Five Teams Have Legit Shot at Title

*By Les Willsey
azpreps365.com*

A season of 30-some matches among 25 Division I volleyball schools has yielded a clear, yet cloudy picture as to which team will hoist a championship trophy come Nov. 10.

Five schools -- defending D-I champ Desert Vista, Xavier Prep, Gilbert, Hamilton, and last year's D-II winner Sunnyslope -- are the teams to beat. Which one prevails? That's the rub. All are capable. A case can be made for each. Play begins Tuesday Nov. 3 with first-round matches followed Thursday Nov. 5 with quarterfinals, Saturday Nov. 7 with semis and the title match Tuesday Nov. 10. The first two rounds are at the sites of high seeds. The semis and finals take place at Mesquite High School.

Let's go by tournament seed of these schools and check their qualifications:

#1 Desert Vista is the hottest team of the five at present. Coach Molly West has a roster with eight D-I commits. The Thunder have won 15 consecutive matches (counting invitationals) and its two power-ranking losses were in September (Gilbert and Sunnyslope). With five players on the floor a lot in last year's title run helping the push toward another (Hailey Harward, Hailey Dirrigl, Olivia Fairchild, Rachel Kramer and Kendall Glover), Desert Vista has a chip in the game. Desert Vista won two of three invitationals it participated in (Westwood TOC and Nfinity SOCAL Invite in San Diego). The Thunder were third in the highest division at the Nike TOC.

#2 Xavier Prep has the state's and one of the country's best players in senior hitter Khalia Lanier. Lanier battled an ankle injury that cost her a couple weeks of action and setter Callie Jones has missed most of the year with a dislocated finger. Jones has returned off and on of late, but isn't 100 percent. A recent starter relegated to the sideline by injury is sophomore hitter Lanie Wagner, who might see action in the tournament. Still, the Gators are formidable and can't be dismissed despite the health issues. Xavier defeated Gilbert and Sunnyslope in regular-season matches and lost to Desert Vista and Hamilton. The senior leadership of Lanier, Jones and libero Kristen Largay has been invaluable. Makenna Patterson has been one of the most improved players in the middle for Xavier.

#3 Gilbert can be all over the map in terms of level of play. One night mediocre, the next outstanding -- even awesome. The Tigers have a 1-2 punch in hitters Kaitlyn Lines and Makenna Martin, get plenty of backup offensively from Krystal Blair and Alexa Rockas and get solid play from setter Sam Boever and libero Kamryn Hill. Gilbert defeated Desert Vista, Sunnyslope and Hamilton in regular-season matches. It lost to Xavier. Its second-to-the last regular-season match vs. Hamilton was evidence a state title is in reach.

#4 Hamilton is much like Desert Vista in terms of how consistent its play is night to night. The Huskies have several weapons and don't need one attacker to stand out all the time. Defense is normally stellar and they are built for winning now and certainly next year with four of its top players juniors or sophomores. Hamilton defeated Sunnyslope and Xavier and bowed to Gilbert and Desert Vista. Hamilton starts three juniors in middle Preslie Anderson, Sydney Lostumo, Kaitlyn Banyai and sophomore Darrin Clark. Together with seniors Olivia Halloran and libero Hailey Babcock the Huskies have the personnel to nab that elusive first championship.

#5 Sunnyslope took on a huge challenge this year, moving from the dominant program in D-II to duke it out with the best in D-I. They Vikings have held their ground. Coach Amber LeTarte's team started a bit slow, maybe deer-in-the-headlight syndrome. That's in the past. Sunnyslope lost to Xavier and Gilbert early, but rebounded to knock off Desert Vista after the early losses to the former two schools. The Vikings went 5-2 in Gilbert's Invitational in mid-October getting a win over Gilbert. Slope has been fortunate enough to have four seniors lead the team to D-I contender status -- setter Katie Oleksak, hitter Skylar Wine, opposite Libby Fleury and libero Sarah Marinez.

