Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It's up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA's inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

WIDE OPEN 3A FOOTBALL PLAYOFF BRACKET WILL BE ENTERTAINING TO SAY THE LEAST

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

One of the themes that 3A football coaches regularly highlighted during conversations with colleagues and local media outlets across the state of Arizona this fall was how the parity in their league was at its highest level in years.

Judging from the 3A state playoff bracket, which was released Nov. 2, these next four weeks could be one of the more entertaining high school football events to watch in Arizona, at any level.

And with defending champ Sabino not making the playoffs this year, and runner up Paradise Honors coming in at No. 12, it should be fun to watch.

MATCHUPS

No. 16 Page at No. 1 Benjamin Franklin

The Chargers (9-1, 4-0 3A Metro East) will have their hands full with one of the best quarterbacks in 3A football as Joseph Benally comes to town with No. 16-ranked Page.

Benally completed 177 of 303 passes for 2,462 yards and 33 touchdowns, by far and away tops in the state this year at the 3A level. Saul Mendez from Tempe was next closest with 26.

The Sand Devils (7-3, 5-0 3A North) may struggle offensively, however, considering five of their 10 games came out of the 3A North this season, which had only two teams above .500 and other than Monument Valley, Winslow (27), Ganado (29), Chinle (30) and Window Rock (36) were all ranked in the bottom half of the league.

Benjamin Franklin head coach Danny Norris said expects his program to compete at their highest level during the month of November, and their senior class has led by example.

"As we have proven all season, it's going to take all 48 minutes to compete with us and we will make our opponents earn everything they get," Norris said, adding that the 3A is "wide open" this year.

"There is more parity this season than I believe in most years," Norris said.

No. 15 Dysart at No. 2 ALA-West Foothills

Coach Chad Mitton expects his Guardians (10-0, 5-0 West) will compete for a 3A state championship. As the treated team in the conference, who could blame him.

ALA-West Foothills doesn't have a player on the team whose stats jump off the page, but J.J. Brutus, Hunter Cotton and Mathew Lee are ones to watch.

"There are a lot of good schools that will be in all the rounds," Mitton said. "I think right now, Thatcher is really good. Benjamin Franklin, Pusch Ridge and probably five other schools that can make a run. It will be competitive in all of the rounds."

No. 14 Gilbert Christian at No. 3 Thatcher

The Eagles (8-2, 3-1 3A South) come in at No. 3 this year and will look to spread the wealth, offensively, but fans can watch out for Kody Bingham, a senior who logged 87 yards for 788 yards and 12 touchdowns this year for Thatcher.

"Our team speed has been one of the things that has helped our team win," Thatcher coach Daniel Jones said.

A few key injuries might hinder the Eagles from reaching their goal of winning a state title, but Jones still feels they can make a "deep run."

No. 13 Blue Ridge at No. 4 Pusch Ridge

Lions senior quarterback Jacob Newborn completed 105 of 170 passes this year for 1,427 yards and 21 touchdowns, and he ran 64 times for 508 yards and 11 scores.

The dual-threat signal caller will be on display against a Blue Ridge (7-3, 1-3 3A East) club that surrendered just 11.5 points per game in 2024.

"Jacob is a very athletic dual threat at quarterback," Pusch Ridge coach Kent Middleton said. "He has great speed and agility and is very strong."

Pusch Ridge (9-1, 4-0 3A South) will have to content with one of the top running games in 3A featured by Karlo Harris, who had 191 carries for 1,376 yards and 10 touchdowns this year for the Yellow Jackets.

