D-IV Boys: Can Yuma Catholic Protect Its Top Seed?

Top-10 Seeds Mix of Schools from D-II, D-III and D-IV

By Les Willsey
azpreps365.com

The shuffling of schools in divisions and the addition of a division this season makes for interesting handicapping of the Division IV boys basketball tournament.

A quick review. The last four years basketball was comprised of four divisions. This year it's five. Some schools in D-III last year are D-IV this year. D-V didn't exist last year and most of those schools were in D-IV last year. There are some who competed in D-II last year now in D-IV.

You get the idea. Of the top-10 seeds in this year's D-IV tournament, four competed in D-III last year (#1 Yuma Catholic, #5 Alchesay, #6 American Leadership and #7 Thatcher; four competed in the old D-IV (#2 Phoenix Country Day, #4 Pima, #9 Northwest Christian and #10 Arizona Lutheran) and two competed in D-II (#3 Buckeye and #8 Coronado).

This bit of chemistry will be fun to watch unfold. Over the past four years seeding has been true when it comes down to the semis and finals. Only one school outside the top 7 has reached the semis in that span and the finals have pitted 1-2 twice, 1-3 once and 2-4 once.

The tournament begins Friday (Feb. 19) at neutral sites (Bradshaw Mountain HS and Prescott Valley Event Center). The round of 16 at neutral sites on Saturday (Feb. 20) followed the next week by quarterfinals Thursday (Feb. 25), semifinals Friday (Feb. 26) and the final Saturday (Feb. 27). The last three rounds are at Prescott Valley Event Center.

Here's a brief look at the top-10 seeds and how they set up for bids to the 2016 title:

No. 1 Yuma Catholic (26-1): The Shamrocks have the best record and are in the midst of a 24-game winning streak. Their only loss was to D-II Copper Canyon in a December invitational in Yuma. (Copper Canyon missed the D-II playoffs by one spot.) Yuma Catholic competed in D-III last season and was eliminated in the round of 16. This after a final four appearance in D-III the year before. The Shamrocks are led by senior guards Julian Jones and Brandon Hunter. They have two tight wins against fellow section member Buckeye (No. 3), two wins over No. 9 NWC and two triumphs over No. 10 Arizona Lutheran.

No. 2 Phoenix Country Day (22-5): The Eagles were a quarterfinalist in D-IV last year where they lost to eventual runner-up Scottsdale Prep. They have held serve and more this season. Senior point guard Andrew Ekmark averages 24 points a game and has scoring balance behind him from forward Spencer Thompson and guards Yash Muley and Jordon Wong. PCD played two epic contests with section mate Coronado, winning in double overtime and losing by five. It's only other game against a top-10 seed was a decisive win over Arizona Lutheran, the defending champion.

No. 3 Buckeye (25-4): The Hawks benefitted this year by exiting D-II and winding up in D-IV. They were 11-13 in D-II last year and did not reach the state tournament. On much more competitive ground, Buckeye has a good shot at the title, led by senior Art Bojorquez. A pair of wins over NWC are its lone wins against top-10 tourney teams. Buckeye last won a boys title in 1990 competing in 3A. They also won in 1987 and 1988.

No. 4. Pima (25-3): The Roughriders reached the D-IV semis last year, falling to eventual champ Arizona Lutheran. They've played a healthy schedule with three games against Thatcher (two wins) and a split with No. 14 Pusch Ridge. Their only other loss was against defending D-III champ Snowflake. Familiar names from its eight-man football championship squad in November are hoops stalwarts such as 6-foot-5 junior post Justin Kartchner and forward Johny Boren. Guards Ryan Johnson and Braven Grant lead the backcourt.

No. 5 Alchesay (25-5): The Falcons were one of those competing in D-III last year. They qualified for state, but exited in the round of 16. Three of their five losses are to D-III schools (#2 Snowflake, #6 Window Rock and #12 Holbrook) and the other two to D-V #3 San Carlos. Marquee wins in division have come against Thatcher and NWC. Senior guard Blake Lupe is the leading scorer averaging 13 points a game. The Falcons generally rely on balanced scoring behind him from Raekwon Cosay, Olajuwon Quintero and Lamar Ray.

