Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR CHASING FIRST 6A INDOOR TITLE

By: Ben Stapley
AZPreps365.com

The seedings for the 2023 6A state volleyball tournament nearly held serve during the play-in round to determine the final eight seeds in the field of 16. Seven of the higher seeds won, with the exception of No. 15 Mountain Ridge, which fell to No. 18 Maricopa 3-1.

The remainder includes No. 9 Highland, No. 10 Valley Vista, No. 11 Desert Ridge, No. 12 Mesa Mountain View, No. 13 Pinnacle, No. 14 Chandler and No. 16 Mesa.

The next round – which marks the official beginning of the state tournament—begins on Thursday Nov. 2 with all matches starting at 6:00 and all at the high seed. The quarterfinals are scheduled for Monday Nov. 6, also at 6:00 and also at the high seed. Semifinals commence Wednesday Nov. 8 again at 6:00 and again at the high seed. The championship match is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Friday Nov. 10 at Arizona Veteran's Memorial Coliseum.

6A championship facts: In the last 12 years, seven different schools have captured the big school championship: Basha, Corona del Sol (2), Desert Vista (2), Gilbert, Hamilton (2), Horizon and Xavier Prep (3). Corona del Sol defeated Hamilton in last year's 6A title match in five sets.

O'Connor: The Eagles are the clear-cut favorite in 6A with good reason. They enter the postseason with a 30-1 record after losing only five sets during the entire year. A 3-2 setback to Desert Valley Region rival Sunnyslope in September was the only blemish for O'Connor. The Eagles are led by junior Devyn Wiest, an athletic 6-3 outside hitter averaging 11 kills per match, who is committed to Utah. But O'Connor has plenty of talent and depth on the roster. Five different players have at least 115 kills on the season. Senior Katie Lambeth has been a consistent compliment offensively with nearly eight kills per match. Sophomore Leylah Duran has been steady defensively with 93 blocks. The Eagles were the favorite heading into the 2021 tournament, reaching the finals before falling to Hamilton in the championship match. This year's version looks even better.

Xavier Prep: For over two decades, Xavier Prep was nearly a given to show up in the state finals. From 1996 to 2018, Xavier won 12 state titles and finished runner-up four other times. The young Gators (26-5) have a good shot at playing for a championship for the first time in five seasons. Freshman Tessa Larkin leads the way offensively for Xavier with 250 kills, while sophomore Vivian Hickman has 219. Juniors Annemarie O'Gara and Elle McCreery both stand 6-2 and lead Xavier with 170 combined blocks. The Gators are also battle tested. Xavier has wins over No. 3 Corona del Sol, No. 4 Queen Creek, No. 5 Sunnyslope and No. 6 Liberty. The Gators have also gone head to head with some of the nation's top teams, including Mater Dei from Santa Ana California, the country's top ranked team. If the seedings hold up, a potential O'Connor-Xavier title match would bring the two teams together for the first time this season.

Corona del Sol: The defending champion Aztecs (32-8) won a thrilling five game match against Hamilton to capture last year's crown. Corona lost two of its best players from that team in Ella Lomigoria and Kierstyn Barton, but remained a top-tier contender through the 2023 season. Junior Alyssa Aguayo and Maggie Beauer have carried much of the offensive weight, combining for an astounding 790 combined kills. Corona del Sol's only Arizona losses have come to O'Connor, Xavier, Highland, Queen Creek and Sunrise Mountain. "We're a pretty young team, experience wise," coach Ben Maxfield says of this year's team. "But we do have better ball control, so if we can stay within our system and give our hitters the best chance we should be fine."

Queen Creek: The Bulldogs enter the playoffs on a six match win streak which included a 3-0 defeat of Corona del Sol. Queen Creek is balanced offensively, with senior Blaykli Bobik (233) and sophomore Madisyn Crnjac (293) combining for 526 kills on the season. Juniors Emmie Ray and Haleina Bowers have 70 and 67 blocks respectively. "This team loves competing and playing together," says coach Erica Crismon. The environment in practice is so competitive but also really fun." Queen Creek advanced to last year's quarterfinals before falling to eventual state champ Corona del Sol.

