WHATABURGER. PROUDLY SUPPORTS THE SOLLENBERGER CLASSIC

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championship. It is our pleasure to be able to bring you a fantastic event.

It took a great deal of hard work to reach this point. The AIA recognizes the strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

The AIA began in 1913 and has grown by leaps and bounds over the years. Along with the Executive Board, the AIA vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, nearly 125,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis.

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

Division I Wrestling Preview

By Les Willsey
azpreps365.com

Sunnyside down in wrestling? A little in recent years. Very little. The Blue Devils appear primed to rule the Division I roost come Friday night when the two-day state meet concludes at Prescott Valley Event Center.

Sunnyside hasn't brought home a first-place trophy in D-I since 2013. The last four years, however, the Blue Devils have been runner-up. Add state champs in 2011 and 2013 and six of the eight years this decade they've placed first or second. Sunnyside has 30 state championships in its history.

Sunnyside is led by the superlative Roman Bravo-Young, who is 178-0 in his career and needs two wins this week to break the state record for consecutive wins (179) held by Deer Valley's Jacob Swift (2013-2016). Bravo-Young has signed a letter of intent to attend Penn State.

Here's a look at the D-I tournament and schedule -- all at Prescott Valley Event Center -- Thursday Feb. 8 and Friday Feb. 9:

D-I's first session is Thursday at 10:30 a.m. After an afternoon break, session two begins at 6 p.m. Action shifts to a third session Friday at 10 a.m. with fourth and final session (medal rounds) slated to begin Friday at 7 p.m.

TEAM SECTION CHAMPS: Section 1 -- Desert Ridge by 16.5 points over Mesa Mountain View; Section 2 -- Cibola by 81.5 points over Boulder Creek; Section 3 -- Sunnyside by 73 points over Desert Vista; Section 4 -- Chandler by 26 points over Corona del Sol.

TEAMS WITH MOST QUALIFIERS/SECTION CHAMPS: Sunnyside - 13 qualifiers, 9 section champs; Cibola - 12 qualifiers, 7 section champs; Desert Ridge -- 12 qualifiers, 5 section champs; Chandler -- 14 qualifiers, 4 section champs; Corona del Sol - 13 qualifiers, 4 section champs; Kofa -- 10 qualifiers, 4 section champs; Mesa Mountain View -- 10 qualifiers, 3 section champs.

DEFENDING STATE CHAMPIONS: Jesse Ybarra, Sunnyside, So. Ybarra won at 106 pounds in 2017, wrestling 113 this year; Manny Garcia, Sunnyside, Sr. Garcia won at 113 in 2017, wrestling 120 this year; Roman Bravo-Young, Sunnyside Sr. Bravo-Young 3-time champ winning at 106 (2015), 120 (2016) and 132 (2017), wrestling 132 this year; Jacob Garcia, Corona del Sol, Sr. Garcia won at 138 in 2017, wrestling at 152 this year; Tommy Mommer, Cibola, Sr. 2-time champs winning at 220 in 2016 and 2017 and wrestling 285 this year. Chandler transfers Gator Groves (145) and Marco Groves (160) are three-time state champs in D-II while competing at McClintock from 2015-2017. Gator Groves won at 120, 126 and 145 and Marco Groves at 132, 132 and 160.

ANOTHER CHANCE AT BITE OF BIG APPLE: Six wrestlers finished runner-up in 2017 and return to climb one more rung on the ladder -- Chris Kelly, Chandler, So. 2nd at 106 last year, wrestling 126 this year; Vicente Loaiza, Sunnyside, Sr. 2nd at 120 last year, wrestling 126 this year; Angelo Pool, Tucson, Sr. 2nd at 126 last year, wrestling 138 this year; Aaron Gandara, Cibola, So. 2nd at 152 last year, wrestling 152 this year; Kashawn Crump-Valencia, Tucson, Sr. 2nd 182 last year, wrestling 182 this year; Jeremiah Hollen, Mesa Mtn. View, Jr. 2nd at 195 last year, wrestling 195 this year.