No. 6 American Leadership Academy (25-5): The Patriots had a good season last year (18-10), but didn't qualify for state competing in D-III. They have a good inside-outside attack led by 6-6 forward Donovan Hanna (15 points a game) and scorer in the backcourt in senior Myles Thompson (12 ppg). D-IV losses are to Coronado and Chandler Prep. American Leadership has its share of wins against tournament top-15 seeds including Thatcher, AZ Lutheran, Florence and Pusch Ridge.

No. 7 Thatcher (20-8): The Eagles hung tough in D-III last year advancing to the semifinals before narrowly falling to Combs (46-44). Thatcher is usually in the title chase regardless of division. Half of its losses in 2016 are to D-III teams and all of those were by double digits. Against top-10 D-IV seeds the Eagles are 1-4 (two losses to Pima, one each to American Leadership and Arizona Lutheran). Several players from last year's deep run are back -- post Jared Jorgensen, forward Jace Smith and guards Chase Layton and Carson Goodman.

No. 8 Coronado (17-9): Like Buckeye, the Dons have made vast improvement dropping from D-II to D-IV. Coronado was 6-20 last season. They've lost most of their games to D-I, II and III opponents. They enter the tournament with momentum from a huge rally in the final period that allowed them to defeat No. 2 Phoenix Country Day and earn a split of tight games with PCD. Coronado also split close games with #12 Chandler Prep. The Dons are led by senior guards Braden Pixley and Aaron Rhymes.

No. 9 Northwest Christian (15-10): The Crusaders competed in D-IV last year, but didn't qualify for the tournament posting a 9-17 record. This year a reversal. NWC has five losses to D-II and D-III schools. The other five are to top-5 D-IV tournament seeds -- #1 YC, #3 Buckeye (2), #4 Pima and #5 Alchesay. They have a handful of wins over other teams in the D-IV field -- namely #10 Arizona Lutheran (2), and #11 Lee Williams. The Crusaders missed a first-round bye by one slot and open with #24 St. Johns.

No. 10 Arizona Lutheran (15-11): The Coyotes lost a big chunk of their D-IV title team from last year to graduation so they've had to retool a bit. Seven of their 11 losses this season are to top-10 D-IV seeds -- #1 YC (2), #2 PCD, #3 Buckeye #6 American Leadership and #9 NWC (2). ALA has work to do if it wants to reach the D-IV final for the fifth straight year. It's won the last two and been runner-up the two prior to that. Forwards Gabe Galvan, Aaron Rosenbaum and guard Cameron Haag were integral pieces to the title run a year ago. Senior guards Tremell Carson and Timmy Lastrange have stepped up this year to help. ALA opens the tournament taking on Morenci. A win there earns it a shot vs. #7 Thatcher.

Div. V Boys Basketball Preview

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

The Gregory School's Dr. Michelle Berry might get a chance to pull off a rare double-coaching performance if the schedule and first round goes according to plan.

Berry is coaching the girls and boys basketball teams of the Tucson school this season. Here's the problem and reward: Both of Dr. Berry's teams reached the playoffs.

The first round is manageable for Dr. Berry since the girls will play on Feb. 19 and the boys received a first round bye. But if the girls advance, Dr. Berry will likely get a chance to coach her programs in back-to-back games.

The Gregory School boys' second round game is on Feb. 20 at 4:30 p.m. at Prescott High, the same location Dr. Berry's girls might play a 6 p.m. playoff game if they defeat No. 17 seed Arizona College Prep in the first round.

The Gregory School's girls are seeded No. 16. So stay tuned to see if Dr. Berry will be stretched even more during her postseason coaching duties.

D-V OUTLOOK

No. 17 AZ College Prep-No. 16 Baboquivari winner vs. No. 1 Pinon: Pinon lost 7 of its first 10 games but finished the season with a 15-game win streak. Pinon has won at least 10 games in 11 of its previous 12 seasons. Three players are averaging 12 points per game for Baboquivari, junior Tarantino Baptisto, sophomore Weylin Hendricks and senior Jamal Toro. Arizona College Prep followed its 16-12 2014-15 campaign with a 19-10 year this season in its third year as a program. AZ College Prep dresses only one senior, Ryan Tonkinson.

