Welcome to the State Championships

Welcome to the AIA State Championships! On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, all of its member schools and more than 130,000 student-athletes statewide, we are excited to host our incredible student-athletes, coaches, families, and fans for an unforgettable celebration of talent and teamwork. Your dedication and passion make this event truly special, and we are so grateful for your support!

This championship is more than just competition—it's a chance to bring school communities together to celebrate and showcase sportsmanship, school spirit, incredible athletic talent and the lessons in leadership that our student-athletes are building. From the field to the stands, let's cheer for our teams with respect and pride, creating an outstanding environment for all.

For over a century, the AIA has championed the importance of education-based athletics to shape strong, successful futures and assist in providing opportunities for student-athletes to become leaders and positive, contributing members of our future. The thousands of student-athletes that participate every year in high school athletic contests in State 48 are proof that participation builds character, boosts academic success, increases high school graduation rates and fosters healthy lives. Let's keep the energy high and honor the commitment to elevating opportunities for student-athletes and the leadership lessons it provides.

Here's to an exciting championship that inspires excellence and creates memories for years to come! Remember, that these in our community are, "our students, our teams and our future." Good luck!

PERRY LOOKS TO MAKE NOISE AGAIN IN 6A, BUT NEW CONTENDERS ARISE

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Nationally ranked top-10 Perry is the defending champ and has looked unstoppable at times against in state opponents.

It returned key players from last year's title victory over Highland. But nothing is guaranteed.

Perry needed five sets to take down Highland in 2025. Here's a look at some of the favorites.

BROPHY PREP: The bond the nine seniors share helped the team during the transition to new setters at the start of the season, veteran coach Tony Oldani said. Jude Keane, a four-year varsity member and starter on the 6A 2024 state championship team, has proved his worth during matches and practice. "I can't say enough about the kid," Oldani said. Another player who stepped up is middle Barrett Simon, a tremendous competitor, according to coach. "He was the driving force behind our resiliency before we lost him to a concussion at the Brophy Invite," Oldani said. Beni Sarreal asserted himself as the team's go-to attacker.

CASTEEL: The battle tested Colts' losses to higher ranked opponent helped the squad grow immensely. The team captains are Jack Telford, Jaxon Holmes and Stratton Evans. "Jack is the most dominant offensive weapon on the court, and he is having an outstanding season," coach Ryan Meyn said. "Our libero, Will Schneiderman, and setter, Gavin Meyn, help run our offense and defense run smoothly night in and night out." Concussions, broken fingers, knee and ankles, you name it, Casteel has faced it terms on injuries this year. Meyn is hoping his team will be ready to roll during the playoffs.

CHANDLER: Seven of the Wolves are three-year varsity players. Four of the 10 seniors, Jacob Mayer (Concordia Irvine), Ethan Dye (Vassar College), Spencer Shuey (Roanoke College), and Daivon Walton (Concordia Wisconsin), are college commits. Mayer, Dye and libero Anthony Quintana are the captains. Coach Bobby Robson has had only two losing seasons in his 11 year at Chandler. "We have had a really consistent effort over the last decade," Robson said. "Continuity in my coaching staff and in our program and athletic administration has allowed for the kids to know what to expect, and be put in the best position to succeed."

MOUNTAIN VIEW (MESA): The Toros may lack height and power but not will and defense. The very determined team wound up winning its region. "We talk a lot about risk management and decision-making," coach Kevin Powell said. "Our team has the mentality that if another team beats us, it will be because we are physically overwhelmed by their height and attacking not because of our poor decisions and errors." Beach standout Matix Williams embodies everything the Toros are about. The senior is in his 4th year as a varsity player. The "high-flyer" on the team is the "dynamic" Caleb Booth. He's only a freshman, but Powell said Paxon Boynton is already one of the top liberos.

PERRY: It's pick your poison with the 6A favorite. There's 6-9 junior Tommy Henige (6A best .530 hitting percentage, 61 blocks) patrolling the middle. There's also junior outside Dax Stones (No. 4 in 6A hitting .401). And can't forget about 6-7 Logan Gray and junior Everett Wagner, who are also in the top-10 in hitting percentage in 6A. Quarterbacking maxpreps' No. 10 team in the nation is another talented junior, setter Tate Higgins, who is also a threat as a server.

