WHATABURGER. PROUDLY SUPPORTS THE SOLLENBERGER CLASSIC

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championship. It is our pleasure to be able to bring you a fantastic event.

It took a great deal of hard work to reach this point. The AIA recognizes the strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

The AIA began in 1913 and has grown by leaps and bounds over the years. Along with the Executive Board, the AIA vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, nearly 125,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis.

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Yuma Catholic coach Ralph Evans said his 2017-18 team is a lot more focused.

Based on final results, Evans' 2016-17 team also seemed focused, and the same can be said about the team before that season and the team before that season.

If a more motivated Yuma Catholic side takes the field during the 2017-18 playoffs, the Shamrocks might make short work of four postseason opponents.

And if that happens, the program would become the third boys soccer program in the state to win four consecutive titles.

"We lost only one senior from a year ago," Evans said. "They have been more committed this season to the goals we set last year, and the chemistry within the team has greatly improved."

During its three-year championship run, Yuma Catholic hasn't lost a game to an in-conference opponent.

The closest it came to smelling a 3A Conference defeat was when its regular season game against Fountain Hills ended in a tie during the 2014-15 season. This season's team is well-fortified from front to back.

Forwards Ramon Urbano and Eluterio Gutierrez (46 combined goals) provide the scoring punch, but Yuma Catholic's defense also is a pleasure to watch.

"Our defense (Filliberto Quintero, Daniel Castillo, Edgar Guterrez, and Stocton Rush) is a coach's dream," Evans said. "They are strong, fast and communicate extremely well."

It doesn't happen often, but if attacking players get past Yuma Catholic's back line, goalkeeper Rush Vance (11 shutouts, state best .111 goal against average) is also more than capable of shutting them down.

Junior Mendez, Ernie Guterrez, Jonah Franco and David Castanon guard and control the middle, and there's also depth on on this year's team. There isn't a drop off when subs Ed Morales (7 goals, 5 assists) and Michael Johnson (4 goals, 2 assists) enter the game.

“Our subs have stepped up this year, so when they do enter the pitch the quality of our game has maintained,” Evans said. “Winning is pretty basic. If you don’t have a great scoring offense, you better have a great defense. I put a lot of attention on our defense, and it has paid off.”

Yuma Catholic, the No. 2 tournament seed, will try to put it all together in the playoffs beginning on Tuesday in the first round against No. 15 seed River Valley.

Chasing Yuma Catholic

This is the second year that Arizona College Prep, a Chandler Unified District school, earned the No. 1 seed.

The top seed wasn’t too kind to the team last year, when it lost to eventual champ Yuma Catholic in the state quarterfinals. If AZ College Prep faces Yuma Catholic again, it won’t be until the Feb. 10, 7 p.m. final at Williams Field High School.

“We have a great group of players that work hard and support each other,” AZ College Prep coach Alberto Millan Rivera said. “The quality and talent of the group helps, but the work they put in and their desire to better themselves is impressive.”

What’s also impressive about the team is that it reached the semifinals of the Arizona College Showcase and was the runner-up in the Chandler Prep tourney.

This is the second consecutive year that AZ College Prep (12-0-2) also finished undefeated.

One of its victories came against No. 3 seed Casteel, and its two ties were against teams in higher conferences, Cactus Shadows and Desert Ridge.

Maybe a lower seed will treat No. 4 Safford better this year. Last year, as the No. 2 seed, Safford was upset in PK’s by No. 15 Sahuarita, which reached the semifinals.

On paper, Safford appears to be the favorite heading into its first round opponent No. 13 Thatcher.

But when two rivals meet for the third time (Safford outscored Thatcher 7-2 in the regular season.) in a season, anything can happen. So 14-0 Safford isn’t likely overlooking its first round opponents, especially after what happened last year.

“Like most of the other top team in the state, these boys have played with each other for most of their soccer lives,” Safford coach E.J. Romero said. “They have competed with and against each other since they were 4, 5 and 6 years old.”

