Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

HARD TO ARGUE: TWO-TIME DEFENDING CHAMP O'CONNOR, THREE-TIME DEFENDING CHAMP SALPOINTE CATHOLIC ARE THE FAVORITES

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

OC Beach has a Southern California ring to it, but the initials belong to the top-ranked sand program in the Arizona desert, Sandra Day O'Connor.

The thirst for wins and rings hasn't dissipated for the program since becoming the queen of the beach two seasons ago. Prior to the power shift in Division I, Xavier Prep ruled for nearly a decade.

Besides the success, coach Jamey Spartz, the architect of OC Beach, has also created a welcoming culture.

"It's a fun atmosphere," she said. "We are there for each other. It's about us, and it's not about me."

A product of the OC Beach way is Piper Rama, an indoor and outdoor power house whose stellar high school career will end after the 2024 pairs state tournament.

If OC and Rama and her talented partner, Devyn Wiest, win out, Rama will compile one of the best runs by a volleyball player in the state. The senior has a chance to finish with six indoor and outdoor titles and a 74-2 beach record.

"It's going to be hard to replace her," Spartz said. "She has just dominated and makes the game look so easy. It's hard to strategize against her. She doesn't get off kilter and stays composed. She's intense and brings a fire but is also very calm and exudes confidence. She is humble and a leader for my program."

Spartz has also enjoyed watching the Rama-Wiest partnership develop as well.

"Devyn and Piper are like two peas in a pod," Spartz said. "They are so fun to watch. They have this incredible synergy and connection."

Sandra Day O'Connor is hoping two of its teams reach the D-I pairs final just like last year, when Rama and Wiest defeated teammates Olivia LeBlanc and Liana Huesca for the title.

Like Rama and Wiest, OC's No. 2's, Katie Lambeth and Delaney Singleton, are also undefeated and gifted.

OC is ranked sixth nationally by MaxPreps and is undefeated as a team. It did drop two sets, one to Desert Vista and the other was a flight disqualification to Boulder Creek.

But the disqualification was well worth it. The match against Boulder Creek was rescheduled due to weather, but Lambeth couldn't attend that match because of a recruiting trip.

She eventually committed to Stephen F. Austin.

Those numbers represent Salpointe Catholic's beach flight record, excluding regular season tournaments, in the past three seasons.

As the power program readies to for another state team tournament run, it bears repeating that the Lancers' top-5 pairs teams, over the past three years, haven't dropped a non-regular season tournament match.

"It's baffling even to me and testament to the girls," Salpointe coach Heather Moore said. "They are willing to grind it out no matter what or who is in front of them."

This year's seniors are 'reaping' the benefits of learning and competing against last year's senior class, beginning with Megan Muehlebach, one of the most competitive players Moore has coached during her 34 indoor and outdoor seasons.

"Megan is a special player," coach said. "The fire from her, it's been awesome. But she is also a great example of grace and kindness. She is such a great teammate."

Another outstanding senior, Sophia Hernandez, is also flexing her strengths and hasn't dropped a set with Muehlebach by her side.

"Sophia, Megan, Hannah (Kynaston), Lauren (Jones), and Grace (Utz), they are our senior leaders now," Moore said.

This is the first time that Jones and Utz have cracked Salpointe's top-5.

Salpointe's 4's quadrupled their efforts in the offseason, and it paid off for the partnership during the regular season.

In the pairs state D-II tournament, Salpointe's No. 2's, sophomore Kike Muehlebach, Megan's sister, and junior Eleanor Sharp, also are capable of reaching that final.

Besides its loaded roster, Salpointe also carries an excellent coaching staff, including Moore's husband, Keith, one of Southern Arizona's all-time volleyball greats, and former Salpointe and Pima Community College star, Jalynn Ransom. Moore has won more than 500 matches during her decorated career.

"Beach is fun," Moore said. "And it adds to the longevity."

It sounds like Moore isn't stepping down any time soon.

Not when Salpointe beach volleyball is firing on all cylinders.

Desert Ridge's Lorenzo, Alexander having fun in the sun

Even when they accidentally mess up, the bond between Natalie Lorenzo and Lucci Alexander only grows.

Last season, during a match, the dynamic duo ran into each other while chasing a ball and fell simultaneously to the sand. Neither one immediately got up or upset.

Instead, they laughed and laughed and laughed some more until the referee told them to get up and play.

"Natalie is such a goofball off and on the court," Alexander said. "She always makes me laugh. She brings that balance in me, because I'm super competitive."

Alexander and Lorenzo wouldn't mind if the fun continued until the very end of this beach season, as this will be the final playoff hurrah for the undefeated pairs Division I team.

