AIA ARIZONA INTERSCHOLASTIC ASSOCIATION™

Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the "student" in student-athlete.

This past year showed us that by working as one statewide unit for the greater good we can achieve anything. It remains a priority to adhere to guidelines and respect rules that are in place for the safety and well-being of our participants. With your help we can show all those involved that we can overcome external difficulties by coming together as an AIA community. These championships are only possible because of you.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA's inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and "Pursuing Victory With Honor." Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are "building character now … for the future."

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are "our students, our teams … our future."

Division III Track & Field Information

By George Werner
AZPreps365.com

Rarely does any school that serves a town smaller than 6,000 people dominate both sides of a state championship–in any sport.

Yet that is what both the girls and the boys track teams from Snowflake, a town whose total official population is smaller than the combined enrollment at the high schools defending their Division I and II team titles, did last year in the Division III championships.

And if seniors Caleb Anson and Lydia Szabo have it their way, the Lobos will pull away by even more distance from the rest of the field than the 38 points by which their boys and girls teams left the runners-up in the Mesa Community College dust last May.

A year after Anson's 4 x 800 meter relay team sparked a day so dominant that all three girls relay teams would sweep the gold medals, he owns the top time in both 800 and 1,600 meter runs, while Szabo is Division III's fastest in both the 200- and 400-meter dashes headed into the preliminary state heats.

With both 4 x 400 meter relay teams also expected to medal, if not win, their events after posting top regular-season times, and other Lobos like senior Kimberlee Eich throwing for top distances in field events such as girls javelin and discus, Lobos head coach Lynn Johnson seems assured of bringing home at least one top team trophy again.

Hot on his heels, however, are two other sprinters and hurdlers from last year's runners-up also entering the final competitive weekend of their high school careers: Logan Hubler, from Queen Creek's American Leadership Academy campus, and Sabino High School's Eva Bruce.

Less than 12 months after Hubler and junior teammate Kawai King dominated the 110-meter hurdles, with King three places behind the Patriot senior and gold medallist in the 300-meter hurdles as well, they own top-three times in both events nearly a minute faster than their last State finishes.

If King can challenge Anson, and Barry Goldwater sophomore Josiah Anderson's sub-50 second time, in the 400-meter dash, and teammate Mitch Jensen can do the same with Eastmark High School junior Mack Molander, a favorite in the javelin, the Patriots might have enough medal points to erase their 15-point deficit as last spring's runner-up.

The defending girls state champ in the 100- and 200-meter dashes as well as the long jump and 300-meter hurdles, Bruce, in the first and last events last season, surged back from second-place finishes to Szabo in both to take gold. But Bruce's top distance in the long jump this spring isn't even the best on her Sabercat team: senior Azariah Foster, who took home a silver medal behind Bruce last May, can now long jump more than 15 inches further than her teammate and can triple jump nearly as much further from her distance last spring–an event she also took silver in.

Even with those boosts in points, to make up the rest of the 23-point deficit as runner-up to Snowflake, the Sabino girls will need help from other sources–like the Sooter sisters. True, Szabo will also need to watch her back for Empire junior Kaydance Sherwood–especially in the 100-meter dash, where she owns a .14 edge–but senior Emarie and sophomore Ava Sooter share a 10-foot pole vault, the third-best height in a Division III event dominated by Mingus Union High School seniors Alexandra Carey and Brooke Peterson.

Add to the mix Salpointe Catholic, where senior Paris Mikinski projects to own high jump gold and shut out any other potential medallists from the long jump, and the reigning queen of the 1,600- and 3,200-meter runs in junior Kylie Wild–not to mention new blood in the 800-meter run, where freshman Taliyah Henderson is nearly three seconds faster than Szabo. Their relay teams are a half-second behind Chinle in the 4 x 800, and less than three seconds off Snowflake's best in the 4 x 400, from emulating what the Lobo relay girls did last May.

So there are plenty of athletes to watch for reasons why nobody's engraving Snowflake's name on any 2022 track plaques or trophies just yet. Gilbert Christian will see to that, and in at least two field events. Senior A.J. Krahling has pole vaulted over a foot better than Lobo junior Mason Mortensen, while Knights junior Zach Hohmann has a three-inch edge over Snowflake senior Kaden Brewer in the high jump.