Forward Dante Bryce and Garrett Gonzalez have each scored 20 goals, but 13 other players have also scored for Safford.

Two final four teams from last year also figure to be contenders, NFL Yet and Northwest Christian. NFL Yet reached the semifinals two seasons ago in their first season as an Arizona Interscholastic Association member.

Last year it was the 3A runner-up. Does it take the next step and win the title this year?

“The school community likes soccer very much, and has it in its DNA,” said Peruvian native Julio Zavaleta, NFL Yet’s coach. “But the most important thing is that the players understand that they have to play as a team and not individually.”

“We hope to achieve the goal, winning the state championship.”

Midfielders Richard Torres (20 goals, 17 assists) and Filiberto Reyes and defender Christian Castro will have a lot to say in how far NFL Yet goes this year.

The state’s leading goal scorer, according to maxpreps, calls Northwest Christian home.

Sophomore Michael Huss has scored 35 goals this season.

“We have some good players that work hard and have fun together,” Northwest Christian coach Jeremy Witt said. “There are a lot of laughs at practice and they keep the mood light. We don’t have a lot of club players, but we have guys that want to work hard and get results.”

NOTES

No. 5 American Leadership Academy Queen Creek is making its second consecutive trip to the playoffs. ... This is the first time in almost 15 years that No. 11 Bourgade Catholic earned a playoff berth. Coach Alejandro Luna and his staff are entering their third year at the school. “We have a large group of players who are interchangeable and can comfortably play multiple positions, and we have been fortunate enough to keep everyone on the team healthy throughout the season,” Luna said. ... Last season, No. 10 Empire only had one senior, but this season the team has a “solid balance of players ranging from freshmen to seniors.” Midfielder Jordan Cartwright is a two-year captain, incredibly smart on and off the ball, tough as nail and technically gifted, said coach Sean Abrigo, the head coach for University of Arizona’s women’s soccer club team. The “heart” of Empire’s defense is Jensen Powell. ... First-year Tempe Prep coach Steven Day credited former coach Adam Potter for laying down the foundation for the success of his No. 9-seeded team. Tempe Prep’s captains are Tyler Trevillyan (15 goals), Carter Sampson and Cameron Pickard. ... Coach Patrick Andrew started the Horizon Honors program 17 years ago and returned to the team, after nine seasons with the girls, last season. “(No. 8 Horizon Honors) has built upon the achievement of last year by adding a talented freshmen group,” Andrew said. “Perhaps the biggest reason for the team’s continued success is the work ethic and kinship within the team. Despite the spate of injuries, the team found ways to raise their performance level and qualify for state.” Senior captains Noe Ramirez and Daniel Haros as well as Ryan Holquin, Ryand Hickie, Demetrio Macias, and Ben Bongard have played different positions throughout the season.

3A Girls Soccer Championship Bracket

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Casteel shut down its opponents and any doubt during the regular season that it's not prepared to win the program's first championship.

It did so, above all, with its defense, allowing the Queen Creek team to earn the No. 1 seed in the 3A Conference girls soccer state tournament.

"The No. 1 reason we've been successful has to be because of our overall team commitment to defense," coach Jason Hammonds said. "We have forwards and midfielders asking to play on defense to help keep the zero. The entire team is committed to this goal."

In 19 games, Casteel's impenetrable defense has yielded only one goal.

The scoreless streak of goalkeeper Kyli Swann, just a sophomore, in regulation and overtime is at 1,440 minutes. The 1-0 loss Casteel suffered came after a penalty kick round, and the team it lost to, Mountain Pointe, reached the 6A Conference playoffs this season.

But the playoffs are a different animal as Casteel learned during its second round playoff loss last season, when the program was without veteran leadership.

But, with its first junior class, that's not the case this year. Besides its maturity, what's also helping steer Casteel toward positive results is its principal, Sandy Lundberg, who is battling cancer.

"The girls have dedicated their play this season to her," Hammonds said.

With more than 20 players having already scored goals this season, it seems like every player is stepping up for their team and Lundberg.

