WHATABURGER. PROUDLY SUPPORTS THE SOLLENBERGER CLASSIC

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championship. It is our pleasure to be able to bring you a fantastic event.

It took a great deal of hard work to reach this point. The AIA recognizes the strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

The AIA began in 1913 and has grown by leaps and bounds over the years. Along with the Executive Board, the AIA vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, nearly 125,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis.

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

DAVID HINES
AIA Executive Director

What can be anticipated at the 2018 3A boys and girls basketball tournaments?

The final power rankings and brackets show a mixed bags of teams from across the state in the top 8 seeds of boys competition and a heavy helping (not unusual) from Northern Arizona schools on the girls side. Focused on those schools, here is a look for both tournaments that begin Feb. 13 (girls) and Feb. 14 (boys):

BOYS TOURNAMENT

The top eight seeds in this year's field feature just two teams that were in the top eight last year -- Valley Christian and Blue Ridge. They were the #1 and #2 seeds, respectively, but were knocked out in the quarterfinals. The only school in last year's final four to earn a top-8 seed this year is last year's runner-up Winslow.

TOP EIGHT SEEDS: #1 Blue Ridge (28-3) is one of three East Region teams to qualify in the top 8 and earn a bye in to the round of 16 in the 24-team tournament. Blue Ridge has been a stable force atop the boys rankings for most of the season. The Yellow Jackets are led by senior Mason Berges and juniors Corey Endfield and Darrien Burnette. Berges averages 22 points and 10 rebounds a game and Endfield and Burnette chip in 15 points apiece. They lost their final two regular season games with fellow East Region foes Winslow and Snowflake, but avenged each loss in the section tournament. Blue Ridge is not invincible, but capable of backing up its top billing. #5 Snowflake (19-12) is also dangerous. The Lobos played Blue Ridge four times losing three times, but two of the losses were by one point. Seniors Garrett Wood and Taden Flake lead a team that often relies on balanced scoring and defense. #2 Winslow (23-6) split with Snowflake and Blue Ridge in the regular season and knocked off #4 Valley Christian in a December tournament. Senior Ricardo Villanueva averages 17 points a game to lead the Bulldogs, who have reached the final four the last two years and lost in the final last year. #4 Valley Christian (19-7) and #3 Casteel (18-8) represent the Metro Region among the top 8. Valley Christian won the region and split its meetings with Casteel. The Trojans lost overtime games to top-8 Sabino and Winslow and handled Snowflake by double digits. Leading the way for VC are two, 3-year junior starters -- Jalen Grijalva and Connor Braun. They have size and depth (no player smaller than 6-2) and have a healthy 6-8 Braun for postseason this year. He was out with a broken foot last year. Casteel has racked up a pair of 3A state titles this year (football and girls soccer) and basketball is in the hunt as well. The Colts rely on juniors Chris York (14 ppg), Austin Ponsness (12 ppg) and Cooper Christensen (10 ppg). #6 Chinle (19-8) is the North Region's best hope. The Wildcats knocked off Snowflake early and Florence later in the year for two of their top wins. #7 Florence (16-11) was in the middle of a tight Central Region race, but its strength of schedule vaulted it to top 8 status. The Gophers are led by senior forward Aaron Chapple (15 ppg, 8 rpg), sophomore center Rarey Sommer (11 ppg, 10 rpg) and junior guard Nick Tucker (17 ppg). #8 Sabino (17-9) won the South Region via tiebreaker over Empire. The Sabercats take the momentum of having won their last six games against 3A teams to the postseason. They are led by senior guard Daniel Joseph (15 ppg), senior forward Jason Johnson (12 ppg) and junior guard Andres Aros-Estrella (10 ppg).

GIRLS TOURNAMENT

Very little new blood in this year's top eight seeds. Seven of 2018's top eight were top eight in 2017 (Ganado, Page, Valley Christian, Holbrook, Safford, Pusch Ridge and Chinle.) The only newcomer is Window Rock, which was No. 9 last year. The 2017 final four featured Valley Christian, Holbrook, Page and Chinle. The dominant region per usual is the 3A North. All six of its teams qualified for state and are no worse than top 13 seeds in the tourney.

