Three New Battles, One Repeat in D-I

Top Seed Advanced Down the Line in Opening Round

There were no surprises in the first round of the Division I state football playoffs. The high seeds won every game, although a few were closer than most imagined.

The quarterfinals feature three matchups that did not take place during the regular season -- hard to do this season with only 17 teams in the division. There is one rematch. Here's a brief look at each matchup. Games are all Friday (Nov. 13) at 7 p.m. at the site of the high seed:

#8 Desert Vista (7-4) at #1 Chandler (10-1): These teams haven't played since 2012 and recent history has favored Desert Vista (5 wins in the last 7 meetings dating back to 2007). That was a time Desert Vista was the better program, advancing to two finals and winning one. That isn't the case now and Chandler is the favorite to prevail this time. Chandler toyed with Boulder Creek in the first round. The Wolves figure to have all their weapons available. Chase Lucas has been back a couple weeks now, but standout wide out N'Keal Harry has missed essentially the last three games due to injury. If Chandler's defense prevents big plays it should be fine. The Wolves' offense, led by versatile quarterback Mason Moran. Moran accounted for 237 yards rushing and passing and three TDs last week. Desert Vista avenged an earlier loss to Red Mountain to advance. The Thunder have played musical chairs at quarterback and senior Alex Farina found the empty chair. He's responded the last two weeks averaging 215 yards passing. The stalwarts of the offense are junior running back Lelon Dillard and sophomore receiver Keishaud White.

#5 Chaparral (9-2) at #4 Desert Ridge (9-2): These teams have almost no history vs. one another. The last time and only time they played was in 2004 with Chaparral winning in the fledging years of the Jaguars' program.. Desert Ridge is as healthy as it's been in a long tiime and that showed in outlasting a hot Liberty team in the opening round. Desert Ridge features a solid back in junior Jathan Tenorio, who has rushed for 1,205 yards and 14 TDs. Tenorio has seven 100-yard games this season. The Jags have two dangerous receivers in Jalen Harris and Tavon Patrick. Harris has 46 catches for 708 yards. Chaparral's two losses this season were to last year's D-I champ Chandler and last year's D-II champ Centennial. The Firebirds were one of the teams that had to dig deep to beat a decided underdog in Highland in the first round, 19-14. The Firebirds play good defense and are likely going to rely on that unit to win. The most points the Firebirds allowed in regulation this season was 27 to Liberty. They've allowed only 17 points per game. They are balanced on offense with a nearly perfect 50-50 split. Running backs Kurt Shughart and Spencer Greenberg are equally effective with 1,668 yards between them and 23 TDs. Quarterback Grayson Barry has a good batch of receivers led by Ryan Bright.

#6 Centennial (8-3) at #3 Hamilton (10-1): This is a rematch from Sept. 24 played at Hamilton and won by Hamilton, 34-27. Hamilton seemingly had that game in hand in the latter stages of the third quarter with a 28-7 lead, but had to hang on in the final seconds for the win. Both teams lost their regular-season finales to rivals -- Hamilton to Chandler and Centennial to Liberty. Centennial bounced back back by throttling Basha in the first round last week while Hamilton scuffled before finally bring down Perry. Hamilton has been more successful throwing the ball with quarterback Travis Lockhart enjoying a solid season (2,670 yards, 27 TDs and only 6 interceptions). Receivers Kaleb Pitts and Chance Brewington have teamed up for lots of yards and 16 TD-receptions. The running game has been good off and on led by Jawhar Jordan and Rashad Williams. Centennial relies on a stout defense and its running game. Senior back Quentin Gomez passed the 1,000 yard mark last week and has scored 12 TDs. John Rincon is a fullback type who powers his way to yardage and has struck paydirt 12 times. Quarterback Isaac Steele is mobile and has 11 rushing TDs. He can hurt the opposition through the air if need be.

