ARIZONA
INTERSCHOLASTIC
ASSOCIATION

Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the "student" in student-athlete.

With the challenges we face this year it is even more important to adhere to guidelines and respect rules that are in place for the safety and well-being of our participants. With your help we can show all those involved with the championships that we can overcome external difficulties by coming together as an AIA community. These championships are only possible because of you.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens.

National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA's inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and "Pursuing Victory With Honor." Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are "building character now ... for the future."

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are "our students, our teams ... our future."

DEEPEST FIELD YET, BUT XAVIER STILL TEAM TO BEAT IN DIV. I

by Jose Garcia, AZPreps365

No. 1 Xavier (12-0): Serena Turner (Stanford) is the team's most experienced beach player and in the running for state MVP. Another leader being recruited is senior Zaira Reyes. Underclassmen Summer McCann, Lexi Yoza and Katie Anthony are also expected to keep the favorite in the title hunt. Landree Coats, Alexa Shiner and Tiffany Tellez were new players who provided some depth to a loaded team.

No. 2 Perry (11-1): Team is spearheaded by No. 1's Avery Burks and Jordan Suan. Perry was awaiting for word if injured senior Ella Rud would be able to take the sand. The No. 2's, Alyssa Montoya and Layla Handley, and the No. 3's, Kelly Esteves and Amy Wahlin, also are big contributors for one of state's premier programs.

No. 3 Sandra Day O'Connor (11-1): Team's only loss this year was to Xavier, a 3-2 decision. Sydnee Broadway (GCU) is quiet and humble but also a fierce competitor. Juniors Margo Smith (Cal Poly San Luis Obispo), Ashlyn Rough (Southern Miss) and Sophia Myers (Stephen F. Austin) and Hannah Doyle (Texas Corpus Christi) are college bound as well.

No. 4 Tempe Corona del Sol (11-1): 6-3 Ella Lomigora and 5-7 Maddie Mortensen are the leaders. 5-9 Taylor Erickson, 5-9 Dom Wofford and 5-7 Angie Bour also help the team go. "Taylor has trained very hard on the beach since last year's shutdown," coach Ben Maxfield said. "She has developed into a high level player very quickly. Dom switched to just beach in the past year. She has developed into an exceptionally well rounded blocker and defender. Angie is our libero. She possesses a high vertical, which makes her a potent weapon on both defense and offense."

No. 5 Basha (11-2): The squad is led by probably the best defender in the state, Haley Carrington (Cal State Long Beach). Haley and new partner, 6-1 Meghan O'Meara, are one of the favorites in D-I pairs. Madison Carrington, a 5-11 junior, is one of the strongest 2's in the state. Haley and Madison are coach Carrington's daughters. At the No. 3 pairs, Chloe Murakami, a 5-11 junior transfer from Washington, is another asset with her strong serve and physicality at the net. 5-9 Macey Camacho immediately stepped in as a "big defender" this season.

Serena Turner and Zaira Reyes are Xavier Prep's senior leaders. The duo is leading the Gators in an attempt for its eighth title in nine tries. (Steve Chadwick photos/MaxPreps)

No. 6 Mountain Ridge (9-2): The Twin Towers, Alissa Uhlenhop (GCU) and Madison Girnius (Fresno St.), are the team's biggest threats. "Our success this season has been a full team effort," coach Christian Jensen said. "We have strong players through our 6th team, but there has been a noticeable change in our team culture this season. The girls support each other and work to make their team better every day."

No. 7 Desert Vista (9-3): Senior Laney Lohma, junior Karina Sanchez, senior Sophia Koury, junior Emme Lenz, and junior Sabrina Galassi were the team's top returning players this season. The top newcomers were freshman Tatum Meinerz, freshman Charlotte Gibson and sophomore Tylee Schapler.