TOP EIGHT SEEDS: #1 Ganado (22-4) led the power rankings much of the season. The Hornets' keys to success are depth with 10 players seeing a lot of action and defense. They won 9 of 11 games against region foes. Three seniors are the leaders - Janaya McIntosh, Amber James and Camille Uentillie. McIntosh is the team's scoring leader followed closely by Uentillie. James leads in rebounding and steals. #2 Window Rock (19-6) made it to the elite eight last year where it was felled by eventual state champ Valley Christian. Offense is paced by senior Vanessa James, who is averaging 15 points a game, junior Asia James (12 ppg) and sophomore Jana Solee (10 ppg). The Scouts won 7 of 11 games against North Region foes and dealt Ganado its only region defeat. #3 Page (18-9) has been hot down the stretch and the whispers are the Sand Devils are the favorites. They lost by one in the final last year to Valley Christian. and clocked Window Rock and Ganado in the recent North Region tournament. Page has regrouped with three key returnees -- point guard Myka Taliman who averages just shy of 10 ppg, leading rebounder LeLisa Watson (8 ppg) and senior post Jacey Salabiye averaging 15 ppg. The loss of six seniors was a challenge early, but isn't any longer. #4 Valley Christian (22-4) returned one starter from last year's title team and has hung its hat on her and rightfully so -- senior point guard Anna Gorman. Gorman is averaging 22 points a game and is arguably the best player in the conference. She broke the school career scoring record last month. Gorman delivered the game-winning free throws in last year's last-second title win over Page. Sophomore post Jada Pourier is adding 10 ppg and leads in rebounding. The Trojans likely are going to have to beat teams from the 3A North and or Holbrook to repeat as state champs. #5 Holbrook (24-6) played as tough a schedule as any team in 3A. It doesn't rely on one or two players to lead its offense and can sport a different top scorer most nights. Leading the team is sophomore Madison Chappell with a modest 12 ppg. The Roadrunners were 5-3 against 3A North teams beating Ganado, Chinle and Monument Valley. Page beat Holbrook twice. #6 Safford (20-5) won the 3A Central and hopes to avert a first-round loss this season. The Bulldogs are led by junior guard Deion Abalos (15 ppg, 6 apg), senior Aneesa Molina (11 ppg, 7 rpg) and sophomore Mia Carter (11 ppg). They had trouble with top-8 seeds losing four of five games (VC, Holbrook, Chinle and Window Rock in decisive fashion). #7 Pusch Ridge (20-6) had to batte with Empire, Tanque Verde and Sabino for South Region honors and won a tie-breaker with the other three. The Lions, piloted by longtime coach Lonnie Trvdy, had limited chances playing other top 8 teams, but were 2-0 (beating Holbrook early and Valley Christian late). They did not face any 3A North teams. Pusch Ridge is led by sophomore Angel Addleman (13 ppg, 7 rpg) and junior Cherish Gotcher (9 ppg). #8 Chinle (14-13) didn't win many games in its region. But after opening the season 4-9 the Wildcats won 10 of their last 14 games and won't be easy to handle.

Nine state championships, six in this decade, three of the last four years and the last two in a row. What more can one expect from Karen Self and her Seton Catholic Sentinels? How about another?

Seton Catholic (25-3) is the top seed in the 4A Conference playoffs for good reason. The Sentinels went 18-0 in games that count this season, including 8-0 to capture Desert Sky title.

“Our success this season has come through a balanced attack offensively and through great work ethic on defense,” Self said.

Self has guided the Sentinels to 24 straight playoff appearances and her rosters have been stocked with talent year in and year out and this year is no different with senior guards Sarah Barcello and Kendall Krick running her offense along with junior guard Sara Pfeiffer. Barcello and Krick are both headed to Marist next year and Barcello is a two-time state Player of the Year, but Self would like some recognition for Pfeiffer, a newcomer to her program.

“Sara Pfeiffer moved to Arizona from New York in August,” Self added. “She is the most underrated and unknown player in the state. She has been a huge difference maker for us this season. She is the best shooter in the mix for player of the year and barely anyone knows who she is at 20 points per game.”

No. 2 Pueblo (26-2) is expected to give the bottom half of the bracket fits with a core of seniors who have played together all four years (and beyond) taking the court with several juniors and a couple of dominating sophomores thrown in for good measure.

“Hard work, dedication, and commitment,” head coach Izzy Galindo said when asked why his team was successful this year. “Sounds cliché but most of my players grew up together in the same neighborhood and built this program to where it is now.”

Galindo’s daughter, senior Ilyssa Diamond Galindo, is one of those four-year starters and she holds the state record for assists in a game at 21. "Ilyssa is the floor general, she runs the team," Galindo said. "She has played and started in every game since her freshman year."

Ilyssa Diamond Galindo has a won-loss record of 96-18 at Pueblo.

Junior guard Summer Fox is playing in her first full year at Pueblo after transferring in from Sabino two years ago. "Summer is the energy of our team. She is nonstop hustle," He added.

On the boy's side of the 4A state playoffs? Top-seeded Shadow Mountain.

The Matadors have won five state championships but the most damage to the rest of the state has been from 2013 through today, an incredible 127-17 record, three state championships and only seven losses in the last three years.

Oh, and those seven losses? None of them came to teams from Arizona and one was an exhibition game. Gilbert Christian beat Shadow Mountain 87-47 in the semifinal round of the 2015 Division II state playoffs and the Matadors have gone 67-0 against teams from Arizona since that loss.

Leading the way for former University of Arizona, NBA standout and head coach Mike Bibby are juniors Jovan Blacksher (16.1 points per game) and Jaelen House (18.4). House is the son of former ASU guard Eddie House and he is also Bibby's nephew.

Senior Immanuel Allen (15.1), junior Antonio Reeves (14.9) and sophomore Shemar Morrow (11.3) are all main parts of an offense pouring in 90 points an outing.

No. 2 Buckeye (21.4) has three state titles in program history but none since 1990. The Hawks went 8-0 to capture the Southwest Region championship and 17-1 in games that counted towards their seed ranking, but the one loss was an 87-67 setback at Shadow Mountain on Feb. 1.

The Hawks are led by junior Otis Frazier, sophomore Za-Ontay Boothman and senior Elias Anderson.

No. 3 Catalina Foothills (23-5) made it to the semifinal round last year with Southern Arizona Player of the Year

Sam Beskind leading the way. Beskind is averaging 21.3 points a game this year and he is joined by Carson James (15.1), Hayden Moser (12.6) and Spencer Lewis (9.7).

The Falcons upset national-ranked Westlake (No. 7) 54-52 at the MaxPreps Holiday Classic.

No. 4 Moon Valley (23-4) is on a 15-game win streak entering the playoffs and the Rockets lost to Shadow Mountain in the semifinal round (87-47) last year.

"We have been successful this season because of our team chemistry," said head coach Matthew Elliott. "We have been willing to help each other defensively and share the ball on offense."

6-foot-7 senior forward Jok Jok is averaging 18 points a game for the Rockets.