Alexander is graduating this year after a superb four-year career. The powerful net nemesis of opponents is likely the first Arizona high school beach player to reach 50 career wins.

The Lorenzo sisters, Natalie and Caprice, helped Alexander reach the lofty mark. Caprice, now a University of Hawaii beach player, and Alexander reached the D-I semis pairs two seasons ago.

Last year, Alexander and Natalie's season ended in the same place.

"We are really hungry to be able to push through the semis," Alexander said.

Since she was nine, Alexander has made ball dents on the sand.

The 6-foot star is training with former Grand Canyon director of sports medicine Geordie Hackett, and her strong work ethic and skills have not gone unnoticed.

"Lucci is very versatile and understands how to adapt to the opponent," Sandra Day O'Connor coach Jamey Spartz said. "She is calm and collected and knows how to take the pressure of her partner, adjusts quickly and blocks. She's a very well-rounded player."

One of the rewards for Alexander's sacrifices came last year when she committed to play beach at Arizona State.

But before she becomes a Sand Devil, Alexander wants to exit high school with a beach ring along with her court jester, Natalie.

Sharing another laugh or two is likely on the agenda as well.

Rise of the Titans

Over the past two seasons, Arizona has seen the emergence of the Titans of Arcadia on the sand.

He won't take credit for the recent success, but it's no coincidence that Arcadia's beach evolution coincides with Adrian Chang taking over. For the first time in Arcadia's nine beach seasons, the Titans, in 2023 and 24, reached the double figure victory mark.

"We have a young and talented and motivated team," Chang said. "They are hungry and always want to learn and achieve more."

Prior to becoming Arcadia's head coach, Chang served as an assistant under Peter McGloin and his state championship program at Fountain Hills.

In his seventh year as a math teacher at Arcadia, Chang is aware of the talent and depth on his campus. Arcadia's 4's, Elle Marshall-Inman and Avery Nadolski, are each 9-3 this season and are providing some much needed leadership as the only seniors on the squad.

In the last couple of weeks, Arcadia's No. 1 pairing of Alexa Helms and Lance Sheedy have started to click in their first season as a team, Chang said. Helms, a sophomore, has the tools to become an outstanding libero, Chang added.

Sheedy, a junior who started playing beach last year, is still tapping into her potential. At 6-3, Sheedy already puts up a big block.

Helms and Sheedy's only loss this season came to the undefeated pair of Ava Cotton and Arizona State-bound Bella Reyes. Helping set the tone on game day for Chang's squad are his No. 5's, Tessa Dwyer-Kim and Kinsey Hunkins.

The sophomores were undefeated up until their final regular season match, a 22-20, 21-16 loss to Northwest Christian's Olivia Barron and Julianna Larson. Hunkins tore an ACL during a ski trip but rehabbed tirelessly to get back in volleyball form.

Arcadia is 25-3 over the last two seasons and reached the state semis last year for the first time in school history. Prior to its final regular season 3-2 loss to Northwest Christian, Arcadia was ranked 18th nationally by MaxPreps.

With all of the young talent on the team, Chang and his squad are establishing a solid sand volleyball foundation.

Pairs Notes

Queen Creek's Tatum Riggs and Elle Evers have won 22 of their 27 sets. "They understand the game on a deeper level," coach Stefany Pew said. "Elle definitely brings leadership by way of example and verbally, and Tatum brings grit and determination. They both bring the same passion and heart to the court and respect each other's game. It hasn't come easy. Just because two of your best players are partners, doesn't mean that it will be an easy successful pairing. They have had to come to understand each other's physical and mental game through some bumps in the road. But we are thankful for the rough times because it helped smooth out their wrinkles and come together as one in every way." ... Saguaro's Ava Cotton and Bella Reyes are one of only two remaining undefeated partners in D-II. "Ava and Bella are just all-around amazing kids," coach David Mietzner said. "Both are tremendous athletes, have a great work ethic and are extraordinarily intelligent girls on and off the court." ... Trivium Prep's Natalie Guerrero and Ryan Poyner went 10-0 during the regular season. "Ryan and Natalie make a great team because they have unparalleled communication, amazing defense, and the best ball control I've seen at this level all season," coach Jason Poyner said. "Natalie is a state champion and Division I college recruit for indoor volleyball at libero. She has transferred those ball control skills and her court awareness instincts to the beach almost seamlessly, which is not an easy thing to accomplish. Ryan is a state champion indoor volleyball player at the setter position. Like Natalie, she also has great ball control skills, but is more recognized for her beach game in Arizona. Although they don't tower over their opponents in the height department, don't let their size fool you. They are contenders."
