Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It's up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA's inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

6A VOLLEYBALL HEAVYWEIGHTS AIMING FOR CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

By: Ben Stapley
AZPreps365.com

The 6A volleyball postseason has arrived, and it shouldn't disappoint. With so many talented teams in the field, the tournament should provide sufficient drama and entertainment.

Can anyone take down defending champion O'Connor? Only Queen Creek and Xavier have managed to do so this year, and the Eagles are 63-3 over the last two seasons.

"There are so many powerful teams," says Corona del Sol coach Ben Maxfield.

"If you're considered a contender that's fine, but the most important thing is the next team and match ahead of you."

Maxfield knows a thing or two about the postseason since he took over in 2006. The Aztecs brought home championships in 2016 and 2022, and finished runner-up four other times over the last 18 years. Corona del Sol (34-6) is also one of the 'powerful teams' capable of capturing another championship trophy this season.

The No. 3 seed Aztecs are loaded with talent and experience from a squad that won 34 matches last season and reached the semifinals, falling 3-2 to Perry.

"That was a really tough loss," Maxfield said. After winning the title the year before, we really wanted a shot at a repeat, so getting that close was tough. I think that's helped out hunger this year."

Corona del Sol finished the regular season strong with wins over contenders Sunnyslope and Xavier. But the Aztecs also fell to 6A newcomer Millennium.

"The Millennium loss taught us a great lesson and it proved anything can happen on any given night," Maxfield said.

The Aztecs have the talent to make a lot happen on the court, starting with libero Erin Clark and outside hitter Alyssa Aguayo, Corona del Sol has a shot at another title run. Aguayo, an Illinois commit, led 6A with 430 kills during the regular season, giving her 1,465 for career, which puts her in the top 25 in Arizona history. Clark will head to Alabama and was a preseason All-American coming into this year, proving why with over 500 digs for the season. These seniors give the Aztecs an elite 1-2 punch.

Junior Hayden Connor is another dominant player at the net with 353 kills. At 6-3, Connor is also a dominant presence in the middle, forcing opponents to attack around her. Connor leads the team with 98 total blocks.

"Hayden has really developed her game this season," Maxwell said of the junior. "It's so good for team chemistry when you have teammates with significant time and success with each other."

Corona has depth as well, with four other players who have at least 100 kills this season, including Mira Banks, Taryn Vesely, Kennedy Allen and Paige Nenebar.

"We're excited but it's one match at a time," Maxwell said.

Notes

No. 1 seed Xavier Prep reached as high as No. 11 in MaxPreps' national rankings before falling to Horizon earlier in the season. Xavier's Tessa Larkin is second among 6A players with 395 kills. The Gators have won 13 state championships and been runner-up four other times, all since 1996 ... No. 2 seed Sandra Day O'Connor's offense goes through Devyn Wiest, as she leads the team with 359 kills, but the Eagles can strike from anywhere, with five players that reached at least 100 kills during the season: Addison France (157), Berkley France (110), Kaiya Kearney (121), Brooklyn Palmer (104) and Kristen Sheehy (101)...No. 4 Sunnyslope opened in 1953, but didn't win its first volleyball title until 2006 (4A). Between then and 2019, the Vikings won seven state championships.

Corona del Sol's Erin Clark (1) and Alyssa Aguayo are looking to lead the Aztecs to their second title in four years. (David Levy photo/MaxPreps)

HORIZON IS PLAYING FOR FOURTH CHAMPIONSHIP IN A ROW

By: Andy Morales
AZPreps365.com

Horizon caught fire in the 5A semifinal round last year as a No. 4 seed by taking out top-seeded Casteel 3-1 and then No. 2 seed Millennium in an epic 3-2 battle in the championship match to win the sixth championship in program history and the third in a row dating back to 2021 with each of the three victories coming over Millennium. Millennium is competing in the 6A Conference this year along with Casteel so that's two huge obstacles out of the way for all teams in the conference.

Horizon (25-5 overall and 12-0 in region play) lost to Millennium 3-2 in the regular season and also to 5A No. 1 seed Sunrise Mountain 3-2, but both of those losses came in early September and then Horizon beat Sunrise Mountain twice in invitational play in early October and then again a week later. It's important to note matches played in invitationals are typically played to the best-of-three while regular matches are played to the best-of-five. Sunrise Mountain (30-8, 16-1) lost to Horizon in the quarterfinal round last year so it's possible both of these program will meet again in the playoffs this year.

