Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

FAVORITES IN DIVISIONS I & II CAN'T AFFORD TO REST ON LAURELS

In 2022, the Huskies recorded one of the state's biggest badminton achievements after snapping Perry's state record five-year team championship reign. In 2023, Hamilton, seeded No. 1, seemed poised to defend its title and complete an undefeated season.

But perennial power Sunnyslope spoiled Hamilton's plans after eking out a 5-4 title triumph.

"We were in blurry mode last year in the final," Hamilton coach Lauren Rosales said. "We want to be in portrait mode this year."

Rosales' team has been focused since Day 1 this year, finishing the regular season 14-0 and earning the No. 1 seed once again in Division I.

This season, Hamilton avenged last year's lone loss, defeating Sunnyslope (No. 2 D-I seed) 7-2. This year's Huskies returned four varsity starters, including sophomore Katheryn Yi, who along with her partner took the state runner-up trophy in doubles last year.

Another ace in Hamilton's lineup is junior Nihiray Sane, who went undefeated in No. 1 singles and doubles this year. Hamilton's No. 3, sophomore Hayley Koh, also hasn't dropped a match this season.

Like last year, Hamilton also possesses some talented young players who appear prepared to handle the pressure moments. Those young players didn't flinch in their most competitive match of the season, when Hamilton beat Perry 5-4 in front of rowdy road crowd.

Perry's boys basketball team, the defending Open champ, was rooting for its classmates to pull off the upset but Hamilton persevered, clinching the match when Yi and sophomore doubles partner Shreya Deshpande won 14-21, 21-18, 21-10. It may be undefeated, but Hamilton isn't taking anything for granted, a lesson it learned the hard way last year.

"It will be very competitive in each state race," Rosales said. "It's not cut and dry."

Who will falter first in D-II?

The consensus is that it's a three-team race in Division II this season. But history tells us differently.

Ironwood, the champion three of the last four years, is seeded second this season. The Eagles are 12-2 but dropped its only matches to Division I's favorites this year, Hamilton and Sunnyslope.

Hamilton also gave D-II's No. 1 seed, Chaparral, its only team loss of the season. Arizona College Prep, the No. 3 D-II seed, has yet to also lose to a D-II team this year.

But D-II's top seeds can't get too comfortable.

"I have seen crazy things happen at state," Ironwood coach Brett Stafford said. "At state, it can get unpredictable."

Helping bring some stability to Stafford's 2024 unit is returning varsity players No. 1 Madison Nguyen (26-2), No. 2 Sasha Tijore (25-2), No. 3 Alyssa Ridgley (21-3 overall), and No. 5 Mariyah Peru-Ray (25-3 overall).

Those players along with No. 6 Alexis Jones are seniors. Ridgley and Tijore won 12 of its 13 doubles matches.

After some extra offseason work, Tijore made the biggest jump this year on her team, moving from No. 5 to No. 2. The senior came equipped with racquet skills as a state tennis participant.

One of Ironwood's other commodities this season is chemistry.

The nest of the Eagles has been harmonious all year.

"It's so nice," Tijore said. "We are so close and get to spend our time together. We love each other so much."

Sunnyslope 78-0 in region last 12 years

Sunnyslope, the reigning Division I team champ, has not lost a region match in the last 12 years.

The program is 78-0 during that span under coach Sara Schlesinger, a four-time state champ. Her program is 13-1 this year, with its only defeat coming against No. 1 seed Hamilton on Sep. 5.

"I think the big thing is that we need to believe we can do it, and we need to stay in the game from the first point," said Schlesinger about her team's only loss. "They can do well if they just play hard every rally and get that bird back one more time."

Schlesinger's daughter, Annabelle, is her No. 1 singles player.

The senior is 9-5 overall, 18-11 in sets.

"Annabelle has beautiful shots," Schlesinger said. "Her smash is super powerful, and she has great finesse shots as well. She can compete with the best of them."

Seniors Eleni Economopoulos and Addie Orihuela are 8-5 overall, 17-10 in sets as Sunnyslope's No. 1 doubles team.