Casteel's captains, right wing McKenna Radder, center back Zoey Chambers and forward Samantha Anger, and a talented freshman, Renee Sainz, are the leading the charge.

"McKenna is a junior who's been with our program since Day 1," Hammonds said. "McKenna shows what it means to be team first. Leading the team in assists.

"Zoey is also a junior who's been with us since the first days of our program. Zoey is one of players who shows the meaning of perseverance every game. She plays all heart from start to finish. Sam is a sophomore who's been with us since 8th grade. Since her first day, she's been a goal scoring machine. Sam (33 goals) came close to being the state goal scoring leader last year, and is on track to be in the running again this year."

Casteel's (17-1-1) pipeline of young talent likely won't end soon since it plays without seniors and a freshman, Sainz, who's also delivering.

Sainz is second on the team in assists with 15 and goals with 19.

"We also don't have a single transfer," Hammonds said. "Every member of the varsity team attended the school last year with our first varsity team. Even the three freshmen on varsity attended Casteel as 8th graders. What these women have done over the last two years has been amazing. The best part is they're just getting started."

Fountain Hills, the two-time defending champ and three-time state champ in the past four seasons, continued to win despite saying goodbye to a head coach and one of the better players to ever suit up in the 3A.

Coach Alison Mabery stepped down after last season's dominant 2-0 win over Trivium Prep in the 3A final. Mabery was in charge during Fountain Hills' recent championship stretch.

The program also sent Erika Yost off on a good note. Yost wrapped up her high school career last season with 104 career goals.

But new leaders emerged on the sidelines and on the field during another strong regular season run for Fountain Hills this season. New and veteran players helped the program garner the No. 2 seed in the state tourney under first-year coach Gary Shindler.

Senior Selina Reisig has scored a team-high 27 goals with the help of a group of talented freshmen, Parker Sweet (state-high 29 assists) and Ashby Owens (team second-best 10 goals). The four freshmen on Fountain Hills' team have each played 574 or more minutes this season.

Fountain Hills' (13-2) only 3A loss this year came to No. 9 seed Gilbert Christian.

The teams in 3A are probably learning how to pronounce pronounce Veritas (Ver-eh-toss) Prep this season.

That's because they are noticing what the No. 3 seed is doing this season under the direction of an up and coming, energetic coach, Senko Redzic.

Veritas doesn't sound like fajitas, but that's how it's mispronounced by some folks, Redzic said.

"We are a little school that's trying to win its first title," said Redzic about his Phoenix program. "They simply believe in themselves. They're extremely positive, intelligent, talented, capable young ladies who don't know how to quit. The ball never stops moving, and neither do they. They keep improving and learning from every experience, fully immersing themselves in every moment. They're not afraid of losing, nor are they afraid of being great. After all, luck follows the brave."

The same can be said about Redzic's parents, who emigrated during a war in their native Croatia more than 35 years ago.

Veritas Prep's win record has increased every year since Redzic took over three years ago. The 13-1 team's defeat came in its season opener to No. 4 seed Scottsdale Prep.

A junior, Kylie Hall (35 goals, 19 assists), and a freshman, Bella Gulbranson (24 goals, 17 assists), are just two of the young players that have Veritas Prep poised to make a couple of runs at a state title.

"Kylie is an extraordinary talent," Redzic said. "She has a penchant for taking over games. She's often double and triple teamed, and she still finds a way to score and or provide assists.

"With Bella, watch out for this extraordinary talent."

Redzic also was high on center back Bailey Fisher, "a natural born leader with a cannon for a right leg."

Hall, Fisher and goalkeeper Meg Van Brunt are Veritas Prep's three captains.

"Meg has a braver heart than William Wallace," the coach said. "She has a penchant for playing really well in big games."

Veritas Prep's first playoff game is against No. 14 seed Thatcher at home.

"I want to turn a once bad program into a champion," Redzic said. "Everything is possible with enough love, positivity, faith and hard-work."

