Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

HAMILTON NOW SITS ATOP THE DIVISION I THRONE

Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

There's a new badminton sheriff in Division I that may end up handcuffing opponents just like the previous sheriff.

Hamilton ended Perry's five-year D-I team reign in the finals last year, when the career of one of the state's all-time coaching greats, Perry's Lerina Johnson, also closed. With three talented freshmen and a sophomore in its top six, Hamilton can potentially become the next D-I dynasty.

The Huskies certainly performed like champions this season after a 14-0 regular season and two regular season tournament triumphs. But the post-season is a different animal.

"The target has definitely shifted," Hamilton coach Lauren Rosales said. "This year we don't have as many people rooting for us. The girls have to rise to the occasion. We aren't the underdogs anymore. They are the defending champs. There's added pressure. We have to keep the girls calm, especially the youngsters."

Helping the youngsters stay focused is likely the No. 1 singles player in the state, senior Samiya Bodhanker.

Bodhanker wants to also atone for last year's loss in the D-I singles final, when she was attempting to defend her crown.

"Last year, it was disappointing how it turned out," Rosales said. "She is powerful and can read an opponent really well."

One of the team's talented freshman, the jovial and 'laser focused' Kathryn Yi, will be in the hunt with sophomore Nihira Sane for the doubles title.

Sane won the doubles championship with a different partner last year. In charge of Hamilton is a capable leader, Rosales, a former Division I softball player and badminton player at Basha.

The up and coming coach was picked as Hamilton's next softball head coach after legend Rocky Parra retired. It seems like the pieces are in place for Hamilton badminton to make another run at a title, or two, or three, or ...

TEAM NOTES

No. 4 Desert Vista: Katelyn Larney and Anamaria Sanchez are the team's leaders. "Kate is always friendly and willing to help others as well as a role model," coach Susan Slavin said. "She knows what needs to be done at any given time and is right there to lead her teammates. Katelyn is also a 3-sport varsity athlete and has been for the last four years. Her natural athleticism as well as her competitive nature has been a joy to watch throughout the school years. Although (Sanchez) is not the loudest or the most talkative, Anamaria has shown us that she is a capable leader by stepping out of her comfort zone and leading the other players without direction from the coaches. She always has a smile and understands very quickly what needs to be accomplished at any given time. Both players have done an amazing job organizing activities for the rest of the team and making sure that no one feels left out." Lekha Shrivastava is the team's No. 1. "She is incredibly kind, and a natural leader, working with the younger players to help them progress their individual games," coach said. "This year she has really worked hard on her individual game and has not dropped a match during her regular season. She thrives when her competitor is talented. She loves to compete."

No. 5 Perry: "There are a handful of girls that work together to be leaders," coach Frau Sandra Zemaitis said. "Each brings something different to the team. Robin Bui is the quiet leader who will take time to help an exhibition player improve a stroke. Alexa Englert is the tell-it-like-it-is leader, who doesn't sugar coat any answer. Tina Nguyen is the uplifting leader. She is the cheerleader of the team and is the most positive player. Then there's my freshman leader, Riley Hunt, who just soaked up the sport starting in August and since then eats, sleeps and breathes badminton."

No. 8 Red Mountain: It won its region and finished 10-4 after playing five of the top nine teams in the state. It lost a couple of close duels against Hamilton and Perry. "Senior Julia Moya is our MVP," coach Jake Kober said. "She is a four-year player with three years experience and just a natural born leader. I feel she should be the Region Player of the Year but voting is not complete. Sophomore Payton Westra, a standout softball player as well, is another leader by her play. She is a gifted athlete that others look up to not only because of her athletic ability but also her great attitude. Lastly, senior Chelsea Stevens is another natural leader with an amazing attitude and work ethic."

No. 12 Westwood: Lizeth Torres Nuñez, Camilla Rodriguez Corona and Felicity Gardner are leading the way for the Warriors. "They rotate through who teaches the Character Matters lesson for the week, and then they watch for the character qualities in their teammates," coach Meg Bowman said. "They select one girl for each character quality (Unity, Relentless, Noble, Quietness, etc.), and she receives the Character Matters Competitor of the Week award. These three girls care for their teammates and are such great examples to younger players. They work harder than anyone in the gym and the weight room. They are always pushing themselves to be their very best. That inspires the rest of the team to follow." Team MVP Nuñez is 25-1 in singles and 13-0 in doubles with Corona. It's been more than 10 years since Westwood has experienced this much badminton success, coach said. "I think our biggest accomplishments happen in the gym when no one is watching," Bowman said. "Those moments when skills are mastered."

