Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

DIVISION II PREVIEW

By Andy Morales
AZPreps365.com

University of Oregon commit Landen LeBlond of Millennium leads the state in the 800 meters, 1600 meters and the 3200 meters this spring, and the senior standout is coming off a cross country season in which she was named the 2023-24 Gatorade Arizona Girls Cross Country Player of the Year.

LeBlond won the Division II Cross Country meet with a time of 18:46.2, but she also recorded a time of 17:43.8 earlier in the year. She won the 1600 at the inaugural All-State Track Meet last year with a time of 4:55 and was leading the 3200 with a bit over one lap remaining, but she left the race with cramping in her lower back.

LeBlond has worked through some minor hip issues this spring, but she appears to be ready to go.

"I haven't had any hip pain at all so I feel really strong," LeBlond told Logan Stanley of the Arizona Republic. "I've been having really good workouts these past two weeks"

LeBlond was recruited to Oregon during her junior racing season where she shined in distances not competed at the high school level like the Mile Run.

"I am beyond excited to announce my verbal commitment to the University of Oregon," LeBlond wrote on social media. "This is seriously a dream come true, that I wouldn't have been able to achieve without the trust of God, my coaches, and the support from family and friends! Thank you to Coach Flanagan and Coach Schumacher for this wonderful opportunity! So stoked for this next chapter."

LeBlond runs with the knowledge that her mental state is as important, or even more important, than her physical health and she is putting herself in the right mindset entering state competition.

"I think working with my confidence and just anything else dealing with mental strategies was really important to me. I just accepted the fact that I had an injury so I was just kind of 'what can I do for myself right now to make myself better during state?' I think that just kind of show how strong I am going into state."

Other athletes to look out for are North Canyon standout Devyn Henderson, who lead in the 100 meters, 200 meters and 400 meters. Diego Aguirre-Stewart of Millennium leads in the 200, 400 and 300 meter hurdles.

Donovan Bitticks of Horizon leads in the 800, 1600, and 3200. Canyon View standout Annaleise Taylor leads in the 100 and 300 hurdles. Like LeBlond, Taylor is headed to compete for Oregon.

Mountain Pointe won the boys D-II team championship last year, Campo Verde took runner-up and Canyon View was third. North canyon won the girls team championship, Campo Verde took second and Williams Field was third.

North Canyon has won the last six state championships dating back to 2017 and the team could tie Queen Creek with seven overall in Division II competition.

DIVISION III PREVIEW

AZPreps365.com

The 2024 Track and Field season has hit the mark... and then some.

State records have fallen throughout the year. A senior making headlines and reaching new heights is pole vaulter Taylor Searle from ALA-Queen Creek.

Searle was unknown before the school year because he moved to Arizona from Montana last summer. Now he is approaching legendary status.