Former Horizon standout McKenna Skaggs replaced legendary coach Valorie McKenzie, who ended her 43-year career at Horizon with over 1,000 wins with five state championships. Skaggs was part of the 2009 and 2010 championship teams and 2011 runner-up team as a player. She now has 67 wins in two years and she will need four more to win her second state title after taking the program over last year.

Leading the way for Horizon is 6-foot-3 outside hitter Teraya Sigler. The Nebraska commit has 511 kills on the year. Sigler is ranked in the top 20 nationally.

"I'm so BEYOND excited to announce my verbal commitment to play volleyball at the University of Nebraska!! This is a dream come true and I'm ALL SMILES for the future!" Sigler wrote on Instagram. "Thank you to my family, friends, teammates and coaches who have helped me throughout my journey."

Junior outside hitter Sienna Markovich has 178 kills, fellow junior middle hitter Sophia Gilbert has 155 kills and freshman opposite Nia Tinsley has 111. Sophomore middle Olivia Kauffman has 67 blocks, Gilbert has 49, and sophomore middle Kinsley Gallagher has 30. Senior libero Ava Lambert has 444 digs and she will be playing for Florida State next year. Sigler has 287 digs and Markovich has 218. Senior setter Avery Ashcraft has 495 assists and junior Brooklynn McNulty has 383. Both Ashcraft and McNulty has over 1,000 career assists. Ashcraft has 48 aces and Sigler has 47.

Sunrise Mountain has one loss that counts as far as power-rankings go, and that was to 6A power Liberty on Oct. 24. Brandi Jans took the reins of the Mustangs in 2019 and she has led the program to the state playoffs every year with a semi-final finish in 2020 and again in 2022 when Horizon beat the team.

Junior outside hitter Addison Wiemann has 535 kills and senior middle hitter Shelby Schoenbeck has 252 kills and she will be playing for Northern Colorado. Schoenbeck also has 108 blocks, junior libero Kami Milner has 375 digs, Wiemann has 285 digs, junior setter Lily Rolfes has 1,047 assists and sophomore Aubree Manning has 39 aces.

Chaparral (22-4, 9-3) is also a contender with two losses coming to Horizon and another coming to Notre Dame Prep on October 28 after the Firebirds beat the Saints in late September. Junior outside Clara Schramm has 102 kills, junior libero Caprice Cooper has 111 digs and senior setter Isabella Scarfone has 29 aces. Scarfone will be playing for Fairleigh Dickinson.

Notre Dame Prep (24-9, 9-3) made it to the semifinal round last year and the Saints are now guided by first-year head coach Ali Svorinic. Svorinic graduated from Notre Dame Prep in 2012. Her team is led by senior outside hitter Payton Palecek with 198 kills, sophomore outside Roie Van Devander with 185 kills, junior Lauren Watson with 382 digs and senior setter Emma McSorley, who has 574 assists. McSorley will be playing beach volleyball for Arizona State.

Expect Centennial (28-9, 8-2), Canyon View (27-11, 12-0), Canyon del Oro (18-10, 8-2) and Maricopa (23-13, 9-1) to make some noise in the playoffs.

No. 1 FLAGSTAFF AIMS TO CLAIM FIRST TITLE IN A DECADE

By: Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

It's been more than a decade since the No. 1-ranked Flagstaff volleyball team has won a title after winning back-to-back crowns in 2012 and 2013 while in Division III.

And at least from the outside looking in, the Eagles appear to be title favorites when the 4A Volleyball State Championships get underway Nov. 7.

"I think we're super strong this year. We have a strong set of players. We have three people in the front row that can dominate, and terminate the ball," senior outside hitter Sophia Krassner said in early October.

Flagstaff (34-2, 12-0 4A Grand Canyon) is a perfect 17-0 in power point matches this season.

"I think we are where I wanted us to be at in terms of ability wise. We're playing well, we're playing good ball," longtime head coach Beth Haglin said in October.

Haglin, who has led the Eagles for nearly 40 years during two different stints as coach, pointed to Lilly Hartman as one of the great junior players in the state of Arizona.

She leads the club with 431 kills, good enough for third overall in the state.

