5A-6A PREVIEW: WITH LEVEL OF PLAY INCREASING, KEY INGREDIENTS NEEDED TO MAKE POSTSEASON RUN

By Jason Skoda
AZPreps365.com

In order to understand how good flag football has become in Arizona in just three short seasons take a look at some of the programs that failed to make the postseason this year.

The programs that finished just outside of the top 16 in 6A and 5A for the 2025 playoffs probably would have been placed somewhere in the middle of the seeded teams in 2023 bracket.

"There are some really good teams that didn't make it into the playoffs this year," Hamilton coach Matt Stone said. "A few years ago, there's no question teams like Perry and Corona del Sol would be still be playing."

"It goes to show how far this sport has become already. The coaches are better, the players are better, and the level of play is exponentially better."

Over the next 11 days, the top teams in the 6A and 5A flag football state championships will have the opportunity to show off the improvements and investments programs around the state have put into their teams.

The first three rounds of the 16-team tournaments are hosted by the higher seed, with the first round on Nov. 12, quarterfinals on Nov. 15 and the semifinals on Nov. 19.

The state championships will be a quadruple header as all four conferences play at Corona del Sol on Saturday, Nov. 22.

The top four seeds – Highland, Marana, Hamilton, and Red Mountain in 6A and Campo Verde, Chaparral, Casa Grande, and AZ College Prep in 5A – have earned a possibility of three home games.

"We intentionally built one of the toughest schedules in the state to challenge our team early and strengthen our résumé with high power points throughout the season," Marana coach Shaun Lara said. "More importantly, our players stayed consistent, focused, and never overlooked an opponent. That mindset has been the key to earning the No. 2 seed heading into playoffs."

As the tournament fields narrow with each successive round, what does it take for teams to advance to the championship games?

It has become clear an elite quarterback is vital to success, but it doesn't stop there. A dynamic wide receiver or two is just as important. Putting points on the board is always a good idea.

The biggest difference, however, might be a defensive unit that can limit points and stop drives, which goes a long way in helping a team make it to the title game.

It's an offensive game. No doubt. Seven players on the field creates a ton of space that isn't available in a 11-man game.

In order to stop, or at least slow down the opposition, is as vital as anything else. Looking at the teams that made it to the championship game last season, the defense was stifling for the four teams that made the 6A and 5A championship games.

In the three rounds leading up to the championship game in 2024, the four teams that advanced to the championship game gave up an average of 4.5 points a game with six shutouts in 12 total games.

Add in the new rules – eliminating the kickoff and starting drives at the 14-yard line – and defenses really have a chance of shifting the game.

"Having a strong defense is very crucial to field position and momentum," Campo Verde coach Brian Coger said. "If you have a strong defense, you are creating good field position for your offense."

If the defense is opportunistic with interceptions, getting sacks and disrupting the offensive rhythm of the opponent it can be the difference between being a state qualifier and state champion.

"Turnovers are unique in our sport as they have to come through interceptions and not fumbles," Stone said. "An interception can flip the field and completely swing the all-important field position before for the half."

It means the biggest weapons of the state tournament might come on the defensive side.

It could be 6A sack leader Ava Klene, who had 42 sacks for Red Mountain, while Highland's Kylee Riggs finished with 37. In 5A, Campo Verde's Payton Davis had 45, North's Avyanne Buchanan has 27 and Mountain Pointe's Malia Cooks had 22.

When it comes to interceptions, the leaders in 5A were Chaparral's Stella Hulse who had 20, Casa Grande's Kayla Tacker with 16 and Desert Mountain's Caroline Workman and Jaiyana Bogan-Jacobs of Campo Verde had 15 each, while 6A leaders who made the playoffs are Liberty's Makenna Johnson with 14, Mountain View's Emma Fischbeck at 13 and Hamilton's Samaya Taylor Jenkins with 10.