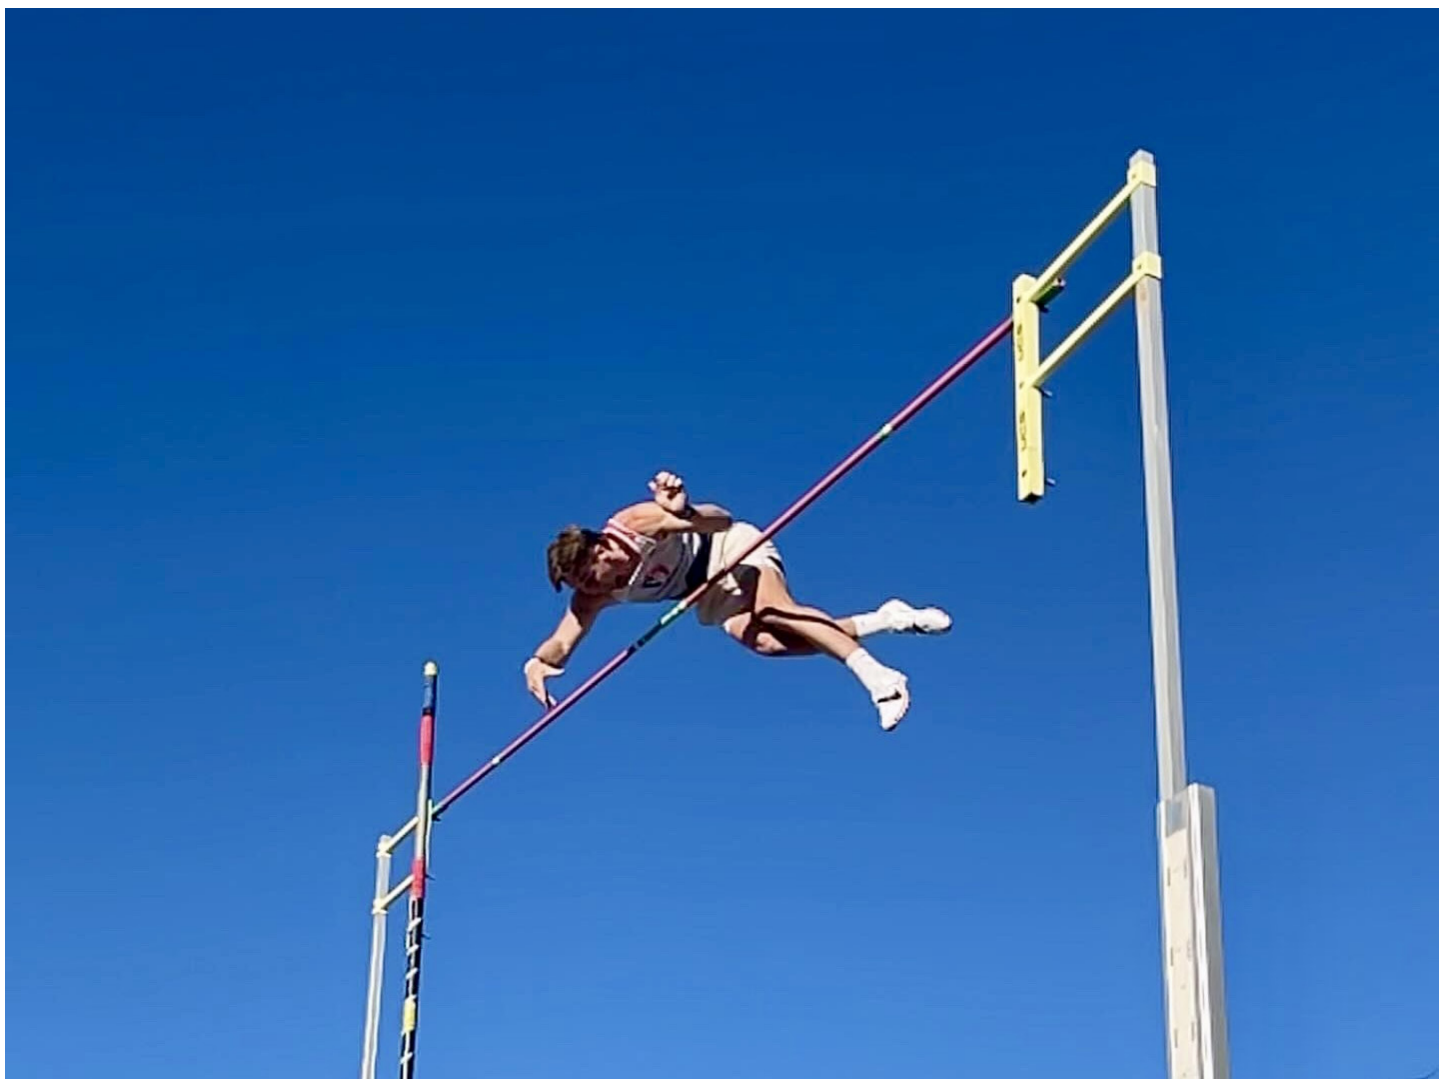

After a productive football season as a wide receiver, Searle immediately established himself as the state's top pole vaulter by clearing 17' 3" at Corona del Sol's Aztec Invitational. Seventeen feet is an elite mark in high school pole vaulting, one in which few have reached in Arizona.

Searle cleared 17' 2" at the prestigious Chandler Rotary Invitational, and more recently set a personal record of 17' 6" at Seton Catholic's Last Chance event. That was only one inch shy of the current state record (17' 7") set by Valley Vista's Cole Riddle in 2017.

Searle didn't have many chances to compete outdoors in Montana, and says he is grateful for the move to Arizona and the opportunities it has afforded his pole vaulting career.

"The atmosphere at the Chandler Rotary was amazing," Searle said. "I've never competed in front of a crowd like that."