Natalie Kish as her "true leader." "She (Kish) is selfless and puts her teammates needs before her own," Fox added. "Any unique stories about any of your kids or coaches? Notre Dame swept both Ironwood Ridge and Flagstaff.

No. 2 Millennium (17-0) ... Head coach Julie Vastine credits several of her players for the success of the Tiger program including setter Alyssa Avitia, outside Terayah Stukes, libero Nicole Hoff and another hitter in Jessica Vastine. "Our team doesn't rely on one person to carry the load, Vastine explained. "Our success comes from everyone doing their job and playing their role to the best of their ability. Some roles have a bigger load than others, but it doesn't minimize each players contribution."

No. 3 Flagstaff (16-2) ... Beth Haglin lists outside hitter Courtney Leffel, opposite Haley Turner and middle blocker Jazzie Joerger as her team leaders. "Our success stems from the team working hard to always succeed. They never see themselves failing," Haglin said. "The struggles have been them being to hard on themselves, but never their teammates. We have a fantastic group of young ladies. My hope for them is to create great memories and always give it their best!!!!"

No. 4 Salpointe (16-1) ... Lancer head coach Heather Moore-Martin has many leaders on her squad but seniors Carly Lowry and Allie Weaver have made the biggest difference. "Both are committed leaders who have sacrificed for volleyball," said Moore-Martin. "Success is a reflection of commitment and team chemistry! (We have) a really great group of girls who succeed in the classroom and are willing to work hard in the gym after school!"

No. 5 Ironwood Ridge (13-4) ... "As you know, we're still trying to do something no other Tucson team has done since 1993 – win a big-school State Championship," head coach Bill Lang explained. "We're in State for the 13th consecutive year (the longest active streak in Tucson) and we've been to the semifinals eight of the past nine years including the finals last year. Other than Sunnyslope's dominance, no other program has done that at our level. We just haven't won it yet." Lang lists Hannah Semon, Kayley Mohr, Alexis Orth, Macy Kurtz and senior middles Baylie Stephens and Jaelyn Olsen as his leaders on the court.

No. 6 Marcos de Niza (15-2) ... Jamie Rohme lists sophomore steer Tatum Rohme, senior outsides Aubrey Boyles and Marissa Kyman as her leaders along with freshman libero Katy Denham and senior middle

No. 1 Notre Dame Prep (16-1) ... The Saints dropped an 0-3 match to the top-ranked D-I team in Desert Vista. Besides that, Notre Dame has been flawless in matches that count towards seeding. "We learned a lot from last year," head coach Sara Fox told AZPreps365.com. "We did not feel like we played the best volleyball we were capable of playing and the really motivated us this year. We played a tough schedule this year and that has prepared us for the state playoffs." Fox lists senior opposite Willow Johnson as her offensive leader and senior setter, Aurei King-Hill. "Katy has stepped into a huge role for the Padres taking the main defensive responsibility this season," Rohme said. "She (King-Hill) is a huge offensive and defensive weapon with great leadership qualities," Rohme added.

No. 7 Prescott (14-3) ... Erinn Marroquin, Grace Hendricks, Blake Johnson, Abbey Smith, Ashlynn Uvila and Bailey Anderson are all listed as the top players for the Badgers according to head coach Shellie Bowman. "These girls have been successful because they have been playing together since they were young, Bowman explained. "They respect one another and work well together."

No. 8 Deer Valley (14-4) ... "My leaders are my three captains Emily Conlin, Ciara Merrifield and Kobie Dunn and Remie Johnson," head coach Jackie Wallace said. "They each bring different leadership qualities to our team," Wallace added. "Emily is a four-year varsity veteran who has run the show since her freshman year and has committed to Anderson University in South Carolina." Johnson transferred in from O'Connor last year.

No. 9 Coconino (12-6) ... The Panthers are led by setter Tristen Eddie, libero Jessica McNeese libero and middles Jalisa Ingram and Michayla Cabrera. Outside hitters Dana Parker and Lauren Touchstone have also come up big for Coconino according to head coach Kerry Kriesel. "This team is pretty special in the fact that they genuinely like each other on and off the court," Kriesel said. "They hold each other accountable and push each other, on and off the court, to be the best they can be. They are the ultimate definition of teamwork."