So will Quinton Maxwell, 20 miles away in Show Low who, if it weren't for the natural barrier of the White Mountains, seems determined to throw the discus and shot put that far. After finishing fifth behind Class of 2021 teammate and discus winner Nathan Jones, and not even placing in the Division III top 15 in shot put and discus, the Cougar senior is the top thrower in both events this spring by a combined 25 feet over his nearest competitors.

But Show Low's class of the upperclasswomen in those events on the girls side, bronze medal hopeful Shea Paredes, trails Snowflake senior discus thrower Kaelyn Hipps–and they both have nothing on Safford junior Jasmyn Rios, nearly a 20-inch favorite in both field events.

Peoria senior and defending state champ Isaac Moreno's long jump has improved a quarter-inch, outdone by 15 inches of further distance in the triple jump this spring than his bronze-medal mark last May. But those season bests have still been outdone by Winslow senior long jumper Jett Jue and Thatcher junior Cody Jones in the triple jump–neither of whom even mounted the medals podiums in those events a year ago.

Although Moreno's 100-meter dash best has improved less than a tenth of a second over last May, it's still just 1/25th of a second away from overtaking Notre Dame Prep senior John Ruvo, the favorite in the event and 4/25th of a second off the best in the 200-meter dash, set by Coolidge sophomore Antonio Carrola.

Division IV Track & Field Information

Hardships aren't keeping River Valley's Dulin from 'chasing greatness'

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Michael Dulin doesn't appear overwhelmed by what's approaching and he's experienced.

In a week he'll compete in the Division IV state track and field championships and graduate from River Valley High School. When he was 11, Dulin's mom died from an aneurysm, and his 64-year-old dad just survived a cancer battle.

But despite family strife, athletic demands and maintaining a 4.0 GPA, Dulin is one cool customer. His laser focus and will to confront and overcome obstacles is serving him well on and off the track.

Dulin credits his coaches and friends for helping him stay on track.

"Michael is already a grown man," said Dulin's River Valley football and track and field coach, Jonathan Clark. "He takes everything in stride. He doesn't get down. He is not a woe-is-me type of person. What he's faced has galvanized him and made him a strong individual. Most people wouldn't overcome what he's faced. He's worked hard his entire high school career, and he's maintained a home in a sense."

Dulin is aiming for D-IV discuss title before he graduates.

He took second at state as a heavyweight wrestler in the winter and helped River Valley reach the 3A Conference football semifinals. But he's not satisfied.

"I'm still butt hurt about it," said Dulin about where his football season ended. "I don't want to be second best. I don't want to leave with that legacy."

Achieving his athletic goal isn't the only thing occupying his time.

He also has to pay bills. The 18 year old wakes up at about 3:30 a.m. on Saturdays before heading off to his 8-hour landscaping gig.

Dulin is also helping take care of his dad, who is receiving disability benefits while managing health issues. When he was younger, Dulin went to live with his mom, Suzanne, after she and Dulin's dad, Robert, divorced.

Dulin moved around a lot while living with his mom, who died when Dulin was just 11.

"Losing my mom was a shocker," Dulin said. "It just came out of nowhere."

Two days after Suzanne died in Kingman, Robert picked Dulin up to live with him in Mohave Valley in northwest Arizona.

It was a rough go at first, adjusting to yet another city and not having his mom. But Dulin didn't crumble.

He found stability and friends who helped him move forward. In fact, the first friend he made is his best friend today, River Valley student-athlete extraordinaire Andrew Cervantes.

Cervantes was awarded a Flinn scholarship, an award worth about $130,000 that is given annually to the top 20 Arizona high school seniors. Dulin also found an outlet he was good at.

"I found sports," Dulin said. "I got to vent all of my emotions there after I lost my mom."

Not only is he emotionally strong, but the 6-2, 220-pound Dulin is also built like an ox.

His coaches, the parental figures at school, where there to help guide him.