NO. 1 SEEDS: 106-pounds - Undefeated James Brown, Sunnyside, Fr.; 113 - Undefeated Jesse Ybarra, Sunnyside, So.; 120 -- Juan Manuel Garcis, Sunnyside, Sr.; 126 -- Chris Kelly, Chandler, So.; 132 -- Undefeated in career Roman Bravo-Young, Sunnyside, Sr.; 138 -- Tanner Waite, Highland, Sr.; 145 -- Gator Groves, Chandler, Sr.; 152 -- Jacob Garcia, Corona del Sol, Sr.; 160 -- Luke Jacobs, Brophy Prep, Sr.; 170 -- David Castaneda, Cibola, Sr.; 182 -- Kashawn Crump-Valencia, Tucson, Sr.; 195 -- Undefeated Mario Neblina, Cibola, Jr.; 220 -- Johnathun Garcia, Marana Mtn. View, Sr.; 285 -- Tommy Mommer, Cibola, Sr.

OUTLOOK: Along with its three defending champs and four No.1 seeds, Sunnyside has four others seeded No. 2 in their weights -- Loaiza (126), a two-time state runner-up; Aaron Rodriguez (138), Sebastian Mordecai (170) and Matt Rees (195). Sunnyside has a strong chance to dominate the lighter weights and there's enough elsewhere to make it tough on the entire field. Some might believe Sunnyside is the prohibitive favorite, with so much top billing. Cibola and Chandler would like to think otherwise. Cibola, which finished third last year and won back-to-back team titles in D-II in 2014 and 2015, has three No. 1 seeds and two No. 2 seeds. Cibola's strength is the upper and middle weights. Sunnyside and Cibola are the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds at 106, 170 and 195. Chandler qualified all 14 of its wrestlers and only two No. 1 seeds. The Wolves lineup is capable of several high-end placers. Desert Ridge and Kofa, given their number of qualifiers, are likely to be spoilers. The Jaguars and Kings sport no No. 1 seeds, but tough lineups.

Division II Wrestling Preview

By Andy Morales

Mountain View Marana took the Division II state title over Queen Creek last year 177.5 to 171 but Cienega was able to outdistance the Mountain Lions 218.5 to 202.5 to capture the D-II, Section I championship held at Flowing Wells High School. The Bobcats finished in sixth place last year but the team figures to move up a few spots based on the sectional finish.

Queen Creek took second place to Williams Field in the Section IV finals held at Campo Verde High School 215 to 231. Meanwhile, Liberty cruised to a 284 to 150 win over Centennial in the Section II championship held at Ironwood High School. Liberty took third place at state last year.

Desert Edge came in fourth place last year, but the Scorpions fell to fifth place in the Section III tournament. Gila Ridge won that sectional with 165 points.

Marco and Gator Groves won multiple championships for McClintock over the last three years but the twins moved to Division I Chandler over the summer which leaves openings in the 145 and 160 divisions but there are still five returning champions.

Marcus Castillo (37-0) won the 132-pound division last year for Mountain View Marana but the junior shifted to 138 this year where he beat Carlo Castagnaro of Cienega 16-4.

Queen Creek junior Denen Fernandez (37-3) took the 138-weight class last year and he has moved up to 145. His teammate, senior Anthony Saba, won the 182 class and he is slated to wrestle in the same class again this year.

Liberty senior James Deitz (32-5) won the 152-pound division last year and he is in the 160 division this year. Fellow Liberty senior Miles Nuessle (40-0) won the 195-championship last year and he will be back at it at the same weight this year.

The list of runners-up from last year includes South Mountain sophomore Andres Avelar (32-0) in the 106-pound division; Queen Creek senior Xavier Rico (18-1) in the 120-class; Marana Mountain View senior Andrew Cota (49-4) in the 126-class; Queen Creek senior Nikolas Manuel (34-7) in the 160-class; Desert Edge senior Josh Vigh (17-1) in the 170-weight class and Campo Verde senior Estevan Galvez (25-4) in the 182-pound division.

Returning third place finishers include Mark Prado (49-2) of Shadow Ridge (126); Jacob Frias (32-5) of Mountain View (120); Cyler Rustad (50-7) of Williams Field (132); Daivon Lee (41-7) of Mountain View (152) and Koby Fike (55-3) of Gila Ridge (285).

The list of undefeated wrestlers in Division II includes Cooper Stigsell (45-0) of Verrado (182); Nuessle (40-0) of Liberty (195); Tarik Sutkovic (39-0) of Ironwood; Castillo (37-0) of Mountain View (138) and Avelar (32-0) of South Mountain (106).