No. 24 Ash Fork-No. 9 NFL Yet winner vs. No. 8 Miami: The Miami Vandals (21-8) are back. It's been a long time since the program enjoyed this type of success. The team is riding a 9-game win streak. Freshman Shedeedren Bryant is averaging a team-high 17.3 ppg in 25.1 minutes per game for NFL Yet Academy. The 6-3 shooting guard also leads his team with nine boards per game. His teammate, Dre Quan Bryant, a sophomore, is third on the team with 11.5 ppg. Izaak Ruiz is second on the team with 12.7 ppg. For 15-9 Ash Fork, senior Antonio Cisneros was averaging 14.6 points and 7.7 rebounds per game.

No. 21 Bagdad-No. 12 Tohono O'Odham winner vs. No. 5 Valley: Mark Forster has coached at Valley for more than 30 years. The team has nine seniors and most of his boys play year-round basketball, participating in about 60 games per year. The team's shooting skills and defense are "excellent." The leaders are senior Apollo Smith, a versatile player and scorer (15.5 ppg, 8.1 rpg, 5.3 assists per game, four triple doubles) and junior Johansen Yazzie (22.6 points per game), who is one of the team's best shooters and one of the best defensive players Forster has seen. The team runs motion mostly and a 2-3 zone but will go man-to-man if needed. Bagdad is 13-7 and won more than 10 games for only the second time in the past 12 seasons.

Tohono O'Odham finished with its best regular season in more than a decade.

No. 20 Many Farms-No. 13 St. Augustine winner vs. No. 4 Bisbee: "We have been successful because of the character and work ethic of our players," Bisbee coach Matthew Gigliotti. "We have many young men with great leadership qualities on our team, including Craig Trappe, with his exceptional shooting ability, an Jordan Lopez, with his outstanding on-court leadership."

The team often plays a 2-3 zone defense. Maturity and experience helped St. Augustine go from 9-15 last year to 23-5 this season. Last year the team played with just two upper classmen and four underclassmen in starting lineup duties. This year's experience has also helped in close fourth quarter games.

"This year it seems that we have more confidence and feel we have a chance to win no matter the opponent," coach Mike Reyna said. St. Augustine senior Mark Lugo's all-out approach is infectious and creates havoc on defense. Sophomore Andrew Reyna's basketball IQ is high, knows when to push the ball and his shooting stretches defenses, coach said. Junior Chance Strawderman creates scoring opportunities for himself and teammates off dribble drives and often is asked to guard the opponent's top player. Despite being outsize in the post, junior Max Navarette's quickness helps him rebound and cover guards on pick and rolls. St. Augustine likes to play an up-tempo game, but it's versatility allows it to adjust on the fly, on offense and defense. This is the first time that the school reached the postseason. This is only the second time in the past 12 years that Many Farm has reached double digits in regular season wins.

No. 19 Williams-No. 14 Fort Thomas winner vs. No. 3 San Carlos: Consistency. Comradery. Team. They are the cornerstones of this year's San Carlos squad. Junior John Cutter is a threat from the outside and off the dribble and has improved defensively this year. Sophomore Al Case is quick and tenacious. Sophomore Leo Pechuli is short, but the quick guard rebounds well and has excellent ball handling and shooting skills. Sophomore Christian Noise is also very quick and will make teams pay if he is left open. Sophomore Michael Antonio gives the team some size in the middle and is a streaky shooter who plays very hard and makes the extra pass, coach said. The team plays a full court zone and prefers to play a spread motion offense. Coach Terry Antonio has done a good job of spreading out the minutes to players throughout San Carlos' season. Small school football coaching legend John Bryant guided Fort Thomas' boys basketball team to a 18-10 record in his first season as coach. Andrew Karlsberger was averaging 14.9 ppg for Williams.

No. 22 Valley Union-No. 11 El Capitan winner vs. No. 6 Santa Cruz: Santa Cruz is enjoying a rebirth of its sports programs this year. The boys basketball team certainly is. The team won 20 games for the first time since 2006-07. Four players were averaging double figures in points, Devin Neal, Eliseo Camargo, Nate Neal and Anthony Ibarra. Olan Barlow, Levi Barlow and Jaysen Bateman were averaging a combined 42 of the 57.5 points El Capitan scores per game. Senior Junior Gamez was averaging 16.5 ppg and 6.6 rpg for Valley Union.