No. 10 Sahuaro (14-3) ... Cougar head coach Rachel Balsiger lists Morgan Nash, Brielle Sterns, Abi Nash and Gianni Romero as her leaders. "We have a great group of dynamic and smart athletes! They all have their specific roles and they do them well," said Balsiger.

No. 11 Cactus Shadows (12-5) ... Head coach Zach Davis credits leaders Micaela Muehlich and Desi Reese. "(We have) ten seniors with a lot of experience in competition. They love to compete against each other as well which makes for productive practices," Davis explained.

No. 12 Mesquite (13-4) ... Team leaders are Makena Smith, Jordan Schumacher and Payten Russo according to head coach Carlos Flys. "Although we are shorter than most every team we play, we have very strong ball control and what we lack in size and athleticism, we make up for in volleyball ability and IQ," Flys explained. "This team has been resilient since the start of the season overcoming many injuries like season-ending ACL tear to Kylie Ridge and two concussions."

No. 13 Seton Catholic (12-5) ... Patti Schoenhardt lists team captains Kirsten Companik and Halle Johnson as her leaders. "The reason our team has been successful has been heart! This Seton team has a ton of heart and they know how to stay a team during times of adversity while always working hard and never giving up!" said Schoenhardt.

No. 14 Tucson (10-5) ... The Badgers are led by Florida commit Mia Sokolowski and senior setter Bailey Gin. Longtime coach Amanda Larriva is in her first year at Tucson.

No. 15 Rincon/University (12-5) ... The Rangers are led by Victoria Corona, Cate Webb, Hannah Parish and Reilly Salkowski. Nick Mata is in his second year at Rincon.

No. 16 Sunrise Mountain (12-5) ... Team leaders are Hannah Comb, Avery Potter Rylee Anderson. "We started bonding on our program's retreat to become a unit as a team and as family. This keeps us strong during matches no matter what the outcome," said head coach Robert Levardo.

Div. III State VB Preview

Sections 8 and 4 Home to 8 of Top 10 Seeds

What makes the 2015 Division III state girls volleyball tournament interesting is not the number of teams in it (32), but the quality brought over all and specifically by two sections.

Those sections are 8 and 4, comprising nearly half the field (14 teams). They are spread throughout the bracket, but for the most part have faced each other rarely in cross-section play during the regular season. That makes for intrigue when they pair up as the tournament progresses. The tournament opens Thursday Nov. 5 and continues Friday Nov. 6 and Friday Nov. 7 with all matches at Prescott Valley Event Center. in Prescott Valley. First round is Thursday, second and third rounds on Friday and semis and finals on Saturday. D-III was aligned this year with 80 volleyball teams, the most ever for one division. Parker coach Marie Maya sums up the tourney succinctly.

"Whoever wins this season will really have something to brag about," Maya said.

The top 10 seeds in order (section in parentheses): Parker (2), Chandler Prep (8), Horizon Honors (8), Greenway (4), Agua Fria (4), Florence (8), Snowflake (5), Valley Christian (8), Verrado (4) and Desert Edge (4). Parker coach Daniel Maya sums up the tourney in a nutshell. Here's a thumbnail resume of each:

#1 Parker is paced by four seniors -- outside hitter Mariah Sharpe, Audie Merrick, Jailynn Butler and Kristina Brice. Sharpe has played setter two years, middle last year and is an outside hitter this year -- the Broncs most skilled player. Parker was the only team to win all its power-ranking matches (17-0). Parker played one top-10 team in a power-ranking match, beating Horizon Honors. It lost to Chandler Prep, Verrado and Florence twice in invitationals.

#2 Chandler Prep brings a veteran squad with eight returning players from 2014. Three senior stand out and are team captains - middle Jessica Bell, setter Julia Turpin and outside hitter Emily Stanfield. Chandler Prep's lone power-ranking loss was to Horizon Honors, which ended up section champ because of that win. Chandler Prep was 16-1 in power-ranking matches and posted a 5-3 record against top-10 teams.