Notes

Sunnyslope's upset win over top seeded O'Connor is a reminder that anything can happen in the playoffs. Junior outside hitters Georgi Stein and Zoey Haan lead the Vikings. ... Liberty is no stranger to postseason success. The Lions reached the semifinals last season and have experience on their side. "We have eight experienced seniors who want to make a strong push," coach Chris Brown said. Liberty is one of only three teams to win a set against O'Connor this season. ... Perry won its first nine matches of the season and took No. 2 Xavier Prep to five sets. Junior Kenna Cogill is a force offensively and defensively, with 218 kills and 90 blocks on the season. ... Hamilton lost significant firepower from last year's runner-up finish. But a young nucleus of players have stepped up nicely against the state's best competition. Junior Reagan Richardson, along with sophomores Nia Curry and Mikayla Haner have led the Huskies to the No. 8 seed.

5A VOLLEYBALL FIELD IS TOP HEAVY WITH TOP TEAMS

By: Ben Stapley

The 5A tournament should provide the perfect stage for outstanding postseason theater, with a top-heavy bracket and plenty of capable teams. Round of 16 matches begin Thursday Nov. 2 at 6:00 at the higher seed. Quarterfinals will be Monday Nov. 6 again at 6:00 and again at the high seed. Semifinals are set for Wednesday Nov. 8, once again 6:00 at the high seed. The 5A Championship Final is scheduled for 5:00 on Friday Nov. 10 at Arizona Veteran's Memorial Coliseum.

Casteel: The Colts learned a lot after reaching last season's 5A quarterfinals, where they lost to eventual state champion Horizon. "This team is resilient and they seem to thrive when the pressure is highest," coach Cory Chandler said of his Casteel team. "We're excited to get going in the playoffs." Senior Jadya Orava leads the team with 358 kills, and junior DyBorrah Johnson has 222 on the year. In addition to beating other 5A heavyweights during the regular season, the Colts faced a host of out-of-state competition, which should help their competitive edge in the playoffs.

Millennium: The Tigers won 31 games and swept through the Desert West Region with a 13-0 mark. The mission now is simple: getting back to the championship match for another shot at the 5A title. Millennium came up just short a year ago, falling to Horizon in four sets. Don't be surprised to see Millennium back in the championship. It was the fifth consecutive year Millennium reached the title game, winning in 2018 and 2021. The 2023 Tigers bring a deep and balanced offensive attack, making it difficult for opponents to concentrate on any one player. Five different players captured 135 kills or more during the regular season. Senior Anne Brauckmiller leads the way with 248, junior Gabbi Kucinski has 224 and senior Talea Mitchell finished right at 200.

Notre Dame Prep: Evan Hendrix has been nothing short of phenomenal this season and is certainly a player of the year candidate. The Texas Christian-bound senior would like nothing more than to finish a brilliant career by celebrating a second state championship with her teammates and coach Holly McLean. Notre Dame took home the 4A title in 2021 and finished 4A runner-up in 2020. Last season was the Saints first in 5A, and they took the #4 seed into the playoffs before falling to #1 seed Millennium in the quarterfinals. Hendrix has led Notre Dame with an astonishing 459 kills this season, giving her an average of five per set. Her teammates have provided consistent effort as well, with four others with at least 100 kills. Fellow senior Isabella Cardello leads the Saints defensively with 75 blocks.

Horizon: The Huskies round out a top-heavy quartet of contenders, and the two-time defending 5A state champs are anxious to shoot for a three-peat. First year coach McKenna Skaggs is a Horizon alumnus and well versed in the rich volleyball tradition, with five state championship trophies in the Husky vault. Senior Teraya Sigler is the Huskies team leader and should be neck and neck with Evan Hendrix for player of the year honors. Sigler is also averaging five kills per set, with 506 on the season. Fellow senior Abby Dudley (181) and sophomore Sienna Markovich (188) help support Horizon's offensive attack.

Sunrise Mountain: The Mustangs can play with and beat anyone, and proved so during the regular season, finishing 25-5 and running the table in the 5A Northwest Region. Sunrise Mountain notched victories over Horizon, Casteel, 6A defending champ Corona del Sol, 6A #2 seed Xavier Prep, and battled the 6A's top seed O'Connor in a 2-1 loss.

Williams Field: This is another team capable of surprising a higher seed. The Black Hawks finished 18-11 but gave Casteel fits in San Tan region play, splitting a pair of matches with the Colts and finishing 8-2 down the stretch.

Verrado: The Vipers are one of only two 5A teams to win a set against Millennium, and battled the Tigers close over the last two contests. Verrado will need senior Raechelle Dykstra to continue her stellar performance in order to make some tournament noise.

Mountain View (Marana): It captured the 5A Southern Region, and will rely on senior Maggy McReynolds, who averages nearly four kills per set.

