Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

This past year showed us that by working as one statewide unit for the greater good we can achieve anything. It remains a priority to adhere to guidelines and respect rules that are in place for the safety and well-being of our participants. With your help we can show all those involved that we can overcome external difficulties by coming together as an AIA community. These championships are only possible because of you.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

O'CONNOR AIMS FOR REPEAT AS DIVISION I IS GETTING CROWDED AT THE TOP

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

No. 16 Casteel at No. 1 Sandra Day O'Connor: The top-3 doubles teams of O'Connor are undefeated this season, including CatBox Invitational winners Liana Huesca and Olivia LeBlanc. "We are very excited for another chance to run for the title and have been working very hard on building team culture and chemistry, to have trust within each other and strive to be best teammates on and off the court," coach Jamey Spartz said. "We have been very privileged to have great leadership this season with our seniors Liana (Texas A&M Kingsville commit) and Delaney Gregory (St. Edwards University -Indoor commit) that has been a big key to the success of this season thus far." ... There were six freshmen in Casteel's most recent top-5 pairs teams. One of those young players, Ava Kretschan (9-2), is on the team's No. 1 team along with Addy White. Casteel could be 11-1 but lost to four teams by 3-2 scores this season.

No. 9 Desert Ridge at No. 8 Valley Vista: One of the state's top doubles teams, freshman Natalie Lorenzo and junior Lucci Alexander, call Desert Ridge home. Natalie's sister, Caprice, was Lucci's partner last year. "As a squad, the girls do a really good job of supporting each other, and are always open to learning new techniques to better their game," coach Justin Sherrill said. "As pairs, they do an excellent job of pushing each other to play at the highest spot possible, but also understanding that every point for our squad matters. ... Sophomore Marielle Ramos went undefeated during her No. 2 and 3 pairs matches for Valley Vista. David Chavez's squad is 10-1. His No. 1's, Christian Lopez and Dafne Zamora, are 9-2. Olivia Moore, Lizzy Moyer, Maren Matthews, Marielle Ramos and Ralyn DeJesus have only lost only one match with their partners.

No. 12 Mountain Ridge at No. 5 Desert Vista: Zahrah Ralph is on Mountain Ridge's No. 1 team and is ranked No. 1 in her junior class. But Ralph isn't the only one succeeding. "They all want to see each other succeed," coach Christian Jensen said. "There is a good balance of returning and new players on the team this year, and they do an incredible job of supporting their partners and their teammates throughout their matches. During practice, they work to compete and push each other to be their best selves. In matches, they line the courts to cheer and encourage their teams on." ... The Desert Vista Thunder are young and talented but still start a couple of strong seniors, Allison Gould and Tylee Schapler. "One of our biggest strengths is our team culture," coach Rick Schapler said. "The girls all support each other and have had a hand in our team record and success. We have two strong seniors in Tylee and Allison. Our pairs have some great partner chemistry and some really good experience together. We also have a really strong group of freshmen this year that bring positive energy and an eagerness to compete."

No. 13 Willow Canyon at No. 4 Xavier Prep: Last year, Willow Canyon was 5-5 but is 10-2 this season. It's the first time the program has a winning record. Nicole Garza is 10-2, with seven of those wins at the No. 4 pairs with Hailey Rushton. No. 5 pairs Maliah McCaffrey and Shayleen Palmer are 7-1. ... The big news heading into the playoffs is that Summer McCann, who helped win the last two D-I doubles state titles, is injured and likely won't play in her final state tournament of her high school career. But Xavier Prep is one of the premier programs. Trinity Tran, Noelle Peterson, Mei Prieto, Finley Workman, Maddie MacDonald, Lauren Vanderwey, Kaelly Putz and Dina Gorman are just some of the talent that's ready to step up. "It's been all hands on deck," said coach Tim McHale about the injuries and illness the team has been dealing with.

No. 14 Sunnyslope at No. 3 Highland: Sunnyslope's strong volleyball program is led by the very athletic and intelligent duo or junior Andie Purdy and sophomore Georgi Stein. "They both work hard and hustle for everything," coach Amdar LeTarte said. "The whole team is excited to get to the state playoffs and see what we can do. We have a few new coaches this season that have made the season fun and refreshing, Michael Pixler and Austin Nunn and returning assistant Miranda Bacon. They are an amazing people that care for the players and love the sport." ... Coach Sienna Sawyer and her Highland Hawks just completed the best regular season in school history with the help of their No.

1's, Marie Geigel and Danica Singleton, who are cousins and 10-1 on the year. "I think a major reason my girls have been successful this season is because of how hard they work and how competitive they are," Sawyer said. "If someone gets burned on a play they keep it in the back of their mind and try to implement it themselves later on. They are like sponges and are the most coachable group, and it helps that they are so hungry to improve."