#3 Horizon Honors certainly has something to boast about winning the section 8 title. The Eagles want more. Leading the way are team captains Alexa Smythe, who leads the team in kills and outside hitter Lindsay Zumwalt, a precise hitter and team leader in aces. Middles Alexis Gomes and Danielle Moran, setter Michelle Ogle, libero Giulana Castronova and digs leader Erica Kendree leave little weakness for the opposition. Horizon Honors was 15-2 in power-ranking matches and 3-4 vs. top-10 teams.

#4 Greenway managed the best overall record of any team in the division at 35-1. The Demons won Section 4 and certainly grab attention with their one-undefeat record. Senior outside Sadie Anderson and junior setter Jordyn Nelson are team captains and three-year varsity starters. The addition of Northwest Christian transfer Julisa Carrizosa and freshman libero Mykenna Nelson (Jordyn's sister) augments the lineup. Greenway's only loss was late to Verrado, but the Demons finished up with a huge win over Agua Fria to net the section title in the regular-season's final week. Greenway was 6-1 in matches vs. top-10 teams.

#5 Agua Fria brought a veteran team to the court this season and performed like it. The Owls were 16-1 in power-ranking matches, losing only in the final week to Greenway. Agua Fria is led by senior middle/hitter Morgan Weeg and a young, but talented setter in sophomore Mariah Monroe. Agua Fria was 2-2 in matches vs. top-10 opponents.

#6 Florence finished the year winning its own invitational and was able to knock off Parker in that tourney's title match. Florence defeated Parker twice in the tourney in best-of-three matches. The Gophers promptly followed up that triumph with a loss via sweep to Valley Christian. They are led by senior Kenzie DeVries, a standout hitter back from missing last year due to a torn ACL and senior middle Alexis

Villalobos. Villalobos is tough to defend due to agility and attack placement. Florence managed a 4-2 record vs. top-10 teams.

#7 Snowflake captured the section 5 title and posted a 16-1 power-ranking record. The Lobos rely on senior outside Sydney Olsen and senior middle Shelby Reidhead for offense and operate with two setters -- Melissa Eich and Eilee Penrod. Eich and Penrod have improved steadily to give Olsen and Reidhead better opportunities. Snowflake played fewer games against top-10 teams, going 0-1 (loss to Greenway).

#8 Valley Christian duked it out with Chandler Prep, Horizon Honors and Florence for section 8 bragging rights and fell just short. The Trojans lost to Chandler Prep and Horizon Honors, but were outstanding in sweeping Florence. Valley Christian may be the youngest team contending for the title with one senior starter, the lone senior on the team. That's setter Kinsley England, who makes the attack go. England has two primary hitters to feed in Courtney Dyer and Cici Collins. Defensive specialist Breezy Husband is a vocal leader and solid defender. Valley Christian was 1-3 vs. top-10 teams.

#9 Verrado produced the most wins in the program's short history (five years), a sign things are going well. The Vipers rely on aggressive serving and power supplied on the attack by seniors Celine White and Candace Lacour, the team's leader in aces. Verrado is deep and can attack from all positions. Verrado finished 31-2 and was 4-2 vs. top-10 teams.

#10 Desert Edge finished fourth in section 4, nothing to hang its head over. The Scorpions rely on three-year starter Marissa Ellis, an outside-middle and their best athlete and most versatile player. Senior captain and outside Samari Williams and sophomore Jenessy Cain are the top offensive threats. Junior Calista Bandin (3-year starter) sets and brings a powerful serve. Sophomore opposite Rylee Brown is solid all-around and also sets. Desert Edge was 1-6 vs. top-10 teams.

The defending D-III state champ is #11 Monument Valley. The Mustangs compiled a 15-2 record in power-ranking matches, mostly vs. schools in the northern part of the state and were 20-6 overall. Monument Valley was 0-3 vs. top-10 teams and runner-up to Snowflake in section 5.