No. 11 Xavier Prep: Sofia Zielinski, Cloe Andrews, Lila Williams and Kasia Smigielski are providing the senior leadership. Zielinski and Andrews started playing last year. "Both are more than just vocal leaders and lead through their actions and how they conduct themselves at practice/games," coach Brian Mc Nerney said. "Both have worked hard to hone their court IQ, shot selection and overall badminton skill set. They're both natural athletes, which has helped them improve exponentially. Our other two seniors, Lila and Kasia, have been with the program for four years and are foundational cornerstones of the work ethic, growth mindset, and supportive environment that is key to this team's culture. All of their fingerprints are indelible on the makeup of this team." The team is very 'lucky' to have two MVPs, Maggie Henry and Corinne Ladha. "These two athletes have been the anchors of our varsity team since they were sophomores," coach said. "Both have an incredible drive for greatness, remarkable athleticism, high IQ, are inclusive to all, and kindness/empathy that unite this team. These young women are perfect examples of the class, work ethic, intelligence, and charitable demeanor this school hopes to produce in its graduates." Lila Williams and Sam Riggle finished 3rd at the Forner Invitational, and Maggie Henry and Corinne Ladha were named to the All-Tournament Team at the Flying Feathers Invitational.

MORE STARS

Sunnyslope is led by three senior captains, Sabrina Case, Phoebe Roussin and Jessa Jacobs. Sabrina Case is the No. 1 and is amazing, has a great attitude and works super hard, coach said. "They have worked hard every day during practice and matches," coach Sarah Schlesinger said. "Everyone is for the team and it is truly delightful to coach." ... Mountain Ridge's leaders are Lilah Zafar, Sophia Grabham, Emma Post, and Prarthanasree Udayakumar. "They are my four seniors, and they set the tone for the rest of the team," coach Adam Korman said. "They lead by example on and off the court." Zafar won the singles portion of the Chaparral Tournament. The team is playoff ready after playing in some very close matches this season. ... Cesar Chavez went undefeated in the D-I Metro with the help of Melissa Landa (7-3 No. 1 singles). ... Liberty is after its first winning season since 2018. Seniors Rylan Rhodes and Delaney Davies are the top singles players, and Davies and fellow senior Tatum Sanders form the squad's No. 1 doubles team. ... Highland's Charity Driggs defeated Desert Vista's No. 5 in three sets when they met on Sept. 26. The teams will meet in the first round of the playoffs. ... Chandler's Coral Mattson and Jocelyn Engelhardt were 16-10 in sets at No. 3 doubles. ... Pinnacle's Faith Kroening went 25-7 in sets. ... Senior Michelle Chen is 9-3 at No. 1 and 11-1 in No. 2 doubles with Mel Burnside for Corona del Sol. ... Basha's Jordyn Mee and Amiya Hernandez earned the top seed in the doubles tournament. Mee went 12-1 in doubles this year and didn't drop a set during her six matches with Hernandez. Mee suffered a serious knee injury her freshman year as the No. 1 but still won a bronze medal during her sophomore and junior years. She is a straight A student as well. "I'm very proud of Jordyn and will miss her deeply after she graduates," said her father Warren, Basha's coach. "Jordyn and Amiya are good friends and play well together. They communicate, can read each other, are quick on their feet, are very aggressive, and yet they play with a smile on their face." ... Senior Addison Dance of Queen Creek finished 10-2 during the regular season at No. 5 singles, and Joley Rice, Ava McBride and Makayla Homewood round out the team's senior leadership.

Hamilton won its first team state badminton title last year after snapping Perry's five-year string of championship victories. (Jose Garcia photo/AZPreps365)

DEEP IRONWOOD TEAM WILL BE TOUGH TO STOP IN DIVISION II

Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

No other Division II team in the state likely possesses as much depth as Ironwood does this season.

That's why it's undefeated and the favorite heading into the team portion of the D-II badminton tournaments. Ironwood lost only one singles and a doubles match during the regular season, excluding tournaments.

"It takes a team to win state," Ironwood coach Brett Stafford said. "As long as these girls play together they have every chance in the world to win it. But it takes all six."

Last year, the team was essentially playing with seven new starters and lost its No. 1 seed after a knee injury.

But that didn't keep the Glendale program from reaching the semi-finals. This year, Ironwood returned four varsity players and welcomed a talented tennis player, Sasha Tijore, the team's No. 5 singles player.