RED MOUNTAIN: The program reached the playoffs for the third consecutive year. "The bond our players have off the court has really allowed things to click this year," second-year coach Anthony Dallmeyer said. A core group of seniors who have played in the program the last four years helped to team to become a united front. "Team captain Caleb Haskett plays with more passion and fire than any kid I've ever coached," Dallmeyer said. "That kind of energy is infectious in a locker and elevates the play of those around him. Brexton Tompkinson and Dallin Pennington are also incredibly dominant on the outside, which has allowed us to have an effective offense." Dallmeyer added that he's seen senior middle Trey Rich and junior libero Sterling Bishop blossom over the last year.

SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR: There's some mystery with the team, ranked in the top-40 by maxpreps and is 26-2 heading into the playoffs. The team's only losses came to out of state teams. It has played only three of the other teams, Brophy, Casteel and Brophy, that earned automatic state bids. 6-7 Chayce Mondino was averaging close to three kills per set after the team's first 16 matches. The team also carries three other players who are 6-5 or taller.

WILLIAMS FIELD: Senior outside hitter Colten Mortensen and senior setter Luke Nguyen are leading the charge for the team this year. "Colten has been very consistent throughout the season in every skill," coach Jake Burdick said. "He's very reliable in whatever we need him to do. Luke is very good at helping everyone play together and bring the energy to every point." As the USA's No. 1 U-18 beach team, sophomore setter/right side Caden Phillips and sophomore outside hitter Gavin Mortensen recently won a North, Central America and Caribbean Volleyball Confederation (NORCECA) tournament in the Dominican Republic.

PARITY IN 5A TOURNAMENT WILL MAKE THIS POSTSEASON FUN TO WATCH

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

Campo Verde is the defending champ. Last year's runner-up, Arizona College Prep, is the fifth seed this year.

But Cienega and Ironwood, for now, appear to be the favorites in 5A this year. Those two played early in the season, with Ironwood winning a tournament match in two games.

But Ironwood looked a bit vulnerable during a loss near the regular season. It should be a good fight all the way to the end in this tournament.

BUCKEYE UNION: "This is the fourth year of our program," coach Timothy Furco said. "Our guys have grown, developed and ultimately improved each year, which has been awesome to see." This is the first time that the program has finished atop the Desert West Region standings and has won a school record 18 matches so far. Eli Ramirez (3.9 kills per set) and Carson Skinner (47 aces) are helping the program reach new heights.

CAMPO VERDE: The defending champ returned a good core with varsity experience, coach Zachary Robinson said. "They are stand-outs athletes and have done a great job building chemistry and playing our games this year," coach said. "We have a lot of options and utilize them." Josh Ikeda and Owen Horton are in the top-10 in hitting in 5A. Carter Silbergieith is approaching 600 assists for the season. Noah Partridge and Trevor Gamble have a combined 110-plus blocks.

CIENEGA: Chase Briggs and Andrew Keen are 5A's leading hitting percentage leaders, and the only ones in the conference hitting over .400. Caiden Mott has over 3,300 career assists. "This team is special this year," coach Heather Mott said. "The team consists of many of the younger siblings from families that have been with Cienega volleyball through some of our most successful years." Caiden's two older brothers won state with mom as the coach. Keen also had older brothers win titles. Jaden Clark's vertical is at 40 inches.

IRONWOOD: One of the favorites, Ironwood is loaded with seniors and hitters, beginning with Cuen Griffin and Connor Forsberg. "Cuen is one of our top playmakers," coach Damon Mays said. "He has a strong passion for the game and leads with his play and ability to score really from anywhere on the court. He has a true dog mentality, and you see that every time he's on the court." The "glue" to the team is libero Ivan Contreras. The offense runs through setter Jayden Trubl. Chance Langoni is a threat as well.

MOUNTAIN VIEW (MARANA): Congrats to coach Lindsey Spivey for reaching the 200-career win milestone. The team won its division of the Epic Tourneys Invitational at ASU. Chase Reidhead is in his second year as the team's starting setter. Reidhead and Sam Guillermo are in the top-5 of this year's graduating class. This is libero Gabe Montez's third tour on varsity. "Gabe's dedication to the team and his role on the court is unmatched," Spivey said. "Being a multi-sport athlete and captain has helped him to hold his teammates accountable to the highest of standards.

"(Chase) is a great lead by example type leader. He demands performance from his team and exemplifies, models this daily on the court and in the classroom."

