leads the defense. The Tigers serve aggressively and rely on defense. PREDICTED OUTCOME: Gilbert advances in a mild upset, but exits with a semifinal loss to Xavier.

Div. II & Div. V State Tournament Previews

Volleyball Quarterfinals Division II Roundup

Oro Valley Ironwood Ridge made it to the semifinal round last year before losing in three sets to eventual Division II champion Phoenix Sunnyslope. The Nighthawks were the No. 2 seed in that bracket and they have improved a bit with the top seed this year.

With a record of 19-1, Ironwood Ridge has set the standard for Southern Arizona with their only ranking loss coming against D-I power Chandler Hamilton in five sets. They feature All-State performers Aunesty Jantz from the outside and Jordan Weatherless at setter along with a roster full of future college standouts.

"The biggest challenge we face is the expectation to win out of Southern Arizona, coach Bill Lang told AIA365.com. "There hasn't been a big school Tucson state champ since 1993 when Rincon won it. We are well aware of that, and reaching the semifinals in six of the past seven years without making it to the finals has fueled our senior class."

Lang took the Nighthawks to the Division 4A championship final in 2004.

No. 2 Sunnyslope finished 16-1 this year and they hold a 2-1 edge on Ironwood Ridge in invitational matches.

Amber LeTarte has coached the Vikings to six state titles since 2006 with her only misses coming in 2007 and 2012. The Vikings took second in the Westwood Tournament of Champions and first in the Goldwater Invitational.

Junior outside Skylar Wine tops the team with almost 400 kills and junior setter Katie Oleksak is approaching 900 assists.

No. 3 Tucson Catalina Foothills has some firepower to get in the Vikings way on their side of the bracket with seniors Julia Cravens and Delaney Dunagan leading the team and No. 4 Scottsdale Notre Dame Prep and No. 5 Tucson Salpointe look to do the same to Ironwood Ridge.

Ironwood Ridge's Aunesty Jantz

Desert Christian enters the Division V State Championships as one of the top seeds.

Division V Roundup

Top-seeded Glendale Prep only loss one set in section play. It has been a dominating performance for the Griffins under Jenn Roberge. They are led by freshman Issa Martell, sophomore Riley Roberge, junior Giana Cirulli and senior Emma Welch-Murphy.

"Our team's success is greatly attributed to the hard work of each team member to fulfill their role on this year's squad," said Roberge. "The team is combined with youth and wisdom. Seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshman are all producing for the team."

On the other side of the bracket is No. Pima and head coach Jerry Hekeka along with his leaders Kaylee Kay, Jessica Taylor and Callie Thygeron.

The Roughriders went undefeated in their section and prepared for tournament play by taking part in the Marana Mountain View Invitational where they played teams such as Vail Cienega and Tucson High.

Squads such as No. 3 Tucson Desert Christian, No. 4 St. David and No. 5 Tucson Gregory School look to have the best shot at an upset in the Division V playoffs.

St. David is the defending state champions but they lost their top four players to graduation from their 38-1 dream season from a year ago.

D-III VB: Wide Open as Recent Past Suggests

By Les Willsey
aia365.com

Division III volleyball has the reputation recently of being wide open as far as who wins the state title. In the last three seasons there have been three different champs and three different runners-up. Those champs are Seton (2011), Tuba City (2012) and Flagstaff (2013) and the runners-up Catalina (2011), Safford (2012) and Cactus (2013). No other division in the state can lay claim to that variety. Two of the top four seeds the last three years has advanced to the final four. The other two have come from as far back as No. 11.

So what's in store in 2014? Likely more of the same. Here's a brief look individually at the top 8 teams by seed and what might happen over the next two days Friday Nov. 7 and Saturday Nov. 8 at Prescott Valley Event Center:

#1 MONUMENT VALLEY: Monument Valley features eight seniors and they are down to their last shot at a state title. That last chance is their primary motivation. The Mustangs are led by senior middle hitter Ohiyah Shirley and senior outside hitter Taylor Worker. Both average 10 kills and three aces per match. In the previous three seasons Monument Valley has been seeded 8th, 4th and 4th. It lost in the quarters twice and semis once. Two of the teams the Mustangs lost to finished runners-up and the other was champion.