ESTRELLA FOOTHILLS LOOKS TO REPEAT, BUT THE 4A FIELD IS DEEP

By: Andy Morales
AZPreps365.com

Estrella Foothills beat Arcadia 3-1 last year to capture the first championship in program history and the Wolves are hoping to repeat this fall behind the leadership of Grand Canyon commit Aubrey Goodere, sophomore Sadie Snyder and junior setter Toto Carter. The team went 32-1 overall last year and 14-0 in matches that count towards power rankings and state playoffs while giving up only four sets in those matches. It was an incredible run, but can it be repeated?

Estrella Foothills lost Angelee Bawek and her 198 kills to graduation (Allegheny College) along with defensive specialist Jazzlee Acosta (407 digs) and setter Raegan Moran (Washington College), but a 28-1 overall record this fall and a perfect 17-0 record in power ranking matches shows how well head coach Jennifer Gonzales reloaded.

"We lost 11 seniors from last year's state championship team," Gonzales said. "There are 10 new girls on the varsity squad this year. They are all very determined to compete at a high level and go as far as they can in the state tournament. They would love to repeat the success of last year."

Estrella Foothills swept ALA-Gilbert North 3-0 in the semifinal round last year but the two teams did not meet each other this fall. The Eagles are 30-10 overall and 16-1 in power ranking matches this year with the lone loss 3-2 at Arcadia in mid-September. The Titans came back from an 0-2 start in the match to win it. Arcadia did not finish in the top eight this year but the team earned the No. 9 seed in the play-in tournament and the Titans (17-5, 12-5) hosted No. 24 Shadow Mountain (12-9, 11-6).

The Titans beat Salpointe Catholic 3-2 in the semifinal round last year to get to the championship match but it might be a difficult task to get back there coming from the play-in phase. Salpointe (29-6, 15-2) is led by underclassmen, sophomore Kate Mobley (285 kills) and freshman Ashlyn Quiri (264 kills), and seniors Megan Muehlebach (371 digs) and setter Sophia Hernandez (750 assists).

The Lancers dropped a match to new 4A power Mica Mountain this fall after they knocked the Thunderbolts out of the state playoffs last year in the quarter-final round. But head coach Amy Johnson sees promise after a very successful year with her team putting up a 27-5 record overall and 16-1 in power ranking matches.

"We have a really exciting team this year and our athletes play with high and consistent energy and excitement," Johnson said. "Our seniors have been on this team since the program was first created four years ago. Even though for their first year we only had a JV team, they started there and the subsequent three years have played on our varsity team. This has made our team incredibly special since these girls have had the opportunity to bond and play together for such a long period of time. We are looking forward to state starting and to see how far we can get this season. Each year we gone one match further than the year before, that again would be our goal to at least get one match further this year."

Thunderbolts junior Addison Andrews has 638 assists, freshman Aubrey Necas has 215 assists and junior Soso Okpara has 52 blocks. Saguaro (26-9, 13-3) is also right there, high in the rankings, after losing in the play-in tournament last year.

"Over the past season, we've witnessed an incredible transformation in the team's performance and dynamics," Saguaro head coach Jherra Wilson said. "One of the key factors in our team's recent success has been our unwavering commitment to discipline. The coaches, in collaboration with the entire team, have instilled a culture of discipline that has allowed us to consistently maintain our focus, work ethic, and drive to succeed. Through open communication, individual attention, and mentorship, we have created an environment where every player feels valued and heard. This trust and buy-in have been pivotal in fostering a strong team spirit and unity, leading to improved cohesion and synergy on the court. It is a thrilling and pivotal moment for Sabercats. As we approach the playoffs, our confidence in our team's ability to soar to even greater heights remains unwavering."

One of Saguaro's losses came at Eastmark (21-10, 14-3) and the Firebirds are one of the top eight teams in the playoffs.

"We have had tremendous play from all our players," Eastmark head coach Daniel Arrington said. "The biggest thing is mentally not to shut down or quit when things do not go our way, and to keep fighting. Also, when things are going our way, we cannot take our foot off the gas and have to stay disciplined and focused. Compete all the time."

Mica Mountain has made the AIA tournament for the second year in a row thanks in part to senior Addison Scott blocking strong at the net. (Andy Morales photo/AZPreps365)

VALLEY CHRISTIAN, SNOWFLAKE AND NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN LOOK TO CONTINUE DOMINANCE OF 3A VOLLEYBALL STATE TOURNAMENT

By: Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

Three programs have dominated the 3A volleyball landscape for nearly a decade, and this fall looks to be no different.