WASHINGTON: The Rams went from 7-15 last year to 20-7 this year as a second-year program. Coach Carlos Lopez has been teaching for the past 18 years, including the past 12 at Washington. He is a former Centennial High football player but has coached different sports. Three of the team's four seniors are starters, including setter Byar Reh, who is second in assists in the state with 858. Junior Ben Marques is No. 2 in kills. "Our players have put in an incredible amount of work this season, and it's been rewarding to see that effort translate into success," Lopez said. "They have fully committed to learning the game and are continuously improving." In the first round, Washington will take on region mate Independence, which was the co-Central Valley Region champ this year. The two programs split their regular season meeting.

NOTES

Centennial, the 8th seed, will host No. 9 Catalina Foothills in the first round when the tournament begins on May 8. During an inspired five set performance, Centennial defeated No. 1 Ironwood on April 22nd, giving Ironwood its only loss to a 5A team this year. But it wasn't the first time Centennial surprised Ironwood, which lost to Centennial in last year's first round at state. If they win their first round state matches, the Northwest Region foes will meet in the second round.

Top-seeded Ironwood wants to keep the party going in the postseason. (Chris Hook photo/Max-Preps)

CAN SENIOR LEADERSHIP ELEVATE ALA-QUEEN CREEK TO ANOTHER 4A TITLE?

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

The recent meaningful battles between ALA-Queen Creek and ALA-Gilbert North helped it become one of the best volleyball rivalries in the state.

It seemed to start in 2022, when the programs met for the crown. Last year, ALA-Gilbert North swept its sister school twice during the regular season, but ALA-Queen Creek avenged those losses when it counted most—in the state semifinals, with a sweep of its own.

ALA-Queen Creek went on to win its third crown in the last five years. This year, the two went at it again, splitting their regular season confrontations.

So it comes as no surprise that the programs nabbed the top seeds in this year's state tournament. But there's plenty of talent in this year's bracket that can help teams pull off upsets.

"I've coached many teams with that potential but have never won a state championship," said ALA-Queen Creek first year coach Erica Crismon. "So I really try not to think that far ahead. Especially once we get to the playoffs—anything can happen. We're really working to stay focused on our process, progress and playing our best when we need to. Hopefully the rest will take care of itself."

Here's a look at some of the contenders.

ALA-GILBERT NORTH: The team avenged its April 10 loss to ALA-Queen Creek with a four set victory on April 26. It has only dropped one set in its last seven matches. Tate Willis is averaging three kills per game and had 11 in the big April 10 win. Fellow senior Jackson Anderson tallied 10 kills in that match. Gunner Martin leads the team in assists.

ALA-QUEEN CREEK: Eleven of the 12 players are seniors for the 4A defending champ. And ten of them are The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints members, coach Crismon said. "That's been the best part of this season," she said. "They are all truly friends and love each other like brothers." In a team full of stars, setter Hayden Holman, quiet leader Jonny Reheis and the hard working Britt DeWitt are the floor generals.

CACTUS SHADOWS: He had the experience, but Blake Hemming earned his role as the team's setter over time. "Watching his growth from a freshman to senior has been incredible," coach Shawn Covely said. "He has become a stand-out not only through his skills but through his grit and determination." The experienced team faced its share of obstacles this season, including an injury to libero Skylar Duffy, but still earned an automatic bid.

ESTRELLA FOOTHILLS: The team's only 4A losses came to the two favorites. It dresses a couple of heavy hitters in Vann Wenthe, the 4A's kills leader, and Lawson Hardman, the state's hitting percentage (.506) leader. It also starts a talented setter in Brogan Matteson, who was leading all the freshmen in the state in assists.

PARADISE HONORS: The program faced its share of challenges while attempting to establish itself over the years. But the dedication of the current group was rewarded with the program's best regular season to date. "Structure and discipline have been the pillar behind this team," coach Marquis Kelly said. Kelly is the program's first official head volleyball coach. He's been working with only 11 players in the entire program but still earned an automatic bid. Outside Patrick Dyson, right side Kai Harada and sophomores Brandon West and Parker LaChance have elevated the program to another level.

PRESCOTT: The team dresses eight seniors, including go-to co-captain Eli Buettner, co-captain Arwinn Heartisan, who runs the team's up-tempo offense, all-around threat Seth Peterson, basketball player Jack Gallaher, and all-rotation player Trace Thien. They are the team's leaders. "(The seniors) have developed a rapport with each other in previous years and have a lot of fun out on the court," coach Jill Thyr said. "I wanted to keep them engaged and challenged so it didn't become a coasting through of their last season together."

