WHATABURGER. PROUDLY SUPPORTS THE SOLLENBERGER CLASSIC

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championship. It is our pleasure to be able to bring you a fantastic event.

It took a great deal of hard work to reach this point. The AIA recognizes the strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

The AIA began in 1913 and has grown by leaps and bounds over the years. Along with the Executive Board, the AIA vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, nearly 125,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis.

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

There are plenty of important storylines to follow heading into the 4A Conference baseball semifinals.

We'll begin with the defending champ and No. 1 seed, Nogales, which isn't playing just for itself. The day before its first playoff game, Nogales lost one of its biggest fans, Nogales police officer Jesus Cordova.

Cordova was shot and killed by a carjacker, leaving behind three children and Cordova's pregnant wife. Nogales is dedicating its playoff run to Cordova and his family.

Cordova would at times stop by Nogales' games while on duty, according to the tucson.com. Nogales has to defeat Sunrise Mountain twice in the semifinals to get to the 4A final for the second straight year.

Sunrise Mountain coach Eric Gardner is in his 21st season and back in a familiar spot. This is his fifth time in the semifinals with Sunrise Mountain, which is 0-3 in championship games.

Also seeking their first championship are semifinal opponents St. Mary's and Nogales' Kino Region mate, Catalina Foothills.

Catalina Foothills just needs one more win to earn the program's third title game appearance. St. Mary's has produced its share of Major League players but has never reached a final.

The school opened its doors in 1917.

4A SEMIFINAL PREVIEW

GAMES AT TEMPE DIABLO STADIUM MAY 9

No. 5 Sunrise Mountain (27-3) vs. No. 1 Nogales (27-5), 4 p.m.: "This year's (Sunrise Mountain) team plays with a lot of energy every day," Gardner said.

"We have had very consistent pitching throughout the year with a team ERA below two (1.36). I think we have one of the more complete and balanced teams, offensively and defensively, in years." Contributing heavily at the plate and in the field is UNLV-signee Troy Balko. The senior has allowed three earned runs in a game only once this year and is 8-0 on the mound. Of the Sunrise Mountain players who have played 25 or more games, Balko's .430 batting average ranks third. The other senior leader on the team is INF Tyler Pruitt, whose fraternal twin brother, Trevor (.408 ave.), is also on the team. Their mom, Jody, is Sunrise Mountain's softball coach. Tyler is batting .465, the highest average among the regular starters. Tyler also leads the team with 35 stolen bases. Sr. EJ Sua was leading the team with 26 RBIs.

Nogales avenged its only loss — 4-2 to Salpointe — of the postseason with the help of German Fajardo. The 8-1 pitcher struck out eight in six inning in his team's 5-2 win over Salpointe, which Nogales defeated three times this season, to advance to play Sunrise Mountain. Nogales is loaded with pitching depth. The staff's ERA was 2.03 after 203 1/3 innings. If ace Fajardo doesn't pitch, there's still So. Gerardo Martinez (6-0, 2.16 ERA), Sr. Markie Lopez (5-1, 1.83 ERA, New Mexico St.) and Sr. Alex Acevedo (4-1, 2.45 ERA). Jr. Ricky Maytorena has walked 23 times. Jr. Mario Duarte's fielding percentage is .974 after 190 total chances. Sr. Kevin Jimenez (.452 ave, team high 21 stoles bases in 31 attempts), Jr. Jorge Bojorquez (.410), Sr. Kenneth Jimenez (.444 ave., 38 RBI's) and Jr. Luis Rodriguez (.412) are the team's .400-plus batting average hitters. Sr. Marcel Bacehelier was second on the team with 35 RBI's. Jimenez (New Mexico State) and Bacehelier (University of Arizona) are the captains. "The team has had a successful season because players worked hard in the off season to prepare for the long season," 14-year coach Oscar Favela said. "We have a solid lineup that can get on base and bring runs in from top to bottom. The pitchers have done a great job of throwing strikes and have avoided giving up the big innings. We are five deep on the mound, which has made the many three-game weeks easier to manage. The team has a great chemistry and really play hard for each other." The team also sports a cumulative 3.88 GPA and 10 of the 18 have 4.0 or above GPAs. Sr. OF/INF Diego Favela has accepted a United States Air Force Academy appointment.