#7 Brophy Prep (7-4) at #2 Mountain Pointe (11-0): This will be the sixth year in a row the teams have played and the eighth time overall in that span. Brophy has won four of the seven prior to this one. Mountain Pointe isn't fancy about its winning ways -- a superb running game and solid defense. Running the ball is the Pride's staple year after year. This season it's workhorse back Marcarius Blount plus heady, athletic quarterback Jack Smith who keeps defenses honest. Blount is averaging 20 carries and 141 yards per game and totals 22 TDs for the season. Smith has rushed for 788 yards, 7 TDs and passed for 1,698 yards and 14 TDs. Brophy is the king of close games with seven of its 11 contests decided by a touchdown or less -- three in overtime. Brophy counters Mountain Pointe with mighty-mite senior back Ryan Velez, who has broken some Brophy rushing records this season. Velez has ground out 520 yards and eight TDs the last two weeks, including a school-record 350 vs. Basha. Last week he piled up 170 and three TDs in the Broncos' 38-37 overtime victory over Pinnacle in the first round. Brophy is a 50-50 mix in terms of yardage rushing vs. passing. Quarterback Cade Knox has thrown for 2,014 yards and 14 TDs. He's been intercepted nine times.

Varied Mix of Teams in D-II Quarters

3 Teams Dropped, 3 Moved Up, 2 Stayed the Same

By Les Willsey
azpreps365.com

The Division II state football playoffs feature an array of quarterfinalists. Three teams who dropped down from D-I to D-II this season (Skyline, Mesa and Westview), three teams who moved up from D-III to D-II (Williams Field, Saguaro and Queen Creek) and two that competed in D-II the last several seasons (Ironwood Ridge and Marcos de Niza).

It adds up to a very competitive elite eight. Two of the matchups are rematches from just a couple weeks ago. The other two feature teams that didn't face one another this year, although one of those matchups has taken place in the regular season or postseason each of the last half decade.

Here's a brief look at those contests. All games will be played Friday (Nov. 13) beginning at 7 p.m. at the site of the high seed:

#8 Mesa (8-3) at #1 Skyline (11-0): Skyline kept its hopes alive for an unbeaten title season with a narrow escape in the opening round over No. 16 seed Sahuaro, 15-10. Skyline survived four turnovers. A misstep like that again likely won't leave the Coyotes as fortunate. This is a rematch of the regular-season finale won by Skyline, 39-32. Skyline relies on a ground-and-pound mentality that builds off that with play-action passing. The Coyotes possess two 1,000-yard rushers in Amarii' Keyes and Kaleb Hardin. Keyes has missed what amounts to three games (and last two). His total is still 1,218 yards for the year -- 150 per game. Keyes carried one time in the first Mesa game and left with an injury. He has a good chance of playing this week. Quarterback TJ Duarte has been effective when defenses key on the run, passing for 1,500 yards and 13 TDs. Duarte has several targets and an excellent rapport with two-way starter Manny Ruiz (WR-DB). Mesa is back in the playoffs for the first time since 2009 when it reached the D-I finals and lost to Hamilton. Second-year coach Scott Hare's team relies on sophomore running back Kris Jackson and senior wide out Jackson Clement for much of the team's offensive output. Clement was sensational in the Jackrabbits' 35-27 win over Sandra Day O'Connor last week with 166 yards receiving and three TDs. Jackson scored twice and rushed for 145 yards. Jackson rushed for 142 yards and three TDs in the earlier loss to Skyline.

#5 Marcos de Niza (10-2) at #4 Ironwood Ridge (9-2): These teams play almost as often as natural sister-school rivals. This will be their sixth meeting since 2011. Ironwood Ridge has won five of the six contests and they've split two playoff games. This year's regular-season matchup went Ironwood Ridge's way last month. Marcos led 17-0 early in the third period in what ended up a 35-24 loss. Marcos de Niza thrives on a vertical passing game with junior quarterback Nazareth Greer (2,669 yards and 20 TDs). Greer passed for 283 in their regular-season meeting. The Padres have lots of speed and their top playmaker is running back Shaun Richards. Richards has nearly 1,100 yards rushing and receiving and has scored 14 TDs. Ironwood Ridge is a running team. The Nighthawks rushed for more than 200 yards in the win over Marcos and also got a rare big-play in the passing game that helped fuel their rally. Two-way starter Harrison Beemiller makes plays and leads the Nighthawks in rushing. Last week's 34-30 win over Sunnyside needed the Nighthawks to produce big plays in the passing game and they did for more than 200 yards.