"I love making big plays on defense," said Taylor Jenkins after she had a Pick 6 against Highland in the championship game in the Copper State Invitational in October. "You take their momentum away, and if you take it to the house, it's hurts even more."

*Campo Verde is one of the favorites in 5A to win the title, something it accomplished two years ago.

3A-4A PREVIEW: LOOKING AT POTENTIAL FIRST-TIME WINNERS IN BOTH CONFERENCE TOURNAMENTS

By Brian M. Bergner Jr.
AZPreps365.com

After a successful first season of flag football for smaller schools across the state of Arizona, many programs are excited to begin the playoffs in the 3A and 4A conferences this week.

MINGUS

After making the 4A state playoffs a season ago as a No. 10 seed, only to lose to Benjamin Franklin 28-7, Mingus (12-2, 5-1 4A Grand Canyon) is back for more and are currently riding a five-game winning streak.

"I really feel that the success of our program can be attributed to our dedication, commitment, and practice during the offseason. We participated in summer tournaments, practices and scrimmages, playing against some of the toughest schools in our state and country to inspire our drive and raise the bar," coach Dave Moncibaez said.

Players to watch include Karstyn Richardson, Maddie Babcock, Kambra Hahn and Rory Murphy, a senior quarterback who had 2,277 passing yards this season, good enough for second in the region.

"These girls have put a lot of blood, sweat, and tears, into the season," Moncibaez said. "We are ready to put Mingus on the map." The No. 3-seeded Marauders open the 4A state playoffs by hosting No. 14 Bradshaw Mountain on Wednesday, Nov. 12. Kickoff is scheduled for 6 p.m.

EASTMARK

The No. 2-seeded Firebirds (11-3, 5-0 4A East Sky) have won three straight heading into the 4A state playoffs and will host No. 15 Westview on Nov. 12, 6 p.m.

Eastmark's Kinsley McCarty is a player to watch as she led the team in scoring this year despite recovering from an ACL injury a year ago. Another wideout to watch is Mikaela Oberstein, who played tackle football her freshman year.

PRESCOTT

The Badgers (14-2, 6-0 4A Grand Canyon) come into the state playoffs as the No. 1 seed and are looking to hoist a state championship trophy after coming so close a season ago, losing 10-7 in the title game against St. Mary's.

Players to watch for Prescott include quarterback Rianna Aguilar and speedster Maggie Maneely, which have both helped the program win 29 games in their first two years in the league.

Prescott opens the 4A state playoffs against No. 16 ALA-Queen Creek on Nov. 12, 6 p.m.

OTHER TEAMS TO WATCH

Flagstaff earned a No. 5 seed and hosts No. 12 Lee Williams, a team they beat 10-9 in mid-October. The Eagles (12-2) lost on a last-second play to No. 1-seeded Prescott near the end of the season, and lost by one score to Mingus (10-3) on Oct. 28. ... No. 4 Salpointe Catholic (12-1) recorded 11 shutout victories this season in 13 games played allowing points against Marana (44-10 loss) and Casa Grand (31-6 win). The Lancers have outscored their opponents 529-50 this season, and they open the 4A state playoffs against No. 13 Deer Valley.

3A STATE PLAYOFFS

SCOTTSDALE CHRISTIAN

The No. 2-seeded Eagles went undefeated (12-0) in their first 3A conference flag football season, outscoring their opponents 488-21.

Coach Ryan Fisher said their success is based on the culture created in year one, which is based on faith, fun and accountability.

"We have fun. We joke. We laugh. We encourage each other. Our players enjoy watching each other's success," Fisher said. "We hold each other accountable. We have a standard of play and if you want minutes on the field, you must play to the standard."

Players to watch include junior running back Nola Bynum, who scored 18 touchdowns this season and had 50 catches to lead the club. Quarterback Campbell Reader completed 70% of her passes this season, throwing 42 touchdowns to just four interceptions and rushed for 11 scores.
