From the field to the stands, let's cheer for our teams with respect and pride, creating an outstanding environment for all.

For over a century, the AIA has championed the importance of education-based athletics to shape strong, successful futures and assist in providing opportunities for student-athletes to become leaders and positive, contributing members of our future. The thousands of student-athletes that participate every year in high school athletic contests in State 48 are proof that participation builds character, boosts academic success, increases high school graduation rates and fosters healthy lives. Let's keep the energy high and honor the commitment to elevating opportunities for student-athletes and the leadership lessons it provides.

Here's to an exciting championship that inspires excellence and creates memories for years to come! Remember, that these in our community are, "our students, our teams and our future." Good luck!

CAN SAN TAN CHARTER UNSEAT VALLEY CHRISTIAN IN A LOADED FIELD?

Jason Skoda
AZPreps365.com

There is a field of 16 teams that have a wide array of accomplishments this season, history of past success and an opportunity to put a Copper State champion banner in the gym.

The second year of the Copper State tournament, which brings together the top 16 teams overall in 1A to 3A based on power rankings, has the makings of an intriguing tournament over the next few weeks.

When breaking down tournaments, it can be hard to look past the top seed like San Tan Charter after producing the season the Roadrunners have this year. They went 20-3 overall, including 11-0 in 2A Conference games.

San Tan, the 2A title winner in 2024, is the odds-on favorite considering the athleticism, size and season resume (20-1 vs. Arizona teams).

"They are the team to beat," Valley Christian coach Greg Haagsma said. "They've had a great season, and they are hard to match up with because of their size and athleticism."

Yet, on the other side of the bracket lurks second-seeded Valley Christian.

The Trojans have won four straight state championships, including last year's inaugural Copper tournament. Valley Christian has won 10 state titles all under Haagsma.

"We definitely start with a target on our backs because of the success we've had in the past," said Valley Christian senior Colby Jessup said. "It's why we have to bring it every game. It's all about ourselves, and if we play our best we feel like no one can beat us."

Valley Christian hasn't had its usual regular season at 18-7, considering the Trojans lost a total of seven games over the previous three seasons.

A closer look shows the defeats were against some of the better programs from the bigger school conferences and out-of-state teams. The Trojans, who enter with a 12-game win streak, truly found out what it can accomplish in a stretch of eight games in 17 days against some of the 3A's better programs.

Valley Christian entered the year with a younger team than usual while also folding in transfer Calvin McCrory (12.6 points).

"I don't feel bad that now because it prepared us for a great run in January," Haagsma said about the tough December schedule. "We had a gauntlet of a run. I don't think there is another team that played a stretch like that, and part of the success was because of the tougher games we played earlier in the year."

It's going take that and more to get past San Tan if both teams advance to the title game.

The Roadrunners are entering the tournament on a 10-game win streak, their offense is averaging 97.3 points a game during the streak and have has outscored opponents by an average of 36 points a game.

The offense is led by Peyton Lubash at 22.8 points a game, while three others are also in double figures in Kristo Jackson (15.5), Dylan Vargas (13.6) and Jase Benjamin (12.3).

Jachin Reynolds leads the team in rebounds at 6.9, while Benjamin and Vargas averaged 6.3 and 5.5, respectively. Tori Street leads in assists (4.6) and steals (2.8) with Jackson close behind at 3.1 assists and 2.6 steals.

"We are free flowing on offense, score a lot on transition and everyone can get to the basket," San Tan coach Kyli Crooms said. "We are really good defensively, and our offense usually feeds off the defense. The most points we've allowed is 66 and that was early in the season. We played good team defense and it's more important than the offense this time of the season."

While San Tan has been on good run, the regular season ended with a closer than expected 40-37 win over Pima.

"It was a trap game, and I knew it, but we needed it," Crooms said. "We had a good streak to end the year last year, not playing a game closer than 25 points, and when we got into a close game in the (Copper semifinals) we didn't hold our composure."

"Playing a close game was important, and they found a way to get it done. (A loss) could have altered our postseason so it was good for them to have battled with something on the line."

There will be other challengers no doubt as No. 3 Benjamin Franklin, No. 4 Palo Verde and No. 5 Phoenix Country Day have to the ability breakthrough against one of the top two teams.

There's something to be said for a 1A school hosting a first-round game as Seton Catholic of 3A travels to Fort Thomas after the Apaches went 29-4 overall and 19-0 in regular season games.

If Fort Thomas makes a run in this portion of the tournament, Channing Wilson (14.8 points, 6.3 rebounds), Michael Olivar (14.0 points, 8.5 rebounds) and Damarae Dosela (14.0, 11.9 rebounds, 5.0 assists) likely play a crucial role as the tandem has been one of the better duos in the smaller divisions.