Searle will continue his career at Brigham Young, but first has his sights set on breaking the Arizona record in front of a state championship crowd.

DIVISION III PREVIEW

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.

In 1997, Christie Winkle of Washington set the 4A record for a 100-meter dash at 11.66.

These days, schools function under a divisional format in the state track and field events, but nevertheless, that 11.66 is still a goal to strive for.

Violet Williams, a junior track star from Prescott, won gold in the 100 meter as a freshman with a 12.41 time and now enters the 2024 Girls State Track and Field Championships with a 12.11 personal best.

Only Stacey Onyepunuka from Agua Fria is ahead of her with a 11.70 mark, which could make championship weekend May 3-4 at Deer Valley High School in Glendale all the more interesting.

The junior also sits third in the 200-meter qualifier with a 25.28 time, not far behind Onyepunuka's 23.61.

Williams' development as a sophomore was stalled due to an ACL injuring during soccer season that sidelined her for nearly a year.

The 4.0 GPA student said she's "proud" of how far she's come since the injury.

"That's what one of the hardest things I had to push through. My recovery was nine months to a year. I was in denial for so long, I was just trying to keep going, push past it. But after surgery, it hits you," Williams said. "And at six months in, you feel fine. You feel you can go out there. But everyone is telling you no, you can't, you're not ready."

That turned the ultra-competitive Williams into making her feel "unsure" of herself.

"You never know if you're going to be that fast again. It was really rough; I know some people handle it better. I know it took a toll on me," Williams said. "Sophomore year was rough."

So when she was able to start training again, and ran a personal best 12.11 in the 100 meter in her first competitive race, she was beside herself.

"I had chills for myself," Williams said. "I'm proud of myself for getting back to where I was my freshman year. So, I'm focused on being happy with the progress from that. I love competition, so I like to see how far I can go."

Williams, who spends her free time hiking, backpacking, skiing, climbing, rafting, and anything else "outdoorsy" as she put it, plans to pursue environmental engineering in college.

"I can do well in English, but I'd rather take a math class, I know that sounds terrible," Williams said with a laugh. "It's AP season, so I'm studying and trying to get reason for state so it's kind of stressful."

That "stress" is channeled into competition, Williams said.

"Being athletic and using my body to exercise, it's super important. It makes me feel better. When I'm stressed out, it's a way to filter my mind," Williams said, "I excel at track. Doing well at races isn't the only thing. I like to see how far I can push myself. I'm super competitive, for better or worse."

DIVISION IV PREVIEW

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

In search of redemption after suffering an injury last spring that forced him out of competition at the Division IV Track and Field State Championships, Quenton Metz is ready to run for glory in 2024.

"It was very disappointing because I had to sit out the last half of track season. But after that, my spark for running came back," Metz said.

The Chino Valley senior qualified for four state events May 3-4 at Red Mountain High School in Mesa, including the 1,600- and 3,200-meter run, and the 4x400- and 4-800-meter relays.

His 3,200 time of 9:25.62 is only a breath away from Page standout Symond Martin's 9:16.13 mark this year, so making the podium isn't out of the question for Metz.

"My focus before state is to fine tune my running. I want to stay healthy and prevent injuries," Metz said, who added that breaking the 10-minute mark in the 3,200 is one of his favorite memories during his track career.

"I was super excited since this was a goal I had all of high school," Metz said about his Distance in the Desert preseason event effort of 9:48.

And now, he's clocked a 9:25.62 personal best, a new school record.

The cross country runner, who has qualified for state in all four years as a Cougar in that sport, features a 4:23.52 time in the 1,600, and is part of a 4x400 team at 3:27.89, and has a 8:21.98 time in the 4x800.

With those marks, Metz could medal in four events come May 4 in Mesa.

Many of these times aren't surprising to his father, Marc Metz, current head track and field coach for Chino Valley. After all, he and his wife Catherine met at Yavapai College where they ran cross-country together before running competitively for Grand Canyon University.

Catherine, of course, always has the upper hand in family arguments as to who the best runner of them all is. She claimed a 4A state title for Arcadia in the 3,200 in 1994.

Her son, Quenton, hopes to change that.

A four-year Superintendent's List recipient with a 4.0 GPA and current vice president of Chino Valley's National Honor Society, Metz said his dad is a great coach.

