Welcome to the State Championships

Welcome to the AIA State Championships! On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, all of its member schools and more than 130,000 student-athletes statewide, we are excited to host our incredible student-athletes, coaches, families, and fans for an unforgettable celebration of talent and teamwork. Your dedication and passion make this event truly special, and we are so grateful for your support!

This championship is more than just competition—it's a chance to bring school communities together to celebrate and showcase sportsmanship, school spirit, incredible athletic talent and the lessons in leadership that our student-athletes are building. From the field to the stands, let's cheer for our teams with respect and pride, creating an outstanding environment for all.

For over a century, the AIA has championed the importance of education-based athletics to shape strong, successful futures and assist in providing opportunities for student-athletes to become leaders and positive, contributing members of our future. The thousands of student-athletes that participate every year in high school athletic contests in State 48 are proof that participation builds character, boosts academic success, increases high school graduation rates and fosters healthy lives. Let's keep the energy high and honor the commitment to elevating opportunities for student-athletes and the leadership lessons it provides.

Here's to an exciting championship that inspires excellence and creates memories for years to come! Remember, that these in our community are, "our students, our teams and our future." Good luck!

STANDING IN THE WAY OF HISTORY FOR SCOTTSDALE CHRISTIAN IS A LOADED FIELD

By Jose Garcia
AZPreps365.com

San Tan Charter, Scottsdale Christian and Willcox were the only teams that finished the regular season undefeated.

No surprise there, as the three reached the semifinals last year and returned plenty of firepower this season. But will we have a different ending this year, or will Scottsdale Christian four-peat and make history?

No other 2A football program has ever won four titles in a row. With a 24-team field, anything can happen.

Let's take a look at some of the favorites.

No. 1 Scottsdale Christian: The offense gets a lot of attention, but the defense was a brick wall this year, recording four shutouts and allowing just one team to score in double digits so far. Freshman Tucker Hensley emerged as a pleasant surprise at quarterback after an injury to the original starter. He's got an arsenal of weapons at his disposal, with Caleb Murphy, Dom Dickerson, Nathaniel Elrod, and Ben Watkins setting the pace. Kicker Max Pflederer is second all-time in AZ in PATs with 242.

No. 2 San Tan Charter: If it reaches the quarterfinals, senior OL/DL Carter Zirbes will set the school record for most starts with 50. Jr. RB Porter Smith was close to becoming the school's first 1,000-yard rusher in a season. Seniors Zirbes, Henry Tauscher and Maddox Schulte will continue their careers next year in college. STC's home win streak stands at 23. It will move up to 3A next season.

No. 3 Willcox: The Cowboys didn't skip a beat with new coach Steven Ward, executing their second consecutive double digit win season. "But what stands out most isn't just the record," Ward said. "It's the work, discipline and commitment these young men have put in to get here." Several players have stepped up while the team battled illnesses. Thousand-yard rushers Kaleb Cooke and Asher Ward have scored 43 of the team's 63 touchdowns. "One of the greatest stories of our season has been the incredible support from our small town," Ward said.

No. 4 Chandler Prep: The leadership of its 10 seniors is powering the team, and the aerial attack of QB Kody Dodson and receiver Aaron Crawford is lethal. Crawford is 143 receiving yards from becoming the 2A's all-time career leading receiving. "Our offense has played at a high level this year with Oliver Rodriguez really standing out making strides, Marshawn Britt running the ball really well, and our offensive line only allowing four sacks," coach Chris Ator said. Joey Busanni and Jackson Erwin have anchored the defense the last three years.

No. 5 Santa Cruz Valley: With most juniors and seniors working or playing another sport during the summer, the underclassmen took advantage, allowing the program to start a JV program for the first time in a long time. LJ James and Nathan Ruiz's move to guards solidified a front line that already boasts Francisco Hernandez, Adam Montijo and Roman De La Cruz. That also gave way for a more effective and balanced offense. "Guys have stepped up and focused on becoming the best they can personally to be in a position that benefits the team," coach Thomas Cortez said.

No. 6 Benson: "What started as a program searching for its identity has become a team built on commitment, toughness and belief," said coach Chris Rasmussen, who in his three years has brought stability to Benson. Its only two losses came to Willcox and Santa Cruz this season and won road games in a month during a stretch this season. First-year QB Cohen Barney stepped up and soaked up a lot of important lessons last year, Rasmussen said. Barney, Wayne Stark, Jake Scouten, Tyson Kilpatrick, and Ty Herrera are the leaders.

No. 7 Arizona Lutheran: The Coyotes are battle tested after having played the best-of-the best in 2A this season. It served as a great introduction for first-year coach Seth Zimmerman. "Our seniors have stepped up as incredible leaders alongside junior quarterback Nash Beilke, who continues to make good decisions under center," Zimmerman said. "Finally, our defense is playing great. We are excited for the postseason."

No. 8 Phoenix Christian: Led by its seniors and coaching staff, they stayed on course despite facing adversity. The Cougars feel Cassidy Kovach is the best interior lineman in the conference. The defense is led by its linebacker core of Israel Torres, Daniel Pacheco and AJ Hernandez. And watch out for the "little spark plug," safety Dean Driscoll. U.S. Marine commit Gio Young is healthy, and that's bad news for defenses.

No. 11 St. Johns: First-year coach Jake Udall and his boys did a great job of building on the proud tradition of the program and establishing a new culture. Helping guide the team along the way were the senior leaders. "They've bought into what we're trying to accomplish and have helped set the tone for the younger players." Despite graduating key talent from last year's state runner-up team, the transition has been seamless thanks also to an influx of talent and new coach. "One of the most rewarding things has been watching our players develop and embrace their roles," Udall said. "We've had guys step up in big moments on both sides of the ball."

No. 13 Pima: Injuries, a 1-4 start and a front-loaded schedule didn't derail the Roughriders, who clinched their 14th postseason appearance in the past 15 years. It helps to have QB Joe Palmer healthy. "It seems the whole team has rallied around his leadership and the leadership of others," coach Josh Wilkins said. Palmer wasn't the only player nursing injuries. "We really had the injury bug hit us hard this year, but each week we've been able to step up to the challenge," Wilkins said.

A new coach and younger team didn't keep St. Johns, 2025's runner-up, from making another trip to the playoffs. (Mark Jones photo/MaxPreps)

Cards are available to joint owners of minor accounts based on creditworthiness. Subject to membership, eligibility, conditions & age limits. Federally insured by NCUA.

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