Third-seed Ben Franklin is 25-4 as the journey begins with only two losses against Arizona squads, including to No. 4 Palo Verde (19-5) on Jan 17.

It all adds up to an interesting run of games over the two weeks plus to crown the second Copper champion, and if anyone knows how to hold the gold ball at the end of the season, it is Haagsma and the Trojans.

"There is some luck involved in this," he said. "More than anything, it takes being consistent. That's where the defense is a big difference. If you show up defensively, you will give yourself a chance to win every night."

"It's going to take a special night, make shots and do the little things very well. You have to be a smart in all facets."

Valley Christian will attempt to become just the third program to win five consecutive boys basketball titles. (Jose Garcia photo/AZPreps365)

SNOWFLAKE, TUBA CITY MIGHT BE HEADED TO A COPPER DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP SHOWDOWN

Andy Morales
AZPreps365.com

The top-seeded Snowflake girls ended the regular season with a 27-1 record overall, with the one loss coming to 5A power Pueblo in Tucson way back in November.

The 50-47 loss came against a program that is currently ranked in the top ten of the Open Division. In addition, the 3A Lobos have victories over 6A Queen Creek along with 5A Flowing Wells and 4A teams Poston Butte, Amphitheater, Sahuarita and Dysart. The Lobos finished with a perfect 18-0 record in conference play.

The Lobos went 16-3 in the 3A Conference last season but still came away with the conference championship, the first state for the program since 1997 and the seventh state championship overall dating back to 1977. The Lobos took second place in 2021 to Page.

Leading the way for Mike Brogan's program is senior Ryah Denhalter. Denhalter scored 12 points against Pueblo, and she is averaging 13.4 points an outing this year.

She also led the team last year with a 12.3 average. Fellow seniors Bryn Kupfer (7.6) and Ranell West (7.2) lead the team in scoring and the trio is followed by four sophomores, AJ Yarn (6.9), Josie Clare (6.8), Harli Nichols (5.2), and Aubrie Denhalter (4.0).

Denhalter was averaging 4.4 points a game as a sophomore in 2024 and there were four seniors ahead of her but 2025 came along and the team was under her leadership. Expect something similar to happen next year when the four sophomores take the program over.

Nothing is guaranteed with No. 2 Tuba City (22-3) coming in as the second seed in the Copper Division. The Warriors pushed the Lobos to the limit in a 61-60 loss at home after outscoring

Snowflake 22-13 in the fourth quarter. Tuba City made it to the semifinal round of the Copper Division last year and the program is led by freshman sensation Layla Curtis, who is averaging 20.5 points a game, including 26 against Snowflake. Senior Aubrey Begaye is next at 10.8 and sophomore Nakota Tallman is averaging 9.3. It's easy to expect a rematch in the Copper Division championship game.

No. 3 Pima (22-4) is also in the mix as the top-ranked 2A team in the state. The Roughriders made it to the 2A semifinal round last year and in 2024 after winning it all in 2021, 2022 and 2023. If the Roughriders are sent back to the 2A playoffs, then that state championship just might be theirs for the taking.

Junior Hanna Ashby leads the team with 11.9 points a game, senior Macy Allred is putting up 9.7 points and junior Morgan Russell is scoring 7.1 points.

Another 2A team, San Carlos (18-6), is expected to be ranked high in the Copper Division with the Braves beating Pima 53-32 on Jan. 30 to win the 2A East Region championship. San Carlos made it to the 2A quarterfinal round last year. The Braves have never played in a state championship game, but that could end this year depending on how the first two rounds of the Copper Division play out. Senior Kylee Juan surpassed 1,000 career points on Jan. 15 and has several college offers.

No. 4 Valley Christian (17-7) is led by junior Abby Grier at 19 points per game, senior Ellie Phillips adds 18.2 points a game and sophomore Addison Krupnik scores 10.2 points a game. The Trojans lost to Snowflake 51-35 on Jan. 17.

Phillips scored 25 points in the loss, but Snowflake had even scoring from six players.

No. 6 Window Rock (18-8) is led by freshman Tiana Edison with 14.8 points a game and senior Kourtney Bitselley with 11.7 points an outing. No. 7 St. John's (27-4) is led by junior Avalon Udall with 9 points a game and No. 8 Page (13-13) is led by senior Tayla Franklin with 14.6 points a game.

Phoenix Country Day won the Copper Division last year, but the Eagles are headed to the 2A bracket this year with a 17-6 record. Page took second place and Chinle was the top seed in the Copper Division last year. But the Wildcats were sent back to the 3A playoffs where the team finished in the semifinal round.

The Wildcats did not qualify for the Copper Division this year. Three of the higher seeds did not make it past the second round of the Open Division last year, including No. 1 Chinle, No. 3 Snowflake and No. 4 Miami.

Miami did not qualify for the Copper Division this year.