#6 Westview (9-2) at #3 Williams Field (9-2): This is the first-ever meeting for the schools, who have been separated by two divisions (Williams Field in D-III and Westview in D-I) until this year. Westview's two losses have come to the tournament's No. 1 and No. 2 seeds -- Skyline and Queen Creek. The Knights will have to reverse the trend of losing to East Valley teams in this one to advance. Westview had no trouble running the ball last week - its forte -- as it blasted Tucson High. Running backs Tyler Vasko and Stacy Campbell have each passed the 1,000-yard mark this season and have 30 TDs between them. Williams Field lit up the scoreboard and gave top rival Higley no chance in a rout in their opening-round game. Williams Field uncovered an offensive weapon for its injury-riddled backfield as safety Trevor Maxwell got a healthy dose of action on offense with a three-touchdown night. Maxwell piled up 212 yards rushing (2 TDs) and had a 75-yard TD reception in the 55-27 win over Higley. Quarterback Weston Murphy has been efficient this season and fired off three TD passes to one of his top targets Max Fine in last week's postseason tune-up.

#7 Saguaro (9-2) at #2 Queen Creek (9-2): Queen Creek is out to end five years of frustration vs. Saguaro. Saguaro has dominated the D-III landscape with Queen Creek often playing second or third fiddle to the Sabercats. Now both in D-II, this will be the ninth meeting between them since 2010 -- Saguaro has won the previous eight. Queen Creek's losses this season are to the No. 3 seeds in D-I and D-II -- Hamilton and Williams Field, respectively. Saguaro's two losses are to D-I Centennial and Pinnacle. Queen Creek has won seven games in a row, but has played the last three weeks without leading rusher Gavin Danielson, who is injured and out for the year. Jace Koester has done his best to pick up the slack as the go-to back. The Bulldogs have a decent passing game with quarterback Kaleb Honea seeking two primary targets -- Armon McGuire and Ian Woods. Saguaro has managed its share of injuries and still hopes to notch a third consecutive state title with three more wins. The Sabercats are an offensive juggernaut that's put up a few yards short of 5,000 for the season. Wide receiver Byron Murphy has 67 receptions for 1,378 yards and 16 TDs, running back Stone Matthews 1,560 yards rushing and 20 TDs and quarterback Kare Lyles has thrown for 2,818 yards and 32 TDs.

No. 8 Catalina Foothills at No. 1 Paradise Valley: Catalina Foothills (9-2) plays with a balanced attack with junior quarterback Rhett Rodriguez averaging just under 200 yards passing a game while a crew of about four rushers (including Rodriguez) puts up similar numbers.

Head coach Jeff Scurran guided Sabino to three state championships (1990, 1992, 1998) and has appeared in seven title games. Catalina Foothills is the fourth Southern Arizona team he has guided to a state playoff berth.

Paradise Valley (11-0) is making it's second straight quarterfinal appearance but this time in D-III. The Trojans made the second round last year in D-II under first year head coach Greg Davis but the team had to face top-seeded Liberty and lost 42-13.

This year the tables are turned, the Trojans are top seed and they will be hosting Catalina Foothills. Sr. QB Daniel BridgeGadd has thrown for over 3,000 yards and has collected 35 touchdowns while Jr. RB Jared Beamon has rushed for over 1,000 yards.

No. 12 Bradshaw Mountain at No. 4 Sunnyslope: This is Bradshaw Mountain's (8-3) first appearance in the quarterfinal round in five years. The Bears, under David Moran, are led by Jr. QB Gunner Bundrick and Sr. RB Justin Castro.

The Bears upset No. 5 Arcadia in the first round 21-15 after opening up their season with a 35-14 loss to the same team. The win displayed the mental toughness an underdog team needs to have but the Bears will need more of it if they plan on advancing to the semifinals.

Sunnyslope (10-1) lost at Paradise Valley on Sept. 11 haven't lost since, reeling off eight wins in row including a 35-8 pounding of Vista Grande in the first round of the playoffs.

Damon Pieri has coached the Vikings to at least ten wins three years in a row including an 11-1 campaign last year in D-II when the team reached the quarterfinals. But the Vikings are in D-III now and only a couple of major upsets will prevent them from playing Paradise Valley in the semifinal round this year.