#2 CACTUS: Cactus wants badly to take the final step it didn't manage in the final vs. Flagstaff. Players have taken to hear whispers at the outset this was a rebuilding year for the Cobras. Leading the team in the middle is Tara Melton with defense keyed by Marissa Monrial and Melissa Pignietello.

#3 FLAGSTAFF: Flagstaff thrives on not being one-dimensional. They Eagles faced five of the top eight teams in the seeding and have won their share of those. The play of outside hitter Courtney Leffel, middle Jasmin Joerger, outside Adriana Aguayo, setter Emma Rogers and libero Kayla Morales are the ammo that says the Eagles could go back-to-back.

#4 TUBA CITY: Like Monument Valley, Tuba City possesses plenty of playoff experience. Two four-year starters (Tate Tsinigine and Rynell Natoney), a three-year starter (Samytha Parrish), a two-year starter (Shauntae Chee) and a three-year varsity player now starting (Rachel Yazzie). The Warriors are 1-8 against the likes of Flagstaff, Monument Valley and Seton this season. They may have to face all three to win it.

#5 SETON CATHOLIC: Not an easy draw for Seton in trying to get its first title since 2011. The Sentinels did handle Florence in four recently (lost to Florence last year in the first round), but assuming they advance waiting could be Tuba City, Monument Valley and Cactus or Flagstaff. Led by senior outside Reggie VanDevender and junior hitter Kirsten Companik, Seton has a team capable of a title even if it is a tough road.

#6 SNOWFLAKE: Snowflake has been tested often by northern Arizona's best from D-III, but show a 1-5 record in matches with Monument Valley, Flagstaff and Coconino. The Lobos have tangled with larger schools D-II and D-I that have helped despite some extra losses. Snowflake is led by senior outside hitter Emma Tenney, junior middle Aubrey Flake and libero Shayna Austin..

#7 SAGUARO: Saguaro was beat up a bit in September with several concussions to deal with, but has not lost in its last 18 matches (17-0-1) dating back to Sept. 20. The Sabercats lost to Thunderbird and Youngker without a couple starters in mid-September. They'll need to be healthy to make a run, which they seem to be for postseason. Top players for Saguaro are Bethany Wedepohl, who runs the offense, attackers Sarah and Kiley Davis and Jessica Reega. Sarah Davis is the kills leader. Defense is led by libero Jordan Smith.

#8 COCONINO: Coconino enters with some confidence thanks to late victories over Snowflake and Monument Valley. The Panthers did get swept twice in October by Flagstaff, but feel good about making a run. Should they handle Holbrook in the first round they'll likely take on Monument Valley. Coconino has played with some injuries to key players. Leading attacker Kierstin Fowler was cleared to play just before the season began and Michayla Cabrera is just now back from a broken ankle that sidelined her most of the year.

TOP BRACKET: #16 Empire vs. #1 Monument Valley; #9 Holbrook vs. #8 Coconino; #12 Florence vs. #5 Seton; #13 Page vs. #4 Tuba City. -- The two teams likely locks to win in the first round are Monument Valley and Tuba City. Too strong for their foes. Coconino has faced Holbrook once early in the year in a tournament and escaped with a 2-1 win. Coconino finished the season beating Monument Valley in five on its home floor and lost in a sweep to rival Flagstaff. Seton has a score to settle with Florence, which knocked Seton out of the tournament last year via a first-round sweep. Seton has beaten Florence twice this season and tied them in another. Florence has been without its top attacker from last season Kenzie DeVries all year with a torn ACL.

PREDICTED OUTCOME: Looking at a Monument Valley-Coconino rematch in the quarters and Seton taking on Tuba City as all the high seeds advance Saturday morning's semifinal from this bracket -- Monument Valley vs. Seton..

BOTTOM BRACKET: #14 Safford vs. #3 Flagstaff, #11 Youngker vs. #6 Snowflake, #10 Thunderbird vs. #7 Saguaro, #15 Greenway vs. #2 Cactus.-- Flagstaff and Cactus should secure comfortable wins in the opening round. The other two are more interesting. Youngker has scored a big win over Saguaro early and have played several of the top D-III teams from the Valley. It has the ability to knock off Snowflake if the Lobos doze. Youngker returns six players with a good amount of varsity experience. Thunderbird also hasn't faced many of the top D-III teams with most of its losses coming against D-I teams in tournaments. Thunderbird's lineup features four seniors and is led by outside hitter Lyndsey Weiler. In Saguaro the Chiefs get the hottest team in the division. Saguaro, however, has beaten only one of the top five seeds (Seton) and has not played any northern Arizona teams -- four of which are in the top six.

