ARIZONA
INTERSCHOLASTIC
ASSOCIATION

Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and talk about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work and determination it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete.

Participation in state championships goes beyond the boundaries of the playing arena and into the stands. The players and coaches are counting on you as the family and fans to represent the team, school and community with the highest regard. Incidents of bad behavior coming from beyond the sidelines keep rising. We want this to stop. It’s up to you. Be an ambassador for the sport and show your school spirit in the right way. As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance.

State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

PERRY'S RUN WILL FACE FAMILIAR CHALLENGES IN 6A TOURNAMENT

By Andy Morales
AZPreps365.com

No. 1 Perry is a perfect 17-0 in power-ranking matches, giving up only four sets all year. The Pumas are 38-4 overall with two of those setbacks coming to teams from California. The team did lose to No. 7 Sandra Day O'Connor at the Brophy College Prep Invitational on March 29 and to No. 8 Williams Field at the Higley Invitational on April 18, but the Pumas beat Williams Field twice, including one that counted on March 20.

"Our depth makes us unique," head coach Ryan Tolman said. "We have 17 guys who can play at a high level. Our starters might not have robust stats like other top players because we play so many guys. It keeps us fresh. It keeps the entire team engaged and ready to play."

Perry lost to Brophy in the semifinal round last year but the program collected state championships in 2021 and again in 2023. Brophy beat O'Connor in four sets to win the state championship last year, and O'Connor beat Highland in three sets to win it all in 2022. Perry beat No. 6 Brophy three times this year and No. 2 Highland once.

"Brady Breinholt is our undisputed leader, Tolman added. "He is not only the best libero in Arizona, he's an incredible leader. He demands those around him play at a high level but does it in a loving way and the boys respect that. Outsides Greyson Carter and Logan Grey are our best point scorers. They have been incredible all year and the emotional leader is middle Caden Ledbetter. He plays with football-like passion. Just be sure you're ready for the after-a-big-kill high five. The velocity is legendary."

Highland (29-9-1) lost to O'Connor in the semifinal round last year and the teams tied at the Brophy Invitational on March 28. The Hawks also went 1-1 against No. 3 Casteel (28-11-1) this year, squeaking out a 3-2 win at home on March 25.

"This group has been really focused on the process of getting better every day," Highland head coach Jeff Grover said. "We are diverse in our offense and can score from all three pins, both middles and setter positions, so not having to rely on one guy has been liberating for the other players. It's been really fun helping these guys work on pushing their own limits and their individual effort has helped their ability to grow. It's definitely been a team effort and so fun to sit back and watch these guys enjoy playing together."

Grover led Gilbert to a runner-up finish in 2009 to go along with a state championship with Gilbert in 2012 and another runner-up finish in 2013. Gilbert lost to Highland in 2013 and Grover moved over to Highland in 2016 where he led the Hawks to back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2022 and 2023.

"We have three captains in Rhett Yetter (outside hitter), Tony Taylor (setter) and Joe Hodgson (middle hitter), each of those guys have taken on a leadership role over a specific skilled positional group and helped our team stay connected and focused," Grover added. "We also have 10 seniors on this team and each plays a crucial role in our day to day practice and court and bench energy. Most have all played volleyball together for the past 5-7 years, so it's been really rewarding seeing them support and push for each other's success."

Casteel won a state championship in 2021 to go along with back-to-back championships in 2023 and 2024 in the 5A Conference before moving up to the 6A level this year. The Colts have three losses to Perry, a loss to O'Connor and a loss to Highland as mentioned before.

"Our difficult strength of schedule has really been an important part of our success this year," head coach Ryan Meyn explained. "We have played almost all of the top 6A teams and that challenge has really pushed and motivated us to always play at a high level. We had a very busy start to our season when we played in the Las Vegas Invite Tournament, our first two matches against O'Connor and Brophy, and then we played in the Chandler Wolf Howl. That challenging 10-day stretch really helped us to become a team and figure out our team's identity."

"We have four seniors who have really embraced their leadership role this season," Meyn added. "Layton Bluth, Brody Hirst, Jackson Kost and Garrett Nielsen were all named team captains, and they have made such a positive impact on our five juniors and seven sophomores. The seniors recognized early on that the young guys on varsity will play an important role, and the seniors really helped develop them throughout the season."

Still, Perry is in the driver's seat with an incredible record and the top seed.

"This team is unique in that we have so many young players," Tolman said. "We have a handful of seniors who rarely play but are engaged and working hard just as much as the guys who get most of the court time. At the beginning of the year, I pulled them aside and told them their playing time would be slim to none and the four of them promptly dubbed themselves the "Slim Four." The team unofficially votes on a "Slim of the Week." Could be the player who plays the best, plays the most or who cheered the best that week. It's become a big part of the season and has really kept the mood on the bench light and energized. Those four are some of the best teammates I've coached."