Sr. QB Max Hallford has thrown for almost 1,500 yards and SR. RB Jeff Goebel has rushed for 1,728 more.

No. 11 Cesar Chavez at No. 3 Desert Edge: Cesar Chavez (11-1) is five points away from a perfect regular season. A 37-33 opening night loss at Higley has been followed by ten straight victories including a 37-12 win at Sabino in the first round. That 25-point win the closest game for the Champions this year under Jim Rattay since the opening loss.

Sr. QB Daniel Lerma has thrown for just over 1,000 yards but SR. RB Pavone Meyers has rushed for over 1,500 with 26 TDs. Meyers has scored in every game with 10 of his touchdowns coming in the last month alone.

Desert Edge (9-2) has gone 44-6 over the last four years and the Scorpions are hoping for their fifth 10-win season in six years under Rich Wellbrock.

Jr. Tehran Thomas has rushed for 1,161 yards and 22 TDs and he has thrown for over 800 yards more. So. RB Rocky Perez has gained almost 1,000 yards on the ground. In all, the Scorpions average over 380 yards rushing a game.

No. 7 Verrado at 2 Sunrise Mountain: Verrado (9-1) had their undefeated season spoiled by Desert Edge on Oct. 30 but the Vipers are in the playoffs for the second year in a row under Derek Wahlstrom.

Sr. QB Lathon Lax has thrown for just under 2,000 yards this year with 20 TDs and So. RB Ja'Tai Jenkins has rushed for 773 yards with 11 TDs. The Vipers squeaked past No. 10 Mingus Union 20-14 in the first round at home.

Sunrise Mountain (11-0) has not been tested this year under James Carter. The 50-6 win over Cactus in the first round is one of the closest games of the year for the Mustangs.

The high-powered offense is run by Jr. QB Chase Cord with 2,861 yards passing and an incredible 51 TDs. Cord has also rushed for 941 yards with 12 TDs on the ground. Jr. Garret Veldhuizen leads the team with 947 yards rushing and 18 TDs.

No. 8 Northwest Christian at No. 1 Yuma Catholic: Northwest Christian (9-2) was undefeated at 8-0 before back-to-back losses dropped them to an eighth seed. Still, the Crusaders held on for a home game and defeated Flowing Wells 52-28 in the first round.

Led by David Inness since 2010, the Crusaders won it all twice in that time frame and have won at least nine games a year since 2008. Senior quarterback Drew Inness has thrown 2,231 yards and 35 touchdowns while Sr. RB Travis Pollay has rushed for 739 more. Sr. Rey Kindred has over 600 yards receiving.

Yuma Catholic (11-0) has not lost since Nov. 1, 2013 when none other than NW Christian defeated the Shamrocks. Yuma Catholic has won 30 games in a row since including two state championships. NW Christian won a state title in 2012, preventing the Shamrocks from winning four in a row.

Rhett Stallworth coaches a high-powered offense with Stetson Stallworth throwing for 3,343 yards and 43 TDs, Jr. Jaylen Barnes rushing for 671 with 15 TDs and Sr. Brandon Hunter collecting 1,153 receiving yards. Barnes also has 841 yards receiving.

No. 5 Snowflake at No. 4 Estrella Foothills: Snowflake (10-1) lost to River Valley in the state championship game last year. It was also Ron Tenney's last game with the Lobos. Kay Solomon is in his first year and he has produced the program's fourth 10-win season in five years.

Sr. QB Tyler Claridge has thrown for 1,477 yards and 20 TDs with Jr. JT Tate collecting 658 yards receiving. Jr. RB Zach Solomon has over 800 yards rushing.

Estrella Foothills (10-1) played top-seeded Yuma Catholic to a close 27-21 loss in October. The loss is the only blemish on Lamar Early's record this year.

The Wolves only average 67 yards through the air but have gained almost 300 yards rushing per game. Sr. Joe Logan has rushed for 2,487 yards with 34 TDs

No. 6 River Valley at No. 3 Pusch Ridge: River Valley (10-1) is the defending state champion under co-head coaches Paul Duchaineau and Mark Ruckle. The Dust Devils have won at least 10 games three years in a row.

