Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

RED MOUNTAIN, MARANA ARE UNDEFEATED BUT TITLE UP FOR GRABS

Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

No. 2 seed Red Mountain: Junior Sierra Mellish won the starting QB job when the season began but suffered a season ending injury in the second game. But in stepped Korey Roberts to lead the team to an undefeated regular season. The sophomore (15 passing and 7 rushing TDs) hadn't played football before, but is now 6A's rushing leader. The team also boasts a defense that has picked off opponents 31 times and has allowed only one opponent to score more than seven points. Linebacker Sophia Marquez, who returned to action after an injury, LB/snapper Cadence McCanless and S/WR Cassidy Lopez have also stepped up as leaders this year.

No. 3 Marana: Malaysia Roebuck, Madison Myers-Rebidas, Thais Monson, Sophia Figueroa and the Singer sisters, Roxi and Nami, are the athletes opponents regularly game plan for. Nami was leading the nation in sacks with 29. "It's hard to say who our MVP is because what makes our team unique is its next-girl-up attitude," coach Shaun Lara said. "One of the biggest reasons why we are successful is because of our positive/competitive attitude and the tremendous hard work these girls put in day in and day out." The Roebuck family, including assistant coach Sean, is one of the well-known football families in Marana.

No. 4 Hamilton: CC Maccagnano, Shahar Harel, Samaya Taylor-Jenkins (over 1,000 receiving yards and 100 points), and Mikayla Allen are the leaders. "In addition to being our top receiver (Taylor-Jenkins), she has played some significant minutes at safety and recorded two interceptions and one pick-6," coach Matt Stone said. Taylor-Jenkins has also filled in at kicker. At the start of the season, Allen moved from outside to middle linebacker, accepted the new key role and performed well, coach said. "Although Mikayla has a quiet personality, on the field she is a vocal leader who communicates with the entire defense around her and with her coaches on the sideline," Stone said. The team lost players for different reasons during the season, but others stepped in to fill roles and help the team reach the playoffs. Maccagnano started as a softball player but transformed herself into one of the best QB's in the state. On the coaching staff is an up and coming coach, assistant Ashlee Chino.

No. 6 Chandler: Seniors Danea Lilavois and Emily Hamilton lead an 11-1 team that lost only its season opening game. "This is (Danea's) third season and just had her best season to date with over four sacks per game," coach Christy Herndon said. "This is Emily's first season with the Wolves, but she plays like a veteran with multiple sacks and QB hurries every week." QB/WR Kennedi Hayes has also had a hand in helping the program grow as a coach on the field. Defensively, speedster Ryland Douglas is another program 'pioneer.' Keep an eye out for freshman WR/QB Makayla Martinez in the playoffs as well. Student coach Angel Perez is a corner on the varsity football team. After his practice he heads over to help the flag football team, with his nights ending at around 7, coach said.

No. 9 Mountain View (Mesa): The Christenson family, assistant coach Leo and daughters Tessa and Sadie, have been sharing their passion for football with the team while also excelling. "I think the biggest reason we have had success is because we are relentless," coach Jesus Arzaga said. "We have had tough games and our girls, all of them, just never give up. The players who have not played have been great teammates and have supported each other." Freshman Tierah Metcalf leads the Toros in rushing yards per game, TD passes and rushing touchdowns. "We have struggled with a lot of things, but she has kept her cool and has done enough for our team to win games," coach said. Sophomore Kaylei Yazzie is the team's interceptions leader. Freshman Ginny Wilson and seniors Sadie Gardner and Larissa Skinner are also threats.

No. 11 Mountain Ridge: Dual threat QB and decision maker Maddie Green's enthusiasm and positive energy allow her to thrive as the MVP on offense, coach Whitney Warmus said. Ellie Cardiff's sideline to sideline exploits poses problems for offenses. "A true nightmare to every offense," Warmus said. WR Jade Fudurich, C/WR Emma Johnson, Green and Cardiff are the captains. "They all overcame something to reach this point," coach said. "They all set high standards and goals. They work hard every day. They are disciplined, and they put their team first. "(The girls on the team) are great people. They make a difference on and off the field. When they work together they make things happen on the field. They support each other and make each other better people."

More Stars

No. 1 Highland's Abigail Santa Cruz has 21 sacks ... Jr. QB Lexi Harper, WR/R Sr. Zaria Abalo-Torres and RB/LB/QB Isabella Price are the captains for No. 5 Desert Ridge ... Sophomore QB Hannah Rouse has 2,161 total yards for No. 7 Xavier Prep ... No. 8 Desert Vista leads 6A in scoring with 359 points in 12 games. Ella Creech, Desiree Perez and Grace Chambers are the captains. ... More than a quarter of No. 10 Mountain Pointe's roster is filled with freshmen, including the talented Amaya Moreno at QB. ... Khalia Dana has 15 touchdowns, averages 5.9 tackles per game and has 11 interceptions for No. 12 Gilbert ... Three of No. 13 Queen Creek's four victories were shutouts. ... No. 14 Dobson will get a chance to avenge its Oct. 3 17-0 loss to Marana when they meet in the first round of the playoffs. ... No. 15 Mesa junior safety Leah Alcala is in the top-5 in 6A in tackles with 59. ... No. 16 Corona del Sol's Deven Kircher led her region with eight interceptions.