"She's a great kid to have in our program, she works extremely hard. ... We're excited to have her for at least another year. But this year, she's doing great, she works hard and hits the ball hard," Haglin said.

The Eagles open the 4A state playoffs by hosting No. 16 St. Mary's on Wednesday, Nov. 7, 6 p.m.

NO. 2 SALPOINTE CATHOLIC

The Lancers (26-10, 7-1 4A Kino) claimed their region title and a No. 2 seed heading into the state playoffs, but a late-season 3-1 loss to Mica Mountain (ranked No. 4) gave their team something to think about over the past week.

Salpointe Catholic's one-two punch in Ashlyn Quiri and Kate Mobley led the team in kills with 186 and 167, respectively. The club will surely lean on them to get rolling again in the playoffs having won eight straight prior to the loss.

"We're going to need to face each opponent with respect and stat in the moment, and do a much better job of managing our side of the net in terms of unforced errors," coach Keith Rubio said. "We need to side out at a high percentage and keep the unforced errors under five per set."

The Lancers open with No. 15-seeded Bradshaw Mountain.

NO. 3 ESTRELLA FOOTHILLS

Sadie Snyder's 365 kills is Top 6 in the state rankings this season in her return to form in 2024 has the Wolves (30-1, 10-0 4A West Valley) thinking of following up their 2022 state title with another one this week.

"For our team to win a state championship we are going to have to play consistently with great ball control," Wolves coach Jennifer Gonzales said. "Minimal errors, and allow very few points given up by being able to side out right away."

Estrella Foothills faces No. 14 Prescott.

NO. 4 MICA MOUNTAIN

Led by Addison Andrews' 743 assists, good enough for Top 6 in the 4A state realm this year, Mica Mountain (23-10, 6-2 4A Kino) has plenty in the tank for a state championship run.

"In order for us to win a state championship, we are going to have to be focused and ready to play," coach Amy Johnson said. "We talk about taking care of the easy things, serving and passing. It will take all of us to be on the same page. We need to create good energy and take care of the ball."

Mica Mountain opens with ALA-Queen Creek.

Notes

No. 5 Ironwood Ridge was 13-4 in power point games this season and face No. 12 Cactus Shadows in the opener. Kallie George led the team in kills with 315. ... No. 6 Thunderbird features Hayven Lick as the top kills leader in 4A this year with 456. They face No. 11 Eastmark. ... No. 7 Mesquite has four players with at least 103 kills this season, making it awfully difficult for No. 10 ALA-Gilbert North to game plan, but ALA-GN features a big hitter of their own in Kristyn Grantham with 448 kills, second behind only Lick in 4A. ... No. 8 Saguaro faces No. 9 Sahuarita. These two claimed the 4A Desert Sky and Gila regions, respectively.

Flagstaff is ranked No. 1 heading into the 4A Volleyball State Championships and is looking for its first title since back-to-back crowns in 2012 and 2013. (Brian M. Bergner Jr. photo/AZPreps365)

No. 1 VALLEY CHRISTIAN HOPES TO FINISH WHAT IT STARTED

By: Brian M. Bergner Jr.

AZPreps365.com

The heartbreak of losing a state title match can stay with players and coaches for days, months, sometimes years. Especially when a club goes undefeated in power point play, makes it all the way to championship only to lose to a team you swept during the regular season.

That is the reality of Valley Christian's 2023 campaign.

But, what could make it all go away? Or at least be easier to swallow? Follow it up with another championship appearance, but this time come out on top. The 2024 version of the Trojans have their sights set on doing just that.

After earning the No. 1 seed thanks to an 18-0 power point record, Valley Christian (24-12, 10-0 3A Central) opens the 3A Volleyball State Championships with No. 16-seeded Window Rock on Nov. 9.

Their pathway to the 11th state title in program history remains a mystery, with potential matchups against Safford or Parker in round two, a rematch with Snowflake in the semifinals and No. 2 Gilbert Christian or No. 3 Northwest Christian coming out of the other side of the bracket.

For now, Trojans coach Tyler Trathen is focused on preparing his team for a playoff run.

"We gained valuable insights from our loss in last year's finals," Trathen said. "This year, our focus is on cultivating mental toughness to excel in high-stakes games. We've strategically entered competitive tournaments and faced several teams ranked in the Top 50 nationally, challenging ourselves to perform at the highest level possible."