Jr. QB Ryan Economou has over 1,500 yards passing with 19 TDs while three rushers have gained over 500 yards each. Sr. Andres Galvez has 822, Jr. Bryson Fohs has 655 and Jr. Devin Anderson has 555.

Pusch Ridge (10-1) made the jump up to D-IV and won a section championship right away. The Lions lost to D-V power Benson in their first game and have not lost since under Troy Cropp.

Sr. QB Cody Cropp has 903 yards passing with Sr. Ben Walker collecting 387 of those yards. Sr. RB James Raica has rushed for over 1,000 yards and the top three backs have a combined 35 TDs.

No. 7 Lake Havasu at No. 2 Show Low: Lake Havasu (10-1) is having their best year since 2010 when the Knights made it to the quarterfinal round as a big school in 5A-II. Karl Thompson has been coaching since 2008.

Jr. QB Jack Warner has 1,414 yards passing and Sr. Jacob Kalogonis has 1,192 yards rushing with 21 TDs. Kalogonis also leads the team in receiving with 368 yards.

Show Low (11-0) has won two state titles under Randy Ricedorff but neither of those teams went into the playoffs undefeated. The Cougars defeated Combs 29-21 in the first round and that was the closest game of the year for the program.

Jr. QB Rhett Ricedorff has 2,673 passing yards with 26 TDs. His main target, Sr. Quentin Clark, has 1,105 yards receiving with 13 TDs. Sr. RB Willie Wyatt has 1,144 yards rushing with 10 TDs.

Division V Football Preview

No. 1 Benson's Last Trip to Final Was 37 Years Ago

By Jose E. Garcia
azpreps365.com

No. 2 seed Joy Christian has cruised through its season.

No. 1 seed Benson also has dominated but has been tested more than Joy Christian.

Are the two teams on a collision course to meet on Nov. 28 in the Division V state championship game at Chaparral? The road figures to get a bit tougher for the two, beginning with their quarterfinal matchups.

D-V QUARTERFINAL GAMES

No. 8 seed Miami (9-2) vs. No. 1 Benson (11-0): Led by junior running back Keegan Graff's 15 TDs, seven players on the team have each scored four touchdowns or more for Benson. "The reason why we have been successful is that everyone understands their role and where they fit on the team," said 13-year coach Chris Determan about his Benson team. "The kids do not care who gets the yards or the touchdowns. The goal is to win and it does not matter who gets the credit for scoring." Senior quarterback Nick Hernandez has completed 56 percent of his passes and has thrown only three interceptions. Benson's defense has recorded six shutouts. Seventeen starters returned from last year's 8-3 Benson team. Benson is two wins away from reaching its first state title game since 1978. Miami and Benson met in Week 3, with Benson winning 47-12. But Miami's defense, which hasn't given up more than 20 points in a game in the past five weeks, has improved. Miami also has a different quarterback under center, sophomore Zabel Saenz (13 passing TD, 8 rushing TDs), who took over in Week 4. Joseph Radke (6-4, 215) leads the team in rushing (907 yards, 13 TDs), receiving and sacks (14 ½). But Saenz, Eugene Tackett and Gabe Gomez (1,676 combined rushing yards) also can slip by defenders. Junior outside linebacker Joe Castaneda is averaging 14.1 tackles per game and has 13 sacks.