No. 11 St. Mary's (21-11) vs. No. 2 Catalina Foothills (23-7) 6:30 p.m.: Catalina Foothills was 12-14 last year (Only the second losing season in its past 14 years). "The senior class has been the most enjoyable group of kids I have ever coached," said sixth-year Catalina Foothills coach Jim Baldwin. "They define what a team is about." The overall team leader is Sr. OF Chris Kowalcek (.409 ave.). Sr. C/OF/P Dante Deniro, the best catcher in the state, according to Baldwin, is also a closer and "best pure clutch hitter on the team." Sr. P/INF Cole Altherr (5-0, 2.87 ERA) is the team's big-game pitcher. He is 2-0 with 12 strikeouts and two earned runs in 10 innings in the playoffs. P/DH Will Saul (5-1, 2.35 ERA) "has pitched solid all year long." RF Matt Cullen is the team's most improved player. "All of these guys have stepped up for us in the playoffs," Baldwin said. The team's GPA is 3.51. Five players have stolen at least 12 bases or more this season. Catalina Foothills has outscored its playoff opponents 20-4.

St. Mary's: Sr. P/INF Thaddeus Tanner is 9 for 17 in the playoffs. St. Mary's dresses 11 seniors and seven returners from last year's team. "This group plays well together and is very tight," St. Mary's coach Joseph Ponce said. "Also, we do a lot of work in-season and out of season in the weight room, which I believe has made an impact. Lastly, we play in a lot of fall and winter tournaments to prepare ourselves for our seasons." The last time St. Mary's was in the playoffs was in 2012. The program was 5-22-1 two years ago and 11-11 last year. From 2014-16, Ponce, originally from Fresno, was an assistant varsity baseball and football coach at Deer Valley High. St. Mary's batting average (.313) and ERA (3.64) aren't that impressive, but the team continues to find ways to win in the playoffs. "I will tell you it's been a different guy each game," Ponce said. "We've had five playoffs games, and it seems like we've had a different two guys step up every game. "I love my kids, and I think we have overachieved in some situations." Sr. Joey Zubio has pitched, caught and played first base in the last four games. Jr. Carlos Jasso has also come up big in key situations during the playoffs. Six of Ponce's assistants in the program are St. Mary's alums, including pitching coach Michael Nunez and catcher coach Cody Berumen.

Unlike the 5A softball playoffs, the 5A baseball conference run to the semifinals has gone off almost as expected according to seeding. Top-seeded Mesquite is still alive in the elimination bracket, No. 2 Verrado is still undefeated, No. 3 Flowing Wells is still in action, No. 4 Liberty is winning and No. 6 Notre Dame Prep is still fighting. No. 8 Queen Creek is the only team to break into the third round after No. 5 Lake Havasu failed to advance past the first round. So here we are, with five of the top six teams holding firm.

Mesquite (27-5) came up one game short of the semifinal round last year and the Wildcats are right back in the same position with an elimination game scheduled against Queen Creek (21-8) in a winner-take-all shot at the semifinals against Liberty (21-8). The Wildcats run-ruled No. 16 Apollo 17-2 in the first round but Queen Creek returned the favor in the second round, sending Mesquite down to the elimination bracket with an 11-1 victory. The Wildcats will need to focus on revenge during the rematch.

Jeffrey Holland has been the only coach Mesquite has known since he took charge of the program in 1998. He led the Wildcats to a state championship in 2015 and finished runner-up in 2008 and 2014 and he is knocking at the door of his eighth semifinal appearance.

"A huge reason why I think this year has been successful is being able to build off the success that the current juniors and seniors accomplished last year," Holland said. "Having last year under their belt and understanding how the game is played at the varsity level has been pivotal this year. Last year we lost many games by just one run, so I think that has helped prepared this year's team to play with a little pressure. It definitely has helped to understand what it takes to win a close ball game."

He lists Hunter Holland and Willie Cano as his team leaders. Senior David Watson is 7-1 from the circle as is Chase Webster. Cano has 34 RBI, 14 doubles, three triples and four home runs and Davis Heller has five home runs.

Verrado (26-4) lost in the first round last year as a No. 4 seed but the Vipers have made the best of their high seeding this year, knocking off No. 15 Ironwood Ridge 4-0, No. 7 Buena 7-3 and Notre Dame Prep 5-4 to advance to the semifinal round from Pool B.

Mike Ward is in his first year with the Vipers and he gives his senior class most of the credit for getting this far.

"We can attribute a big chunk of our success to the senior class we have," Ward explained. "We have a 10-player senior class this year. They have really led by example and bought into the changes made this year with the program and are playing well as a team, taking the season one game at a time."

Flowing Wells (19-9-1) is having one of the best seasons in school history and the Caballeros have had success mostly under the radar. Erick Estrella is one game away from the semifinals but he will have to get past Notre Dame Prep to get there. The Saints beat Flowing Wells 16-8 in the second round to send the Caballeros down to the elimination bracket.