Since 2016, either Snowflake, Northwest Christian or Valley Christian have appeared in the state finals and in the past four seasons, two of the three have represented the 3A in a championship match.

In that timeframe, Northwest Christian has won three state championships (2018-2020), while Valley Christian claimed the crown in 2021 and Snowflake hoisted the trophy a season ago, their first since 1996 and the program's fifth overall ('80, '81, '91).

On the outside looking in, but barely, Fountain Hills won two titles in 2016 and 2017, but hasn't made an appearance in the state playoffs since their Elite 8 loss to Northwest Christian (3-0) in 2018.

CRUSADERS

Northwest Christian (30-11, 12-0 3A North Central) claimed a region title this season are a No. 4 seed in this fall's state playoff bracket.

Senior Alyssa Symanski has worked hard to be one of the best middle blockers in the state (70 in 2023), and said her journey has been "fun."

"I've gone through the freshman team, to varsity and now a starter. It's been a huge blessing for me," Symanski said a few hours before her club played Chino Valley on Oct. 19, adding her team is looking to reclaim the title this November.

"I think we're looking at Snowflake and Valley Christian. Fountain Hills is also a strong team, but I think we're up there with them," Symanski said.

The Crusaders have lost to Snowflake in each of the past two seasons, first a 3-1 loss to the Lobos in the quarterfinals in 2021, then a 3-0 loss to the same club in the 3A state championship a season ago.

Cadence Roberts, a sophomore with 373 kills, said this season has gone well so far, but they want to do more.

"I think [this season has been] better than expected, considering how many seniors we lost from last year," Roberts said.

Junior Brooklyn Blumentritt, who leads the team with 378 digs, said the Northwest Christian community has been a big reason for their success this season.

"The community at Northwest is amazing. The volleyball program has been amazing. We have fluctuations, but we come out fighting no matter what," Blumentritt said.

Head coach Chuck Hunter said any team that shows up to play "has an opportunity to do great things."

"It's high school volleyball, you never know," Hunter said, adding that the Crusaders are young but they believe.

"We have no strong 'Queen Bee' leader in the program, so we have to, truly, as a team, believe in each other," Hunter said.

LOBOS

Snowflake (28-11, 11-0 3A East) won their region championship and are slated at No. 2 for the state playoffs.

The Lobos beat Northwest Christian on Oct. 4, 3-1, and twice more in two different tournaments this season, but head coach Jamie Robinson is taking nothing for granted.

"I feel any team in the Top 16 will be a contender and a serious opponent," Robinson said via email to AzPreps365.com on Oct. 31. "We just need to take one day and one game at a time."

Players to watch include seniors Livi Schneider (322 kills), Macey Gardner (62 blocks) and Braxton Jones (273 digs) this postseason.

TROJANS

Valley Christian (28-8, 8-0 3A South Central) won their region title and went an impressive 17-0 in power point matches this season, sweeping Snowflake and Fountain Hills 3-0, while coming out on top against Northwest Christian 3-2 on Sept. 20.

The Trojans were ranked No. 1 this season, and are the overall No. 1 seed for state.

Head coach Tyler Trathen said his club will need to stay "true to our goals and plans" for the season if they are to come out on top.

"We have worked really hard to establish our culture and build our team together with a fight and resiliency," Trathen said via email. "I think we have learned a lot this season and really challenged ourselves to fight in all of our games."

Trathen added Snowflake and Northwest Christian are on his radar.

"I think that Snowflake always produces stellar teams and always battle to make it far in the tournament. I also think that Northwest Christian always prepares well against teams and makes a push in the playoffs."

Players to watch are junior Kelsey Brooks (291 kills), freshman Sadie Wahlin (102 blocks) and senior Avery Schmidt (373 digs).

DARK HORSE

The only other club to go undefeated in power point matches (17-0) this season was Monument Valley (30-3, 14-0 3A North) and enter this playoff bracket as the No. 3 seed.

In fact, the Mustangs swept nearly every power point match they played in 2023 with the exception of two, a 3-2 win over Chinle on Sept. 26, and a 3-1 win over Alchesay on Oct. 7.

Despite being No. 3 in state, Monument Valley didn't play any of the Top 5 teams in state this season, which include Snowflake, Northwest Christian and Valley Christian, however they are formidable.