No. 23 Rough Rock-No. 10 Tonopah Valley winner vs. No. 7 Red Mesa: Red Mesa started the season 1-3 but turned it around to record its third consecutive season with at least 16 wins. This season, Tonopah Valley's 16 wins tied the previous high the team recorded in 2005-06. Senior Julian Perry leads Tonopah Valley with his 17.1 ppg and is tied with Hugo Garcia with a 6.9 rebounds per game average. Junior Ranley Yazzie and senior Devin Smith were each averaging 10 rebounds per game.

No. 18 Superior-No. 15 Arizona Charter winner vs. No. 2 The Gregory School: "This season has been a success for many reasons, but the main reasons are the willingness of the boys to learn, take direction and never give up," Arizona Charter coach Kevin Grubb said. "With such a young program, much of our season was spent on teaching the boys how to transfer their abilities to the high school game." Senior point guard Eric Castillo and sophomore forward Ian Jackson have brought a winning attitude and are holding their teammates accountable, Grubb added. Because of the team's youth, the team runs some basic sets as it learns to understand situational basketball.

"This year the boys at ACA have worked since Day 1, coming to practice each day with an unselfish attitude and playing every minute, whether in a game or practice at full speed," Grubb said. Sophomore Marcos Bueno was leading Superior with 15.5 points per game and teammate Jalon Murray was averaging 9.2 rebounds per game. This is only the second time in the past 12 seasons that Superior has won at least 15 games. The Gregory School prefers to play a high pressure defense and run-and-gun offense. "When that breaks down we pray," Dr. Berry said.

The team was without Nick Rosquist (dislocated finger) for a week, but the team stepped up and went 3-0. With only one senior, the team is young. "They enjoy each other's company," Dr. Berry said. "They drive each other a little crazy at times. But at the end of the day they are there for each other through thick and thin."

Div. V Girls Basketball Preview

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

The Division V girls state tournament was introduced this year in basketball, but all of the teams are very familiar with the tournament's No. 1 seed — Valley.

A handful of starters returned from the Valley team that reached the Division IV girls title game last year, and that experience carried the team this season to a 24-1 record. But don't crown Valley just yet.

It knows that winning the title won't be easy. What follows is an outlook on the teams on all of D-V's playoff teams.

PREVIEW

First round games are at either Prescott High or Yavapai Community College on Feb. 19. Second round to be determined. Quarterfinals are at Yavapai Community College. Semifinals and final at Prescott Valley Events Center. Check azpreps365.com for times.

No. 17 AZ College Prep-No. 16 The Gregory School winner vs. No. 1 Valley: AZ College Prep has three seniors who have "paved" the way for their team's underclassmen. Brandi Wilson, one of D-V's quickest players, leads AZ College Prep in steals. Senior forward Janelle St. Clair is the team's leader in points in the paint and rebounds. But a sophomore, Kim Rumsey, also contributes, as her ball handling has improved during the season. AZ College Prep is an aggressive team that zone traps all angles and loves to play hard, leading to plenty of turnovers by opponents. The team improved its scoring by 17 points per game this season compared to last year. Its experience helps it run its motion based, high-low offensive sets. The team gained a lot of confidence early when it defeated two D-IV teams. The dedication from the kids helped the fourth year program reach the playoffs for the first time this year, coach Mike Dominguez said. At 24-1, Valley is the team to beat this year. The team is shooting 56 percent, and senior Latisha Nastacio was averaging 28.2 points per game. Junior Taylor Thompson was averaging 28.5 points per game for The Gregory School.

No. 24 Tombstone-No. 9 St. David winner vs. No. 8 St. Michael: The senior leadership and varsity experience of Hunter Begaye, Iyona Freeland and Chael Moore can help explain why St. Michael's won 18 games for the second consecutive season. St. Michael's plays an up tempo game and pressing/trapping defense. The team was without two starters during the mid portion of the season, but they are back and at full strength. Five players are averaging between 8-10 points per game for St. David, which also averages 31.8 rebounds per game. Sophomore Ashton Dotson (18.3 ppg) and Izzy White (13.2 ppg) are Tombstone's scoring leaders.