No. 11 Desert Mountain at No. 6 Millennium: Not only are Desert Mountain seniors Nicole Cronin, Shaina Ross, Sophia Hartel and Lexi Purinton providing leadership, they are also excellent defenders. "We have developed a fun and competitive atmosphere at practice that makes everyone want to work hard," coach McKenzie Zinn said. "If everyone is not giving 100 percent then no one gets better, so we talk about how your actions don't just affect yourself, but they negatively affect others on the team." ... The Millennium Tigers won their region without a senior in their top-5. "What made the beach volleyball team successful this year is the support shared amongst one another," coach Joshua Arellano said. "No matter what pair is playing, we can always count on our teammates to be cheering on the sidelines. This encouragement gives us the confidence to win games."

No. 10 Notre Dame Prep at No. 7 Queen Creek: The Notre Dame Saints were in D-II last year but moved up this year and reached the playoffs under coach Jamie Walsh. Gracey Lambrecht, Alexa Backlund and Sami Harrod have provided plenty of senior leadership this season. Notre Dame defeated Queen Creek 3-2 on April 4 but a couple of players for both teams were out with injuries. ... Queen Creek starts five talented freshmen, including the undefeated pair of McKenna Kehoe and Tagum Riggs. The only senior on Queen Creek's roster, Kylee Pew, just happens to be the daughter of coach Stefany Pew. "These girls all come to each practice and game focused and ready to get the job done," Stefany said. "They are all true competitors and have so much grit and heart. Their passion for the game runs deep and they feed off of each other's competitiveness. It makes for great practices, and exciting matches against our opponents."

No. 15 Perry at No. 2 Corona del Sol: This might be the most intriguing first round match, because Corona defeated Perry in their final regular season match 3-2. Perry's Avery Burks, the daughter of Perry athletic director Jennifer Burks, is the leader of the team. Sophomore Avery Boothe is 9-3 after playing with two different partners. ... Ella Lomigora led Corona to the indoor title in the fall and an undefeated regular season on the sand in the spring. But there's a lot of talent on Ben Maxfield's squad, which is 12-0. "We returned all of our blockers from last year's final four team, so we just needed to find good pairings and new defenders," Maxfield said. "I think one of our strengths is that so many of our players have played at a high level and in pressure situations. Hopefully we can draw on those experiences, like the indoor state tournament, to not let the moment and pressure get to us. We are pretty solid from pairs 1-5, which gives us some wiggle room in which pairs we need to win for us to clinch the team match."

Top-ranked and defending champion Sandra Day O'Connor is looking to become the first school other than Xavier Prep to win multiple Division I titles. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)

Meet the new K1 volleyball. As the trusted leader on the beach, Wilson is bringing the same expertise to indoor arenas.

The innovation behind the Wilson K1 taps the laws of physics to put the game back in the player's hands. New power lining technology transfers kinetic energy from ball to player, boosting your power to deliver stronger kills at higher speeds.

The Wilson K1 bridges the gap between innovation and individuals – making the game even more personal.

SALPOINTE CATHOLIC GOING FOR FIRST-EVER DIVISION II THREE-PEAT

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

No. 16 Eastmark at No. 1 Salpointe Catholic: Making back-to-back state tournament appearances, Eastmark is a third year varsity program. A senior isn't listed in its top five pairs. Freshman Brooke Harwood is 10-2 overall with partner Bella Jackson. Another freshman, Kalley Cutchen, is undefeated while playing No. 3 with Olivia Pastor. ... "Good chemistry and experience," said Salpointe Heather Moore about her team. Salpointe is looking to become the first D-II team to three-peat. The team's only loss this season was to D-I's No. 1, Sandra Day O'Connor, on March 4, the only time any of 12-1 Salpointe's doubles teams lost a set this year. Megan Muehlebach is 26-0 the last two seasons, and her partner Francesca Pieroni is 29-0 in the same span.

No. 9 Mesquite at No. 8 Fountain Hills: Coach Carlos Flys' Mesquite team was mostly inexperienced but still finished 8-3 in the regular season. "We have 20 varsity and 20 JV players," Flys said. "About half of our players are freshman. Only four of our varsity starters came into this season with any starter experience at all. That might explain why we have so many 3-2/2-3 match scores. But we made a conscious decision as the season began to have nothing but positive vibes." ... Fountain Hills' No. 1, Sydney Boeshans and Bella Garman, are juniors and undefeated this season. Sophomore Jocelyn Bloedel is 7-0 along with her partner Kit Garman at No. 2 pairs.

