ARIZONA
INTERSCHOLASTIC
ASSOCIATION

Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR AND SALPOINTE CATHOLIC: STOP THEM IF YOU CAN

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Let's start with the obvious.

Can anybody stop the Sandra Day O'Connor Eagles in Division I and the Salpointe Lancers in Division II?

That's the biggest question heading into the beach volleyball 2025 spring team championships. Those two programs have been just unbeatable in recent years.

The Eagles' last defeat came in 2022 and are seeking their fourth consecutive D-I crown. The Lancers haven't seen an 'L' in their win-loss column since 2019.

Their impressive win streaks are 55 for O'Connor and 80 for Salpointe. But both programs are expecting some challenges in this post-season.

"This year, the favorites for the (D-II) team title are Salpointe, Flagstaff, Arcadia and us," said Bill Tennison, the coach of the top-seeded Gilbert Christian Knights. "It will be a fun final two weeks to the season, and we are looking forward to it."

O'Connor was tested by Queen Creek this season, winning 3-2.

A new view

Canyon View just completed its best regular season with only one senior and is one of the biggest surprises.

But the Jaguars are seasoned. For the first time, the program had a good core of players who stuck with beach in the past year.

"Our leaders are truly our underclassmen," coach Melinda Espinoza said.

Those leaders are sophomores Timorie Prinz, Alexa Loeffelholz and Arabella Sharp and junior Lyndin Swanson.

Prinz and Loeffelholz are 10-2 at No. 1. Prinz's dad, Bret, won a World Series with the Diamondbacks and is currently Canyon View's pitching coach.

"As a coach, I walked into the season, even the offseason, knowing that we were going to be young and we would take our lumps as the season went and we would learn from it to help towards our future," Espinoza said. "The girls just walked into every match just doing the best that they could, and I am amazed at the success that they have had and the dedication they have taken."

Third time's the charm for Queen Creek?

Ending 2022 and 2023 with runner-up team trophies isn't shabby. But it's the other big prize that the Queen Creek Bulldogs are likely after. They do carry one of the favorites to win the pairs title, Tatum Riggs (University of Arizona commit) and South Carolina commit Madi Crnjac.

The juniors are 9-2, with losses to D-I defending champs Emma McSorley and Lauren Watson of Notre Dame and Millennium's Gabriella Kucinski and Isabella Martinez. Riggs and Crnjac are in their sixth year of playing as a pair.

"They do a great job of strategizing together and fixing what isn't working," Queen Creek coach Stefany Pew said. "Their volleyball IQ together is off the charts. They know what to do in every situation and work to execute the plan to the best of their abilities. And they obviously have a lot of success doing that so far this season."

But it takes more than just one tandem to bring home a championship.

Queen Creek's No. 2's, senior Izzy Mahaffey and sophomore Laney Ever, bring a traditional beach volleyball look.

"This is a true blocker/defender combo who work really well together," Pew said. "Izzy reads the court with the best of them. She is quick to run down any ball and can anticipate what is happening beforehand. Laney is a great blocker and sets up the defense for Izzy so that she can be successful."

Camrynn Carrasco and Brooklyn DeWitt are 5-2 this season, playing mostly in the No. 4 spot.

"Brooklyn and Camrynn both have great ball control and are quick on their feet," Pew said.

Also, keep an eye on Grace Johnson and Miley Hakes, who are starting to make some headway.

Because of different circumstances, they were playing with different partners. But now that they've joined forces, the pair has dropped only one set.

"I am confident that (Johnson and Hakes) will be vital in our post-season journey and that we can count on them to help us win in whatever spot they are in," Pew added.

Believe it, Red Mountain

Coach Carlos Flys made believers out his Red Mountain players.

The first year coach told his players the expectations were to win a region title and make the playoffs for the first time in Red Mountain's beach history.

"They looked at me like I was crazy," said Flys about his preseason introduction to his players. "This week, when I told them we will be playing for a region title next week, they still looked at me like I am crazy."

There's a reason or two why Flys (pronounced fliss) is a state championship coach.

The Mountain Lions clinched the East Valley Region title after defeating Westwood 3-2 in the final week of the regular season.

"We have a young team, with more than half of the varsity core being sophomores," Flys said. "They are just learning and getting the hang of things."

Where Gilbert Christian wants to be

Bill Tennison's program is a state title contender.

