Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

This past year showed us that by working as one statewide unit for the greater good we can achieve anything. It remains a priority to adhere to guidelines and respect rules that are in place for the safety and well-being of our participants. With your help we can show all those involved that we can overcome external difficulties by coming together as an AIA community. These championships are only possible because of you.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

DIVISION III PREVIEW

By Brian M. Bgerner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

ALA-Queen Creek senior hurdler Kawai King has one goal in mind for the Division III Track & Field State Championships...14 seconds or less.

Most basketball fans have heard of “7 seconds or less” as an offensive scheme that requires a fast-paced style of play with lots of 3-pointers and little defense.

On the track, 14 seconds or less in the 110-meter hurdles could mean a state record, if not real close to national attention.

“That would be a good goal for me to have,” King told AZPreps365 on May 2. “I’ve put in a lot of work and now I am reaping the benefits.”

The AIA state record is 13.70 set by Michael Bates of Amphitheater High School (Tucson-5A) in 1988.

King was a top hurdler in eighth-grade circles nationally before COVID-19 struck and his freshman season in 2020 was lost. He recorded a 14.2 time his sophomore year but then got hurt and missed the rest of the year.

Junior year included a lot of pain from the “underdeveloped hip” injury he dealt with, something that took him awhile to recover from.

“I wasn’t strong, and had issues running,” King recalled. “It was difficult to experience.”

Now a senior, King is fully recovered and sitting at a personal best 14.09 time in the 110s. He’s a full second-plus ahead of the next contender in the 300-meter hurdles as well with a 38.47 time.

In case you were wondering, the state record for the 300s is 37.01 set by Cyland Simmons of Westwood High School (5A) in 2006.

“To be one of the best hurdlers in the state, it requires hard work, focus and attention to detail,” ALA-Queen Creek head coach Josh DeLano said via email May 2. “Kawai possesses these character traits.”

DeLano said King is a “great athlete to have on our team.”

“He has taken on a leadership role for a very young team,” DeLano said, adding later, “He’s a very experienced athlete who competes every meet and brings it out in his teammates.”

The 18-year-old track star may spend much of his time practicing to be a state-champion hurdler, but he also finds time to work in a football schedule. King started three years for the Patriots.

A self-described “normal high school kid,” King plans to attend Brigham Young University and serve a two-year mission spreading the Gospel before even taking a class.

“I don’t know where I’m going to go yet, but I’ll find out soon. I need to see the doctor and sign paperwork,” King said about what lies next before his missionary trip. “It will be two years of service.”

When asked if he’s nervous about it, he admitted there are some concerns, but nothing that would make him not want to go and serve God.

“It’s exciting and nerve racking,” King said.

As for his track and field career, that should resume with BYU once he returns.

“They’ll hold a place for me and give me chance to compete. Some athletes lose their skills after a mission trip, but I don’t plan on being one of them,” King said.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Stacey and Sabatiney Onyepunuka are two sprinters to watch come May 5-6 at Deer Valley High School. The Agua Fria stand-outs currently have the top two times in the 100-meter dash in Division III, and Stacey has the No. 1 time in the 200-meter dash as well.

Stacey, sitting at 11.71 in the 100, is looking to top her best. In the 200, she’s at 24.36 but is looking for more.

The junior has been running since she was 4 and will compete in the 100, 200, 400-meter and 4X400-meter relay events this weekend at the Division III State Track & Field Championships.

She placed first overall in the 200 and 400 her freshman year and won the 100 and 200 her sophomore year.

“It takes all my stress away and focuses my mind on being happy,” Stacey said about track and field, and in her spare time, she loves to “take naps.”

Agua Fria head coach David Espinoza said it’s been a “wonderful experience” coaching Stacey.

“She has been working very hard over the past few years, and she has been a wonderful leader in our program.”

DIVISION IV PREVIEW

By Brian M. Bgerner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

Representing small-school America, Danielle Graham of Chino Valley owns the top spot in the 400-meter dash heading into the Division IV State Track and Field Championships this weekend in Mesa.

Her 1:00.32 time is just ahead of three others, including Cami Kohl (1:00.39) of Pusch Ridge, Hailey Jones (1:00.43) of Snowflake and Taylor Tatum (1:00.60) of Sabino.