Highland senior Tony Taylor has 973 assists. (Darin Sicurello photo/MaxPreps)

TRIO TO WATCH IN 5A AS AZ COLLEGE PREP MOVES UP, EARNS HIGH SEED

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

With powerhouse Casteel having moved up to the 6A conference last summer, the 5A Boys Volleyball State Championship bracket is wide open with early favorites Campo Verde, Arizona College Prep and Cienega looking to hoist a title trophy.

The playoffs get underway May 9, so here's a few teams to watch as play gets underway.

CAMPO VERDE

The No. 1-seeded Coyotes (19-7, 8-1 5A East Sky) have finished one of the most successful campaigns in program history thanks to a group of players that have been through the same system for all four years, coach Zachary Robinson said.

"It shows. All of them have bought into the culture and continue to show their love for the game with how they play," Robinson said.

Senior Malakai Bredensteiner leads the way with 263 kills, good enough for Top 10 in the 5A conference this season. He's also tied for the team lead in blocks with 31 with Owen Horton.

"Owen has done a phenomenal job as a middle blocker and plays all the way around and is leading the team in passing percentage, which makes Carter Skousen's job as our setter easy," Robinson said.

Skousen has 553 assists (11th in 5A).

Campo Verde is looking for their first championship since 2019. They host No. 16 Canyon View (10-19, 2-8 5A Northwest Valley) on May 9, 6 p.m.

ARIZONA COLLEGE PREP

The No. 2-seeded Knights (22-7, 7-2 5A East Sky) were one of the top teams in 4A over the past few years, claiming a championship over Northwest Christian (3-2) a season ago.

Now in 5A, they face a new challenge, but coach KJ Struz believes his group is up for it.

"After losing great talent and multi-year starters in 2024, this group took on the challenge to run it back and have had another successful season," Struz said.

Logan Coking leads the team in kills with 316 (6th in 5A), while Kaden Wong averages 10 assists per set for the group. Wong has 688 total assists this season, good enough for second overall in 5A behind Sunrise Mountain's Dane Shephard (790).

"[Kaden's] talent shines bright not only on the team, but in the entire state of Arizona and he has grown tremendously to be the 'quarterback' on the court and help bring up the energy and focus when we get in ruts," Struz said.

Alex Lim, who doesn't have any stats that jump off the page, is also a key piece of the puzzle for Arizona College Prep volleyball.

"He has been a huge reason for our success this season as he has shown tremendous resilience after coming back from a season-ending injury two years ago and took a while to recover," Struz said. "The guys see his work ethic and how much he cares to be the best for his teammates and it shows."

The Knights will host No. 15 Buckeye Union in their first-round match May 9, 6 p.m.

CIENEGA

The Bobcats (23-5, 14-0 5A Southern) come into the 5A state playoffs as one of the hottest teams in the field having won nine straight, including 14 of 16.

Coach Heather Mott said that much of her club's success this season is thanks to a "young group of very determined boys."

"They are hungry and talented, but they are also patient and willing to work hard every day," Mott said. "Leadership is coming from every kid."

Cienega won two titles in 2017 and 2022 and made a championship appearance in 2021 but were swept by Casteel (25-15, 25-20, 25-14).

Although the group is young, senior Dawson Briggs leads the way with 214 kills and a 47.2 kill percentage as a "big physical outside" presence on the team.

Another player to watch is Caiden Mott, who is a young setter with a "ton of volleyball IQ" as all three of his older siblings have played volleyball at the collegiate level. As a junior, he's Top 10 in the 5A conference with 585 assists.

Andrew Keen, a sophomore who is also the youngest of three brothers who have played a lot of volleyball, has 31 total blocks this season.

"These three boys, with the help of all the others, thrive because they have been waiting a long time for their turn. They have watched as other Cienega boys have been successful and now they are in the spotlight," coach Mott said.

No. 3-seeded Cienega opens their state championship chase May 9 with No. 14 Maricopa at 6 p.m.

OTHER 5A VOLLEYBALL NOTES

Metro Tech reached the playoffs for the very first time and will host No. 9 Desert Edge. ... Centennial, the Northwest Valley region champ, is in search of its first playoff win since 2016. ... Willow Canyon is making its third straight postseason appearance. ... McClintock, the co-Metro Region champ, is 13-4 and a win away from tying a school record for wins in a season. It's making its first playoff appearance in a decade.