Team with the most wrestlers in the Division II state tournament includes Liberty (14); Cienega (12); Williams Field (12); Queen Creek (11); Campo Verde (10); Gila Ridge (10); Ironwood Ridge (9); Shadow Ridge (9); Barry Goldwater (8); Ironwood (8); Mountain View Marana (8); Buena (7); Centennial (7); Apollo (6); Higley (6) and Verrado (6).

Walden Grove took fifth place in the Division II state championships last year but the Red Wolves are expecting even greater things this year and why not? The program took third place at the Flowing Wells Invitational to Division I power Sunnyside (299) and D-II power Queen Creek (167.5). With 156 points at Flowing Wells, the Red Wolves also bested D-II favorite Cienega (151.5).

The Red Wolves got past Cienega once more at the Salpointe Diego Gadea Invitational 231 to 227.5. It has been a dominating performance that carried over to the Division III, Section I championships held at Amphitheater High School. The Red Wolves recorded 231 points to get past the powerful Safford program (206.5).

Show Low won the D-III championship last year by a wide margin over Yuma (172 to 131) and the Cougars won the Section IV title held at Payson High School 228.5 to 179 over Page so expect the Cougars to fight for another state championship.

The Yuma Criminals took the Section III title held at Youngker High School 252 to 162.5 over Peoria. It might be a difficult task for the Red Wolves to break into the top two but a top three placement is not too far out of the question, especially since Safford took third place last year.

There are several returning champions from last year including Yuma senior Jonathan Ruiz (61-5) in the 106-pound division. Ruiz has moved up to 113 this year.

Walden Grove junior standout Diego Guerrero (42-1) won the 113-pound division and he has moved up to 120 this year. Safford junior McKade Finch (42-4) won the 120 division and he has moved up to 132.

Chino Valley sophomore Keller Rock (34-1) won the 138-pound division last year and he has moved all the way up to 160 this year. Safford junior standout Dawon Andrews (34-0) won the 152-weight class last year and he will wrestle in the same weight class this year.

Show Low senior Jackson Allen (45-1) won the 160-pound division last year and he is at 170 this year. Blue Ridge senior Adam Henderson (59-0) won the 182-pound class last year and he will stay in that class this year.

Tarik Sutkovic (39-0) won the 220-class last year but the junior is competing for Division II Ironwood this year.

The list of second place finishers from last year includes Sunrise Mountain (113) sophomore Troy Ramirez (39-4); Walden Grove (138) senior Sal Silva (54-0); senior Lucas Svoboda (52-3) of Mingus Union (145); senior Andrew Torres (54-0) of Marcos De Niza (170); senior Westin Keime (48-3) of Show Low (195); and senior Eric Mickelson (29-4) of Thunderbird (195).

Returning third-place finishers include Kamron Whitewater (45-1) of Page (106); Caden Perez (37-3) of Sunrise Mountain (106); Brian Lujan (38-5) of Pueblo (126); Hayden Finch (36-4) of Safford (182); Isiah Jacobs (40-2) of Combs (220) and Malik Clark (38-2) of Moon Valley (285).

Undefeated Division III wrestlers include Henderson (59-0) of Blue Ridge; Torres (54-0) of Marcos De Niza; Silva (54-0) of Walden Grove and Andrews (34-0) of Safford.

Camp Verde, Morenci, St. Johns Continue to Dominate Division IV

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Coach Brandon Crosby sent an email noting the top finishers in the past decade in Division IV wrestling.

The same three programs kept popping up.

Camp Verde. Morenci. St. Johns.

So guess which three are the D-IV state leading contenders heading into Friday's first session at the Prescott Valley Events Center? But what binds Camp Verde, Morenci and St. Johns isn't just their decade of dominance.

At the center of it is a strong family bond and desire to serve their schools. St. John's Crosby, Morenci's Casey Woodall and Camp Verde's Tracy Tudor wrestled for the schools where they are currently coaching.

Their mission to push their alma maters ahead has rewarded them with a combined six titles and countless individual championships.

Camp Verde, Morenci and St. Johns are sending 33 wrestlers to the Prescott Valley Events Center this week.

"It's a healthy rivalry," said Woodall of D-IV's three traditional powers. "When I wrestled, Camp Verde was in a different division. St. Johns has always been a rival. I have a lot of respect for them, and coach Crosby I believe feels the same way. We enjoy talking and wrestling each other, but at the same time we hate losing to them."

As the defending two-time state champion, Woodall's boys haven't been losing much lately.