And it might be that close this weekend after the final gun sounds.

Mark Metz, head coach of Chino Valley's track and field program, said Graham is a top competitor and "awesome athlete to coach."

"She is a hard-working athlete who will do what is asked of her and will give it her best," Metz said. "She is very receptive to coaching."

The junior has been at her craft since sixth grade, and is currently qualified to run in the 800- and 4X100-meter relay state events at Red Mountain High School come May 5-6.

Despite her hard work, she has yet to reach a state podium during her high school career. But she plans to change that.

"I'd like to say my chances are high, but I don't want to get my hopes up. I am ranked going into it, my chances are pretty good. As long as I run my time," Graham said, adding, "No matter what I need to run my race, give it my all."

If a track and field scholarship isn't in the cards for Graham, her grades certainly make her a candidate to go anywhere, sporting a 3.8 GPA with plenty of AP classes to brag about.

In her spare time, Graham likes hanging out with friends and family, and loves to shop.

"We all like to go shopping a lot, spend a lot of money. Nothing much besides that. Most of my friends I know through sports, so we hang out at practices, too," Graham said.

Graham isn't the only Cougars track star heading to state. Brody Ryan has qualified as well in the 300-meter hurdles and is currently holding the No. 1 spot with a 40.39 time.

"We have had a great season," Metz said of his Cougars.

Conner Willis of Snowflake isn't far behind Ryan at 40.93.

SMALL SCHOOLS RULE

There's plenty of good track and field events coming up this weekend with small-school athletes ready for the big time.

Other's to watch on the Division IV boys side include Payson's William Spalding (100-meter dash, 11.07), Sincere Tso (200-meter dash, 22.55) of Chinle and Wyatt Nicholas (high jump, 6-5) of Thatcher.

Let's not forget the relays. Both Valley Christian and Chino Valley have qualified for all three events (4X100, 400 and 800).

For the D-IV girls, Jacey Perkins of Show Low is No. 1 in the 300-meter hurdles at 47.00, while her teammate Aubrie Wilson is tops in the high jump at 5-6. Add Ava Sooter (pole vault, 10-0) of Sabino and Snowflake's Lily Lundberg (long jump, 17-7) and this weekend is going to be quite interesting.

DIVISION V PREVIEW

Sydnee Finch said no at first when her junior high track coach asked her to throw the shot put.

She's a softball player. There's no way she was going to give the shot a shot, she thought.

When Finch arrived at Round Valley High, another track coach asked her to also try out.

Strike number two.

Since she was about five years old, Finch and softball were as close as peanut butter and jelly. But not anymore.

Thanks to the persistence and dedication of her coaches, family and herself, Finch went from a softball player to the state's top female shot putter, amazingly in less than two seasons.

"I told my (junior high track) coach (Pat Tucker) that I didn't want to be there throwing," the Round Valley High sophomore said. "I told coach I didn't belong in the shot ring. I am a softball player. He told me to throw it and see where it goes. That's where it started. It felt weird at first, but I learned to love it."

In junior high, Finch eventually stood in the ring for Tucker, a former pupil of Finch's current track and field coach, Round Valley legend Tom Pifer.

But despite her early success, Finch was convinced that softball was her future. As a freshman, she played softball and participated on the track team on a part-time basis.

But Pifer, who's coached at Round Valley since 1986, didn't take no for an answer. He waited for Finch after softball practice to train her.

Plus, he had a connection, Finch's dad, Garrett, one of Pifer's former football players at Round Valley. The spring and early summer still bring cool temperatures to Eager, Round Valley's home base in north eastern Arizona, but Pifer didn't allow that also to impede his efforts.

The discuss, which Finch started throwing this year, and javelin are coming along, but throwing the medal ball is what really put her on the map. Her 43-1 toss in an invitational in April is the top mark in the shot put in Arizona this season regardless of class.

Finch hasn't lost a meet since she started throwing the round ball. Not bad for the D-V athlete and once upon a time softball player.

"Sydnee works extremely hard," Pifer said. "She's hard on herself when something is not 100 percent. She works in weight room and plays three sports. She has a strong work ethic and is very coachable. So we are very much looking forward to see what she can do, especially in the shot."