NEW CHAMP WILL BE CROWNED IN 4A ... BUT WHO WILL IT BE?

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

A new champ will lift the 4A gold ball this season. Ditto for the runner-up trophy.

That's because last year's champ, Arizona College Prep, moved up to 5A, and the 2024 runner-up, Northwest Christian, was placed in 3A. Handicapping the race this year wasn't easy since the top teams took turns beating each other up.

The top seed went to Deer Valley (16-1), which accomplished something no other program has at its campus—five region titles in a row—and went home with the 2023 championship.

"The biggest factors for our success have been working on mental fortitude and team bonding," coach Mitchell Toone said. "We've really worked hard on building our connection as a team." Deer Valley's Heath McPherson runs the offense and is close to a 1,000 assist season.

Senior outside hitter Theo Holsinger and senior libero Seath Brightwell also help steer the team to success.

"Heath is the team leader and thrives when he has the freedom to be himself in the offense," Toone said. "Theo is the emotional leader and is at his best when the challenge is tougher. Seath is our defensive anchor and also gets everyone dialed in and focused."

That lone power point loss for Deer Valley was delivered by Agua Fria.

Coach Lisa Petruzzello directed Agua Fria to a program best 14 wins in the regular season.

"Our success this season has come largely from the strong chemistry and deep connection these boys have built over the years," Petruzzello said. "They've trained consistently through the offseason and share a genuine passion for playing volleyball."

Eleven seniors dot her roster, and two of those super seniors are outside hitter Jamarcus Hollins and libero Charles Tucker.

"Charles is extremely vocal on the court and always brings the energy," coach said. "He's incredibly supportive of his teammates' success and has helped us build momentum in key games. Jamarcus is a steady, reliable presence on the court. He consistently maintains his composure and is someone the boys really look up to in high-pressure situations."

Two of the ALA's, Queen Creek and Gilbert North, also will have a say in who wins the title this year.

Since 2018, ALA Queen Creek has reached at least the semifinals every year except for the 2020 season that was cut short by the pandemic. It returned to the 4A this year after a two-year 5A tour.

"There are several leaders on this team, which makes it difficult to pick just one or two," ALA-Queen Creek coach Christopher Aviles said. "As the coach I have been impressed by how each one of these athletes have stepped up in their own way."

ALA-Queen Creek's only two 4A power point losses this year came to rival ALA-Gilbert North.

After graduating eight seniors last year from a 5A state quarterfinal team, ALA-Gilbert North this year proved that the rebuilding chatter surrounding its team was baloney. The program placed second in the Las Vegas Invitational and won the Agua Fria Invitational with a new coaching staff.

The captain of ALA-Gilbert North's ship is Ian Walker, who has overcome some injuries.

"Ian plays well under pressure and is a great go-to hitter," coach Spencer Gurr said.

Walker and Rigdon White, the team's best blocker, help ALA-Gilbert North excel on defense and serving.

"White studies film, reads players' tendencies quickly and communicates with the team," Gurr said.

Another team to keep an eye on is Cactus Shadows.

The program started up just three seasons ago and has churned out 31 wins in the last two seasons. The building blocks for success were put in place by coach Shawn Covely, assistant Kris Perez and a group of dedicated athletes.

"This program started three years ago with a group of kids who just wanted to play in an area where the sport isn't offered in many schools," Covely said.

Leaders like kill leader Brycen Bollwit and junior setter Blake Hemming are two of the players who have been all in since Day 1.

"Brycen's knowledge of the game, ability to bring all athletes together and build them up has been a large part of our success," Covely added. "Blake has developed into a huge leader on the team. He now understands what it takes to run the offense, analyze the competition and lead the team by example."

Notes

Since 2017, Salpointe Catholic has lost only two region matches. ... Prescott has won three region titles in a row and has dropped just one region match during that span. ... Joseph Sotelo Valdez of Barry Goldwater has recorded 63 aces in just 18 matches.

Deer Valley's players are always ready to high-five each other now with five straight region titles under their belt. (Photo courtesy of Deer Valley)

NEW 3A CONFERENCE BOASTS PLENTY OF TALENT

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

High school volleyball in Arizona keeps growing and growing.

The Arizona Interscholastic Association was the first to sanction beach volleyball for girls in high school and recently announced that the boys also can start hitting the sand in the fall. In indoor, the AIA added another conference to help house its growing boys program population (159 teams).

This season's No. 1 state seed in 3A went to American Leadership Academy-West Foothills. The 3A's inaugural postseason will begin on May 9 with the higher seeds hosting matches and concluding May 17 at Skyline High with the championship match.

Here's a look at some of the favorites.

