ARIZONA
INTERSCHOLASTIC ASSOCIATION

Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the "student" in student-athlete.

With the challenges we face this year it is even more important to adhere to guidelines and respect rules that are in place for the safety and well-being of our participants. With your help we can show all those involved with the championships that we can overcome external difficulties by coming together as an AIA community. These championships are only possible because of you.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens.

National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA's inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and "Pursuing Victory With Honor." Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are "building character now ... for the future."

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are "our students, our teams ... our future."

IN 6A, PERRY TRYING TO SHOW WHY ITS TOPS IN THE NATION

by Jose Garcia, AZPreps365

No. 1 Perry (17-0): The top returning players were Cam Niemann (6-5 MB), Dalan Smith (skilled OH), Canyon Smith (calming force), and Gehrig Tolman (big match experience). Niemann is committed to Park University. Dalan and Canyon are two thirds of triplet siblings. Perry is ranked No. 1 in the nation by MaxPreps.com.

No. 3 Highland (15-2): Jeff Grover has been coaching volleyball for 23 years in Arizona and picked up career victory No. 300 this season. The team's top-returning players this season were Preston Johnson (all-around talent), Jase Adams (competitive power player), Nate Gurr (talented setter), Jack Zaharis (explosive MB), and Jaren Brown, a two pin player with a cannon arm.

No. 4 Brophy (14-4): The team's top returning players were Andrew Werner (a top OH in state), Patrick Oldani (6-2 setter) and Ben McDonald (6-0 OH). Ivy League schools were recruiting Werner. "We've got a lot of young players starting to hit their stride," coach Tony Oldani said. Oldani is in his 27th season as a volleyball coach in Arizona.

No. 5 Chandler (10-7): The team's top returning player this season were Gunner Rodarte (6-5 leader), Wyatt Brown (6-4 OH), Carson Winn (defensive leader), and Tyler Henderson (6-2 MB). Rodarte committed to Aurora University and Drew Steele to Queens University. The program won the 6A crown in 2019.

No. 7 Mesa (12-5): The team's top players are Sr. MB Liam Arnett and Sr. OH Rylan Bloomfield. But they aren't the only seniors contributing to the team this season. "They have been in the gym all these years waiting their turn and they are capitalizing on it," coach Amy Strawn said. "The seven seniors are very supportive of each other and push the team to be better. Our success is based on the fact that every position can contribute points and it can be a different player leading the team each match. The entire team is excited for this playoff run."

No. 8 Liberty (12-5): The top returning players this season were Karsyn Upton (leader), Tyler Cloward (6-3 OH), Spencer Worlton (6-rotation player) and Alex Kornak (team captain). Some of the new players the team expected to step in this year are OH Blake Casey and MB Dane Schneberger.

No. 12 Mountain Ridge (12-5): Veteran volleyball coach Debbie Moore took over the program this season. Her top returning players were Mason Henkels (top-play in state), Troy Gafford (strong setter), Cody Gafford (versatile player), Alex Montes (stepped in as setter), and Aiden Clayton (developing blocker). Henkels was leading 6A in kills.

CASTEEL NEEDS TO HOLD OFF A LOADED FIELD IN 5A

by Jose Garcia, AZPreps365

No. 1 Casteel (17-1): The team's top returning players this year were Kyler Evans (outstanding all-around player), Noah Solomonson (reigning 5A Defensive Player of the Year), Dallan Hunt (grew into talented OH), Shawn Baggs (6-7 with quick arm), and Tate Bluth (amazing setter). Having libero Blake Ross allowed coach Ryan Meyn, which opened Casteel six years ago, to move other players to key positions.

No. 2 Cienega (17-0): The program has received a top-8 seed during each of Heather Mott's eight seasons as coach. The program won a title in 2017 and reached the semis in 2016. The team's top players are Matthew Meeker-Hackett, a GCU commit, senior captain and three-year varsity player, three-year varsity senior captains Austin Keen and Aiden VanHoesen. "We are playing for our seniors last year who were set to make a deep run," Mott said. "Last year's senior captain, Carson Mott, got all of these guys playing at a high level with the state championship repeat as the goal. He got cut short last year and these boys have unfinished business on his and other seniors' behalf. They want to leave a legacy during these difficult times."

No. 4 Sunrise Mountain (16-2): Tony Gale has served as a coach for 30-plus years. His top returning players this year were Kyle Anderson (quick libero), Kyle Berger (hard-working setter), Radu Iosifescu (strong blocker), Jordan Shinaut (strong hitter), and Drew Van Treese (6-2 OH). Shinaut and Van Treese committed to Lasell University. Sr. MB Blake Bergstrom returned from a knee injury.