"[We must] stay mentally strong with the help of being consistent with our passing and serving," Mustangs head coach Rennell Gilmore said. "We have players with experience, which has played a huge role this season."

Players to watch include sophomore Tehya Yazzie (241 kills, 65 ace serves) and senior Niaomi Benally (36 blocks).

TWO-TIME DEFENDING CHAMP PHOENIX COUNTRY DAY IS STILL 2A FAVORITE

By: Jose Garcia

PHOENIX COUNTRY DAY: The team's leaders are Quincy Rodin, Sonia Singh and Mia Warner. "They are each hard workers, and lead in their own way," coach Kat Glaeseman said. "Quincy is the most outspoken. She tries to inspire others, brings energy to the court and tries to build up the team. She can be counted on when we are down to take over a game. Mia and Sonia are both more quiet leaders. They are thoughtful and lead by example." The team had a great showing in the Epic Tournament. "We played teams from larger schools that were bigger, faster, stronger than us and we adapted and played well against them," coach said. "We showed grit in continuing to fight and changing to a faster speed."

TRIVIUM PREP: Leader Natalie Guerrero is a fourth year, six rotation starter. She has been a setter for two years and has finished her last two years as our libero. "She is the backbone of both our defense and our offense, hitting the leaderboards in digs, aces, and assists as well as being the best we've ever had in serve receive," coach Beth Wilson said. "Her stats don't show the presence she is on the court or her incredibly high volleyball IQ. She is a step ahead of the game at all times, giving hitters calls so they know what's open, anticipating where the ball will land, and putting a fire in her teammates step as she calls their names before each ball contact." She will be playing for D-I Stephen F. Austin next fall. Outside Ava Norris is a four-year starter "with an incredibly powerful swing." "She has played outside for us since she was a freshman and has carried our team offensively, especially in the past two years," coach said. "She is poised and solid and has a quiet, calm confidence on the court. She is a team captain and has been able to help form a beautiful camaraderie amongst the team." Another leader, Ryan Poyner, transitioned from an outside hitter to a 5-1 setter this year and has proven herself in every match. "She gets the ball to her hitters, regardless of the type of pass she gets and makes really great decisions on who to set and when," coach said. "Her beach volleyball background makes her an excellent defender and a quick reactor. She is also a team captain and a huge part of the chemistry that has been so important to our success this season." The team won its region for the 8th year in a row.

ST. JOHNS: "Our four seniors are all starters as well as captains," coach Joy Whiting said. "Josie Overson, Ryan Norton, Ellie Heap and Brook-lee Finch have all played in the program for all four years in high school and do an excellent job at including everyone in the program. They are prime examples of buying into our no-nonsense culture at St. Johns High School volleyball. They show up at every event ready to work hard and do whatever they need to, no questions asked. They know how to get the job done on and off the court. They are vocal and encouraging to their teammates as well as doing the tough job of holding everyone, including themselves and each other, accountable." The team went undefeated against 2A competition this season. "Overall, I want to congratulate our little town and public school volleyball program for an incredible accomplishment this season," coach said. "Going into the state tournament ranked No. 3 is a really big thing for us. We have who we have in our zip code, and that's it. None of these girls play club volleyball in the off season, as they are multiple sport athletes, and the drive to the metro area is just too difficult to manage, not to mention quite costly. Our small town has once again rallied around our team and supported us. Our parents are something special as well. They have backed every decision we have made as a coaching staff, which isn't always easy."

CHANDLER PREP: "The leaders of the team are two of my captains, Abbie Unruh and Juliet Mason," coach Courtnee Oglesby said. "Abbie is an outside hitter and our most effective offensive player. She has a powerful and versatile float serve, great court awareness and incredible volleyball knowledge with the willingness to learn and try new things. Juliet is our libero and our best defensive player. She is decisive in her movement and consistently provides our team the opportunity to convert on a play. We can expect her to be dependable both physically, getting digs and aces, and mentally, motivating and inspiring her teammates." The team made a coaching change at midseason. "With my new position as head coach came a shift in leadership from a veteran CPA coach to a first-year coach," Oglesby said. "Many aspects of the team's culture, game play, and overall structure changed, effecting their mentality, especially the players that trained with the former coach for years. Together, we had to build trust and chemistry, and I'm so proud of how far we've come and am looking forward to seeing how far we'll go. "Our biggest accomplishments so far are achieving our season goals of maintaining a positive mindset throughout the match and keeping high energy on the bench. Positivity from every member on the team, especially those on the bench, contribute to the energy we bring on the court and the resulting performance. We heavily focus on manifestation and how important it is to maintain a positive mindset throughout the match, and the team has continuously proven how mentally tough they are. They lean on each other and overcome adversity together, something some coaches can only dream of."