He was a sophomore and freshman (1999-2000) when Morenci won its first state championships under the watchful eye of Gilbert Padilla, a 30 plus year wrestling, 5-time state coaching champ. But after Padilla stepped down, Morenci's trips to the top of the D-IV state wrestling mountain began to decline.

Woodall, a Morenci native, wasn't about to let the drop off continue. He took over five years ago and implemented a year-round regimen to help raise the commitment level.

After two titles and a runner-up finish, Woodall has his program back atop the heap.

Last year, Morenci sent eight wrestlers to the semifinals.

"It was probably one of the coolest experiences," said Woodall about his team defending the D-IV crown. "We got hot, and the kids started feeding off each other. We got seven of the eight in the finals, and that's not going to happen in anybody's career."

But this season has been the most injury prone season Woodall has experienced, he said.

Still, 13 of his wrestlers made it to state.

One of those wrestlers is a returning state champ, Mark Roybal (145). Roybal's dad, Mark Sr., also won a state championship at Morenci, and Roybal is Woodall's wife's cousin.

The family ties are also strong at St. John's.

Crosby's brother is his assistant, Ferrin, a two-time state champion at St. Johns, and Ferrin's son, Tanner, is the defending 106 champ.

Tanner is also the last relative who will likely wrestle for Crosby, St. John 10th-year coach. Crosby's two sons and a bunch of nephews have wrestled for him.

This season, 13 of Crosby's wrestlers also qualified for state, including his top studs, No. 1 seed Kaiden Smith (132) and undefeated T.J. Heap (220). St. John's seniors, Pacer Witbank (182), Diego Hernandez (195), Heap and heavyweight John Holden, have helped carry the team, Crosby said.

His love for St. Johns isn't the only thing that motivates Crosby, a two-time champ and 4-time runner-up as coach. It still drives the 50-year-old coach "crazy" that he failed to win a championship as a wrestler for St. Johns.

Every year he takes out his frustration on Camp Verde and Morenci.

Arizona Lutheran is expected to challenge the "Big Three" in D-IV Wrestling this week (photo by Veronica Wene).

"It's going to be a war," Crosby said. "Whoever stays the saltiest and grittiest the longest will probably win. It's a great rivalry."

Since his wrestling days in the late 1970s, to his Camp Verde assistant coaching days from 2005-2013, to becoming the head coach in 2014, Tudor has experienced his fair share of rivalry battles.

The same can be said about a couple of family members, Tudor's son Beau (In 2007 became Camp Verde's first ever heavy-weight champ.) and nephew, J.T. Stalcup, a two-time state runner-up. Like Morenci and St. Johns, Camp Verde's wrestling history is also rich, having won seven team titles.

A coaching legend, Bob Weir, and longtime assistant Mario Chagolla Sr., also made a name for themselves at Camp Verde High.

This season, 10 Camp Verde wrestlers qualified for state, including three No. 1 seeds, defending champs Skyler Pike, Korben Uhler (44-0) and Tristian Stanfield.

"There are four teams with an advantage, but it's anyone's game," Tudor said.

Don't forget about Arizona Lutheran

That's right, there's a fourth team, Arizona Lutheran, that's trying to crash the party of St. Johns, Morenci and Camp Verde.

Arizona Lutheran defeated Camp Verde to win its sectional and is sending 10 kids to state. Arizona Lutheran started its program five years ago and might be the new guy on the block, but its coaching staff has a connection to one of D-IV's triumvirate.

Steve Wene, who along with Todd Milhoan started Arizona Lutheran's wrestling program, was born in Morenci, where he wrestled for a future mentor, Padilla. Wene went on to become the first wrestling coach at Pima in the 1990s.

Wene, a vice president of a law firm, and Milhoan, a pro trainer, guided Arizona Lutheran to a co-section title and fourth place finish at state last season.

Three of Arizona Lutheran's seniors also received scholarships last season.

"Our goal is not only to have a successful high school wrestling program but prepare the students to graduate college," Wene said.

Despite a season ending knee injury to returning state champion Weston Milnes-Bowers and ruptured appendix to senior captain Blake Wene (37-3), who qualified for state, Arizona Lutheran won its section outright on Saturday. Brandon Garcia (59-2), Jake Borneman (60-3), Alex Jordan (52-10), Ben (51-13) and Jon (45-19) Althoff and Shaw Miller (40-9) are still capable of taking Arizona Lutheran to new heights this season.
