Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

WILL CHINO VALLEY THREE-PEAT IN ULTRA-COMPETITIVE BOYS BRACKET?

Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

A historically top-heavy fall boys soccer season has quickly turned into one of the more competitive championship brackets in recent memory.

Chino Valley (11-2-1) nabbed the No. 1 seed, but trailed No. 2 Sedona for that distinction for much of the year until defeating them 1-0 on Oct. 12.

Snowflake (10-1-1) won its region and is a No. 3 seed, while No. 9-ranked Desert Christian (8-3-1) and No. 10-ranked Northland Prep. (8-3-1) would have been on the outside looking in, but claimed their region crowns to earn an automatic bid.

Madison Highland (10-2-1) sits at No. 4, Payson (6-4-3) is No. 5 and Blue Ridge (8-4) at No. 6 rounds out the eight-team field, which opens play Tuesday, Oct. 24, in the first round of the 2023 Arizona Interscholastic Association's boys soccer state championships.

That means Willcox, which lost only two matches this season, and Show Low, will sit on the couch this postseason.

"It is really competitive this year. There's a lot of [good] teams, this was a hard season. We had a lot of competitive games this year," said Chino Valley head coach Todd Carey, who led the Cougars to a state title in 2022, a 3-1 victory over Sedona.

"Honestly, there are eight or nine teams that competitively can play and win a state championship this year," Carey added.

The Cougars, which have made the state title match in each of the past five seasons dating back to 2018, are the two-time defending champs looking to make it a three-peat.

"Right now, we're playing pretty good. We have a lot to work, especially offensively. We must create that spark and get the ball in the middle a little more often," Carey said. "Defensively, I'm pleased with how we are playing. We're stopping teams from scoring goals. We're building momentum at the right time of year."

The last time Chino Valley earned three consecutive titles was actually a "five-peat," claiming the championship every year from 2012 to 2016, making it seven trophies in the case for the Cougars in the past decade.

"This year, there's a lot more good teams," Cougar goalkeeper Ian Benson said. "Snowflake is up there. We're going to have to work hard, keep our heads up and build each other up."

Jackson Bishop, one of the top strikers for Chino Valley, said his club doesn't "underestimate" anyone.

"We're always mentally prepared that anyone can come out and beat us. Everyone is looking to beat us. Any time someone plays Chino Valley, they come out hard," Bishop said.

Chino Valley opens play with No. 8 Northland Prep.

"We know our ability and know what we can do, so we'll go in with confidence," Bishop said.

SEDONA TO CHALLENGE

Despite their 1-0 loss to Chino Valley a few weeks back, the No. 2-seeded Scorpions believe the playoffs are a whole new level of competition.

"As the saying goes, anyone can beat anyone," Sedona head coach Sam Blom said via email to AZPreps365.com this week. "That is why we play the game. Teams have the opportunity to beat the best teams if those teams are not playing their very best. We learned that fact when Chino beat us."

Blom said the Scorpions are "hungry" after coming in second a season ago.

"We've been inconsistent the last few matches, and will give 150% on Tuesday, regardless of who we play," Blom said.

Sedona opens with No. 7 Desert Christian.

SNOWFLAKE IS NO SLOUCH

Having lost only one match all season, a 2-1 heartbreaker against Sedona way back on Aug. 23, the Lobos (10-1-1) have since won eight out of their past nine, with a 1-1 tie against Show Low on Oct. 5 being in the mix.

Head coach Kegan Kay said Snowflake is "hungry for a championship."

"The main reason we are going in ranked high is the work and dedication of the boys we have," Kay said, adding later, "We have proved through the season that we can beat anyone. As long as we can stay healthy and focused and come into games with intensity from the start, we have a high chance of winning it all."

NORTHLAND PREP READY TO DEFEND GIRLS TITLE

Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

Since 2001, only six clubs have claimed a fall girls state soccer championship.

And this fall's playoff action may not be any different.

Show Low and defending state champion Northland Prep claimed the top two seeds after winning their respective regions. Five-time state champion coach Michael Blair from Northland Prep (17-3, 4-0 Central) says his club has "continued" its historic success by focusing on the "little details that are the difference between success and failure in life."

"We've had some tough injuries this year, specifically to some key senior starters that we've had to overcome and the underclassman have done a tremendous job stepping in and filling big roles," Blair said via email to AZPreps365.com.

Blair believes trust will be a major factor for his club this fall if they are to come out on top.

"We have to do the things we've been working on all season and trust each other," Blair said. "When we play, we are really hard to beat."

The Spartans have claimed five of the last six state championships since 2017, losing 1-0 to Chino Valley in 2021.

Show Low, which last won a state title more than a decade ago in 2011, has grabbed the league's No. 1 overall ranking with a perfect 19-0 record so far this season, including a 5-0 mark in the East region.

Head coach Chris Ellis said via email to AZPreps365.com that any perceived success from the those outside the Cougars' program this season may seem like it just happened over night, but it simply doesn't work that way.

"This comes from lots of work and time together. This current team has been playing together since they were in AYSO and club soccer," Ellis said.

Traveling throughout Arizona, New Mexico and London during spring break has helped bring the team together.

"I believe this helped with chemistry and learning how to play at the top levels and seeing the expectations," Ellis said, adding that he admires what coach Blair has done in the past several seasons.

"Northland Prep is still the gold standard for any program and are still the current champions," Ellis said. "Coach Blair is such a stellar coach and someone I look up to."

The Cougars defeated Northland Prep twice this season, both by 3-0 scores.

For Show Low to overcome it all and hoist a trophy come Saturday, Oct. 28, in Mesa, they must first "believe they can win and have the right mind set that nothing is given."

AN OLD FAVORITE

Despite the top two seeds getting much of the attention this season, the girls soccer team that is the "OG" of championship runs in the past 23 years is back in the fold once again this fall.

Since 2001, Blue Ridge leads all fall programs with nine titles, hoisting a trophy in 2003, 2004, 2007 through 2009 and 2012 through 2015.

Not bad for a small school nestled in the White Mountains of Arizona, huh?

Head coach Britni Hamblin said her girls deserve the majority of the credit.

"They show up day in and day out ready to work, they trust the coaches and have built their relationship as a team," Hamblin said. "They have never wavered."

They No. 4-ranked Yellowjackets (12-9) qualified for the state play-in round.

OTHER CHAMPIONS

Chino Valley grabbed two titles in 2016 and 2021, St. Johns had a nice run in 2001, 2002 and 2010 and Sedona Red Rock, which cancelled its season earlier this fall due to lack of participation, claimed two titles in 2005 and 2006.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Northland Prep has several players who can dominate at any time during the match, including senior Mollie Donahoe, who has 33 goals this season and leads the Spartans with 80 points.

Senior Kyra Wilkens leads the club in assists with 20, while sophomore Lilah Bringard has scored 25 goals and recorded 17 assists.

For Show Low, senior Mikenzie Kulish leads her team with 29 goals and 15 assists. Senior Abrie Wilson and junior Raquel Wilson are tied with 17 assists apiece, while sophomore goalkeeper Naomi Tapia has recorded 106 saves this season between the posts.

Blue Ridge has a double-threat lineup to watch out for, including Myli and Leilani Hamblin. Myli, a sophomore, has 28 goals this season, while Leilani, a senior, has netted 21.