Finch also wrestles and plays soccer at Round Valley.

Jaden, Finch's older sister, lobbied to allow girls to wrestle at their school and Finch's dad, Garrett, wound up becoming the girl's wrestling coach. Garrett's mom, Sandi, it turns out was a former shot putter in Oregon.

The 2022-23 school year is almost over, but Finch has set some lofty goals before the year ends. She wants to increase her personal record (school record 43-1) by 11 inches.

Last year, despite not being fully committed to the sport, Finch won the D-V shot put state championship. She wants to repeat as a champion of course.

Finch is also the big favorite to win the D-V discuss title in her first year.

"It's weird," said Finch about winning the shot title last year. "You can't explain it. Not many freshmen take state, and so just seeing everyone who helped me get there and achieve a goal I had was a feeling I can't explain. It was big. It was unbelievable honestly."

Division V Notes

Phoenix Country Day's Kimi Cahoon is the favorite in the 1,600 meter 3,200, and school mate Sam Novak is the favorite in the pole vault. "Kimi's progression in our program has taken off due to uninterrupted training, lack of injury and a great support system around her," coach Matt Hull said. "Coming off her personal and team success from cross country has really given her the confidence to train at the next level. We know Kimi still has more to achieve, but we are thrilled with what's she's been able to do this year. Sam has a great love for the vault and this year he's truly become a student of the event. The vault can offer specified challenges that require lots of patience and the willingness to take steps backwards to progress. Sam has met that challenge with a new sense of training and mental toughness that has led to him being one of the top sophomores in the country." ... Arizona Lutheran's Sierra Gomez and classmate Jorge Lomeli is one of the top 110 meter hurdlers. "They both have great work ethic no matter what sport they are competing in," coach Matt Heyn said. "Sierra has been a solid competitor for us in volleyball, basketball and track. Her dedication to improve shows in the time she puts in after others have gone home. Same for Jorge, who is a standout for ALA in football, soccer, baseball, and track. He is very talented, but the extra work he puts in helps him use his talents to make his teams better. ... Glendale Prep's Zoe Rich is the favorite in the 400 and 800 meters. "The biggest reasons for Zoe's success are her self-motivation and desire to succeed," coach Eric Webdale said. "She's been running since middle school, so it's been rewarding to see her hard work paying off. Yes, she's talented but her drive to succeed and tireless effort to improve has really impressed me. Zoe is part of our 4x800 relay team, along with juniors Anushka Kulkarni and Chloe Cannon and sophomore Taryn Janssen. The team is blessed with a lot of talent, and they've been fortunate to have each other. They encourage each other but also hold each other accountable in practice to get better each day." ... St. Johns' Jacee Willis is one of the top javelin throwers in AZ. "Jaycee is one of the most hard working, self-driven and competitive athletes I know," Jami Lee said. "She's had an amazing season this year because she has worked relentlessly on improving her approach and fine tuning her technique. She never lets the setbacks throw her off. If a meet doesn't go the way she hopes, she just comes back the next week ready to tackle whatever challenges she's facing. It's been such a pleasure to coach her and witness the growth and success she's experienced this year." ... Round Valley's Dallon Walker (1,600) and Aaron Merrill (high jump) are favorites in their respective events. "Aaron is a great kid who always has a smile on his face," coach Tyler Hansen said. "Aaron is very intelligent and genuinely wants to learn how to perform better and learn the principles he's being given by coaches. Aaron is a friend to all and a hard worker. The reason Dallon has been so successful this year is due to his incredible work ethic and willingness to be coached. Dallon is a leader and sets the example for the rest of the team on how to work hard and stay humble. Dallon also cares very much about his teammates and their successes." Keanu Clark is the D-V leader in the shot and discuss. ... Tombstone's Malachi Keller is one of the best high jumpers in the state. "Malachi has put in tons of work in weight room over the past several months, and as a result he is a much stronger athlete," coach Jake Winslow said. "Not only is he stronger this year, he is truly a student of his events. He is very coachable and has become much better from a technical standpoint. He is a leader on this year's team, and he helps and inspires his teammates to become excellent."