Div. IV State VB Preview

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

The Division IV girls fall state volleyball tournament begins Nov. 5 at the Prescott Valley Events Center. The two-day, 16-team tournament concludes on Nov. 7 with the 6 p.m. final. The defending champ is this year's No. 1 seed, Thatcher.

What follows is a preview of each of the state tournament's first-round matches. The seeds for each team are next to the teams.

No. 1 Thatcher vs. No. 16 Walden Grove: Thatcher's Kelly Motes, a senior setter/right side hitter, is the team's go-to player. She played a huge role in last year's state championship run. Danica Rowan, a junior middle blocker has a "cannon" of an arm and also played a vital role in last year's state championship season. Middle Ashtyn Lunt can do damage from anywhere on the front row. "We are loaded with talent," coach Ellen Robertson said. "It's a matter of the girls coming mentally ready to play." Coach Matt Malone and his Walden Grove girls have done quite a job this year, turning the program around from a one-win season last year to 15 victories this year. Jazmyn Smith and Cassidy Hicks are the kill leaders.

No. 9 Pueblo vs. No. 8 Glendale Prep: Pueblo is making its first playoff appearance in more than 20 years, so congratulations go out to coach Mario Matanza and his girls, including junior setter captain Marisol Flores Marina Orr and junior Topacio Salazar, for the job they did this year. The team's GPA average was 3.6. "What we lack in height we make up for it in strength, durability and speed," Matanza said. Glendale Prep is young and suffered a lot of injuries this year, but the team does bring a lot of spirit to the court, coach Jennifer Roberge said. Setter/middle blocker Giana Cirulli holds the team together. Setter/opposite hitter Riley Roberge provides a lot of the much-needed energy.

No. 12 Scottsdale Prep vs. No. 5 Arizona Lutheran: This is the first meeting between the teams this season. Scottsdale Prep is led by the very competitive Annie Bailey, a senior outside hitter, and senior setter Samantha Cyr, the vocal leader and cheerleader of the team. Arizona Lutheran has bounced back from a couple of early season injuries thanks to the senior leadership on the team. Five of the six seniors on the team have played on varsity since they were freshmen. Middle blocker Ruth Buchholz epitomizes the team's never-say-die attitude. Outside hitter Rachel Sebald never rests and will do anything to make sure the ball doesn't hit the floor. Right side hitter Hayley Meshay is the team's athletic pogo stick.

No. 13 Trivium Prep vs. No. 4 Willcox: Trivium Prep is in its first year as an Arizona Interscholastic Association member and is playing without seniors. The team is 17-13-1 and carries with it the experience of winning a Charter Athletic Association division championship last year. "Our success can be attributed to 12 girls who work hard every time they're on the court and who aren't afraid to take risks in order to become better volleyball players," coach Beth Wilson said. The team feeds off outside hitter's Anna Rosztozcy's all-around game and intensity. Outside hitter Cassidy Bates doesn't get rattled, said Wilson, who also said that setter/libero Kylie Rusick's enthusiasm is contagious. Willcox's (24-2) only loss to a D-IV school this year came to No. 6 seed Desert Christian. Meira Stanger's hitting percentage is .331, and LaRee Crockett, freshman Samantha Kortsen and sophomore Mackenzie Welch have each tallied more than 100 kills this season. Kortsen leads the team with 96 aces and 195 digs. Marielle De Baun is averaging 4.2 assists per game.

No. 14 Tombstone vs. No. 3 Pima: "We have good chemistry and play as a team that's united," said coach Gerald Hekeka about his Pima team. "Serving and receiving was our downfall, but we have gotten better in these two areas." Jessica Sherwood and Kaylee Kay have "great" verticals and get a majority of the sets. Middle blocker Callie Thygerson is very intelligent and can play every spot on the court, Hekeka said. Setter Jessica Taylor is the team's vocal leader. This will be the first meeting of the year between Tombstone and Pima. Tombstone's Abby Gonzales was hitting .464 after 18 matches. Tombstone's serving percentage was at 93.2.