Notes

No. 5 Mohave was bitten by the injury bug when the lost quarterback Joe Yoney Jr. midway through the 2024 campaign, but Isac Urias has stepped up in his place, completed 23 of 48 passes for 364 yards and five touchdowns, including 974 yards on the ground and 14 scores. They face state runner up, No. 12 Paradise Honors. ... No. 6 Florence features tailback Malik Smith, who had 1,081 yards on 147 carries and 12 touchdowns this year for the 9-1 club. The 3A Central Region champs will face a tough Wickenburg club at No. 11. ... No. 7 River Valley intends on making some noise in these 3A playoffs, having given Mohave a game (lost 14-0) just three weeks ago and with running back Jayden Plotkin one of the best pound-for-pound runners in the state, the Dust Devils could be a sleeper pick for a quarterfinal. ... No. 8 ALA-Ironwood faces 3A East region champ Payson, one of the more complete teams in all three phases of the game in the conference, so they'll certainly be leaning on Aiden Williams, who ran for 1,684 yards and 21 touchdowns on 183 carries in 2024.

Senior RB Ridge Allen is hard to stop for Benjamin Franklin with 1,232 yards rushing and 17 TDs on the season. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)

2A'S TOP SEEDS ARE THIS SEASON'S SPIDER-MAN MEME

By Jose Garcia

AZPreps365.com

San Tan Charter, Tonopah Valley, Pima.

Each one can make a case for being the No. 1 team in the 2A Conference before the state tournament begins Friday. To begin, the Roadrunners of San Tan Charter garnered the top seed in the state tournament after completing an undefeated regular season for the first time.

They are led by a coach, Chase Cartwright, who in just three seasons turned his program into a contender. He's also made some adjustments after graduating four of his five leading scorers from last year's state semifinal team.

It helps that Division I-bound talent Uriah Neloms is still walking the school's halls. Neloms is an Arizona State wide receiver commit, but he was placed under center this season.

"Uriah's attention to detail and preparation have been impressive," said Cartwright about Neloms, the team's backup QB the previous two seasons.

Cartwright's crew, which was a play or two from reaching last year's final, opened this season with a statement, a 23-6 win over defending champ Scottsdale Christian, azpreps365's preseason No. 1.

Another undefeated team, No. 2 seed Tonopah Valley, also caught 2A's attention when it defeated Scottsdale Christian this year.

But the similarities don't end there. Like San Tan Charter, Tonopah Valley also went undefeated during the regular season for the first time.

And like San Tan Charter, it moved its 1,000-yard receiver from last year to QB this year.

Sir-izzik Sanchez Caldwell became a household name this year in Arizona after being just one of two signal callers to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the regular season. The move to QB allowed Tonopah Valley to utilize a physical force, 214-pound running Thomas Foilefutu, more often to bowl over defenders and score 24 touchdowns.

Tonopah Valley and San Tan Charter are this year's 2A version of the popular Spider-Man pointing meme, because Tonopah Valley is also managed by a third-year coach, Brett Davis, who is making waves.

Are the top-two, undefeated seeds on a championship collision course?

Other teams with state title aspirations may not think so. No. 3 seed Pima, the runner-up last year and state champ two years ago, also is capable of taking a bus trip to Mountain Pointe on Nov. 30 to lift the gold ball.

Pima lineman Brock Haws (6-2, 240 10.5 sacks, 73 tackles) and running back Jeremiah Martinez (6-1, 230-pounds, 1,444 rushing yards) are the attention-getters once they get off the bus. So is sophomore linebacker Joe Palmer (86 tackles), the team's leading tackler.

Pima (35-3 the last three years) also is aware of another state title contender, Scottsdale Christian. Despite some early season issues and a 1-3 start, the defending champ came close to handing Pima its first and only 2A loss this season.

But a final second fourth down touchdown pass saved the day in Pima's 20-17 home win on Oct. 11. Scottsdale Christian's offensive linemen are "starting to click" while protecting first-year quarterback Brian Helgeson.

In its regular season finale, Pima also was challenged by another preseason favorite, Santa Cruz. Pima defeated probably the most experienced 2A team, Santa Cruz, 29-22.

A Santa Cruz-Scottsdale Christian matchup is worthy of a state final, but they will meet in a must-watch first round 2A tournament game.

The aforementioned teams are the 2A favorites this year.

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.