No. 5 Williams Field (13-5): Coach Brian Hiapo is back to his winning ways in his first year at Williams Field. His top returning players were Tyler Lai (6-3 OH), Ty Raymond (6-3 setter) and Asher Pouillot (6-4 MB). Lai transferred in last year but sat out.

No. 6 Marana Mountain View (14-2): The team's top players are 6-8 OH Trevy Kelly, Adam Jacobson, Jared Herring, Jackson Gray, and Jaden Wiest. "Trevy is versatile, plays excellent back row defense and has extensive knowledge of the game," coach Lindsey Spivey said. "Adam is a leading scorer and blocker, jumps through the roof and is eager to continue learning. Jared is a leading scorer, multi-sport athlete and has a calm demeanor, a killer block and swing. Jackson is the starting libero and has an excellent ability to read on defense, is a strong leader to the younger defensive specialists and is so quick. Jaden is the starting setter, quiet leader and beginning to find his voice and leadership on the court. "Jackson, in particular, has highest GPA on the team, probably the program. Also, I cannot brag enough about the character of the members of this program. They are all such great kids and teammates to one another. I cannot ask for a better group of guys."

No. 7 Millennium (14-3): Nathan Avitia, a setter, who transitioned to the outside, is one of the top players in the state. Avitia is headed to Charleston University next season. The other top returning players on the team are Arizona Christian commit Bernard Conrique (5-11 OH) and Johnny Gonzalez (5-9 libero).

No. 8 Higley (11-6): The team's top returning players this season were Drew Martinez (captain), Tyler Melia (captain) and Branson Heywood (go-to player). Soph. OH Carter Hancock is the team's most athletic player. Drew Martinez and Melia are difficult to match-up against.

No. 10 Ironwood Ridge (11-3): John Paul Semon and Lincoln Williams are the team's go-to players. "Both are all-around good volleyball players," said first-year coach Hannah Semon. "They both are outstanding defenders, smart hitters and consistent serve receive passers." The team's libero, Johan Semon, Semon's brother, is a Private First Class in the U.S. Army and will work as a Combat Engineer for the AZ Army National Guard. "The biggest reason we have been successful this season is because of our defense and serve receive. Without a pass you can't do anything."

No. 11 Agua Fria (13-6): The team's top returning players were Mike McGehee (Sr. OH), Nich Sharos (Sr. MB), Camden Weeg (strong blocker), Maciek Mularski (first-year setter), and Javier Rodillas (first-year libero). McGehee is the leader of the team. Agua Fria was the first school in its district to offer volleyball for boys.

No. 14 Centennial (8-8): The team's top returning players were Gavin Walker-Mason (New Mexico transfer), Owen Dow (solid blocker), Zach Norman (6-rotation player), and Landon Corrie (grew into a leader). Senior Jacob Rade is the last Rade to play at Centennial. His two older brothers, an uncle and parents attended Centennial. The coach of the program is a volleyball veteran, Cari Bauer.

NOTES

No. 3 Gilbert's (14-3) Trenton Moser's hitting percentage was .346 and was averaging 4.9 kills per set. ... No. 9 Catalina Foothills (12-4) won nine of its final 11 regular season matches. ... No. 12 Campo Verde's (6-11) Trace Lowder's 383 assists were ranked in the top-10 in 5A. ... No. 13 Canyon View's (13-7) Josiah Flores was ranked 4th in 5A with 501 assists. ... No. 15 Ironwood's (9-9) Will Haskell, one of the top quarterbacks in the state, and James Flores each had more than 100 kills. ... No. 16 Desert View's (8-6) Isaac Ruiz had 167 kills, and Giovanni Carrera was averaging 14.8 digs per match.

NEW 4A, BUT FAMILIAR FACES TO THE POSTSEASON

by Jose Garcia, AZPreps365

No. 1 ALA-Queen Creek (17-1): Coach Tim Zemp won his 100th career game at the school this year. His top returning players this year were Isaiah Harris (GCU commit), Mason Pace (libero to setter), Jaron Bryce (top 4A OH), Brady Steele (6-6 MB), and J.J. Evans (blocking leader). The program is aiming for its third straight trip to the semifinals.

No. 3 Gilbert Christian (18-2): The team's top returning players this season were David Fleischer (6-6 MB net dominator), Brady McCoy (leader, all-around skills), Drew Reiley (runs offense), Ben Yanez (California transfer with solid skills) and Karsten Gargan. Fleischer, McCoy and Reiley "are the core of the team" and have played all four years. Fleischer recently committed to Maryville in St. Louis.