*Highland earned the first No. 1 seed awarded in the 6A flag football conference playoffs.

EASTMARK IS No. 1, BUT PLENTY OF TALENT ABOUNDS IN CONFERENCE

Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

No. 1 seed Eastmark: At 12-0, it's the only undefeated team in 5A. Kaylee Markle has scored a state-high 34 touchdowns, and teammate Mailelagi Kalama has thrown 29 TD passes. The team is 5-0 in games determined by five points or less. Eastmark is coached Nick Garces, a retired Southern California police officer who served as Kobe Bryant's body guard for a period. His daughter, Sophia, leads the team with 4.4 tackles per game and 15 sacks.

No. 3 Canyon View: Despite missing two games with an injury, Katelyn Jewell's 46 touchdown passes leads the state. Offensive coordinator Manny Moreno has coached flag for over 40 years, and his offense ranks No. 1 in points scored in AZ. Maycie Bassett's 89 tackles is the highest total among playoff participants. Jewell, Bassett and WR Angelina Harrell are the team's leaders. Athlete Nyjah Green was in the top-10 in receiving yards and scoring in the state. "We have had a motto of small steps towards victory," coach Cory Beal said. "We have made a commitment from players to staff to work on the little details and techniques that most teams might overlook or take for granted. With this being the first year in history (of flag football in Arizona), we wanted to begin our growth at the ground level."

No. 4 Campo Verde: Izzy Pap is the first AZ flag quarterback to reach the 3,000 yard passing mark. Madison Coger is the leading yards receiver in the state with 1,807 yards. Cogger, Pap and Sammi Cocke are the captains, and Rhiana Gurnani has also emerged as a leader on both sides of the ball, coach Brian Coger, Madison's dad, said. "Sammi is a linebacker that brings the energy and tenacity that is needed at the position," said Coger, who added that participation, experience and health have also contributed to this year's success.

No. 5 Flagstaff: "Our seniors are the leaders of our team," veteran coach Tyrone Johnson said. "We have nine rostered seniors, and they all lead in different ways." The team's No. 1 threat on offense is running back Maya Evans. Defensively, nose tackle Aspen McCallie is 'quick to the ball and has good flag pulling techniques, which often leads to sacks and TFLs.' A lot of the athletes play multiple sports. Defensive coordinator Chris Barquin is a soccer coach but also possesses a wealth of flag knowledge.

No. 6 Mesquite: Jordyn Flores, Ilyana Flores, Brooklynne Murray and Mariah Willis are the leaders. Flores, a dual threat, is the spark plug on offense. Murray, the team's ball hawk in the secondary, is the defensive MVP for a team that has seven shutouts. "The leadership group on our team has been relentless in making it a top priority to improve every day that we are on the field," coach Chad Montgomery said. "Our defense has been very consistent and has kept us in almost every game this year."

No. 7 Casa Grande: Sarah Mountz has the most passing yards by a freshman QB in 5A so far. Defensive coordinator Ted Huntington and assistant Debra Aguero have done an extraordinary job of building the defense into arguably the best in the in state, coach Kevin White said. That defense has given up the fewest points in 5A. Athlete Kayla Tacker excels on both sides of the ball and is leading the state with 13 interceptions. Tacker, Mountz and slot Lynisee Armstrong are the team's top players, and, despite being just freshmen, Tacker and Sarah were elected team captains. The team starts three freshmen, three sophomores and a junior on offense.

No. 8 Westview: "We had success this year because of the size of our team and several personalities that all played a major role from the start of the season," coach Dseanda Trotter said. "The competitiveness that each student athlete brings to our team is undeniable." The MVP on defense is Amauria Patterson, and on offense it's Sanae Stephenson. Arayia Hayes, Erikah Hall, Jennifer Joya, and Aubrionn Ramos also have contributed mightily to the first-year program. Noa Griggs' strong work ethic allowed her to flourish after never playing a sport until this flag season.

No. 10 Mountain View (Marana): Two-way threat Holly McLemore and Lillian Gradillas-Flores are the squad's go-to players. "I think our team's success is due to the positive attitudes on the field and athleticism," head coach Jane Nova said. "We have a very young team and many who have not played flag before. The determination, great attitude and athleticism of most of our athletes have made for quickly learning the game and staying focused." Assistant coach Matt Jones' football knowledge and rapport with the players have played a vital role this year as well, Nova added.

More Stars

Breana Saunders of No. 2 Millennium has tossed 24 TD passes and rushed for 593 yards. ... Ava Taliaferro has 15 sacks, and Jayden Jalbert has tallied 11 interceptions for No. 9 Higley. ... Adyson Nichols is second in 5A with 2,582 passing yards and 25 TD passes for No. 11 Williams Field. ... No. 12 Benjamin Franklin junior Madeline Falls has scored 16 TDs. ... All of No. 13 AZ College Prep's 18 interceptions were collected by players who weren't seniors. ... Freshman Jasmine Furr's 45 tackles and sophomore Pamela Perez's 13 sacks lead No. 14 Mohave. ... No. 15 Verrado's Angelina Topps was the second leading rusher in her region. ...