Senior Juan Pablo Ruedaflares is batting .495 with 13 doubles, three triples and a pair of home runs and Caleb Raney, Noah Estrella and Simon Boggie have all won three games.

"We have had a great season this year due to these guys coming in as freshman, now seniors, wanting to make a difference and to help change the culture," Estrella said. "It was committing to off season workouts and summer/fall programs and plus they have great chemistry."

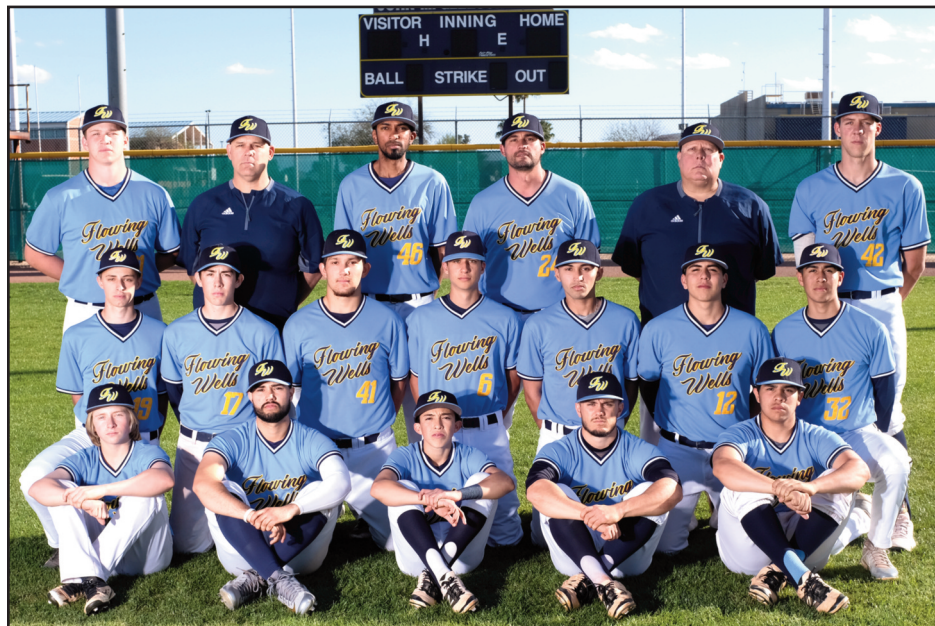

Liberty finished in the semifinal round last year as the top seed and the Lions are right back, knocking at the door again under second-year coach Christopher Raymond.

"Our players have worked hard on a daily basis to earn opportunities and are constantly competing within practice," Raymond said. "The players have matured significantly throughout the season. The players trust each other and respect the process that has been created."

Chandler Murphy (Arizona) and Isaiah Montoya (UNLV) are two of his standouts.

Queen Creek came up with the upset of the tournament by knocking off Mesquite and the Bulldogs will have to do it once more to advance under second-year coach Mikel Moreno. Moreno lists the lack of consistency and leadership as two of his obstacles this year but his coaching staff is leading his team by example.

The 6A Desert Valley Region was a tight race to the finish. So tight in fact that Mountain Ridge and Sandra Day O'Connor finished with identical records in region (8-2) vs. conference opponents (13-5) and overall (13-5) in their 18 power-ranking games. The only thing separating them was their final power ranking -- #5 for Mountain Ridge and #7 for Sandra Day O'Connor.

Well, as the 6A state tournament whittles the competitors down, both are on equal footing heading to the final week of the season. Mountain Ridge is in the semis of the top bracket and unbeaten in the tourney. Ditto Sandra Day O'Connor in the bottom half. Mountain Ridge has defeated Perry, Red Mountain and Hamilton. O'Connor has topped Desert Vista, Westwood and Skyline.

The other four remaining teams are #1 Mountain View, Hamilton, #11 Skyline and #14 Brophy Prep. On Tuesday May 8 Hamilton and Mountain View meet for the second time in the tourney for the right to play and beat twice, Mountain Ridge to reach the final. Also on Tuesday May 8 Skyline and Brophy meet a second time to get a shot or two at Sandra Day O'Connor.