ALA-West Foothills keeps losing players to injuries, but it isn't making excuses.

The 17-0 Guardians haven't dropped a power ranking match and concluded their regular season with a five-set victory over Northwest Christian, the No. 2 seed, to win their region.

"I would have to say the biggest factor of this team's achievements is the team chemistry. I have coached many teams, but none have ever had the chemistry this team has," coach Kendra Ritter said. "We have lots of different personalities, but they mesh and play for each other, putting aside their personal wants as players and doing what is best for the team as a whole." Lincoln Holdaway, the team's best hitter, and starting setter Ethan Smead are two of the players the Guardians lost to injury. Smead is still contributing, showing the JV setter they moved up the ropes. Holdaway has also been at practice encouraging his teammates, Ritter said. ALA-West Foothills is in its third season as a program. It finished with a 5-11 record three years ago but has won 28 matches since. Ritter took over at midseason in Year 1.

"They all lean on each other," Ritter said. "We have top hitters, passers, assists (players), but without them working as one unit none of them would stand out. Because of their bond, they make each other better."

No. 3 seed Seton Catholic went 14-3 overall, 6-0 in the regular and won the Metro Region. It's the same overall record it had going into the playoffs last year before bowing out in the 4A state semifinals.

"We have 11 new players to varsity, but they didn't skip a beat in their first varsity season thanks to all the work they did in the offseason and during practices this year," coach John Engelbert said. "Another big factor for our success is how close this team is. We have made a lot of progress from Day 1 until now, and it wouldn't have been possible without the trust and belief that these guys have in each other." The team captains are senior setter Lucas Cerneka and middle Owen McAlevy. Cerneka moved up to varsity as a serving and defensive specialist last year but is running the offense now.

"He (Lucas) learned a lot from the setter ahead of him last year and has developed his game very well this year to be an effective setter," coach said. "Owen is our vocal leader and the one who does the best at leading by example. He is our hardest worker and has become a very big force in the middle thanks to his work ethic and willingness to give everything he has on every point." The team's only six-rotation player, Diego Kubasak, the only returning starter from last year, returned this season but injured. But he worked his way back into the lineup to become the primary outside hitter. "Normally that (just one returning starter) would lead to a rebuilding year, but with the work the boys put in on JV last season and in the offseason, we were able to turn a rebuild into a reload and be ready to compete the very next year," Engelbert said. "I can't say enough about how proud I am of these players. We had a goal of repeating as region champs this year and we did that, and now we are looking to make it even further in the playoffs."

No. 4 Benjamin Franklin has won three region titles in a row since a 6-12 campaign in 2022. This year, the Chargers are under the guidance of a new coach, Jane Vailahi, but the winning continued. They finished as the Silver Division's ASU Epic Tourney's runner-up and were able to rebound from an 0-2 deficit to Valley Christian to come back and win in five. "This is my first year with the program, so learning about the team from my own perspective and lens took a little time in the beginning but was able to learn quickly," Vailahi said. The team's three captains are libero Coleson Bowen, outside hitter Jace Wengert and opposite Aaron Curtis.

"Honestly, I've never seen it before, but they really all are our leaders," Vailahi said. "Each and every single one of them, they have learned how to hold each other accountable and I haven't ever seen any of them get down. They are hyping each other up after each point and won't allow each other to hang onto an error. We are all very quick on letting it go, on to the next mentality."

One of the double-digit seeds that is capable of making a run is No. 10 Pusch Ridge (10-3 overall, 10-0 South Region). It's in its second season as a volleyball program and finished 5-5 last year while playing an independent schedule. But the Lions possess tall, athletic players and an experienced coaching staff. "Our success is based on putting teammates ahead of self, working hard and getting better every time we step on the court, and learning to make sound volleyball decisions during competition," coach Luke Sunukjian said.

The senior captains are outside hitter Hayden Picton and defensive specialist Jonathan Ranck. "They thrive because I empower them to give input into practice organization and game decisions," coach said. "They both work with our setter, Patrick Coyle, to run a creative and fun offensive attack." Picton used to play basketball and baseball but didn't find minutes until suiting up for volleyball last year. He will also be off and flying once he graduates. Picton will attend the U.S. Air Force Academy next year after receiving two congressional nominations and a rare Presidential nomination. "Hayden looks forward to serving our country through the Air Force, using the same determination and perseverance developed in playing volleyball," Sunukjian said.

Notes

Northwest Christian's Devon Helmer was leading 3A with 269 kills. ... Gilbert Classical Academy's Jayden Yates was hitting a 3A best .486. ... Valley Christian's Kaden Haase had 551 assists and teammate Brooks Martin was second in 3A in digs with 284.