Their 7-12 record in those tournaments proves that process, but also included important wins over Mountain View, Arizona College Prep, South Medford (Ore.) and Sacred Heart Prep (Calif.).

"Our team was able to go to San Diego this year and we got to spend our fall break there. We were able to take a team bonding day and explore La Jolla, and spend time near the seals and go through the tunnel to explore caves," Trathen said. "It was a great time of bonding and brought our team closer."

Trathen said their "pillars" this year are: "Win together, family first, and adjustments are essential."

Those will come in handy if and when his club faces Snowflake, Northwest Christian or Gilbert Christian over the next week.

"I can definitely see [any of those clubs] making a run to the finals this year," Trathen said.

Top players to watch for Valley Christian include senior captain Madi Brown-McAlpine, who notched her 3,000th career assist this year. Also, middle blocker Sadie Wahlin, who as a sophomore leads the entire state in hitting percentage at .561 and has 240 kills overall.

Valley Christian and Window Rock get underway at Millennium High School on Saturday, Nov. 9, 11 a.m. Game two of the day will be against either Safford or Parker at 5 p.m.

Notes

No. 8 Parker went 32-6 this year, including a 7-1 mark in 3A West play to claim the region crown. The Broncs face No. 9 Safford, which features Payton Abalos, who leads all of 3A with 437 kills. ... No. 7 Seton Catholic faces No. 10 Flor- ence to open the 3A playoffs and will lean heavily on Rylan Keane, who had a Top 5 mark in kills this year with 352. ... No. 6 Pusch Ridge, winners of the 3A South region, features top 3A assist leader Hannah Love, who has 709. They face No. 11 ALA-West Foothills. ... No. 5 Snowflake enters the tournament as the defending 3A champs but have lost to both Gilbert Christian and Valley Christian this season. The Lobos will see if they can repeat in 2024 starting with a first-round matchup against No. 12 Odyssey Institute. ... No. 4 Monument Valley went a perfect 10-0 in 3A North play this year but played in a region featuring teams that finished mostly in the bottom half of the power point rankings. They face No. 13 Benjamin Franklin. ... No. 3 Northwest Chris- tian made it to the semifinals last year and are tied with Thatcher and Xavier Prep for the second-most championships (13) in program history. Safford is tops with 21. The Crusaders open with No. 14 Tanque Verde... No. 2 Gilbert Christian won the 3A Metro region and were 16-2 in power point matches, but split with Northwest Christian this season and lost to Valley Christian. The Knights open with No. 15 Show Low.

TRIVIUM PREP HAS EACH OTHERS' BACKS AS TITLE DEFENSE BEGINS

By: Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

After finally getting the semifinal monkey off her back, Beth Wilson faced a different back problem this season.

"I think we have a bigger target on our backs than ever before," the Trivium Prep coach said. "But the team has done a really nice job of understanding that fact and rolling with it and expecting teams to play tough against us."

Every Trivium Prep playoff run from 2018-22 ended in the semifinals.

But last year, it finally broke through, and in its first state title appearance, Trivium Prep won it. That 2023 state final between Wilson's team and Phoenix Country Day will be remembered for two amazing comebacks.

Trivium Prep completed its comeback, and PCD came close to doing so also after facing what seemed like an insurmountable lead as well. This year, a very motivated PCD team traveled to Goodyear to take on Wilson's squad once again.

PCD took Game 1 and was leading in the second game.

"It wasn't losing the first set that got me worried in the PCD match," Wilson said. "It was the deficit we got ourselves into in the second set. I think every time I feel myself kind of throwing in the towel, suddenly my team surges and the momentum shifts."

It sure did, because a different Trivium Prep team emerged to win the second game and the next two to beat PCD once again.

Trivium Prep is the only 2A team PCD hasn't defeated in the last two seasons. Trivium Prep felt more pressure when it lost to Chandler Prep early in the year and to Rancho Solano Prep late in the season.

But those setbacks should help them in the playoffs. Trivium Prep tends to roster strong leadership, and this year is no different.

Leading the charge this year is Ryan Poyner and Addison Storz.