"He always pushes me to go run more and to run on weekends, when he rides his bike or even runs with me," Metz said, adding his mom Catherine coached him in middle school.

"I have been coached by both of my parents my entire running career," Metz said, begging his father to give him harder workout this year.

"I wanted my times to improve."

Hopefully, all that work will pay off.

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!

DIVISION V PREVIEW

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

The once shy Kimi Cahoon blossomed into an extraordinary young lady.

She became the epitome of a student-athlete during her nearly completed four-years at Phoenix Country Day School. Along the way, she discovered a different passion, which Cahoon is now thriving in.

But regardless of where finishes in her final laps, she is winning where it counts, in the fast-paced race called life. Cahoon entered PCDS as a basketball player but will exit as one of the state's best distance runners.

She is ranked first in the state in the 3,200 meters. Not bad for a D-V athlete.

Her 10:37.53 in the event is 13 seconds faster than the next best time. Cahoon also ranks in the top four in the 1,600 meters, with just three seconds separating the four.

In the classroom, where PCDS doesn't use the weighted GPA system, Cahoon's carries a 3.99 GPA.

An A- she received in her calculus plus class is keeping her from a 4.0, but Cahoon isn't losing sleep over the calculus grade. It sure didn't keep her from earning an appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy, where she will continue her running career.

But more importantly, she will study mechanical engineering so she can one day work in prosthetics and help bring some 'joy and independence' through medical device mobility.

It's quite amazing what Cahoon's transformed into. She started running as a freshman, but it wasn't until her sophomore year that long distance running sprinted into her heart.

"I love it," the senior said about running. "It is an outlet for me and provides me the space to be my most authentic self."

From her freshman to her senior campaigns, she finished fourth, third, second and first in that order in the D-4 cross country state championships.

Cahoon led her team to a team cross country title her junior season and is the defending D-V 3,200, 1,600 and 800 meter champ. Last year, she defeated the favorite, Glendale Prep's Zoe Rich, by two one-hundredth of a second in the 800 in one of Cahoon's most memorable races.

This season, she was invited to the prestigious Arcadia meet in California for the first time, where she PR'd (10:37.53) in the 3,200 to place seventh in the seeded race. Cahoon still had her basketball fill, playing for a state title team in 2023.

But running and her smarts is what makes this mature student-athlete's future look so promising.

As for her past, she's extremely thankful that she enrolled at PCDS.

"I was going to go to a public school, but I can say Phoenix Country Day was the right choice for me academically, socially and athletically," Cahoon said. "It has changed my life. I used to be shy and guarded, and sports have allowed me to have this new found confidence. I am forever grateful for my coaches. They are considerate and kind people who have changed my life. If I had one word to describe my high school experience, it would be grateful."

Notes

Glendale Prep's Sofia Boonzaayer is No. 2 in the state in the shot put and No. 6 in the discus. "Sofia's remarkable success this season is a result of her passion towards the sport," her coach Eric Webdale said. "She obviously has natural talent, but her dedication and work ethic have raised her to the next level. I feel that commitment, along with her ability to adapt and learn, have been the biggest reasons for her remarkable year."

... Arizona Lutheran's Emma Ohm is ranked seventh in the state in the triple jump. "Emma is the type of athlete that coaches love to have on their team," coach Matthew Heyn said. "She is very coachable, hard-working and full of natural talent. With those three characteristics and her love for competing, she is having a great season." ... Round Valley's Sydnee Finch, last year's Open shot put champ as a freshman, is currently ranked third in the state in the event. "It has been a good year for her," Round Valley coach Tom Pifer said. "She has had some little bumps this year, with a few injuries. She had a throw of 42' 9 at Chandler and won it." ...

North Phoenix Prep's Jonah Pearson has the sixth best time in the state in the 1,600 meters. "This season he has consistently hit 60 mile weeks, doubling five days a week, morning and night," coach Brad Curtis said. "Along with this, he has been persistent in getting eight hours of sleep per night and balancing that with a healthy nutrition plan. Jonah spent the winter months getting his mile race times down and now it is showing as he broke our school record with a 4:17.47 mile, 4:16.13 1600m. This season he was able to take 10 seconds off his previous best mark. He is excited to compete in the D-V championship and hoping to compete at the AIA State championships this year."
