HIGHLAND GIRLS LOOKING TO FIVE-PEAT, BUT EVERYTHING MUST GO RIGHT

By Jason Skoda
AZPreps365.com

Of all the high school sports in Arizona, one sport might have more programs rip off at least five straight team champions than all of the sports.

Cross country teams seem to find a way to have sustained excellence and win titles for a half a decade or more including at the Division I level.

The Highland girls have an opportunity to join that elite group as the Hawks have won four straight and are the favorites in Division I again this year when the starter gun goes off Saturday, Nov. 15 at Cave Creek Golf Course.

The Hawks are not the only team to have this level of success. The Hopi boys program is in a category by itself as it won a national record 27 straight titles from 1990 to 2016.

In addition to Hopi, five other boys programs have at least five consecutive team titles.

On the girls side of team championships, five different programs have pulled off a five-peat a total of seven different times, with Hopi and Flagstaff doing it twice.

It's rarer to accomplish in the largest division as it has only happened only once on the girls side when Xavier won six straight from 2007 to 2012. On the boys side, only Desert Vista's squad won five straight in the largest classification, accomplishing it from 2014-2018.

The coach then and now for Desert Vista is Chris Hanson. He believes there are several aspects to a season that have to go right to repeat as team champions, including wiping out the mindset of past success as nothing is given and all is earned.

"When we won five straight, each year we preached 'This isn't last year,'" Hanson said. "The culture, however, always remains as a proponent of keeping 'the process' in everything we did."

And something that might be even more vital for the annual success was the idea of being the first group to have it end.

"Each class didn't want to let the streak to end," Hanson said.

The guilt of falling short, in other words, letting down those who came before them, is part of it.

Culture is another trait. Luck and health are always involved along with having sustained success and the fact that underclassmen can have a huge impact, as physicality and size are not as much of a factor compared to contact sports plays a part as well.

The Hawks are in the midst of it and have a chance to break into that elite category of winning five straight big-school titles. One more great team effort and the Hawks will have won a team title for a half-a-decade consecutively.

It means some runners have won the team title their entire careers.

"I believe the success we have had over the past four years is not attributed to one thing," Highland co-head coach Tara Hall said. "But rather several things such as our team culture, talented athletes and work ethic to name a few. The girls hold each other accountable to be at practice, work hard and support each other."

"We try to have fun along the way and not take things too seriously. We do have some talented underclassmen who look up to the upper-class girls. This helps motivate the younger girls to carry on the winning tradition."

The Hawks easily won their Division I Northeast meet to qualify for state as their top five runners finished within the top 12 led by sophomore Natalia Morris, senior Audra Huempfer, sophomore Katelyn Anderson, sophomore Ella Bonnette, and senior Camryn Delancey.

Desert Vista and Xavier will push the Hawks in the team race.

The individual title will be competitive as well with Basha's Taylor Drewry, Xavier's Kennedy Frakes and Morris contending for the best time.

On the boys side, Mountain Ridge looks to be the team to beat with Basha, Desert Vista, Rincon and Hamilton as contenders as well.

Hamilton's Zarian Rodriguez is the defending state champion and will be pushed by Desert Vista's Santiago Araiza, and he will have to contend with Cibola's Caius Lastra, Rincon's Finnegan Hawes, Red Mountain's Crew Comish, and the Mountain Ridge duo of Colin Foley and Jake Olson.

The key to being successful on the season's final event is to make sure to taper off at the right time with the hope of peaking in November.

"Cross country is a long season that begins during the summer," Hall said. "Summer training is important to our success in the fall. We use the summer to build a solid base and schedule meets during the season that allow the girls to compete against the best runners in the state."

"We don't necessarily back off but tell the girls that the training is a process and if they trust the process the results will come."

MARTIN, PAGE AIM TO MAKE IT FOUR STRAIGHT BOYS DIVISION-III TITLES

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

Coming up just short of an individual Division III title in 2023 and 2024, Page cross-country standout Symond Martin is ready to take his place in the Arizona history books when the 2025 Cross-Country State Championships get underway Saturday at Cave Creek Golf Course in Phoenix.

Martin said he's ready to win it all.

"I am going into state with a mindset that I can take it out from the gun and win the state title," said the senior, who was named 3A North region Runner of the Year this fall.

As a team, Page is the three-time defending state champion and they'll be going for a fourth straight title, and the program's 21st overall, which would tie them with Tuba City for second-most cross-country team championships in Arizona history. Hopi is the all-time leader with 27, dominating the 1990s and early 2000s until their last title in 2016.

"If we all put ourselves out there, we will earn the team title for a fourth year in a row," Martin said. "My favorite part of cross-country is winning the races individually and as a team, and all the activities that me and my team do together during practice and outside of practice.

Martin's little brother Max, a freshman, is already one of the top runners in the state. And if you include junior Jaiden Jordan, and seniors Desmond Goldtooth, Brydan Bennett and Maximus Reid, the Sand Devils are a formidable team at any state level.

Symond began his cross-country career in the third grade, making early morning runs to continue the longtime tradition of all Page runners, including his father and current head coach, Tim Martin.

"My dad loved running a lot and I just wanted to be like him and win races," Symond said. "Running for my dad reassures me that I am getting the right training for me to excel in the sport that I'm in."

A former state champion himself, Tim Martin was an All-American in college running for Northern Arizona University and won a Big Sky individual championship during his time in the Lumberjacks program.

The NAU Hall of Famer (Class of 2005) said he attributes the Sand Devils' success to the history of the program for the last three decades.

"The standard that has been set for the last 30 years, at Page, kids are expected to win in cross-country, so these student athletes have that mindset from the start," Tim said. "They know the time it requires to excel and the discipline it takes."

And when he coaches his children, those "expectations" are no different. In fact, they are likely higher.

"Coaching Symond and Max, [it's] a little different from other runners. First, my expectations for them are very high, seeing them at home and practice, making sure they are doing the right maintenance and recovery I preach at practice. I think it gives them some advantages," Tim said. "They do press some buttons on coach sometimes, but overall, it's been great coaching them."

Notes

Hamilton's Zarian Rodriguez is the defending Division I champ. ... Glendale Prep won its first state title last year and returns all seven varsity runners. The team is led by Tanner Janssen, Daniel Andersen and Luke Webdale, who finished last year with personal bests and within six seconds of each other. ... Valley Lutheran's Benjamin Benally is the defending Division IV champ.

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