"Ryan is incredible at running the court as the setter and is also instrumental in keeping the girls loose and in the right head space to play with high efficiency while also enjoying themselves," Wilson said. "Addison comes alive with tough competition. She has learned to block out the noise and become one with her team, and she gets everyone fired up when she gets fired up."

It's safe to say that the Trivium Prep Knights have each other's back as they begin their title defense.

Notes

Phoenix Country Day wound up with the No. 1 seed. It's seeking its fourth consecutive state title appearance. ... Bella Espinoza returned late in the season after recovering from a knee injury she suffered in last year's playoffs for Veritas Prep. She "solidified" a team that already boasts McKenzi Perrault (digs leader), Mary Harmann (kills leader) and the versatile Taylor Nicks. ... Most of this year's starters for Arizona Lutheran are very experienced. "With experience comes a little more confidence and that's gone a long way this season," coach Brad Bode said. Setter Emma Ohm, one of the six seniors on the team who are close friends, runs the well-balanced offensive attack. Emma Drexler is the defensive stalwart of the back row. ... Of its 11 players, only one was a starter for Fountain Hills last year. But the team still reached the playoffs after moving down to 2A with minimal club experience as well. Helping steer the team toward success is setter/right side hitter Kitrick Garman. "Not only is she entirely dominant on the court, but she brings an energy and passion to the sport and team that hype the other girls up," coach Olivia Long said. "She's worked hard to be the player and captain she is, and she's definitely one who girls turn to when the game gets rough." Libero Seilah Smith and OH Lucia Kalmbach also are consistently producing for the team. ... Three of Horizon Honors' key seniors played in the state semifinals two years ago. Senior Addyson Gauer is the school's digs career leader, and senior Sydney Kaman is the single season ace record holder. Junior Kennedy Harbertson, who was effectively patrolling the middle, suffered a severe ankle sprain. The loss for the team was "devastating." Another strong middle, Jillian Housh, rolled an ankle and hasn't been able to play since Aug. 30th. ... Despite graduating 12 seniors last year, Rancho Solano Prep defeating defending champ Trivium Prep in four games. "First, Trivium is a really good, well-coached team," coach Marissa Morah said. "We have been talking a lot about putting the team above our feelings and how we feel in tense moments. We've also been talking about trusting our training in moments when things are tight or the pressure is on. Both of those things are what led us to that win. We focused solely on playing our game and doing what we needed to do to win." Jr. Miley Avenell (only returning starter) is the team's "glue," and Sr. Rylee Payne and Jr. Maya Blair are the setters and captains. Sophomores Kelsey Purcell and Sofia Smith tend to come through in the clutch. ... Stat sheet filler Zillah Wildblood-Crawford, the confident Makenna Murphy and the "unmatched consistency" of Malia Turner are leading the way for Northland Prep. "Moving to the 2A North Region has been an adjustment in travel and getting to know our opponents," coach Corie Murphy said. "The players chose 'grit' as one of their values this year, and they have shown that on the court in so many matches this season."

RECORD BOOK

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

AIA

Girls Volleyball Records - Individual

The AIA girls volleyball record book includes a top-20 listing for each category but only goes back to 2006. If there are any listings that need to be updated or added, please e-mail Seth Polansky and Jose Garcia with all supporting documentation.

Arizona high school volleyball changed from side out to rally scoring in 2003 with a best-of-three format, and went to the current best-of-five format in 2006.

The AIA is in need of the following seasons' stats in order to have the most complete archives possible:

Amphitheater	2005-07 seasons	Northland Prep	2019 season
Ash Fork	2014-15 seasons	Northwest Christian	2010 season
Basha	2013 season (attempts)	Notre Dame Prep	2012 season
Boulder Creek	2015 season	Piñon	2012 season
Cienega	2010 season	Queen Creek	2011 season
Desert Vista	2006 season	Rancho Solano Prep	2013 season
Duncan	2013 season	Red Mountain	2009 season
Flagstaff	2010-11 seasons	Rock Point	2019 season
Gilbert	2005-06, 2011 seasons	Salpointe Catholic	2009, 2013 seasons
Greenway	2012-13 seasons	Seton Catholic	2008, 2010 seasons
Ironwood	2009-10 seasons	Valley Lutheran	2015-16 seasons
Ironwood Ridge	2007, 2009 seasons	Veritas Prep	2010-11 seasons