No. 11 American Leadership vs. No. 6 Desert Christian: Coach Tim Zemp went from coaching in Canada last year to coaching a team in the Valley of the Sun that's making headway in its first season of AIA eligibility, American Leadership. "I'm pleased with the direction this team and the program is going," Zemp said. "Coming from out of state I have tried to feel out the competition and divisions. We are in a good spot and hope to continue working hard and surprise some teams." Four of ALA's starters are sophomores and one is a freshman but most of the players on the team play club ball. Setter Madison Gilchrist and outside hitter Katt Limongi have helped steer the team throughout the season. Desert Christian's seniors are 71-8 in their high school careers. Those seniors and coach Shannon Huetter helped turn around a program that was 0-17 six years ago. "The great play and leadership from our seniors and the team chemistry has lead to a successful season thus far," Huetter said. "Our team has many weapons and role players who contribute significantly to the team." Some of those key players on this "seasoned" team are, setter Addison Vavala, middle Taylor Usry, middle Summer McDonough, outside Sydney Henderson, libero Emily Clauser and outside Julia Hull.

No. 10 Joy Christian vs. No. 7 Rancho Solano: Joy Christian's players quickly adapted to the new coaching staff this year thanks in part to the play and leadership of four senior starters, including its hard working setter, Tess Eblin, a powerful middle, Nichole Eckman, and McKayla Cantrell, a determined and aggressive opposite. "The team has been successful because they are relentless and diverse," coach Amy Boniface said. "They make plays because there is no other option." While Joy Christian welcomed its new coaches this year, Rancho Solano welcomed four new transfers this year. "Both sides (new and veteran players) have been excellent, and I think it has brought us closer as a team," coach Em Haas said. Senior outside hitter Shannon Gurley is an "amazing leader" who inspires her teammates on and off the court. "The girls are resilient, show up every day ready to work hard and willing to learn new things," Haas said.

No. 15 Buckeye vs. No. 2 Mohave: Buckeye has done a better job of closing out games successfully in the latter part of the season. "Our team's success is due to the players doing their best to stay together as a team and believing in each other," Buckeye coach Jessica Gehrts said. One of those players who is stepping up for Buckeye in pressure situations is senior outside hitter Kristina Northup. "She is a competitor," Gehrts said. Buckeye is 11-11, and Mohave is an impressive 21-2, but Buckeye took Mohave to five games on Oct. 13. Mohave has two great captains in Lillie Mueller and Fernanda Badilla. Mueller and Natasha Radic form one of the better combinations in the middle in the state. Kalani Reehil is in charge in the back row. "The success that we have had this season so far did not happen overnight," coach Zdenko Radic said. "We are constantly working on changing the culture and are receiving a lot of commitment from the girls."

Div. V State VB Preview

By Andy Morales
azpreps365.com

No. 1 Pinon (17-0) ... Head coach Nellie McCurtain names outside hitter Janiesa Peralto, middle Raquel Archie and setter Shonell Ben as her team leaders. The Eagles went undefeated in non invitational matches, only giving up three sets in their division. Pinon defeated No. 2 St. Michael 3-1 on Oct. 27th. "The time and effort they put in during the summer and morning hours in the summer," McCurtain said on the reason for her program's success. Each team member is accountable and responsible for being at practice and knowing they belong to a team. They strive to always try their best and overcome obstacles. Each girl supports one another on and off the court," she added.

No. 2 St. Michael (17-1) ... Andrea Ashkie is in her second year with the Cardinals. Her team improved from 10-7 in her first year to the No. 2 seed this year. A 2004 graduate of St. Michael, Ashkie's team is comprised of seven seniors including Kenisha Begay and Hunter Begaye.

No. 3 Tonopah Valley (17-0) ... Head coach Ed Andersson lists Kassandra Renteria, Naomi Dalley and Christina Renteria as his leaders. "Our success this year was motivated from not going to state last year," Andersson told AZPreps365.com. "Most of our players played last year and they had the goal to make it to state this year. I have a great group of players that are focused and humble. They know having a 17-0 record has put a target on them in state."