SCOTTSDALE PREP: The team's leaders are Ruby McClain and Samantha Ferro. "Ruby is willing to do what it takes to help the team," coach Danny Chen said. "I asked Ruby to switch positions from OH to oppo at one point because we needed to shore up our defense (blocking/passing). She plays all the way around for us. Ruby's answer is always "If it will help the team, I'll do it." Samantha is our go-to and currently among the state leaders in kills. Unlike other girls on that list, Samantha has never played club volleyball before in her life. She picked up the sport in 8th grade and only plays during HS season. What makes Sam a great player is her willingness to learn. She's doesn't fight you when you are trying to fix things. She just wants to get better and is willing to listen and adapt." The is the first season the program had almost every starter return and never lost more than two games in a row, went 12-5 in tournament and had really only one bad game this season.

ST. JOHN PAUL II: "The main leader on our court is our libero, Joanna Zaragoza," coach Arrianna Ramirez said. "Joanna communicates with her hitters, passers and setter. She lets the hitters know what is available to hit and how many blockers are going up. She knows how to read the court on both sides and inform her team. She is able to adjust with each hitter and supports the back row informing them of the adjustments that have been made. Joanna is very versatile on the court with her high volleyball IQ along with her skills. We will truly miss her next year as this is her senior year. Another leader on the court is our middle blocker, Alexis Daves. When Alexis gets a block or kill the team's energy increases and really gains the momentum for the team to keep pushing. She is always communicating with her setter and other hitters and focuses on keeping up the energy." The improvement the players made in the last four years was rewarded with a top-8 seed at state automatic state berth. "The girls have been working hard during our practices and matches to stay consistent," coach said. "These girls have fought and earned an awesome position. We have also accomplished playing outside the box and knowing they need to be uncomfortable on the court so when the game play happens it is nothing new to the girls, and they should be able to adapt. The JP2 coaches are very proud of the girls this past season. They have accomplished so much and have dedicated time to get where they are today."

SAN TAN CHARTER: Freshman setter Ella Shoap has over 600 assists and was in the top-100 in the nation for aces with 115, according to max-preps. "She has taken on the role as being the leader and captain on the court, leading the team to their 19th straight win," coach Timothy Porter said. Sophomore outside Peyton Schwinden had more than 200 kills. "Being reliable and consistent for our offense and always giving Ella an option to set," said Porter about Schwinden. Freshman middle Aubrey Michalos is young but determined, leading the team in blocks making a statement for what's to come, coach said. Senior outside Bri Gibson, a leader and a captain on and off the court, is showing the young players the ropes. "She has been a huge key to the success we have had this season and is finishing her high-school career stronger than ever," Porter said. The team won despite losing its first two matches under its first-year coach. The team was 25-4 and won its region and was on a 20-match win streak. "Most of all this young team has accomplished becoming a family and setting a standard on and off the court, building for a bright future for San Tan volleyball," Porter added.

Horizon Honors: Sophomore middle hitter Kennedy Harbertson is the team's leader in kills and blocks this season. She's a competitor and really brings a lot of energy to our team when she makes big plays," Amanda Bors said. Addyson Gauer is a junior captain and has been the starting libero since her freshman year. She broke the school career digs record and is well over 1,000. "She makes several big defensive plays that fuel the girls motivation to play together," Bors said. The team found a way to bounce back after losing six seniors last year. One of the two seniors on this year's team suffered a career ending injury. "Our team has really struggled to stay healthy this year, so we have had lots of underclassmen who have really stepped up to help our team," coach said.

NORTHLAND PREP: Miranda Greene, a fourth-year varsity player, was sidelined with a knee injury all season but has been an inspirational leader and student-coach from the bench all season, coach Corie Murphy said. "Players look to her in times of struggle and doubt as a source of encouragement," Murphy said. Sophomore Zillah Wildblood-Crawford is a second year varsity player and has been a 'consistent on-court leader on both offense and defense.' "She is consistently the hardest worker in the gym, constantly striving to make herself and her teammates better," coach said. Because it lost two four year players and a transfer sophomore to injury, the team had to rely on its underclassmen to contribute. "Coming to practice every day with a mindset of improvement and growth has driven this team and this program to our most successful season in recent history," Murphy said. "We challenged ourselves by scheduling difficult Freedom games against traditionally strong teams outside of our region and conference."