NOTES

No. 5 Trivium Prep is led by junior goalkeeper Tori Gutierrez (9 shutouts), junior midfielder Paula Rosztoczy (14 goals) and sophomore Sammy Johnson (15 goals, 11 assists). Not only did Trivium Prep lose in the 3A soccer finals last season, it also lost to Fountain Hills in the 3A beach volleyball final. Five of Trivium Prep's soccer players also play beach volleyball. "The girls have played together since middle school," coach Donald Radford said. "They are all very good friends, and team chemistry is at the core of their success."

... No. 9 Gilbert Christian lost its state semifinal game and its best weapons in the middle of the field last year. This year, the team starts three freshmen on defense since returning player Lexy Feely (ACL) is out. Sophomore Hannah Burke leads the team in scoring with 15 goals. "Ambria Krahling, who led the state in assists last year, switched to sweeper to anchor our defense," coach Jay Feely said. "It was a very selfless move, one she didn't really want to do. But it has made us a very sound defense, and she tells the three freshmen what to do in front of her." Anna Johnsen has done a good job as the new center midfielder, Jay said. Grace Johnson has battled through injuries but is still scoring goals. Ambria Krahling has scored four goals on free kicks, and goalkeeper Hallie Searles "has been fantastic." ... No. 7 Northwest Christian starts six of its eight freshmen, but senior captain Makenna Barton (33 goals), junior defender Logan Maszton and senior defenders Moriah Lara and Makenna McClure are there to back the younger players. Coach Jeff Penzone is in his 14th year coaching soccer at Northwest Christian, fourth with the girls. Penzone's assistant, Eric Maszton, also brings a lot of soccer knowledge to the table, Penzone said.

State Champion

The 2017 4A boys title went to the Coronado Dons, who return to defend their crown (photo by Mark Jones of maxpreps.com).

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Some teams in the 4A Conference voluntarily picked a favorite to win the state tournament, and they all pointed to the same team — Gila Ridge.

Coach Corey Semier approves.

Semier's wants his alma mater, Gila Ridge, to be in state title contention every year. Now it's time for Semier and his boys to prove they deserve the golden-colored trophy they hand out to championship teams.

"Being an alumnus of Gila Ridge I took pride in rebuilding this program to become the statewide power it is today," Semier said.

Gila Ridge has broken the school record for wins in a season every year since Semier came on board in 2015, accumulating a 40-5-4 record and three section titles in the process.

Semier's coaching start is impressive and so are the region titles in a region, Yuma, that's a soccer hotbed in Arizona. But to be truly considered a statewide power Gila Ridge needs to do better in the playoffs.

It was upset in the first round two years ago but reached the 4A semifinals last year, dropping a 1-0 decision to eventual champ Coronado. Eight seniors have experienced the two playoffs defeats.

Gila Ridge might be viewed as the favorite by some this season, but winning it all will be challenging for the No. 5 seed. The talent in the 4A Conference is well-distributed this year.

"Our experience is second to none," Semier said, "and now they have been playing our style effectively for three seasons. We are capable of beating teams in many ways."

Gila Ridge is where one of the state's soccer ring-leaders, Esteban Franco, plays.

The all-around talent can play anywhere, but his skillset is needed up front, where the senior ranks first in the state in assists (24) and second in goals (34), according to maxpreps.com. Franco's striking partner all season long, sophomore forward Evis Fierro, can also create chances for himself or others.

Helping set up the dynamic duo of Franco and Fierro is junior midfielder Joel German.

“(German) has been our most consistent player on the year,” Semier said. “His work rate and effectiveness isn’t reflected in the stat sheet, but every true soccer mind understands the importance of a midfield ball-winner and catalyst.”

The first test for Gila Ridge (13-2-1) arrives on Wednesday Jan. 31 in the first round against a vastly improved Peoria Sunrise Mountain team.