No. 12 Santa Cruz Valley (9-2) vs. No. 4 American Leadership (10-1): The revival of the once moribund Santa Cruz Valley football program continued this year, and don't expect it to end next year. Santa Cruz's junior class is loaded. But for the only seniors on the team, Rome Silva, Hector Hermosillo, Marcos Castillo and Anthony Ibarra, there is no next year. Santa Cruz lost its two games by a combined three points. It almost lost another close game five weeks ago, when it defeated American Leadership 14-12. Devin Neal capped a Santa Cruz 56-yard second quarter drive with a 6-yard touchdown run for Santa Cruz's first touchdown. It added another rushing touchdown in the third quarter to complete a 40-yard drive. American Leadership missed an extra point and botched a two-point conversion in the second half. Senior middle linebacker Matt Pensky led American Leadership with 12 tackles and scored a rushing touchdown in that game. Santa Cruz doesn't have a stat person, but coach Rishard Davis said that junior linemen Alijay June, Ryan Gonzales, Eduardo Gaspar, Armando Munoz, and Jesus Rivera are some of the team's unsung heroes. Santa Cruz was 3-6 last year. "The commitment is probably at its highest it has ever been at Santa Cruz," Davis said. "Players have been in the weight room since January, trying to improve their skill and strength." The quick rise of American Leadership is just as intriguing as the revival of Santa Cruz. American Leadership is a charter school but has won 19 of its first 22 games out of the gate. Coach Rich Edwards' story also is interesting. The former building contractor's only previous coaching gig was as a Pop Warner coach. But Edwards, 51, now also the school's athletic director, surrounded himself with a good staff, including Max Hall, the former Mesa Mountain View standout whom Edwards gave a second chance after a misstep or two. Jeremiah Boyd has rushed for more than 2,500 yards and scored 35 touchdowns in the last two years running behind a stout line that features guard Mason Ferrin. Quarterback Dallin Edwards has thrown 21 touchdowns and rushed for nine this season.

No. 11 Tempe Prep (8-3) vs. No. 3 Round Valley (9-2): When these two play, it's hard-nosed, small school football at its best. The programs lost a bevy of talent last year, but only a few programs in the state can regroup after losing so much, and Tempe Prep and Round Valley are two of those programs. Tempe Prep's strength, its offensive line, is entirely new. But tight ends Herman Flores and Jose Urias, tackle Alexi Reboulet, guard Nicholas Bellavia, center Bradley Spiker have been very "physical and consistent." Tempe Prep also is starting a new quarterback, sophomore Max Rich, "who is showing great poise."

Tempe Prep's unsung heroes on defense are safety Joseph Swingle, linebacker Brendan Phelan, defensive end Nathan Stough, and corner Jacob Brown. Tempe Prep did return a few key players from last year's state runner-up season, Jesse Boaz Cozens, Isaiah Brittain (773 rushing yards, 16 TDs, 7 tackles per game), Connor Woltz, Gabriel LeBeau and Christian Gaylor. Those are the players Round Valley will need to stop. "We are not yet a great team as our Game 10 loss to American Leadership made painfully evident," Tempe Prep coach Tommy Brittain said. "But the players are figuring things out at the right time. We have been blessed with great health all season. (I'm) making fewer stupid decisions, and the players are starting to believe."

For Round Valley, you might as well call Oscar Perez Superman, because he does it all. Punter, place kicker, linebacker, slot receiver, fullback. There is likely no other player in the state that gets as much out of his 140-pound frame as Cortez does. "Our team has come together," coach Marcus Bell said. "We are a young team with only four senior starters. They get along with one another, and they're willing to take the coaching and work together. That's made us better throughout the year." Bell's boys are averaging 313.5 rushing yards per game. Juniors Kyrin Woolf (1,198 rushing yards) and Sullivan Udall (1,007 rushing yards) are Round Valley's rushing yard gobblers.

No. 7 Bisbee (8-2) vs. No. 2 Joy Christian: The last time Bisbee won eight games was when coach Christopher Vertrees took over in 2010. Bisbee's only losses this season came to a team in a higher division, Pusch Ridge Christian, and a six-point defeat to No. 1 seed Benson. Bisbee's Spencer Schuller is ranked fourth in the state with 1,318 receiving yards and first with 23 TD catches. Fifty-three of senior quarterback Danny Barrow's 83 completions have gone to Schuller. Tony Chavez (5-6, 155) has rushed for 1,423 yards and 14 TDs for Bisbee. One of the key matchups in this game will feature Schuller and whichever tall and athletic corner Joy Christian picks to cover Schuller. Like most opponents, Bisbee might run into trouble covering Joy Christian's speed on the outside. Nineteen of the 39 passes Dajuan Lawrence has caught so far have ended with him scoring. Isaiah Goodspeed (638 receiving yards) can also leave defenders in his wake. The heart and soul of Joy Christian is senior quarterback Matt Mitchell, who's been asked to run more this year (team-high 672 rushing yards) as well as continue to produce when he drops back. Mitchell's accuracy (75.8 completion percentage, 34 TDs, 2 INTs) has improved despite the added responsibilities this season. Outside linebacker Riley Renner has 21 career sacks for Joy Christian.