WILLCOX: The team's leaders are Keira Lentz, Kennedy Ebert, Maddie Bennett, Annie Allred, and Mabrisa Tona. "Keira is a defensive specialist for us and brings a relentlessness in her pursuit of winning," coach Todd Debaun said. "She's a junior and is playing her first year of varsity volleyball. She's really had to work hard to develop the skills to be that caliber of a player, and now that she's there she brings a very vocal demand of expectations for everyone else she plays with. Kennedy is our sophomore setter. She too brings a winning attitude and is one of our best all-around athletes on the team. She is highly competitive and brings an edginess to her play that makes her stand out. Maddie is our junior utility player. Maddie has played literally every position on the court at some point in her career. She always asks, "What else can I do?" She's a very upbeat and cerebral player. She's the player that the rest of the team looks to for positive reinforcement. Annie is the hardest working kid on the team. She is literally like a ball of muscle. She's a junior and is the fastest and strongest girl on the team for the past two years. She always brings a smile and a hard swing as she plays outside hitter for us. She loves to run and lift weights and it's her fitness example that has inspired the other girls to try and match her intensity in this area. Mabrisa is a junior and is another utility player for us. She's fast, strong, and ultra competitive. She has an amazing jump serve that she continues to develop and perfect year after year. She's the constant talker on court and brings the other players up around her." The team lost its first two matches but then won its next 13 as it grew more confident and finished 11-1 in region.

ALL TOP SEEDS LEAD THE WAY IN 1A

By: Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

ST. DAVID: “I honestly feel like we have a lot of leaders in many different ways this year, but our three seniors, Mayla Trejo, Anissa Jacquez, and Halee Deskins, have all been reliable leaders,” coach Breana Tillett said. “All three of them stay positive and lift their teammates up. They lead by example and are constantly pushing themselves and others to become better. Mayla takes control of the game as a setter and is a smart player with a calming presence on the court. Anissa steps it up at the net and is a player we can always rely on. Halee is constantly talking to people from the back row and is always encouraging them.” Another leader is freshmen setter Emma Hart, who despite her age is a ‘calming presence’ and has a big role on the team. Gracey Crockett has also stepped up. “All of the girls have stepped it up this year and have grown in one way or another and it’s been really neat to see each of their improvements and as well confidence grow within themselves and in each other,” coach added. “They are a fun group of girls and it’s noticeable on the court.”

CICERO PREP: The three senior captains, setter Tamara Mekoba, outside Ava Caggiano and libero Halle Hwang are the team’s biggest leaders on the team. “Tamara makes incredible plays out of anything she is given,” coach Kirsten Frey said. “She leads through action, constantly adjusting to her team and pushing her hitters to be the best they can be. Nobody gives more than Tamara on the court. She makes the position look easy, but do not be fooled, that ease has been earned through countless hours of work and dedication to the craft. “Ava is one of the most competitive people I know with a heart of gold. She is constantly pushing her teammates to excel and offering words of wisdom when needed. While she is always seeking victory, she does not lose sight of what it means to be a good sportsman. It is not uncommon to see her cheering on the other team when they make an impressive play, highlighting her love for the game and good competition. Halle has shown the most growth out of anyone on our team. She is all over the back row, picking up balls that the average player would give up on. In true libero fashion, she has taken charge of our back row, making sure everyone is on the same page and ready to defend anything that comes their way.” Team finished higher than any 1A team at the Epic Tourney.

MOGOLLON: “Our team is made up of all junior and seniors this year so there are a lot of leaders on the court,” coach Valerie Reynolds said. “Our libero Kindsey Porter stands out. She is a great player all around. She is always positive and wants to make everyone better. We haven’t had too many obstacles this year. The girls are all friends and they all get along." The team went undefeated during its region championship run and had success against teams in higher conferences.

*Despite graduating some starters after last year's state championship run, Rock Point managed to earn the No. 2 seed in the 2022 tournament.