NOTES

Like Gila Ridge, No. 2 seed Greenway also has a big senior class. “They are a cohesive team and play well for each other,” said co-head coach Kenny Laird about his Greenway squad. Greenway’s defense in particular stands out behind the play of senior goalkeeper Riley Widney and center defensive players Kenny Kurbat and Bernave Cruz. The top scorers are midfielder Trevor Swartz and defender/forward Derek Fournier. ... No. 1 seed Tempe is another team with a lot of experience, but they will be without one of its leaders in the first round due to a final regular season red card. “I have a very skilled team,” 19-year coach Steven Cihomsky said. “Many of my guys are very comfortable on the ball.” Tempe’s go-to players are forwards Rigo Zamudio and Hector Govea. The midfield threats are Andres Hernandez (“free kick artist and skilled left foot”) and Johnny Rodriguez (“greatest work rate”). ... Defending champ Coronado is the No. 7 seed. “This has been a season of learning how to play with the target on our backs,” coach Nick Barker said. “As defending champs we get every team’s best game. Its been a year of great battles and lots of close games. The season has been a process of learning who we are and choosing to step up to new challenges.” Senior center-back Tony Cortes “outworks everybody,” and senior midfielder Hector Serrano is the “heart of the team.” Since taking over in 2013, Barker’s teams have reached the final three times, winning it twice. ... Washington’s Adam Roberts is in his 23rd season as head coach. His 8th seeded team is led by senior Landry Mayungu, junior David Castaneda and Sergio Pacheco. Castaneda is a midfielder with a forward’s scoring mentality. Washington’s back line is filled with seniors, Chris Carillo, Rafael Perez, and the Martin twins, Jonathan and Bryan. ... Most of the boys on No. 12 Sunrise Mountain have played together for almost three years. “You can see out on the field how much they have grown together by their passing and possession,” coach Bob Hossain said. “The boys have taken this season more seriously, with more ambition to win games.” Senior defender Chayse Geeffre, junior midfielder James Hansen, sophomore keeper Connor Froysland and junior midfielder Andy Robertson are the team’s key players. ... No. 9 Catalina Foothills’ Connor Cosgrove has scored 20 goals, and junior Ryan Whitney has a team-high 18 assists. “Ryan is an amazing all-around player,” coach said. “Connor has great speed. Senior defender Jorge Garavito is a superior defender that has anchored the back line since his freshman year.” Sophomores Meni McCorhan, Jack Johnson and Dylan Montoya and freshman Miles Lyons are some of the young players who have stepped up. ... “We promote discipline, heart, character and have our boys soccer as one organization,” said Douglas’ first-year head coach Alfonso Romero. “We have all three levels practice and develop together.” Romero coached under Douglas legend Ken Cormier, who passed away last year, for 14 years. No. 4 seed Douglas’ captains are Joseph Valencia, Alexes Flores and Jan Acuna.

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Holly Jones and Kelly Pierce returned to familiar surroundings this season.

Pierce graduated from Salpointe, where she won two championships as a player, in 1999. After a 5-year run as an assistant coach at Northern Arizona University, Jones re-took control of Flagstaff High, where she won two titles as a coach between 2001-08.

In their first seasons as coaches at programs they helped reach the highest high school soccer pinnacle twice, Jones and Pierce are back on top. Their respective programs earned the top-2 seeds in the 2017-18 4A Conference state girls tournament.

As the favorites, there's a good chance No. 1 Flagstaff and Salpointe (15-1-1) might be two of the final four teams still playing just like last year, when the two met during a memorable semifinal game. The match was scoreless heading into penalty kicks, which Salpointe won 4-1 en route to completing a state championship season.

"Having this opportunity to be the coach of the school I love so much has been an incredible experience," Pierce said. "I am grateful and humbled to be a part of it again. It has come full circle, and I couldn't be happier. The girls, their families, the administration and the Salpointe community has been nothing but kind, welcoming and beyond helpful to me and my coaching staff, making this first year that much better."

Jones not only coached but also played at NAU, where she was inducted into the school's soccer hall of fame in 2007.

But her heart also belongs to Flagstaff High.

"I was extremely interested (in coaching Flagstaff), because I knew the team had been well-coached previously and was a great group," Jones said. "I was also excited because of the facilities FHS had updated for soccer. When I had coached previously, FHS did not have any soccer facilities and now it has one of the best in the state. It is a privilege to be able to coach and have a field of that quality to train on daily."