It's the first time that Gilbert Christian can say so. The Knights, for the past seven seasons, were hoping to be in this spot at some point. No. 1's Lillie Duitsman and Alexey Heyn, No. 2's Sienna Cathay and Tylee Fox, No. 3's Liv Johnson and Sidney Loth, and No. 4's Kaila Aston and Shay Loth are a combined 30-1. Heyn and Duitsman are one of just two D-II pairs that haven't dropped a set this year.

"All four of our top two pairs are elite athletes with a desire to play volleyball in college," Tennison said.

During Spring Break, Tennison takes his team to Mission Beach in San Diego for four days to help his team bond.

Let's see if his squad can parlay its talent and cohesiveness into a championship campaign.

Arcadia still young but hungry

The Arcadia Titans made a splash last year by winning their first beach title, a pairs crown.

This year, they want more.

"With so much returning experience, the team has had a sort of quiet confidence in themselves, holding one another to a high standard with a sense that this season is about unfinished," coach Adrian Chang said.

Two seniors, eight juniors and two freshmen dot the roster.

Arcadia's No. 1's, Lane Sheedy and Alexa Helms (16-3 in sets), returned to defend their D-II crown.

"Lane and Alexa have embraced the opportunity to try and make another run at the pairs title this year, and are also hungry to help lead the team to the overall team state title as well," Chang said. "Their drive definitely helps lead the whole program in striving for excellence."

Also returning this year are Priya Jain and Brenna Satran. The juniors are one of four undefeated No. 2's in D-II.

"(Jain and Satran) have built a chemistry that allows them to look very fluid and cohesive on the sand," Chang said. "They truly embody the idea of the whole being greater than the sum of its parts, helping lift and push one another to a high level of play."

Another pair who are undefeated are freshmen Alitza Turley and Jade Smith.

"Their addition to the team brings a very welcome jolt of energy to help the upperclassmen stay on their toes," Chang said.

Notes

Casteel's Allie Forese and Paige Thompson have the best win percentage (.880) in D-I at flight No. 2. They have dropped just three sets this season. "As we are all aware, beach volleyball is a high pressure sport where chemistry and complementary skill sets are crucial," Casteel coach Shane Nelson said. "And that's exactly what makes Allie and Paige shine. Allie is poised sophomore that brings a calm and collected energy to the court. "Paige, a senior, balances Allie's calm with fire. She's aggressive, confident and has an instinct for the game that goes beyond training." ... The No. 4's for Estrella Foothills, Iliana Brown and Giselle Wochner, are 11-0 this season. "Iliana and Giselle are a perfect blocker/defender combo, which is what I look for when setting up our pairs," coach Christian Millhiser said. "It allows for the blocker to be big at the net when needed and the defender to be the quick defensive cover behind the block. Giselle is also great at communicating throughout the play, which stems from her libero background from indoor volleyball." ... Saguaro's No. 1's, Bella Reyes and Maddie Tately, are 24-3 in sets, 12-0 overall. Tately only played three matches last year, and the senior duo didn't partner up until this season. "The biggest thing I have noticed about them as a team is their understanding of each other's strengths and how to capitalize on those strengths to be successful in a match," coach David Mietzner said. "They are both problem solvers, not problem creators, and are doing an outstanding job mentoring the younger players, showing them what it takes to be a highly competitive team at this level." ... Northwest Christian's No. 3's Ava Parsons and Chelsie Seidemann have won the most sets (24) in D-II. ... Xavier Prep's Delaney McHale and Sophia Peterson are 9-3 and at No. 4 and teammates Gracie Graf and Elle Freeland are 10-1 at No. 3. ... Sandra Day O'Connor's No. 2's Leyton Heldt and Kaylee Woodruff (23-5 in sets), No. 3's Imani Huesca and Kaiya Kearney (24-1 sets), and No. 4's Alyssa Archiello and Sami Mondinao have the best records in their flights. ... Salpointe Catholic's Jaylenn Ransom to over her alma mater this season after legend Heather Moore-Martin stepped down. "I am grateful for watching and learning from Heather," Ransom said. Ransom's No. 2's, 3's, 4's and 5's are undefeated. "We grow in our faith together and put our trust in God one match at a time," coach added. The leaders are the only two seniors, Cloe Zhang and Eleanor Sharp.

Salpointe has a new coach. But what hasn't changed are the Lancers' winning ways. (Andy Morales photo/AZPreps365)

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