Here's a brief look at the six teams remaining in the title chase:

#1 Mountain View: The Toros and head coach Mike Thiel (21st year as head coach) garnered the top seed for the second time in 10 years. The last time that happened Mountain View reached the final six. That's been their best finish since. Mountain View is the last Mesa school to win a state title and that was in Thiel's first year as head coach in 1998. A roster of 10 seniors and 10 juniors have produced a bounce-back campaign from last year's 13-15 record. The Toros did not qualify for postseason in 2017. They are balanced with three capable starters, three relievers and an offense with five players contributing 20 RBI or more. Leaders are senior Joe Georgini, a three-year starter (third base and closer

this year). Senior John Neeley leads the pitching staff and thrives on getting the ball for big games. Catcher Brandon Todd has embodied the leadership at the position that every coach desires, according to Thiel. Junior Sean Rimmer (outfielder-pitcher), junior McKay Barney (centerfield) and Georgini have been on each of the last three varsity teams. Mountain View, however, lost in the first round of double elimination to Hamilton, but stayed alive by beating and eliminating Brown road-rival Red Mountain on May 4.

#5 Mountain Ridge: The Mountain Lions obviously have made waves under first-year head coach Artie Cox after he served four years as the team's pitching coach. Pitching is a forte and has been all year led by superb left-hander Matthew Liberatore, a projected first-round, major league pick by many in June. Picking up as a quality No. 2 is transfer Jake Martinez, who has been solid especially the second half of the season. He tossed a one-hitter in blanking Red Mountain to open the double-elimination portion of state. Along with pitching, Cox praises the defense and continued improvement offensively. Mountain Ridge was knocked out last year in two games of double elimination after taking runner-up honors in 2016 and taking third in 2015.

#7 Sandra Day O'Connor: Coach Jeff Baumgartner has manned the deck for 16 seasons. The Eagles have come around of late so much so they battled Mountain Ridge tooth and nail to the end for the tough aforementioned Desert Valley Region title. "We developed a competitiveness towards the end of the year," Baumgartner said. "We took our lumps at the beginning of the year. Our pitching has come around to give us competitive innings and keep us in ballgames." Team leaders on offense are leadoff hitter Jayce Easley and potential early-round pro draft pick Nolan Gorman and his prestigious power. Catcher Jacob Vesecky has controlled the defense. Developing the pitching staff as players learned and adapted to roles has been huge. O'Connor has made the playoffs in 15 of 16 seasons, been to the final four four times and were runner-up in 5A-2 in 2008.

#8 Hamilton: The two-time defending champion Huskies have had better years and healthier ones, but they still managed a top-8 finish in the power rankings to earn a bye and have received stellar pitching in their first three state games this season. The first two were wins (3-2 over Desert Mountain and 8-1 over Mountain View). Hamilton lost three-fifths of its starting infield to injury in preaseson and the first two weeks of play. Depth has played a huge factor in their continued success and ability to return and defend their titles. Top players this season are outfielder JD McLaughlin, catcher Britt Graham, corner infielder Hayden Baker and pitcher Shane Murphy. Murphy tamed Desert Mountain in the play-off opener and Dustin Bermudez stifled Mountain View in the first round of double elimination with an 11-strikeout performance. Unfortunately for Hamilton, Bermudez tore an ACL playing the infield late in the win over Mountain View and is done for the playoffs.

#11 Skyline: The Coyotes have found themselves after a 4-0 start in the East Valley Region that was followed by a five-game skid in region play. They won their final regular-season game and have added three postseason wins in impressive fashion. They lost their first tournament game to Sandra Day O'Connor on May 4 sending them to the loser's bracket. Pitcher Cole Yocum has been a key to their surge, winning a couple of postseason games and supplying leadership and hitting from the leadoff spot. AJ Herrera, Jan Rollon and Tyler Jackson have swung hot bats of late in the top half of the order. Coach Pat Herrera is no stranger to going deep in postseason having done it at Desert Ridge, including winning two state titles (5A-II in 2009 and 5A-1 in 2010). This is Skyline's best run in postseason since Herrera took over in 2014. They've qualified for postseason the last four years.

#14 Brophy: The Broncos have hovered around .500 all season (currently 14-16) and did just enough to qualify for a play-in game under first-year head coach Josh Garcia, a former Brophy standout. They knocked off Horizon in the play-in game and upset Basha in the first round of state after losing three times to the Bears during the regular season. Brophy is young with an everyday lineup that features two to three seniors at best. Junior Cam Glosser is the top hitter at .400 and junior Johnny Dowse is tops in RBI with 20. Senior Stephen Buckel and junior Mason Kokodynski have done the bulk of the starting pitching. Kokodynski has won two of the three games the Broncos have claimed in postseason, including a one-hit, 3-0 shutout of Westwood in their first elimination game on May 4.