Flagstaff's players have responded well to the coaching change, picking up where they left off with former coach David Myers. Other than this year's one tie, Flagstaff currently has the same record (12-2-1) as last year's team.

But this season's team has scored 47 more goals than last year.

"There is an urgency to score goals, and many players have the ability to score the game winning goals," Jones said.

So far, Flagstaff's No. 10, Madelynn Shafer, is setting the goal scoring pace with 26 so far. Morgan Hodges also is a scoring threat, but she can also shutdown an opponent's top attacker.

Flagstaff has given up 10 more goals compared to last year, but the goal against average of goalkeeper Lyza Bosselmann, a captain, is only .33. Bosselmann and center back Lydia Pelletier-Butler manage the defensive third of Flagstaff.

Salpointe's defense also is tough to penetrate under its first-year coach, Pierce, a former captain as a defender at Salpointe. In fact, Salpointe has only given up eight goals, three fewer than last year's championship team so far.

"(Defender Lauren) Bollinger is a great communicator and leader," Pierce said. "Our goalkeeper, Maddie Hargis, also is a senior and a good leader. They work great together and have really led this team from the start."

Like Flagstaff, Salpointe's offense also is scoring at a higher rate compared to last year. Senior midfielders Isabella Almazan and Paloma Teran have played integral roles in helping raise the goal total by 23 this season so far.

"We play together. Win together. Lose together. Train together. Laugh together," Pierce said.

NOTES

No. 3 seed Estrella Foothills is led by forwards Anita Moreno and Gabbie Hayes, midfielders Halee Yeager and Lexy Hayes and defender Justine Rios. The team is coached by former Mexican National Team member Rosie Gonzalez. "The team has been working very hard this season," Gonzalez said. "They all sat down and made it a goal to go to the state playoffs and try to make it as far as they can. The team is more than a team. We are family, and they push each other, especially the younger classmen." ... No. 8 Thunderbird was the 2016 runner-up. "After losing in the state championship game last year the girls have been driven to get back to the title game," coach Angelo Iozza said. "The team is well-organized, committed to playing team defense and is confident they can play with anyone in the state." Captain Kayla King has given up only five goals in 12 games. Skyllar Pearson "plays with great passion and grit," Xitlaly Hernandez "holds down the midfield," Lexy Aguilar is a "beast up top," and freshman Ellie St. Claire has "scored some great goals." Iozza used to coach football from 1999-2014 at Greenway. ... No. 6 Prescott is led by senior forward Mikayla Sell, who has 50-plus points. "She is a quiet leader who is mentally and physically the toughest player I have ever coached," Katie Campuzano said. "It is this approach to soccer that inspires her teammates to give more. The other leader is sophomore midfielder Sawyer Magnett. She has compiled 40-plus points this year and is a vocal leader on and off the field." ... Mark Etchamendy is in his fifth season as head coach for No. 7 Higley. "We have a lot of depth on the team this year, girls that are willing to play where I need them to play," Etchamendy said. "And most importantly (because of) our culture that we created, staying positive at all times as a team and playing like a post season team all season long." The team's leaders are its captains, senior Zoe Reeves and junior Elena Etchamendy. Reeves returned from an injury and is back playing at a very high level. Elena can "blast and place the ball very well." ... No. 5 Cactus Shadows has a new coaching staff, Carrie White, Jack Soutar and Jordan Nelson. "We have a good group of girls who have stuck together and have started to play as one," White said. "Our leaders are our captains, senior midfielder Jessica Kotowski and junior goalkeeper Abigail Tyhurst. Jess is a fantastic player with unbelievable work ethic. Abby is a dominant goalkeeper full of potential." ... No. 9 Sunrise Mountain won back-to-back region titles for the first time in school history. Coach Erik Anderson said several different players have stepped up, including center midfielders Laila Hamad and Sydney Tidd, center back Vicki Clark.
