DI: O'CONNOR AND XAVIER PREP ON A COLLISION COURSE AGAIN? DII: GILBERT CHRISTIAN, FLAGSTAFF TOP CONTENDERS

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Sandra Day O'Connor's Division I state record streak ended this season to the program it overtook for beach supremacy.

Estrella Foothills is undefeated, but defending its Division II championship will be no easy task.

As the beach volleyball state tournaments approach, those are two of the big story lines. The D-I and II 16-team state tournaments begin April 20 at the homes of the high seeds, with the semifinal and championship matches scheduled for April 27 at 29 at Casteel High.

The O'Connor Eagles, the four-time defending D-I champs, lost only once during that dominant stretch while establishing their dynasty. While doing so, they also snapped the two-year state title reign of Xavier Prep, which won eight of the first nine team state championship tournaments that were held.

But this year, Xavier Prep reminded folks that it's still capable of returning to the top after snapping the 64-match state streak of the program is lost to in the 2025 and 2022 finals—O'Connor.

"We've had a lot of respect for their program and coaches for a long time," said Xavier Prep coach Tim McHale of O'Connor. "They've been the standard in Arizona beach volleyball for several years now."

So guess who wound up as the No. 1 and 2 state seeds in D-I this season?

Top-seeded Xavier Prep and O'Connor are led by strong senior classes. Leading the way for Xavier Prep is the No. 1 seed in the pairs state D-I tournament, seniors Kate MacDonald and Vivian Hickman.

Runner-up the last two years with different partners, MacDonald is aiming to finally secure a pairs title.

"What makes (MacDonald and Hickman) effective together is that they compete the same way every single point at a very high level," McHale said. "They bring the same level of focus whether they're up or down, and at this level that's rare. Beyond volleyball, they're both good people who make everyone around them better. That matters more than any individual skill."

There is another senior that holds a special place in McHale's heart, Delaney, McHale's daughter.

"She has handled both the hard moments and the good ones and never strayed from who she is," said McHale about his daughter after azpreps365 asked him about his final postseason with Delaney. "That's something a dad gets to carry for the rest of his life. As a coach, I'm proud of her the same way I'm proud of every senior in this program."

O'Connor coach Jamey Spartz feels the same way about her 11 seniors.

O'Connor's top doubles team also is comprised of seniors, Delaney Singleton and Kaylee Woodruff, the No. 2 seed in the D-I pairs state tournament.

"Delaney and Kaylee are both high level players with exceptional beach IQ," Spartz said. "Kaylee is a dominant presence at the net as a full-time blocker with over a 10-foot reach, forcing opponents to adjust strategies. She maintains a very high side-out percentage. Delaney is a dynamic offensive and defensive player. She's quick, reads the game extremely well and executes with precision through her shot selection and high contact swings."

Woodruff returned to competition March 25 and didn't drop a set in the six matches she played with Singleton.

O'Connor lost just one pairs match since its 3-2 team loss to Xavier on March 4.

"We've faced a lot of adversity early in the season with injuries, and our players really stepped up to fill those roles in a fantastic way," Spartz said.

Estrella Foothills (12-0) also had players step up after graduating four starters last year that helped the program win its first title.

The title triumph attracted more players to sign up this season. The Wolves' MVP, Autumn Hill, however, didn't go anywhere.

Notre Dame's Lauren Watson (left) is chasing a three-peat in pairs. But she'll do so with a new partner this year. Watson teamed up with Emma McSorley (right) to win the previous two D-I pairs titles. (Jose Garcia photo/AZPreps365)

The Long Beach State beach commit is back and teamed up with Boise State-bound Sadie Snyder this season to finish 12-0 in the regular season.

"Autumn and Sadie are close friends and have a lot of fun playing together," Estrella Foothills coach Christian Millhiser said.

Millhiser's program pulled off some "miracles" last year to win the team title and, as the 5th seed this year, and will likely need to do so again to repeat as champ.

No. 1 Flagstaff (13-0) and No. 2 Gilbert Christian (14-0), which have lost only three combined pairs matches, appear to be the favorites in D-II this season. Annually, Flagstaff deals with some challenges due to its weather and securing court time.

But, it seems, every year coach Beth Haglin and her girls produce despite the odds. This year's team is very close.

"The team is honestly just a bunch of goofballs that just love life and have fun," Haglin said.

Junior Brynn Hagerman and sophomore Harleigh Moseng, Flagstaff's No. 1's, are 13-0 and have played together since they were in 7th grade, Haglin said.

"They stay positive on the court with each other and themselves," Haglin said. "They are also very coachable. There is mutual respect. I can get on them and they trust that it is just about what is going on on the court. Nothing personal. They trust and know I love them completely."

This year, Gilbert Christian rostered its most talented and deepest team yet, coach William Tennison said. Three Division I products, Alex Heyn (USC beach), Lillie Duitsman (GCU beach) and Sienna Cathey (Cal Poly indoor), lead the charge for Gilbert Christian.

Heyn and Duitsman are the defending D-II pairs champ.

"Our beach team always spends three days over Spring Break in Mission Beach for spring training," Tennison said. "The time away from commitments and schedules gives our players a chance to play lots of volleyball and bond together as a team and through nightly devotions. Remember, there are more important aspects to life than volleyball."

Notes

D-I: This is the biggest group of seniors (8) Desert Vista has dressed in the past nine years. The culture the program keeps building also has played a big role in this year's success, coach Rick Schapler said. "The best way to describe it is that they are all friends," coach said. "They all enjoy each other, even though the competition is high." Bristyn Burness and Reese Ragains are DV's No. 1's. "They have great chemistry and work extremely hard," coach said. ... Bailey Kealy (Oregon) and Lauren Watson (University of San Diego) are 11-1 for Notre Dame. Watson won the 2025 D-I pairs title along with Emma McSorley. McSorley's mom, Leanne, a former pro, has been super beneficial as an assistant, coach Jamie Walsh said. "Having six seniors contributing to our matches this season has been very helpful because they're all experienced and comfortable with how the season flows," Walsh said. ... Sisters Ella and Lily Sullivan are 6-2 for Red Mountain this season. "Being sisters allows them to push each other a bit harder and hold their teammate accountable even more," coach Carlos Flys said. "In my years of coaching beach, pairing up sisters or best friends can either be very effective or a complete disaster. This year it has worked out well. Another shoutout to our No. 2's, Taylor Thelan and Ireland Ryan. They have been very successful and a positive pair for our team."

D-II: This is the first time that Saguaro won a region championship. "It has taken this team a little longer than teams in the past, but the girls are definitely getting comfortable with each other and are beginning to understand the best ways to support their teammates," coach David Mietzner said. "The second thing is that the girls have gained confidence in their playing once they realized their exceptional skill level." Nyla Bibby and Sloan Kribel are 10-1 this year at No. 1. "They are both exceptional athletes and are quietly incredibly competitive," coach said. "When they are out on the court they have what I call reserved confidence. The girls never show frustration or stress and always support each other throughout each match." ... Sophomore twins Sophia and Emma Weller of Scottsdale Christian have lost just four of their 27 sets. "They make it look effortless," coach Rylie Morrison said. "They put their heads down and go to work every day. They're steady. They don't ride the roller coaster, and their consistency really separates them."

Defending champ Estrella Foothills returned some firepower, but so did other contenders in Division II. (Jose Garcia photo/AZPreps365)

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