No. 21 San Manuel-No. 12 Red Mesa winner vs. No. 5 Tonopah Valley: Tonopah Valley is enjoying its best year in its program's 10-year history. The team has won 12 in a row since a 28-26 loss to Bowie San Simon. Red Mesa is one of this division's dark horses. It only lost by four in its final regular season game to No. 1 Valley, which had beaten Red Mesa by almost 20 points on Jan. 29. San Manuel (10-10 overall) recorded a double digit win season after a 4-win year last year.

No. 20 El Capitan-No. 13 Mogollon winner vs. No. 4 San Carlos: Mogollon is a young, hard-working and dedicated bunch, coach Jim Maner said. The team is led by captains Samantha Despain, Jennifer Maner and four-year starter Mercedeiz Fabok (11 ppg). It's been more than a decade since Mogollon (16-7 overall) won this many games. San Carlos (25-

3) has won 20 or more games in eight of the past nine seasons. Mariah Kozie (18.5 ppg) is shooting 53 percent from the field, and Adrianna Haozous (12.4 ppg) is averaging a team-high 3.6 steals per game for San Carlos. Anne Blackmore was averaging 10.7 points per game for El Capitan.

No. 19 Valley Union-No. 14 Baboquivari winner vs. No. 3 Rock Point: Coach Marila Begay's Rock Point girls are 14-3. The other good news for Begay is that Valley, which handed Rock Point two of its losses this year, is playing on the opposite side of the state bracket. The only other loss Rock Point suffered this year was to Cuba New Mexico. Rock Point hasn't faced either Valley Union or Baboquivari this year. Baboquivari coach Joseph Mease and his staff got a late start with implementing their system, but boy did they more than make up for it. The team just completed its best regular season in a long time. "We are on a mission," Mease said. "We will do our best." It's difficult to ID just one leader on Mease's team, he said. Senior Summer Hendricks and freshman Evelyn Young are "coachable and work hard on and off the court." Mease added that his team is quick, plays aggressive and possess a high basketball IQ. Senior Jessica Garcia (11 ppg) and Rachel Cummings (10.9 pp) are Valley Union's scoring leaders.

No. 22 Cibecue-No. 11 Santa Cruz winner vs. No. 6 Ray: Since Aaron Chenoweth took over as Ray's coach in 2012 the program's win total has increased each year. This year, the team is a win away from its first 20-win season in the past decade. Senior Savannah Willis is hauling down a team-high 6.8 rebounds per game and also scoring 11.6 per game. Another Savannah, sophomore Savannah Rodriguez, is Ray's leading scorer (12.6 ppg). What a job Larry Beets and his Santa Cruz girls are doing this year, finishing with a plus .500 record (15-6) for the first time in more than a decade. Santa Cruz didn't appear like it was headed to a good season when it started 2-4, but it turned its season around. Cibecue lost its final two regular season games, but its record was strong enough to help it reach the tournament.

No. 23 Bowie/San Simon-No. 10 Greyhills Academy winner vs. No. 7 Duncan: Senior Makenna Merrell is averaging 20.7 ppg for Duncan (19-8). Merrell, Brenda Rodriguez and Cassidy Waters are each averaging seven boards per game. Duncan's 5-game win streak was snapped in its final regular season game by Fort Thomas. If Duncan beats Bowie/San Simon, it'll face Fort Thomas in the second round. Duncan defeated Bowie/San Simon twice this season, but it's very difficult to beat a team three times in one year. She's just a freshman, but C. Rourke was leading Bowie/San Simon in rebounds per game (8.6).

No. 18 Pinon-No. 15 Patagonia winner vs. No. 2 Ft. Thomas: The Fort Thomas girls are unselfish and have bought in to what coach Lee Haws is preaching this season. "The girls have fun watching their teammates have success," Haws said. "There hasn't been any drama on the varsity team, and the girls are willing to put aside any small differences and just go out and compete and help each other to be successful." The staff, administration, and community also deserve an assist for the support they've given team this year, Haws added. The stats are spread out among the girls on the team. Ft. Thomas plays an up tempo game and a 1-2-2 defense. The team wound up getting the No. 2 seed despite losing its second leading scorer, Kaitlyn Hinton, a sophomore. She had ACL surgery in August. Patagonia is 13-5 this year and finished with a winning regular season record for the third consecutive year. Pinon won nine games for the first time since the 2008-09 season