SALPOINTE CATHOLIC: Most of the players from last year's runner-up team are back to see if they can finally win the last 4A game of the year. The fathers of Cam Crowley and Donovan Leber played for Salpointe's volleyball team in 1994, the last time Salpointe won a title. Leber's brothers, Denton and Dawson, also played at Salpointe. This year, Reyes Gardner-Figueroa, a libero, Ethan Pinkney, who returned from injury, and middle blocker Shane Palmer lead the way.

ALA-Queen Creek has established itself as one of the powers in 4A volleyball.

TOP OF THE 2A BRACKET LOOK TO GET THEIR SHOT AT THE GOLD BALL

By Jose Garcia

Northwest Christian is making a habit of reaching the finals.

The Crusaders have appeared in a championship match every year except for one since 2021. Last year, it took home the inaugural 3A crown after defeating ALA-West Foothills in five games.

This year, however, ALA-West Foothills will start in the pole position in 3A after defeating Northwest Christian in their final regular season match to claim the West Region title. That was Northwest Christian's only blemish in its 17-1 regular season.

"This is a special group of boys, the first group to play all four years at the school and is the first four year graduating class at ALA-West Foothills," ALA-West Foothills coach Kendra Ritter said. "The program is looking strong, even as we move up to 4A next season. We have nine seniors, but our JV team is ready and capable to compete at the varsity level. This has been our best season so far with all three levels being undefeated to date."

Here's a look at the contenders for this year's 3A crown.

ALA-WEST FOOTHILLS: It's state championship or bust for those nine seniors on the team. Losing last year's final left a bitter taste. Losing also Lincoln Holdaway to injury also hurt last year, but he's back and so is his power. Setter Ethan Smead also was injured but didn't allow a deviated septum to keep him sidelined. "The team has the best chemistry, and our slogan for this season is 'Always Us Never Me,'" coach Ritter said.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN: The close-knit team is led by setter Brigg DeMarco and Braxen Shupe. "Our captains lead very well, and it all translates to the court come game time. They lead and bring the boys together more than I've seen before," first-year coach Ashton Meeks said. "They are just great humans."

GILBERT CLASSICAL: "Our team's success this season has come from a strong commitment to consistency, communication and trust," coach Alyssa Craig said. The team is led by senior Jotham Demellow and junior tone setter Zadok Hutchins. "What makes them stand out is their work ethic and willingness to lead by example," Craig said. "They hold themselves accountable, support their teammates and stay composed under pressure."

NORTH VALLEY CHRISTIAN: Brayden Hearty was third in 3A with 45 aces. Despite being inexperienced, the team earned a first round home playoff match. "As we've continued to develop technique, improve volleyball IQ and get reps together in practice, our players have adapted quickly and executed at a very high level in competition," coach Ryan Thomas said. The team's three captains are setter/opposite Brayden Hearty and outside hitters Zach Hespe and Ashton Olariu. "It's been incredible to watch each of them grow not only as athletes but also as young men of faith, using their gifts to encourage and motivate their teammates to bring their best effort and intensity," Thomas said.

NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN: Some of the players experienced their share of challenges off the court, but volleyball has provided an outlet, coach Charles Hunter said. "We have a young group of guys who have worked hard and waited patiently to get on the court," Hunter said. "Throughout the season we have had to learn how to battle and lead in the midst of the storms." Setter Gavin Helmer and libero Brayden Yee are the leaders for the defending champ. "Our program has been pretty strong the past six years," Hunter added. "ALA-West Foothills is a strong program and will be tough to beat. They beat us last year to win the conference. It was tough to lose, but the ultimate goal is to win state."

SABINO: Robert Kim was second in 3A in kills with 276 and was hitting .357. "He does not play club yet has such an understanding, love and high IQ of the game," coach Evie Quintana said. "He exemplifies what it means to lead and lead by example." The two other senior leaders on the team are libero Luke Musikul and setter Lance Moody. "The seniors I have I've coached since they were sophomores and truly lead in every way," coach said.

SETON CATHOLIC: The three-year varsity experience and leadership of Owen McAlevey and Brady Pritchard have helped guide this year's postseason team. Pritchard moved from the middle to the outside this season and is very versatile, coach John Engelbert said. Pritchard is in his second season at libero and is the vocal leader and the defense's captain. "In addition to them we have a great mix of returners along with a couple of new players in their first year who are contributing well," Engelbert said.

NOTES: The 3A tournament started on May 5 with every high seed winning their first round match except for one. St. John Paul II, the 9th seed, was the only road team to win in the first round. At 13-8, this is the first time that JP II has had a winning record and won a playoff game.

Last year wasn't the first time that Northwest Christian celebrated after a championship match. But it was the first time in 3A. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