No. 8 Millennium (8-4): "We've had challenges and successes this season," coach Priscilla Tallman said. "Each person on our team from top to bottom has contributed in some way, whether that be in practice or on the court. Everyone has been working to improve every day and make each other better. This is a tough sport to single out only a handful of contributors because it's truly been a team effort from day one."

No. 9 Mountain View (Mesa) (9-3): Brekyn Goodman (Idaho State) and Briley Decker and cousins Lexi Williams and Reece Fischbeck are a combined 17-2. "Our team is young, with only two contributing seniors," coach Wade Tanner said. "We have a ton of room for growth and look forward to building on the successes from this year while learning from the shortcomings."

No. 10 Desert Mountain (8-2): "We owe our success this season to each girl on the team," coach McKenzie Zinn said. Helping the freshmen find their footing on the sand was the hard working Alexis Peck. The senior and Rylee Achtzehn form the No. 1 pairs team for Desert Mountain.

No. 11 Valley Vista (9-3): Sam Baer is the most experienced player on the sand, and Aliyah Moore is "ridiculously athletic and fast." "Success is due to all five seeds being very good," coach David Chavez said. "Typically you always have one or two seeds that can compete, but in our case we have five."

No. 14 Desert Ridge (9-3): 5-8 Caprice Lorenzo has one more high school season left but has already committed to the University of Hawaii. 5-10 Paige Wilson, 5-6 senior Gillian Olson and the coach's daughter, 5-10 junior Jordan Sherrill, were the team's top returners this season. The top newcomers were 5-10 freshman Lucci Alexander and 5-5 sophomore Milana Schulte.

No. 16 Campo Verde (9-3): Sophomore Beigh Alexander has been a huge defensive player and kill producer, coach Dani Burke said. Toby Sherman, a Stephen F. Austin commit, is paired with defensive stalwart Kaylee Ramany in the No. 1 spot. Sophomore standout Brooke Boyko suffered a season ending injury during the regular season.

NOTES:

No. 12 Gilbert (7-5) lost four matches by 3-2 scores.

... No. 13 Ironwood Ridge (9-4) Losses came to ranked Xavier, Corona del Sol, Salpointe and Desert Vista....

No. 15 Verrado (9-3) failed to win a flight in its final two matches, but the teams were No. 11 Valley Vista and No. 1 Xavier. ... Perry is the only team not named Xavier Prep to win a Division I state title. In 2018 the Pumas scored a 4-1 victory over the Gators in the quarterfinals, swept top-seeded Sandra Day O'Connor in the semifinals, then beat No. 3 Millennium for the crown.

EXPANDING FIELD OF CONTENDERS EXCITING FOR DIV. II

by Jose Garcia, AZPreps365

No. 1 Salpointe (11-0): “We have a solid group of individuals who love volleyball,” coach Heather Moore said. “They juggle academics, indoor club and beach and try to make it all work.”

No. 2 Fountain Hills (13-0): Seven seniors returned this year for a program that’s reached a team final five times and is 61-3 since 2017. Jelina Lyncha and Grace Abrams reached the semifinals in pairs in 2019, when they lost just once. Meghan Bearer moved, but her love for Fountain Hills didn’t. She is driving about an hour to and from school so she can continue playing with her squad.

No. 3 Coconino (12-0): 5-10 Brooke Parker and 5-11 RiKenna Curtis are committed to Yavapai to play indoor volleyball, and 5-10 Megan Hicks is headed to Parks College. Coco won three matches by 3-2 scores.

No. 4 Mesquite (12-1): Elli Cano and Annika Wallace, the No. 1’s for Mesquite, have been with the program since they were freshmen. “For the most part, our top teams have players who know each other well,” coach Carlos Flys said. “They know each other’s strengths and weaknesses and are very open discussing them so that their partner can pick up the slack. Our number one goal is to make our partner the best player she can be. That in turn will make everyone better.”