Tijore is 14-0 in singles and 14-0 in doubles while partnering with Alyssa Ridgley and Mariyah Peru-Ray, who is a combined 28-0. Ironwood also is blessed with experience.

No. 1 Madison Nguyen and No. 3 Melanie Flores advanced to the semis last year in doubles. They'll attempt this year to bring home Ironwood's second doubles title in the last three years.

Angelica Medel, who hasn't dropped a singles match this year, will be Ironwood's top singles state entrant.

"Madison is a solid all-round player, loves the sport and trains hard," Stafford said. "Angelica is ready to compete. Melanie has been a leader since her junior year. She's the motor behind the team."

The architect of Ironwood is Stafford, who started the program in 2013.

His program has reached the playoffs ever since he opened it.

TEAM NOTES

No. 2 seed Prescott: The team's leader is No. 1 singles player Riley Crockett (14-0). She is also undefeated with partner Claire Long in doubles. Crockett is a 4-year player and has had a 'tremendous career to date.' Last season, she finished as the runner-up with doubles partner Elle Long. She has also helped her program win four Northwest Region championships, an amazing feat considering her team is a pretty young and inexperienced this year, coach Bobbi Yoder said. Crockett was the D-II Northwest Section POY Doubles last year and helped the program finish as the D-II runner-up last season. "She has come a long way in four years, mentally and physically, and will be making a run for a D-II singles state championship," coach added. This year's team returned only one varsity player, three JV players and two alternates. "The underclassmen have come through pretty big for us, which is one of the main reasons we were able to have the success we've had this season," Yoder said. "I ended up bringing up another JV player (Ashlynn Reed) towards the end of the season." The team: #2 Elena Gonzalez (Sr), #3 Maryn Schmitt (Sr), #4 Reese Sorensen (Jr), #5 Abigail Daniels (So), #6 Claire Long (So); doubles: #1 Crockett/Long, #2 Gonzalez/Schmitt, #3 Sorensen/Ashlynn Reed (So).

No. 4 Thunderbird: Abby Montesinos and Kenzie Salyer are the team's leaders this year. "They both have played four years and work each and every day to not only become better themselves, but they push their teammates to be better as well," coach Kelly Pavlik said. Montesinos is the MVP and was ranked 3rd in Division II in singles with a 13-1 record and 27-2 set record. She is also ranked 2nd in D-II for doubles with partner Lili Rakich, a three-year varsity player who has been the team's No. 1 all season long. The No. 4 state seed is the highest the program has received, and its 13-1 record is a program high as well.

No. 6 Sunrise Mountain: The team has three leaders, No. 1 Hannah Winschel, No. 2 Ruthey Figg and senior Annabel Johnson. "Hannah shows dedication at each practice by working hard and giving her best effort with each drill," coach Michele Carter said. "She also spends half her day at WestMec. She has to drive straight to practice and even our matches from WestMec. It is a big commitment since she is late to both. It makes it hard for Hannah to warm up properly before matches and misses a lot of practice due to this schedule. To make up for it, Hannah worked very hard all summer and is willing to stay late or do whatever it takes to be her best. She only has two regular season losses and is entering individual state as a single player. Ruthey wants to practice every chance we get. She has improved tremendously from last year. She and her partner placed 3rd in the Chaparral tournament this year. She is entering the state tournament with a different doubles partner for the individual competition. Annabel has a passion for badminton that drives her to always want to improve. She will be entering the doubles individual state tournament with Ruthey."

No. 8 Marcos de Niza: No. 1 Lian Pan and No. 2 Naiya Laux are the leaders. "(Laux) is a senior who has the experience it takes to maintain her mental toughness," coach Claudia Ramirez said. "Lian is a freshman that is very polished with her skills and knows strategy as well." The team is 11-3 overall, and its only loss in its region was to defending team champ Arizona College Prep. Pan, a freshman, defeated a Xavier player in the Highland Flying Feathers Tournaments to win the singles championship and earned All-Tournament Player honors.

No. 10 Mesquite: Pravindi Gurusinghe and Skyla Johnson are the team's leaders. Gurusinghe took second in singles in the Firebird Invitational. "They both are knowledgeable about the game and help their teammates out with skill suggestions and keep them motivated," coach Joshua Anson said. "Our MVP is definitely Pravindi. She holds herself to an incredibly high standard and it trickles down to the rest of the team." The team has two more victories than last year, when it faced the same competition.