"We get a lot of attention because we score so many points, but the reality is the (first team) defense has really only been scored on by two teams all year," Joy Christian coach Brian Cole said.

D-VI: State Title or Bust for Pima

No "Ifs, Ands, or Buts"

By Jose E. Garcia
azpreps365.com

That door Jace Hancock has knocked on continues to crack open, but Valley Union wouldn't mind slamming it shut.

For the past five years, since Hancock took over as Pima's High School football coach, Pima has reached the doorstep of the D-VI state football championship game but failed to either advance past the semifinals or win the big game.

"I do ask myself if it is ever going to happen," Hancock said. "We've come so close to taking it. We keep knocking and knocking."

Pima is once again on the precipice of either heading home with the title or empty handed.

The only hurdle left for Pima to cross this season is its Saturday state championship opponent, Valley Union. The two will meet at Maricopa High at 6 p.m. in a duel in which fathers and sons figure to play prominent roles.

Both teams prefer to play smash-mouth, run-first power football, and the backs that will likely carry the state championship hopes the most for each team are the sons of the head coaches, Curtis Hancock and Valley Union's Jaret Luzania, coach Tony Luzania's son.

Valley Union and Tony are back in the final for the first time since 2007 with a 9-1 record. Pima's big play ability helped hand Valley Union its only loss, 44-14 in Week 5, this season.

For Curtis, 114 of his team-leading 976 rushing yards came in that game against Valley Union.

"It's a memorable moment," said Hancock about coaching in the championship in his son's final high school game. "The whole year has been memorable."

Tony feels just as proud about reaching the D-VI final along with his son, who is also a senior and Valley Union's leading rusher.

"Jaret has done a great job of becoming a good leader for a somebody who is not very big (5-7, 175)," Tony said. "He has a big heart and is stout."

The march for Valley Union to this year's D-VI title tilt actually started last year after dropping its state semifinal game to Mogollon, 44-16. Valley Union was leading 16-14 at halftime.

"The kids were upset that they didn't finish what they started in that game," Tony said.

That loss fueled this season's state run and run game.

Valley Union's MO is to control the clock with its offensive line cogs, Ryan Outland, Brandon Martinez and Nick Hahn, and its 3-4-yard bursts by Jaret, Sean Hahn or Karsen Estelle. That strategy can also help keep Pima's potent offense (38.1 points per game) on the sideline.

When Pima does have the ball, Hahn and Isaac Lopez, Valley Union's defensive line bookends, will try not to allow Pima's backs to turn the corner. When Martinez plays nose guard, he will attempt to stuff Pima's run game up the middle.

"From the start, nobody really gave us a shot to make it here," Tony said. "We live in Elfrida, and if you blink while you're driving by, you might miss it. But we have a great group of kids, and it's worked out so far this year."

Pima said goodbye to a lot of its skill players last year, so it wasn't an early season favorite this year as well, despite its annual semifinal appearances.

But some of last year's undersclassmen were "overlooked." The first-year starters who blossomed this year into leaders are quarterback Parker Blair, the 6-foot-4 Kartchner twins, receivers Jarrett and Justin, fullback Logan Sherwood and tight end/middle linebacker John Boren. Sherwood's father, Matt, is a two-time rodeo world champion team roper.

Pima roped Hancock (Pima High class of 1984) to become its coach when the school finally settled on playing 8 instead of 11-man football. Hancock has been teaching at Pima for 23 years now, so there's an extra incentive for him to deliver a football championship to his alma mater.

Hancock's brother in law, 8-man coaching giant John Bryant, is the last coach to bring Pima a championship (2005). Hancock gets ribbed during family reunions about when he'll finally get the elusive title.

"You don't know how much it (championship) gets mentioned," said Hancock laughing. "It's like you have to finish. We've been there so many dang times. We've knocked on the door. Trust me. We have to get this one. The job has to be done. It has to happened. No ifs, ands, or buts."