No. 5 Gilbert Christian (11-2): Seniors Avery Schute, Kylie Dickerson and Katie Gross played instrumental roles in helping build their program from scratch. Dickerson and Gross have played as a pair in each of their three seasons. The team’s No. 1 pair of Elli Wolthus and Ashley Salazar were undefeated heading into the final week of regular season play. They aren’t related, but Ryley Nelson and Sierra Nelson are pulling double duty as beach and track and field athletes during this spring season.

No. 6 Valley Christian (11-1): VC’s No. 1’s are sophomores Korah Nordin and Kate Philips, who have been best friends since 5th grade, love beach and have a high VB IQ, coach Shawna Yarbrough said. “I think one reason for the success of the program this year is seen in the strength and length of the friendships and experience these girls have together as a team,” Yarbrough said. “They are tough, committed and care for each other.”

No. 7 Chandler Prep (10-2): Evi and sister Zoe Yates form one of the more dynamic No. 1’s in the state. Their father, Smedley, is one of the program’s assistant coaches. “We’ve done exceedingly well for the last six years even though we’ve had to compete against much bigger schools,” coach Jason Harris said. “We are a 2A program and sometimes play 4A schools. We had a bunch of really great established and new players who really helped make this another terrific season.” Outstanding top player seniors Cassi Bronson and Olivia Cadien and sisters Ellie and Ashlyn Unruh also have contributed to this year’s success.

Rylen Bourguet is a big reason Salpointe Catholic is the undefeated No. 1 seed looking for its first-ever state title. (Andy Morales photo/AZPreps365)

No. 8 Deer Valley (9-2): Tatum Stelter returned to the team this season and stepped into the captain's role after missing the previous two seasons. Stelter is paired with sophomore Sam Gloria. The No. 1's are club teammates, Allison Howard and Avrey Dunn. The No. 2's, Liz Rupp and Emee Fellens, 4's, Ashlynn Compo and Lily Gentz, and 5's, Amanda Christman Harte and Gracie Bethersm, also have stepped up for a team with a lot of depth.

No. 10 Northwest Christian (8-4): The final playoff go-round for University of Oregon-bound Reagan Hope and McKenzie Wise will begin shortly. The two indoor powerhouses helped elevate their school's volleyball programs. "Reagan provides us with a big block and even bigger swing," said Reagan's mom, Jenna, NW Christian's coach, "while McKenzie is quick on defense." During some of their weekends, some of the girls on the team head to Mexico to help out at an orphanage or build a house with 1 Mission. "We have been successful this year because the girls have bought into the culture of the program and love the sport," Jenna said. "Our team consists of amazing, well-rounded girls."

No. 13 Mohave (7-4): A team with a handful of honors students and experienced players, including its No. 1's, Maya Radic and Oakley Heaton. Rhyah Jackson is a "great soccer player, first-year beach volleyball player and very competitive." Mohave has never missed the postseason.

No. 15 Trivium Prep (6-6): Coach Beth Wilson molded a somewhat inexperienced beach team into a playoff squad this season. "They have all worked very hard in a very little amount of time to adjust their indoor skills to be successful outside," Wilson said. "They are willing to learn and have applied the concepts more and more as the season has gone on." Kaili Maurice, Natalie Guerrero and Annika Capulla are the leaders.

NOTES:

No. 9 Flagstaff (9-3) defeated first round opponent Deer Valley 3-2 on April 21. ... No. 11 American Leadership Academy-Gilbert North's (8-2) only defeats came to play-offs teams Gilbert Christian and Chandler Prep. ... No. 12 Estrella Foothills (9-3) lost to playoff teams Deer Valley and Mohave, as well as Saguaro. ... No. 14 Canyon del Oro (6-5) won four of its last five matches to reach the postseason. ... No. 16 Rancho Solano Prep (4-6) wasn't ranked in the top-16 when the season ended but earned an automatic berth after winning its section. ... Since beach volleyball expanded to a second division in 2016, there have been three different champions in the four seasons.