"I don't have the answer to that, sir," said Dulin when asked how he's been able to cope with so much. "I think I would give all the credit to my friends and coaches and coach Clark. All of my friends on the football team have helped me keep my tunnel vision. None of them went and partied and were drinking and doing stupid things. I stumbled into the right group of friends. When coach Clark came here my freshman year I was so blessed to have such a great coach. He came here with a great mind set and focused on creating good young men. I would like to think I have shaped into something he is proud of."

Clark said Dulin is more than ready to conquer anything that comes his way.

"This is going to help him in life," said Clark about Dulin's ups and downs. "In life, you know, we get knocked down, but he's already been knocked down plenty of times. So this will help him. The sky's the limit with him."

After graduating, Dulin, a tight end and long snapper, is headed to California to play football at Glendale Community College, which is near Pasadena.

In California, he'll live in a home that his River Valley special team's coach, Damon Martin, was raised in. Martin owns the landscaping company that Dulin works for.

Martin also sold Dulin the truck he currently drives.

"I owe him (Martin) a lot too," Dulin said.

It took him a summer of trimming trees and other work duties to pay off the tuck.

"Landscaping is not a joke," Dulin said.

And neither is throwing the discus and shot put.

Dulin was hampered by a wrestling injury at the start of the season and didn't start throwing the shot put until recently. But in one of his final regular season meets, Dulin qualified for state in the shot put with a throw of 41-3, placing him in the top-8 in 4A. Dulin wants to finish in the top-12 in shot put at state. Another River Valley close friend and also a top-10 discuss and shot put thrower, Jeremy Julius, and Dulin (personal and school record 141-0 discuss throw) have been encouraging and pushing each other since they were freshmen. Regardless of how it all ends athletically in high school, Dulin is excited about what lies ahead for him.

"I'm super-duper excited to see how I can do in college," he said. "I'm going to keep my head down and keep grinding. I can't wait for Saturdays, game night (at Glendale Community College), to see how I can do and perform and keep chasing greatness."

Valley Christian ready to defend title

The Valley Christian girls are led by an incredible senior class, coach David Mehlhorn said.

The defending champ's offseason work, especially by its returners, is paying off this season, Mehlhorn added.

"They have not been satisfied with winning last year and are hungry to try and repeat," Mehlhorn said. "The girls Division IV team race is going to be tough. St Johns, Northland Prep, Round Valley, and Pusch Ridge all look strong, and there are others with good chances to make a jump next week."

Some of Valley Christian's stars:

Riley Brown: Brown et school records in the 100 and 200. She is ranked first in the 100 and second in the 200 going into state. She won both events last year and is on the defending 4x1 team. She is committed to go to University of Washington for soccer.

Ella Browder: This is her first year ever running track. She's dealt with a ton of foot issues over the years and was finally healthy enough to participate this year. She is ranked in the top 3-4 in the 100 and 200.

Emma Liberta: Liberta played a huge role in the state title last year. She finished 2nd to Riley Brown in the 100, was on the 1st place 4x1 team, and also scored points in the 200 and 4x400. She learned hurdles about halfway through this season and is ranked third in the 300s. "She is an incredible athlete who could probably score in 6-7 different events," coach said.

Gabby Dummann: She is ranked No. 1 in the pole vault and is the lead leg of our 4x100 team. She picked up long jump late this season and is currently ranked in the top 15. "She is really a great teammate and hard worker," coach said. She recently cleared 11 feed after being stuck on 10 for a while.

Amelia Wolf: She is ranked No. 1 in discus and is top-5 in shot put.

Sorochi Andersen: She is ranked No. 2 in the 100 hurdles and is tied for 1st in high jump. She's also top-15 in the 300 hurdles and is a part of the 4x400. Really improved in the hurdles this year. Is heavily involved in fine arts so she balances a ton.

"The rest of our team is made up of awesome, hard workers," Mehlhorn said.

Abby Arneson (800, 4x800 and 4x400), Kyla Brecht (pole vault medalist, 4x800), the javelin throwers (Reese Ballatyne, Rebecca Meier, Grace Lentz, Chloe Salow), thrower Iveya Ward, Meiting Liknes (400, 4x400), Melody Clauss (HJ, 100H, 300H), Colby McCormick (PV), and Hayden Matykiewicz (PV) are also contributing for the favorite.