No. 4 St. David (14-3) ... Tylene Miller was named Small School Coach of the Year in 2013 after she led the Tigers to a 36-1 record and a state championship. Some of her leaders this year include Ashlyn Trejo, Kielee Miller, Madalyn Judd and Ashlyn Goodman.

No. 5 Patagonia (13-2) ... It's been ten years since Patagonia qualified for the state playoffs. "Our girls work hard but the losses we have had is because of what we do to ourselves," coach Stephanie Padilla explained. "This team has what it takes to get us to the next level," Padilla added. Annabelle Somoza, Lily Wharton and Christina Novack are some of the team leaders.

No. 6 Duncan (15-2) ... Head coach Sandy French lists setter Makenna Merrell, outside Madison French and opposite Cassidy Waters as her leaders. "Our success is based not only on their athletic ability but on team chemistry on and off the court. They trust each other on the court." French said.

No. 7 Valley Sanders (12-4) ... Latisha Nastacio and Tilda Hubbell the team leaders according to head coach Mary Lynch. "We have focused on 'TEAM' and I believe that is one reason our team is here this year," Lynch explained.

No. 8 Mogollon (13-4) ... Head coach Theresa Kelton named Merceidez Fabok, Sam Despain and Jennifer Maner as her team leaders. "The Mustangs have a very well rounded team, made up of freshman, sophomores, juniors and seniors," Kelton said. "The great mix brings about a great determination. Every player brings something to the court that makes the solid."

No. 9 Rock Point (10-3) ... Longtime head coach Melvin Arthur is in the playoffs after being ranked 27th the last two years and 31st the year before that. Crystanna Begay, Delilah Castillo, Pashen Johnson, Raelene Blueeyes and Keandra Sam are his senior leaders.

No. 10 St. Johns (11-4) ... "St. Johns Redskin Volleyball is making a comeback after losing senior starter, two time section player of the year and one time division player of the year Cambria Whiting," head coach Joy Whiting explained. Cambria Whiting suffered a complete tear of her ACL a few weeks ago in a game. Merilee Bloomfield has moved from middle to Outside Hitter to replace Whiting, and Analee Thompson has stepped in as the other middle along with Savannah Carpenter. Other team leaders include Abbie Overson, Kendra Avila, Cassidy Crosby, Hope Davis and Staphany Bahe. "The whole team has stayed focused and fought their way back to hold strong for this year's state tournament," Whiting added.

No. 11 Ash Fork (16-2) ... Connie Stevens is leading one of her best teams this year. The Spartans last had a winning season in 2011. Some of her leaders include senior setter Nicole Keele along with five juniors.

No. 12 Fort Thomas (12-5) ... Former Fort Thomas standout Laiken Molina is now the head coach. The Apaches climbed from 35th to No. 12 this year under Molina.

No. 13 The Gregory School (11-6) ... Angela Vande Mheen is in her second year at The Gregory School. "Our leader this year has been our only senior, and setter, Janessa Leon-Guerrero," Vande Mheen said. "She is the calming presence that brings everyone back down to Earth. She leads by example, working hard every day. We have focused a lot on being mentally tough and have definitely struggled at times. I do believe one of the reasons for our success are the relationships within the team. All the girls seem to love and respect one another," she added.

No. 14 Santa Cruz (11-3) ... David Crumbaker is in his third year with Santa Cruz. His leaders include Ty Gil and Mia Balenegro.

No. 15 Williams (15-3) ... This is head coach Chesney Grantham first year with the program. His leaders include Kami Batterton, Dara Bowdon, Destinee Pennington and Andrea Hernandez.

No. 16 NFL Yet Academy (13-4) ... Adam Sharp leads the Eagles to their first playoff appearance. Some of his leaders include KimberlyLoya-Aranda, Chyanne Castro, Florizet Romero and Alicia Sharp.