No. 5 ALA-Gilbert North (12-5): Jack Ricedorff, Gattlin Rogers, Tillman Willis, and Easton Willis are the team's top players. "Jack is a leader on and off court," coach Brandon Varney said. "He never gives up and is a powerful hitter. Gattlin is an excellent middle. He's a powerhouse hitter and great blocker. For a middle, his passing and serving is very impressive. Tillman is a great libero and defensive specialist. He takes pride in his play. Easton is a glue guy and all-around great player and excels at passing and hitting." The team started the year with many athletes, but at midseason they transitioned to being volleyball players, Varney said. Varney added that his players have also stepped up during some difficult moments on and off the court.

No. 6 Salpointe Catholic (13-4): MB/Opp Aidan McPeak, OH Diego Morales and setter Zach Denton are Salpointe's top players. "We've been successful this season due to our team's athleticism and work ethic," coach David Garwacki said. "They are a coachable group that is willing to try new things in order to succeed as a team." The program has won three region titles since 2017 and reached the quarters twice and semis once during that span.

No. 7 Deer Valley (12-3): Sr. captain Tanner Russell, Ilan Wieser and Jared Schottin are the top players. "Tanner is our leaders on and off the court. He impacts our team with his smart aggressive play at the net," coach Eric Palmer said. "His confidence to stay aggressive will help us win big matches. Our setting duo of Ilan and Jared anchor our offense. The sophomore duo of middle blocker Rylan Colman and libero Wyatt McGriff are playing very important roles as we continue to peak and play our best when it counts the most." The program is 136-38 over the last 10 years. Team GPA is 3.6 and its seven seniors carry a 3.8 GPA average. "Our success this season is in large part due to the seven seniors and their leadership on and off the court. With four juniors and five sophomores playing big roles, the seniors have embraced the underclassmen and collectively have a team first approach every day."

Northwest Christian senior Cory Poulos was averaging 9.5 assists per set. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)

No. 8 Cactus (11-3): Fr. Left-handed, 6-11 opposite Bradey Henige, junior setter Aki Pulu, junior OH Joseph Vakameilalo, senior MB Cylus Dattilo, MB Quinnton Briscoe, junior Grant Steinmetz, Caleb Oaida, and John Michael are the team's top players. We have been successful this season because of the aforementioned players, as well as a fully-loaded program with many multisport athletes," coach Jana Henige said. "Our team improves daily in their volleyball IQ and skillsets of all players such as Justin Bunch, Jesse Gandara, Robert Anderson, Anthony Gonzales, Vili Pulu, and Ata Teutupe." JV head coach and varsity assistant Travis Hawthorne and varsity head assistant Bobby Henige bring great experience and knowledge to the program, coach added.

No. 9 Mesquite (12-4): The team's top players are libero Blake Warren, an adept jump server, and Opp/S Tyler Bell, team's leader in kills, are Mesquite's top players. "We have great team chemistry led by our captain Blake Warren," said first-year coach Jesse Cervantes. Cervantes added that his team has worked hard to adjust from a 5-1 to a 6-2 setter system.

No. 10 Estrella Foothills (11-3): Its top returning players were Noah Amenhauser (7'-0" OH), Ryan Bugs (great setter), Brenden Matteson (all-around player), Mason Robinson (utility player), and Korbin Torres (great blocker). Torres was being recruited. The school has three sets of brothers in the program. This is the first, full varsity season for the program, which had 36 players. "We have a passion for volleyball," coach Michael J. Matteson said.

No. 11 Benjamin Franklin (8-8): Setter Max Kolberg, libero Ashton Meeks, OH Bryant Sanders, and OH Josh Bradshaw are the team's top players. "Max is a great all-around player and possesses great knowledge of the game," coach Darlene Kolberg said. "He has good control and vision on the court. Ashton has the best passing platform around and great ball control. He's able to see and read the hitters. He keeps his team up and positive throughout the game. Bryant has great court awareness. He's a smart player on and off the court. He's a straight 'A' student and loves the game. Josh loves the game, works hard and puts the ball away."

No. 12 Canyon del Oro (12-6): Javier Monti, Dustin Sheely and Ethan Wong are the team's top players. "Javier has amazing ball control and a high volleyball IQ," coach Brian Swingle said. "Dustin is a tough competitor and relentless defender. Ethan has great hands as an opposite, which allow us to stay in system more often than most teams." Six seniors and a junior are in the starting rotation mix. "That experience allows us to shake off setbacks," Swingle said. CDO is making its third straight tournament appearance, has won a title and reached the title match four times.