No. 12 Saguaro at No. 5 Valley Christian: Kate Phillips and Korah Nordin (15-0) of Valley Christian are the favorites to win the doubles state tournament. VC lost 3-2 to Arcadia and Horizon Honors, the only two power ranked losses it suffered this season. Sophomore Kelsey Brooks and partner freshman Claire Gilbert are 14-1. VC's No. 5's, Morgan Bradford and Madi Brown-McAlpine, are 13-1. ... Freshman Paige Whelchel is 8-2 overall with her partner Maddie Morander this year for Saguaro. This is Saguaro's first state playoff berth in beach volleyball.

No. 13 Horizon Honors at No. 4 Northwest Christian: Northwest Christian defeated Horizon Honors 3-2 on Feb. 27, when four of the matches went to three sets. Northwest Christian's Abigail Araujo (8-2 overall) and Johanna Boschma (7-5) were the only ones that won their match in two sets. Jessica Jacoby is 7-2 at No. 1 for NW Christian. ... Horizon Honors reached the playoffs for the first time since 2017. Addyson Gauer is 8-3 overall while playing at the No. 2 and 3 pairs.

No. 14 Flagstaff at No. 3 Estrella Foothills: "This is a group of girls that have played, gone to school and been around each other since the 7th grade," said Estrella Foothills coach Steven Pond about his team. "They are a very close bunch. Our biggest factor for our success has been their unselfishness." The team's No. 1's, Jazzlee and Jenalee Acosta, are twins. Its No. 2's, Sage Chitester and Raegan Moran, are seniors who "bring a sense of calm and confidence to the entire program." ... Flagstaff's No. 1 Haylee Gilleland and Macie Moseng are 8-3. All of Flagstaff's top-5 players had a winning record except one. One of those players with a winning record is talented basketball player Bella Burcar, the daughter of NAU basketball coach Shane Burcar.

No. 11 AZ College Prep at No. 6 Canyon del Oro: Stuart Sherman took over CDO this year and guided the team to an 8-3 regular season record. "Kylie Strang I would say is our emotional leader," Sherman said. "She's fiery, emotional, and fearless. Alina Nunez and Maddie Navarette are our seniors and they always get things done. Emma Brown, Kaydence Wren and Kendall Buckley are friends with everyone on our team. The parents of my athletes have been very supportive and helpful through this season." ... Arizona College Prep's Eric Johnson is also in his first season. The program missed the playoffs last year but is 9-2 this year. "Our team's seniors, Maleah Manansala, Megan Padillo, ZiQing Kuang, and Darian Sapergia have been tremendous leaders for our team this year," coach said. "They have helped to establish our team's culture and brought everyone together. They play for everyone on the team and always pick each other up when a teammate is down."

No. 10 Chandler Prep at No. 7 Gilbert Christian: Ashlyn Unruh and Zoe Yates have been playing with Chandler Prep for four years and are the program's No. 1's. Its No. 2's, freshman Chelsea Erhart and sophomore Abbie Unruh, are undefeated. "What has helped is having girls that have played for our program for multiple years and have been in the system for multiple years," coach Anthony Jones said. ... Gilbert Christian has reached the postseason every season except for a COVID season that was cancelled. Daisy Midthun is 10-4 in the No. 1 spot. Senior Bri Tension was 10-3 record while playing with four different partners. Every starter in its recent top-5 had a winning record, including freshmen Ainsley Fore (9-2), Sidney Loth (7-1), Tylee Fox (5-0), and Alex Heyn (5-1).

No. 15 Scottsdale Prep at No. 2 Arcadia: The No. 1's for Arcadia, Rylie Sieben and Lane Sheedy, will be automatic bids for the pairs tournament. Sieben got to the second round last year with partner Leslie Bugg. "We will also be submitting our No. 2's, Ryan Sheedy and Leslie Bugg but not sure if they will make the tournament or not," coach Jacquelyn Bunker said. "They are powerful and very high energy. They serve tough and have a variety of hard hits and shots. Leslie was in our No. 1's last year with Rylie and advanced to the 2nd round of pairs at the D-I tournament." ... Scottsdale Prep won the D-II Section VII regular season title this year with a 8-4 overall, 4-0 section record. It'll make its first playoff appearance since the 2018 season. Coach Dan Chen's club carries only three seniors. One of those seniors, Katie Holford (7-5 record), plays on the school's No. 1 team along with junior Ruby McClain (7-4 record.) Three freshmen are in the top-5, including Claire Eastlack (7-5 record) and Sophie Ryken (8-2 in No. 4 pairs). The No. 3's, Olivia Rubin and Sharlot Walther are 9-2. Sophomore Nya Trayno (9-3 overall) also is another threat on the team in No. 4 pairs.

Including the postseason, Salpointe Catholic is 45-1 in its last 46 matches with the only loss coming this season to defending Division I champ Sandra Day O'Connor. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)