"They have played together for most of the four years on the team, and they have great chemistry," coach said. "Both girls react quickly and play very tough, so they do a great job together."

Shrivastava's checking her list twice

All of the sacrifices Desert Vista's Lekha Shrivastava made in the offseason were rewarded during her undefeated regular season.

Now it's time to check off her biggest objective—a state title.

"I think that Lekha took to heart her previous season and recognized that she certainly has the ability to meet whatever goal she sets for herself," said Shrivastava's dad, Aviral, who also coaches her. "She sets a challenge for herself before each match and works on that challenge through each set. She has also grown so much in confidence, and the work she put in over the offseason months shows on the court."

As the No. 2 seed, Shrivastava reached last year's singles final but lost 21-13, 21-16 to the No. 1 seed, Samiya Bodhankar of Hamilton.

But after two state quarterfinal endings during her first years on varsity, Shrivastava's runner-up finish last year was welcomed.

The senior has been Desert Vista's No. 1 since her freshman year.

"Lekha has definitely grown as a player, and her mental growth with respect to competition has really flourished," Aviral said. "She set some personal goals for herself, and is checking them off the list. She is steady and true to herself, which are wonderful traits."

That mental growth is evident when Shrivastava makes a mistake, which isn't often.

When things go awry she no longer dwells on it.

"I always strive to be better than the last time I played and this drive allows me to continue improving," Shrivastava said.

D-I's dark horse?

Boulder Creek's Japneet Kaur may end up surprising this year's Division I singles field.

The sophomore lost to the eventual state runner-up, Desert Vista's Lekha Shrivastava, in the opening round of state last year. This year, Kaur is 13-0 and hasn't dropped a set, allowing just three opponents to score in double digits.

"She practices with her dad quite a bit and truly has a passion for the sport," Boulder Creek coach Darcy Wine said.

Kaur is no stranger to racquet sports, having won the Division I singles tennis title last year after defeating her tennis doubles partner, Michelle Bullock, in the final.

"Japneet thrives at No. 1 due to her passion and concentration," Wine said. "She is strong and has an incredibly accurate and powerful smash shot."

In doubles, Kaur made sure her teammate, freshman Tatum Ducey, felt at home while they finished 8-3 during the regular season.

"Tatum was new to high school competition, and Japneet served as her friend and role model," coach said. "She was encouraging and always kept positive with Tatum in doubles and encouraged and supported her all her team members whether they were winning or losing. She is a focused and dedicated athlete who believes in herself and her teammates even during tough matches."

Ready to rebound

Last season, as the sixth seed, Mesa Mountain View's Sophie Castleton was upset in three sets in the second round of state.

This season, the junior, it seems, is on a mission to atone for last year's heartbreak. Castleton dropped only one of her 28 singles and doubles sets this season.

"Sophie thrives at No. 1 because she treats everything like a challenge," coach Julie Stone said. "She knows what it takes to win and be successful and knows that victory isn't ever guaranteed. She looks outside of herself as a player and analyzes the game coming from her opponent."

Mountain View's No. 1 singles player also looks out for others.

"You can always count on her to lift others around her up and to make everyone feel important and included," said Stone of Castleton, who is also an AP student.

Notes

Campo Verde's Victoria Crabbe and Taylor Lee went 12-1 at No. 1 doubles. Crabbe also went 12-1 in singles. According to her coach, Crabbe is also a "savage" on the soccer field. Lee's footwork as a former softball player has allowed her to succeed on badminton courts. "They are open to constructive criticism and feedback to improve their play and strategy," Campo Verde coach Isabel Holloway said. "Every time they get on the court they never back down from a challenge and use their mental toughness to keep themselves focused and positive. We are lucky as a team to have had them with us for all four years of their high school career." ...

Arizona College Prep's Abby Iyer and Jing Liu were the only No. 1 doubles team not to drop a set in Division II this season. ... Softball star Payton Westra, a University of Oklahoma commit, is Red Mountain's No. 1 singles player. She helped her program win the East Valley Region this year.