PREDICTED OUTCOME: Flagstaff and Youngker are the picks for one quarterfinal match. Saguaro and Cactus figure to be locking up for the first time in the bracket's other quarter. Come Saturday it's likely to be a Flagstaff-Cactus semifinal -- a rematch of last year's title game.

Division IV Preview ... Chandler Prep Top Seed

By Jose Garcia
aia365.com

Chandler Prep: It was the only team in Arizona that finished the regular season unbeaten. Coach Sarah Baughman guided her team to the No. 1, the first No. 1 seed a team from Chandler Prep has ever received. Julia Turpin, a junior setter was averaging about eight assists per set. Hannah Weber, a sophomore libero/defensive specialist, was averaging about 1.4 aces per set. Taylor Sheppy, a sophomore outside hitter, was averaging 2.5 kills per set. Jessica Bell, a junior middle, was averaging 2.3 kills per set.

Willcox: The team finished with an 11-4 power ranking and nabbed the final seed in the state tournament.

Northland Prep: The squad achieved the best record in its school's volleyball history thanks in part to the play of its two new setters, Madi Becker and Myka Becenti. "They have worked hard, sacrificed much, maintained excellent grades and grown as teammates and individuals," coach Lacey Ebersole said.

Tempe Prep: A tough schedule prepared this team for the tournament. Middle Claire TERNYK, outside hitter Taylor Shroll and outside hitter Blaise Johnson-Stevens are the leaders.

Tombstone: The Lady Yellowjackets had to move some players around to fill spots this season. But the offseason training helped the team prepare for their new roles. And the play of setters Maira Nunez and Abby Gonzales and outside hitter Shaynie Bristow helped their teammates adjust to their new roles.

Sedona Red Rock: This is the deepest team coach John Parks has had, and that says a lot because Parks program won a title in 2012. Devonnie Ryter was averaging 4.2 kills per game.

Phoenix Country Day: The team finished with a 10-7 power rankings record and earned the No. 13 state seed.

Valley Christian: The team finished with a 23-12-1 overall regular season record. Senior Ashley Harrison was averaging a team-high 3.7 kills per set, and freshman Courtney Dyer was second with 2.5 kills per set.

Veritas Prep: The defending champ graduated a lot of talent last year, but coach Madge Ferreira and her girls kept fighting this season to earn another state berth. Senior Catherine Abel was averaging more than four digs per set.

Thatcher: Four-year varsity player Annee Alder and setter Santana Morales are the driving force behind Thatcher's goal of winning state this year. "We are very talented in so many areas and have to continue to work on finishing the game at the first opportunity and not letting our opponent creep up," coach Ellen Robertson said.

Scottsdale Christian: Injuries, sickness, and youth didn't keep coach Julie Southwick from guiding her team to the playoffs. The team only has one senior, Sierra Bauder, but she leads the team in kills, averaging 7 per set.

Parker: With the handful of leaders on this team, the Lady Broncs feel they can finally get past the first round. Senior Reyna Castillo is the team's vocal leader and serving specialist. Captain JaiLynn Butler is the team's leader in aces and kills. Kaeley Nation and Scotlyn Manson are the team's biggest threats on the outside.

Pinon: The Lady Eagles suffered a big blow when their coach, Nellie McCurtain, suffered a health setback early in the year. But the team marched on under McCurtain's daughter/coach, Francine, earning just the third trip to state in the program's history.

Horizon Honors: She's just sophomore, but Alexa Smythe was leading the team in kills. The team wrapped up its regular season with a 17-10 overall record and was seeded 7th in the state tournament.

Ganado: Asdzaan Huenemann and JaeLynn Curly were each averaging more than two kills per set for Ganado (20-16 overall regular season record).

Northwest Christian: The young team learned this year what it takes to play at the varsity level. They've got an excellent leader and athlete in Julissa Carrizosa, the team's statistical leader in kills, blocks and digs.