NORTH VALLEY CHRISTIAN: That was quite some turnaround North Valley Christian is enjoying. The team was 7-24, finishing at the bottom of 1A, but was 19-9 entering the tournament and won its region this season. They are led by junior captain Sami Kist, a three-year varsity player who suffered a season ending injury her sophomore year. "She has always worked hard to connect the players and help the coaches keep the players disciplined and focused," said third-year coach Cory Romine said. "This season she came back stronger and more motivated. She is a huge part of our state ranking. Being a young program, the struggle has been 'experience.' Each year we have had more volleyball interest, more summer camp attendees and more girls playing club volleyball. This year we really just committed harder to being excellent in everything we did, and we were rewarded by our obedience to the daily process. The biggest part of our success was developing a winning culture, pursuing excellence on and off the court. We worked harder at culture and 'vibe' and that translated in practices and matches. We finished region with a 7-1 record, winning a region championship. We also finished 15-3 overall in conference, which led to a top-10 ranking all year."

NORTH PHOENIX PREP: "We have four major leaders on the court, Sophie Ulrich, Yana Konstantinov Ana-Sofia Fernandez and Sam Daniels," coach Summer Anderson said. "We wouldn't be the team we are today without those athletes. The contributions they bring to practice and games is what got NPX this far this season. Sophie and Yana are our team captains this year and led the team with the most kills. Ana-Sofia leads the team in the back row with digs and aces. Lastly, Sam our setter leads in assists." The team had to overcome its share of injuries. "Even with one of our key players getting injured early on in the season, then again later in the season, has been a challenge for this team," Anderson said. "Then, also dealing with the little injuries here and there that have held us back as well." Despite the injuries, the team won the Epic Tournament's Bronze Division.

ROCK POINT: The two players remaining from last year's championship team, Taylyn Woody and Kamry Yazzie, are the team's leaders. "Taylyn leads by example," coach Kyle Arthur said. "Every day at practice she works hard, gives her best effort, and exhibits a strong work ethic that the younger classmen feed off. During games, she has the ability to adapt to different game situations and opponents and that has been crucial to our team's offense. Volleyball can be a mentally and physically demanding sport, but she makes it look easy. Yazzie is another resilient player, even in the heat of a game, she will bounce back quickly for her team. She is very trustworthy, and trust is vital in a team setting. She is honest, both on and off the court. Lastly, her focus and concentration, She maintains it during matches and practices, and that has helped us during tough game situations. Winning back-to-back championships led to the unrealistic demand for perfection, said coach about one of the obstacles the team had to cross. "This constant intensity in defending a championship lead to burnout, both mentally and physically, as maintaining a high level of performance over an extended period is a formidable task," Arthur said. Despite the hurdles, the team collectively cultivated a competitive spirit, with the coaching staff and returning players leading the way. "This spirit served as a powerful motivator, inspiring our younger athletes to consistently give their utmost in both games and practices, emphasizing that every effort counts, regardless of the final outcome," coach said. "Our journey has been a testament to the power of determination and teamwork."

DUNCAN: "We really worked all season on developing each of our Wildkat athletes to be a leader of some sort," coach Kassi Mortenson said. "This year our stand out leaders were easily our three seniors. The three, Karly Coats, Aubrey Evans and Rachel Sumner, have played Wildkat volleyball for their entire careers. It has been a real honor to watch each of them grow as leaders, as athletes and as young women." Karly is the starting opposite and setter, Aubrey is one of the team's best defenders, and Rachel's confidence is at an all-time high, coach said. "Karly has really come a long way in earning the respect of her peers and the younger girls this year and has worked hard to develop her toolkit for different hits, dumps and sets," coach said. "She's become such a consistent opposite hitter, server, and player, we know we can always count on her to be there and do her job. Aubrey can play all the way around the court and is hands down one of our best servers, but her real talent is in reading the play. She can call a play faster than any of our coaches and isn't afraid to direct her teammates where to go and what to do. She's also one of our most positive leaders. She is always supportive, always trying to lift everyone up. Rachel has struggled with confidence in years past and this year has fully owned her spot as starting setter and taken charge of our offense. She too is a consistent, talented server and has worked hard this year to be a positive influence for her team and the community. Rachel does well on the block and has improved in her setter coverage so much we are always confident with her starting in the back row. Duncan is one of the smallest 1A schools but had 50 girls come out for Wildkat (6th- 12th grades). The program used to struggle getting players to try out. A new little Wildkat was added to its family when one of the assistant coaches had her first baby girl. "Our biggest accomplishment has been the camaraderie with this team of girls," coach said.

Quarterfinal notes

Kai Mortensen was averaging 5.0 kills per set and was her team's blocks leader for Williams. Adilene Martinez was nearing 900 assists. Kyleigh Amos was the passing leader. ... Aiyana Hammon had a .429 hitting percentage for El Capitan/Centennial Academy.
